FRIDAY, NOV. 20.

T. M. Hamilton has bought another lot in Fairmount.
The new Junction bank will be opened December 1st.
Geo. M. Miller has taken his Florence property off the market.
Two car loads of fruit trees arrived here on last night's freight train.
Robt. Griffin of Cottage Grove has been commissioned a notary public.
Baker City, the boom town of Eastern Oregon is $112,000 in debt.
F. W. Chausse, editor of the Cottage Grove Leader, has purchased a lot in Fairmount.
W. B. Blachley, of Colfax, Wash., is visiting relatives here, having arrived last night.
We hear of a marriage that will take place about the holidays between two of Eugene's prominent young people.
A couple of ox teams passing along Willamette street today reminded one of old times when they were common.
An axle of the Springfield butcher wagon broke off in front of the Court House this morning. No other damage.
S. T. Jefferys has resigned his position as deputy prosecuting attorney for Benton county and W. E. Bates has been appointed to fill the vacancy.
A drunken man fell from his horse yesterday afternoon while passing Fairmount, and was considerably bruised. For a time it was supposed he was killed.
The Morgan family, who have been holding meetings at the Court House during the week, folded their tents and departed for other fields where collections are better.
Base ball admirers in Portland are raising a purse of $10,000 to back the Portland team, winners of the Pacific Northwest League pennant, against the winners of the California League pennant, which will be San Jose.
Fairhaven Herald: Portland can no longer boast of being chief wheat port on the Pacific Ocean. Already this season wheat shipments from the Sound have exceeded those from Portland by upwards of a quarter of a million bushels. Heavy tonnage charges and the risks attending navigation over the Columbia river and along the adjacent coast are rapidly driving ocean commerce away to the broad straits of Fuca and the matchless harbors of Puget Sound.
At the Chemawa Indian training school, just north of Salem, the roster of students contains the names of a larger number than during any previous time since the establishment of the school. The latest arrivals are from Bandon and Portford, and there are now 240 students attending the school.
At the same time last year the attendance was but 125. The total enrollment last year reached 250. The new buildings are completed and ready for occupancy.
Last Friday a young man in the employ of Joseph Sutton, near Milton, named John Chamberlain, met with an accident which resulted in a badly fractured limb.
He was on his way to Milton with a load of hay, when, coming down the hill into Cedar hollow, the horse became unmanageable, and in his effort to stop them from running away, they were turned from the road and the wagon upset. Mr. Chamberlain being thrown to the ground in such a manner that he sustained a fracture of the left leg below the knee.
The largest sale of railroad timber land on the coast this year has just been concluded by the Southern Pacific Company. The land in question is situated on what is known as Jenny creek, a stream flowing into the Klamath river, just above the California state line. Pardee, Cook & Co., one of the largest lumber firms of Michigan, are the purchasers, and they paid $90,000 for it. In addition to this purchase the Michigan company has timber land interspersed in sections between the tracts just acquired from the railroad company. The object of Pardee, Cook & Co., is to run their logs down Jenny creek into the Klamath river and on to Klamath crossing.

Four years ago a widow named Mary E.
Dye, with one son fifteen years old, settled on the south fork of the Nookachuck, and a twig had never been cut by a white man within five miles of her ranch. Her household goods were brought to her from Nooksack Crossing in an Indian canoe. She got a shanty up and went to work. For six months she saw only one woman, and that was a squaw. She has now several acres cleared, a garden which is the pride of South Fork, fruit trees started, and this year with only her son to help her has made 157 rods of good wagon road, chopping down trees, hauling them away and grubbing. She wields the axe in a very certain and reliable way. She has cows, pigs, chickens, and her dinners are celebrated all along the river.

COMPANY ORGANIZED.—The Crouch Manufacturing Co., effected a permanent organization Saturday, by the election of the following officers: J. F.
Crouch, president; W. L. Houston, vice president; A. C. Woodcock, secretary; C. P. Houston, treasurer and assistant secretary. The company will commence at once manufacturing and introducing their dynamo.

