

Eugene City Guard.

SATURDAY, NOVEMBER 14, 1891

The American tin plate factories will go out of business, now that the state elections are over.

Ninth street along the business part has a coat of mud that cannot be excelled. A strong wind would raise waves on it.

Secretary Proctor has been appointed U. S. Senator from Vermont to succeed Edmunds resigned.

The government rain-makers should come to Oregon and study nature's ways. They would find it profitable in their business.

The Sunday Mercury has been indicted by the United States grand jury for sending obscene literature through the mails. They have been a long time finding it out.

If some good friend of Ireland had a good shillalah, and would break the heads of some of the leaders of both the Irish fighting factions, he would be doing that country the greatest possible service just now.

The farmers' alliance promises to be a great factor in Clackamas county politics next spring. Sub-alliances are being organized all over the county with good membership. A straight out alliance ticket will be nominated.

The business streets should be cleaned when the mud cools down. We believe property owners near by would take the refuse for filling low lots, paying a considerable proportion of the expense. In any event the mud should be carted off.

A very small proportion only of the Lane county wheat crop has left the hands of the growers. The present advanced price will result in large sales, and the result will be the present stringent money markets will be relieved. Good judges estimate that less than 10 per cent. of the crop in Lane county has been disposed of.

The Oregon Democracy could not follow a better plan next year than to nominate a candidate for United States senator to fill the vacancy that will ensue at the expiration of Senator Dolph's term. We believe that with a nomination of that kind Sylvester Penney would carry the legislature. His popularity with the people is unquestioned, and they would remember his unswerving integrity and true devotion to their interests.

Eugene seldom has been afflicted with sloppier streets than at present. Much of this cannot be helped but something should be done when the proper time comes to remove the mud from business streets. Eighth street from the Lane County bank to Forrest's blacksmith shop is an eyesore and a nuisance. It is in almost the center of the business part of Eugene yet has a worse appearance than country roads. After a few days of dry weather it could be easily scraped together and carted off. We have no desire to again advert to the mud coating on Willamette street but when it was cleaned recently the nuisance was but partially abated. When the mud becomes of proper consistency a few men with hoes could scrape it to the gutters in a very short time then it could be carted off and the street would be clean.

Eugene should pay more attention to cleaning her streets. Heretofore it seems to have been the practice after a street was improved to allow it to rest peacefully and quietly until a general overhauling was again required. Cities have found that street cleaning is no less important and necessary than street building. Our excellent summer streets are the praise and admiration of visitors, while in winter they encourage profanity. A small amount of work when the mud is at a proper consistency would relieve many unsightly places. It would then be several years before the operation would have to be repeated.

HECETA HEAD.

Bids for the erection of a lighthouse, with the necessary houses, outbuildings, cisterns, etc., at Heceta Head, were opened at the office of Major Handbury, United States engineer, Tuesday. Eleven bids were submitted, there being separate proposals for the tower, the separate and the iron work. The highest bid for the dwelling-house, cisterns, etc., was $58,000, and the lowest bid, $13,500, was by Burke & O'Connor, of Portland. Bids for the tower ranged from $15,500 up to $31,000. For the iron work the bid of the Willamette iron works was $5000, and that of a Detroit firm, $4830. None of the work has yet been awarded, but of course if lowest bidders furnish satisfactory bonds the contract will be given to them. In this case, owing to the great expense of getting material to the work, it is hardly possible that the dwellings, etc., can be erected for the amount of the lowest bid. Heceta Head is between Capes Arago and Perpetua, about 12 miles above the mouth of the Siuslaw, and when this light is completed the coast in that vicinity will be well lighted.

SAVING PURCHASED—Horace Cline, recently of Coburg, left for Florence Thursday morning. We understand that he has purchased the Glendale sawmill and will put it in repair and run it to its full capacity. Mr. Cline is an old sawmill man, and we warrant will make the Glendale mill hum.

The Florence stage, drawn by six horses, and with nine passengers, did not reach Eugene until 9 o'clock last Wed. evening. Bad roads the cause.

A COMPARISON.

