Mrs. Ada Melcott, of Grand Rapids, Mich., took her 17-year old son to a dime museum where one of the attractions is William Tell. Saturday afternoon she playfully put a potato on her head, remarking to the boy that he could not shoot it off. The boy found a revolver, and aiming it, pulled the trigger. The revolver was not empty. The bullet lodged in the woman's neck and she will die.

The Dalles Mountaineer, Nov. 16: The rape bond, Lawson, was brought before Judge Bradshaw this morning, and was sentenced to twenty years imprisonment in the penitentiary. As the defendant pleaded guilty, and no evidence was adduced of the crime, the judge called upon the physician who was called on Mrs. Poorman and the old lady herself, and from this testimony he came to the conclusion that the full extent of the punishment in the statute was sufficiently lenient.

The Statesman says that a newsboy who has been running on this division of the Southern Pacific for some time took advantage of a drunken man the other night at the train was coming from Portland and sold him books, etc., to the extent of $22. The best sale of the newspaper made was a basket of fruit at an enormous price. Hardly had the fruit been paid for before the boy is said to have stolen the fruit. Several passengers observed the act and when the train stopped here they reported the agent to the headquarters at Portland and the company promptly ordered him off their line.

No! said for Mayor. EDITOR TALK:—The time has come when Astoria wishes her young men to the front. All revolutions are led by young men.

Seattle pushed her ahead and they brought her out of the kinks against all the opposition of a powerful transcontinental railroad with hundreds of millions of dollars of real estate in Tacoma. I nominate for mayor on the Citizens' ticket, George Noland, a young man of 33 in the prime of manhood—an ornament to our community and a foe to bootlers.

PROGRESS. We find the above in the Astoria Daily Talk. Mr. Noland is a graduate of the State University, and was born and reared in Lane county. He is honest, capable and fearless and will always be found on the right side of every question. He is a ruster, too, and that is just the kind of man Astoria should encourage.

Savin, of the Merchant's Protective Union, against the Comstock Lumbering and Manufacturing Company, for claims assigned, amounting to $2,512.

MAS MISSING.

It is feared that M. D. Baldwin Has Committed Suicide.

Daily Guard, Nov. 18. About five o'clock this morning M. D. Baldwin, who lives in Cheshier's addition, and is janitor of the Geary public school, was missed and it is feared that he has committed suicide.

Sidney Horn saw him at that hour walking towards the school house, and his wife awoke and missed him a short time thereafter. He had been suffering for several days with pain in his head and last night he was delirious most of the time, and had taken several heavy doses of quinine. He had been despondent for a week or more. Search parties were sent out and his hat was found about the middle of the Eugene wagon bridge, and the dirt around the hole near where the hat was found, seemed to have been brushed away. Therefore it is supposed that he jumped into the river. Grappling iron have been secured and men were dragging the river at the hour of going to press. He was a member of the G. A. R. Post of this city.

His wife said above we believe that he left his watch and money in his vest.

No Tidings. Daily Guard, Nov. 18. Up to the hour of going to press no tidings has been received of the missing man, M. D. Baldwin. The G. A. R. post of this city have had men all day dragging the river, and will continue at least the remainder of today. They are confident that the body is in the river somewhere below the bridge. The beams of sawlogs precludes a very thorough search.

Arrested. Daily Guard, Nov. 16. Deputy U. S. Marshal P. B. Sinnott, of Portland, yesterday arrested Wilton White on the Wild Cat, about thirty miles west of here, on a warrant charging him with cutting timber on government land. He was brought here and incarcerated in the county jail.

It appears that White and his father and two brothers some time since stripped the cedar timber from an entire section of government land in Cheshier precinct, and made the same up into shingles. The timber taken is valued at $584.

It was given a hearing before U. S. Commissioner J. J. Walton this afternoon at one o'clock, and was held in the sum of $250 to appear before the U. S. grand jury at Portland. Not being able to give the bonds, he will be taken to Portland tomorrow morning and held in jail until the meeting of the grand jury next March.

The penalty is either imprisonment for one year, or a fine of $1000, or both. The father and brothers have left that section, thereby escaping arrest at this time.

HER RESIDENCE.—The Oregonian gives Eugene credit for the girl who married the negro recently at Astoria. Eugene girls are not built that way.

The girl in question hails from Corvallis. Please correct Mr. Oregonian.—Eugene GUARD, Nov. 17. What do you know about a girl's build? Evidently nothing, at least you are not well enough posted to tell a girl's residence by scanning her symmetrical anatomy. The girl in question never saw Corvallis.—Times. Let the truth be told, the girl went from Albany.

She resided here a year or two. Her father is a well known citizen. Corvallis Young is a good looking girl, who should have made a good woman and a credit to a community; but, alas, bad influences took her downward.—Albany Democrat.

A FATAL HEMORRHAGE.—Tuesday's Roseburg Herald: Mr. G. W. Corvallis, living a few miles below Oakland was buried with Masonic honors this morning. Mr. Corvallis' death resulted from an internal hemorrhage from which he died to death. Last Friday he was engaged in slaughtering hogs and lifted one of the heaviest of the carcasses, and turning to a bystander said, "That was a pretty heavy lift." A few minutes afterwards he called from an adjacent shed for help, and those present going in answer to his call found him bleeding profusely from mouth and nose. Medical aid was summoned but it was found impossible to stop the flow of blood and he died yesterday morning.

SEVERE DEATH.—The Southern Pacific railroad company should offer a reward for the arrest of some miscreant who lives in the vicinity of Fairmount and endangers the persons of passengers and employs by throwing blocks and stones through the caboose windows of freight trains. The freight going north Wednesday evening last three windows smashed and the south bound on going. The railroad employs say that it has been a frequent occurrence lately. A lot of flying glass is no pleasant to passengers.

SCENIC DEATH.—An immigrant lady, whose name we could not learn, died suddenly at Fairmount Wednesday evening at 6 o'clock. The family had arrived last Monday, from Iowa, and are quite poor. The remains were buried in the Jenkins' cemetery this afternoon at 1 o'clock.

TRAILER'S EXAMINATION.—There were fifteen trailers applied for certificates in the examination held last week. All passed with credit. Seven received first-grade certificates; five, second grade and three, third grade.

REVISED.—Harry Harris and family left for California last night. He left himself a bill behind unpaid, proving himself to be a first class bilk. W. F. Reid had the sheriff stop him at the depot, and managed to collect an antiquated butcher bill.

LABORER KILLED.—Eugene Fishes, 35 years old, living in Nutt valley, shot and killed a large gray eagle measuring seven feet, one inch from tip to tip, last Thursday. This is the first eagle seen in that part of the county.