TRIAL SET.—The U. S. Court at Portland has set Monday, December 7th, for the trial of Mrs. Emma Spaulding, who was recently indicted by the U. S. grand jury for sending obscene letters through the mails. She has entered a plea of not guilty.

REWARD PAID.—The reward offered by the Tacoma Bank for the information leading to the apprehension of Albertson, the bank robber, was Nov. 20th awarded and paid to Sheriff J. E. Noland. Mr. Noland thereupon divided the money with Deputy W. W. Cochran. The bank officers very warmly in their praise of the part taken in the capture of the robbers by the Sheriff's office of Lane county.

NOZ SERIOUSLY HURT.—Dr. McKenney reformed from the McKenzie Nov. 26th.
He did not reach his destination, as he met a messenger, who informed him that the boy, Bluebaker, was not seriously hurt, and therefore a surgeon was not needed, and so Dr. McKenney returned. It appears that the ball followed the skin up the side and did not enter the cavity.

MARRIED.—In Lane county, Oregon, Nov. 22, 1891, by Judge G. W. Kinsey, J.
M. Howard and Emma Thurman.

RECORDED.—The Eugene Daily Guard has been recently purchased by him in Portland, bounded by Fourth, Sixth, Seventh, D, and C, which cost $65,000.
The new building will be the largest church on the Pacific coast. According to present plans, it will be 100x200 feet long and fifty feet wide, with an archepiscopal tower in the rear.

DISCHARGED.—The trial of Elza Pickard, on the charge of driving over the Springfield bridge faster than a walk was concluded Thursday morning.
Justice Henderson ordered the defendant discharged, as the evidence showed the young man was not guilty of the charge.

CONVICTED.—The Eugene band gave a concert on the streets Thursday at 8 o'clock.
Considering the hour, a large number of people were present. The boys are improving fast, and should have the encouragement of the citizens of Eugene.

PARKED.—The Salem Statesman says Charles Jarm, of Lane county, sentenced in the penitentiary has been commuted. He was sentenced for two years for the crime of horses, and had served seventeen months.

ARRESTED.—Deputy Sheriff Croser
arrested John Vineyard, the Lyrix Hollow terror, at Creswell, Nov. 25th.
He surrendered as peaceably as a lamb.

MARRIED.—In Lane county, Oregon,
Nov. 22, 1891, by Rev. G. M. Demmitt, G. S.
Harper and Anna Sprague.

SATURDAY, NOV. 21.

A marriage license was issued to J. M.
Howard and Emma Thurman today.
Auctioneer Kinsey sold a bull, taken up by the city, this afternoon at auction.
Rev. N. B. Alley has resigned the pastorate of the Christian church.
The people of Salem pay 38 1/2 mill tax, which includes their city, county and state taxes.
A plain drunk was fined $5 and costs yesterday. He liquidated and was discharged. Upon investigation, he was found to be a member of the W. H. H. Grant has so far met with rather indifferent success soliciting for the World's fair fund. The amounts are all small.
Peter Boney, is improving his residence property on the corner of 15th and Willamette streets.
W. W. Cardwell, a graduate of the State University, has located at Medford for the practice of his profession, the law.
Roseburg Review: W. H. H. Grant has so far met with rather indifferent success soliciting for the World's fair fund. The
amounts are all small.
An additional attachment was served Thursday on the Comstock Lumbering Company, at the suit of the Willamette Iron Company for $572.34.
Chief Engineer Pogue, of the S. P. R. R., was here the first of the week in a special car, taking an inventory of the company's buildings, side-tracks, etc.
We were shown a map of Florence this morning drawn by Mr. L. P. Bronse. It is made on a scale of 200 feet to the inch and is indeed a fine piece of workmanship.
It would be hard to beat.
Deputy Sheriff McGehee, on a warrant from the U. S. Marshal, left this morning for Wild Cat to arrest Walter White, for cutting timber on government land.
He is a brother of Wilson White, who is in the county jail.
The banks of Umatilla county have a million dollars on deposit, while the county this year produced $250 for every man, woman and child within her borders. This is a good record of which any county might be proud.