From the report made for this month in 1890 we make the following gratifying comparisons, showing the increase in the schools: No. pupils belonging at close of month 1890, 683; 1891, 715. Increase, 32. No. cases of tardiness 1890, 124; 1891, 59. Decrease, 65. No. of pupils neither absent nor tardy 1890, 339; 1891, 382. Increase, 43. Average daily attendance 1890, 649; 1891, 666. ### Pleasant Hill Items.

November 9th, 1891. A protracted meeting is being held here by Rev. Skaggs. Mr. William West has built a very neat porch to his new residence. Mr. Ardy Titus has returned from Portland, much improved in health. Mr. Geo. Reed and family, for two years residents of this place, have gone to live at Paisley, Lake county. The front of the Pioneer store, and Will Bristow's house are being painted, which adds much to their appearance. We observe that two of the fair sex of this place have been making a purchase of town lots at Florence. Very sensible. Since our last batch of items were sent, two social parties have been given, one at Mr. A. Dick's, and one at Mr. John West's. The Misses Dickson returned to their home in Eastern Oregon on Monday, and were accompanied as far as Salem, by Mr. Will West and Mr. Walter Renwick. A man from Junction, named Chris Sears, was run over by his team and quite seriously hurt a few days ago. He was not acquainted with the roads, and it being dark, the wagon was driven over some very bad road and he was thrown out, some of the wheels passing over his body. We are assured by one who knows, that their is gross carelessness with some persons who handles the mails that comes to this office. Almost every day, letters or packages that belong elsewhere, are sent here. No mention would be made of this but it is of common occurrence. A large package of Weekly Examiners usually reach here on Saturday, but they arrived here today. Our friends at Creswell are informed that their bundle of the same paper was returned from this office on Saturday, having arrived in the morning's mail. If the mail agents on the S. P. R. R., are not qualified for their duties, they should be removed and their places filled by others. O. K.

THANKSGIVING PROCLAMATION.

Governor Penney Gets Tired Waiting for the President and Appoints the Day. The following Thanksgiving proclamation was issued from his office in the capitol yesterday by Governor Penney: Inasmuch as gratitude for favors received should find due expression, I do hereby appoint Thursday, the 26th day of November, as a day of public thanksgiving to Almighty God, to be observed by the whole people of Oregon in the usual, appropriate manner in return for the blessings of peace and plenty which have been bestowed upon them during the past year. Done at the capitol, November 9, 1891. Attest: SYLVESTER PENNEY, Governor. Geo. W. McBRIDE, Secretary of State.

Iowa Election Returns.

DES MOINES, Ia., Nov. 11.—The state registrar has complete returns tonight from all the counties in the state. The total vote for governor was 420,214, the largest ever cast in the state. The whole Democratic ticket is elected. Boies plurality for governor is 7816. This is the highest on the ticket, except Day, for railroad commissioner whose plurality is 10,373.

THURSDAY, NOV. 12.

A marriage license was issued Wednesday to Charles Wiltse and May Stoops. Clean the leaves off of the walk in front of your property. A ferryman could make good wages at some of the street crossings in Eugene. The quarterly teachers' examination is taking place today at the Court House. There are about fifteen applicants.

The sheriff is busy sending out statements of the amount of tax due from each taxpayer. The county court has ordered the tax collected, even at the end of a levy. The city of Portland has bought the Madison street bridge for $142,000. Last night at midnight the toll collectors were withdrawn and the bridge made free.

That was something of a joke in the DAILY GUARD Wednesday about the drowning man, Julius Sidel, being pulled out of the McKenzie by the hair of the head. Mr. Sidel's head is almost devoid of hair as an orange. Hon. B. C. Van Houten of Spokane Falls, Wash., arrived in Eugene on this afternoon's train to spend a few days visiting relatives and friends.

J. M. Garrison, the Forest Grove poultry dealer, has arranged to have 200 prairie chickens turned loose in this valley. He believes they will do well here. Some scrub threw mud on one of the windows of Starr & Griffin's store last evening. If detected he should be given a good sentence in the city jail, on bread and water.

Rev. Sunderland, of Seattle, will preach in the Baptist church next Sunday at 11 a. m. and 7 p. m. All are cordially invited. A full attendance of the members of the church is desired to consider the matter of calling a pastor.