Friday's Oregonian: The Rev. I. D.
Driver, who was the pastor of the Centenary M. E. church, was in the city yesterday.
He was on his way to Seattle where he has accepted a position of lecturer. Mr. Driver had just returned from New Mexico, where he delivered a successful lecture course.
Roseburg Plaindealer: Eugene's steam laundry is doing a thriving business at home and is reaching out for trade, even into Roseburg. Wm. Dyer, of the Palace barber shop, is agent for this city, and will see that all orders receive prompt and careful attention.
The annual statement of the Baker City auditor shows that the city ran in debt $7000 during the past year. It has a bond-warranted indebtedness of $50,000 and unpaid warrants outstanding with $4300 on hand. The Democrat commenting on the condition of affairs says: It will be readily seen that the city is fast following to the footsteps of the county in the reckless accumulation of indebtedness and the condition continues the whole commonwealth will be swamped into everlasting perdition so deep that the devil himself will never be able to extricate it.

Here is something for the Eugene boys who are never satisfied unless they have a cigarette in their mouth, to think about: A medical publication has made an analysis of the cigarette. The tobacco was found to be strongly impregnated with opium, while the wrapper, which was warranted to be the most ordinary quality of paper whitened with zinc oxide, contained 100 grains of blinded opium in sufficient quantities to create in the smoker a habit of using opium without his being aware of it, his craving for which can only be satisfied by an incessant consumption of cigarettes.

How it was done.—A gentleman who recently visited Stanford's stables in California gives a description of some interesting facts in reference to the wonderful hand of horses on the Stanford ranch. There are about 1,000 animals of all ages, 200 of which are in constant training one man having charge of only three horses. The departments range from a kindergarten upwards. The secret of the recent wonderful performance of the Stanford horses, particularly Sunol, Arion and Palo Alto, is said to be because of a system started years ago by Mr. Stanford of breeding trotting stock with the best running stock, and working day to trotters. The result has been beyond the most sanguine expectation of the great millionaires.—Albany Democrat.

DEHORNING.—Galney Matthews informs us that he dehorned 67 head of cattle Nov. 20th, without any casualty,
which are in constant training one man
departments range from a kindergarten upwards. The secret of the recent wonderful
performance of the Stanford horses, particu-
by Mr. Stanford of breeding trotting stock
day to trotters. The result has been be-
great millionaires.—Albany Democrat.

A BIG CATHEDRAL.—Archbishop Gross is laying plans for building a cathedral on the property recently purchased by him in Portland, bounded by Fourth, Sixth,
Seventh, D, and C, which cost $65,000.
The new building will be the largest church
on the Pacific coast. According to pres-
fifty feet wide, with an archepiscopal tower
in the rear.

BEST PRINTED DAILY.—The Junction
Times says: The Eugene DAILY GUARD is the best printed daily that reaches this office, Portland dailies not excepted. Still there are a dozen or more business houses in Eugene that have no place in its columns.
Fortunately the rubber stamp merchants are dying quite rapidly.

CORVALLIS RECORD.—The Times
claims the following building record for that city the past year: $50,000 wagon and carriage factory, $30,000 hotel, $20, 000 college dormitory, $10,000 city hall, $10,000 foundry and farm implement factory, besides 15 or 20 residences estimated to cost $25,000. Total, $135,000.

ANNUAL STATEMENT.—The officers of the McKenzie, S. S. & D. Wagon Road Co. have filed their annual statement of receipts and disbursements for the year with the County Clerk. The receipts amount to $1,090; disbursements, $77.75; estimated to keep the road in condition for travel from now to April next, $500.

DISCHARGED.—The trial of Elza
Pickard, on the charge of driving over
the Springfield bridge faster than a walk
was concluded Thursday morning.
Justice Henderson ordered the defend-
charge.

cert on the streets Thursday at 8 o'clock.

proving fast, and should have the encouragement of the citizens of Eugene.

the penitentiary has been commuted. He
horses, and had served seventeen months.

arrested John Vineyard, the Lyrix
Hollow terror, at Creswell, Nov. 25th.
He surrendered as peaceably as a lamb.

MARRIED.—In Lane county, Oregon,
Nov. 22, 1891, by Rev. G. M. Demmitt, G. S.
Harper and Anna Sprague.

A BIGAMIST.

Samuel J. Sills, a Eugene Carpenter, Has Two Wives—He Splits.
Daily Guard, Nov. 21.
Much to the surprise of a number of Eugene people a complaint was received here Wednesday from Minneapolis, Minn., to be served upon one, Samuel J. Sills, who has resided here for the past three years, his first wife having instituted divorce proceedings against him. The complaint charges wilful desertion for the period of three years. Sills has a young wife here, whom he married at the age of fifteen years, about three years since in the state of Washington. Since his arrival here he has principally subsisted from the means of his aged mother-in-law, who has been fortunate in receiving a large pension from the government on account of wounds received by her dead husband, and she has worked hard at menial labor to provide for the support of Sills. L. A. Dunn, assistant city attorney of Minneapolis, writing here, says: "The plaintiff in this case (Sills' first wife) is quite poor. We are getting her divorce principally through charity, as she is a very worthy lady, indeed."
After the papers were served on him by an officer Sills skipped the country, telling his folks that he intended going East and "hiring" it up with his first wife. If he ever returns here he will be arrested and justly punished for his villainy.

ACCIDENTALLY SHOT.
Young Bluebaker, Who Lives on the McKenzie River is the Unfortunate.
Daily Guard, Nov. 20.
Lane county nearly weekly furnishes a case of accidental shooting. The last case happened up the McKenzie across the river from the Thompson place yesterday afternoon at 4 o'clock. The victim was a boy named Bluebaker, aged 11 years, who was found in the road badly shot, by the Messrs.
Thompson. Upon investigation, it was found that the ball, from a 22-caliber Winchester, had entered the right side and ranged upwards. He was carried to his home at B. F. Finn's residence. The shooting was accidentally, inflicted by himself. It was impossible to learn further particulars from the messenger who came for a doctor.
Dr. McKenney left for the scene of the shooting this morning to wait upon the boy.

New Sectional Map of Oregon.
The Oregonian at great expense has prepared a sectional map of Oregon, and offers it as a premium for subscriptions to the Weekly Oregonian. The map is corrected up to date, is 10x50 inches in size; scale, six miles to the inch. It is neatly finished and on rollers, ready to hang up on the wall. This is the finest map of Oregon ever issued, and should be in every household in the state. Anyone sending $3.00 will receive the Weekly Oregonian for fifteen months (if the subscription is received prior to January 1, 1892), and one of these maps as a premium. The price of the map without the paper is $2.00. Address Oregonian Publishing Co., Portland, Oregon.

How it was done.—A gentleman who
recently visited Stanford's stables in California gives a description of some interest-
are about 1,000 animals of all ages, 200 of which are in constant training one man
departments range from a kindergarten upwards. The secret of the recent wonderful
performance of the Stanford horses, particu-
by Mr. Stanford of breeding trotting stock
day to trotters. The result has been be-
great millionaires.—Albany Democrat.

cattle Nov. 20th, without any casualty,
which are in constant training one man
departments range from a kindergarten upwards. The secret of the recent wonderful
performance of the Stanford horses, particu-
by Mr. Stanford of breeding trotting stock
day to trotters. The result has been be-
great millionaires.—Albany Democrat.

laying plans for building a cathedral on the property recently purchased by him in Portland, bounded by Fourth, Sixth,
Seventh, D, and C, which cost $65,000.
The new building will be the largest church
on the Pacific coast. According to pres-
fifty feet wide, with an archepiscopal tower
in the rear.

or more business houses in Eugene
that have no place in its columns.
Fortunately the rubber stamp merchants are dying quite rapidly.

claims the following building record
for that city the past year: $50,000 wagon
and carriage factory, $30,000 hotel, $20, 000 college dormitory, $10,000 city hall, $10,000 foundry and farm implement
factory, besides 15 or 20 residences estimated to cost $25,000. Total, $135,000.

McKenzie, S. S. & D. Wagon Road Co.
have filed their annual statement of re-
to $1,090; disbursements, $77.75; estimated to keep the road in condition
for travel from now to April next, $500.

DISCHARGED.—The trial of Elza
Pickard, on the charge of driving over
the Springfield bridge faster than a walk
was concluded Thursday morning.
Justice Henderson ordered the defend-
charge.

cert on the streets Thursday at 8 o'clock.
Considering the hour, a large number of
proving fast, and should have the encouragement of the citizens of Eugene.

the penitentiary has been commuted. He
horses, and had served seventeen months.

Hollow terror, at Creswell, Nov. 25th.
He surrendered as peaceably as a lamb.

MARRIED.—In Lane county, Oregon,
Nov. 22, 1891, by Rev. G. M. Demmitt, G. S.
Harper and Anna Sprague.

Cottage Grove News.

The Leader, Nov. 21.
Editor E. P. Thorp, of Drain, paid his respects to the Grove Saturday.
Mr. D. P. Burton moved his family to Drain Wednesday. He intends learning telegraphy this winter.
Miss Hattie Thompson returned home Monday from her seven weeks visit with friends at Henly, California.
There has been a change made in the section divisions at this place. Welch's division now runs from Creswell to H.
C. Veatch's place below town, and Bowen's runs from Veatch's to the divide. The change was made by J.
H. Waite the first of the week.

There will be a public discussion at the Coast Fork grange hall on Saturday, Nov. 28. The subject is the sub-treasury bill, which is now being agitated by the farmers' alliance. A large attendance is expected and desired, as this is a subject that is creating quite a sensation at present in political matters.
The new church edifice of the Christian church here is nearing completion, and will be dedicated Sunday, December 6th. Elder David Wetzel, pastor of the First Christian church of Portland, also one of the editors of the Harbinger, will preach the dedicatory sermon. A fine Eucharist chapel organ has arrived, the ladies have purchased the carpet and lamps, and they expect having a grand time at their dedication, and cordially invite everybody to attend.

Who May Practice?
Salem Journal.
The supreme court of Oregon has rendered a decision of great importance to physicians—that of Wm. A. Bar-more against the state board of medical examiners.
THE CASE.
Dr. Barmore had been refused a certificate by the board upon showing that he was a graduate of the medical department of the university of Ohio and had a diploma from a legally chartered medical school in good standing, and was refused upon the ground that the Oregon state board had adopted a rule which defined "medical institution in good standing," as used in the act, to mean "only those institutions which required three regular courses or sessions of three months each, extending over a period of three years time," and that the school of plaintiff, when he graduated, did not have such a three years' course.
If Dr. Barmore had applied before the board adopted this rule he could have been admitted to practice in Oregon.
Dr. Barmore asked a mandamus to compel the state board to issue a certificate and won his case in the circuit court. This is now reversed by the supreme court and the state board of examiners reinstated.

He Wasn't a Boy.
The Spokane Spokesman is responsible for the following: Senator Squire played a scurvy trick on Senator John B. Allen one time. They were traveling from Washington. It was night and the train stopped at a station in Missouri, where a large, heavy woman entered the sleeper looking for a berth.
Squire poked his head out between the curtains and seeing the ponderous lady said:
"Madame, the berths are all taken, but if you wish you can occupy the one just under where my little boy is sleeping." This was satisfactory to the Missouri Amazon, who removed her shoes and then swung round into the bunk. Just about this time, the disturbed occupant attempted to see what the intrusion meant.
"With an all swoop of her palm she clapped it firmly over the gentleman's mouth, saying: "There, little boy, don't speak. Your father said I could sleep here."
Again the "little boy" attempted to rise and this time he managed to say:
"Madame, I want to tell you that I'm no boy."
"Who are you, then?"
"Why, I'm
