THE CRY OF MILLIONS!
OH, MY BACK!
STOP IT NOW, SOON IT WILL BE TOO LATE.

I have been troubled many years with disease of the kidneys and have tried many different remedies and have sought aid from different physicians without relief. About the 15th of April I was suffering from a very violent attack that almost prostrated me in such a manner that I was unable to get up alone, or to get on my feet, when kind Providence sent Dr. H. H. Tupper's OREGON KIDNEY PILLS to my hotel. I immediately commenced using the pills. It had an almost miraculous effect, and to the astonishment of all the guests at the hotel, in a few days, I am happy to state, that I was a new man. I will recommend the pills to all afflicted as I have been.

FRIDAY, JAN. 1.

J. L. Workman has made important paleontological discoveries in the "bad lands" of Montana.

The banks have been closed all day. Several of the business houses closed for an hour or two at noon.

The Daily Herald of Albany and the Statesman and Journal of Salem issued creditable New Year editions.

The Eugene brass band gave an open air concert on the corner of 8th and Willamette streets this afternoon.

The Marine Cadets fired a salute last evening from the summit of Skinner's Butte, in honor of the advent of the new year.

John L. Sullivan is playing in the Park theatre at Portland, and the society people of that city are "going wild" over him.

Several scraps reported among some of the boys on the occasion of celebrating the advent of the new year last night.

S. J. Sills writes and denies the charge that he is living with his Minneapolis wife. He is now in Iowa visiting his father and mother.

Thos. Morgan, who held services in the Court House here a short time since is now in Ashland. He says the world will come to an end March 29, 1892.

SATURDAY, JAN. 4.

Day & Henderson have been sending out a neat calendar.

The Oregonian's New Year's edition will appear about January 10th.

W. W. Moore, foreman of the GUARD, will move from his place at Henderson station to Eugene.

The State Board of Equalization made an order raising all city property within the state 10 per cent.

Geo. N. Frazer went to Colburg this afternoon to install the officers of West Point lodge 1. O. O. F., of that place.

Miss Leon Louie, of Corvallis, who has been visiting at the residence of Dr. Sharples, returned to her home this morning.

The invitations for the Firemen's Reception, on January 8, 1892, are being sent out by the committee. It will be an elaborate affair.

Joe Klein's supposed photograph appeared in the holiday issue of the Albany Herald. It more resembled Gaitheus than it did the general Joseph.

A MUD BLOCKADE.

MISSISSIPPI VALLEY FARMERS AND MERCHANTS STAND TO LOSE $1,000,000 THEREBY.

BURLINGTON, Ia., Jan. 3.—It would take a round million to even up the losses in trade to the merchants, shippers and farmers in Iowa on account of the fearful mud blockade, which exists not only in Iowa, but all over the Mississippi valley. For two weeks country roads in Iowa, Missouri and Illinois have been hub-deep in mud, and the farming communities have been virtually padlocked on the farm. As a result, merchants depending on country trade have suffered immense financial loss, especially in holiday trade, while the farmers and shippers have lost by inability to market their products. This serious condition of things still continues, entailing a daily loss of fully $15,000 in Iowa. It is feared many failures among country merchants may result, and business generally will be seriously affected.

Picturesque Reformers.

Butte Miner: "How to kill the lottery," is discussed learnedly and exhaustively in the New York Press, but that bright journal shoots wide of its mark. The way to kill lotteries is to stop buying tickets. Editors who write labored editorials on how to kill the lottery, while at the same time they have a ticket for the drawing in one pocket, the left hind foot of a rabbit in another and a rusty horseshoe over the door, are brilliant and picturesque reformers.

Where Dullness is Profitable.

"How are things in your business?" "Well, I'm glad to report." "Glad to report?" "Yes, I'm a saw sharpener."

MONDAY, JAN. 4.

Tommy Abrams returned to Corvallis this morning.

Manny Lauer returned home from Portland this afternoon.

A marriage license was issued today by F. S. Sweet and C. L. Potter.

Wm. McClaren went to Mt. Angel this morning to resume his studies.

Mrs. Lena Conklin, a daughter of C. D. Combes, left for Portland this morning.

Students are now arriving on every train to resume their studies in the State University.

Mrs. Charles Fronk, of Medford, is in Eugene visiting friends and relatives.

W. P. Ball returned from Centralia, yesterday, enroute for his home at Florence.

C. B. Bellinger of Portland is in Eugene. He is one of the Water Company's counsel in the city injunction suit.

The dance given at Day's hall Saturday evening was well attended and proved an enjoyable affair.

J. R. Greenfield is dangerously ill with the typhoid pneumonia at his home in Portland. We hope that he will soon recover.

Mrs. Julius Goldsmith arrived here this morning from Medford. Julius will arrive in about two weeks, intending to remain permanently.

The oft-repeated question, "Do you love me?" in engagement, should be changed to "Can you support me?" and "Do you know how to cook?"

M. Svarverud, this morning, left on a business trip to Chicago, Ill., and Toledo, Ohio. He will be absent about three weeks. We wish him a pleasant trip.

W. C. Elliott's private boarding house, board by the day or week. Furnished or unfurnished rooms to let. Ninth street one and one-half blocks west of postoffice.

Independence West Side: The district institute, held at Eugene this week, was a splendid success. The people of Eugene are fully abreast of the times.

Julius Goldsmith has disposed of his business at Medford and is moving to Eugene, where he will take an interest with his father, A. Goldsmith. He is expected Thursday.

John O'Brien has been re-elected president of the Portland Typographical Union and W. F. Osburn, recording secretary. Both the gentlemen were formerly Lane county citizens.

The Cottage Grove Leader and Drain Echo have been consolidated and is now published at the first-mentioned place by E. L. Therp. The new publication shows signs of improvement. We wish Mr. Therp success financially and otherwise.

The National Corgage company has secured control of nearly the entire paper cordage manufacture in this country and are already beginning to raise the price of those articles.

A happy New Year.

Mrs. S. Branton of Walthersville is visiting with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. Shelley.

Mr. James Mitchell will return to his home at Walthersville, this week.

A social party at Mr. J. E. McKinnis's Christmas night.

Miss Ida Martin and brother and Miss Angie Mullin, of Cottage Grove visited W. P. Martin and wife last week.

Mrs. James Keeney and family, of Jasper, spent Christmas at her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Handsaker.

Mr. Beaver's turkey shooting was quite a success, several of the boys securing New Year turkeys.

Mr. M. A. Parks and four young children have gone to visit her daughter, Mrs. Frank Meloy of Bethel, Polk county.

Mrs. W. L. Bristow has been quite sick but from last accounts was much better.

The milk maid's convention was largely attended and enjoyed by all. The little folks programme was quite interesting, thanks to their teacher, Mrs. Hunt.

Misses Will West and Walt Renwick went hunting Christmas up near Pilot Rock. Wouldn't be surprised if Will don't keep his Christmas always, Eh! Will!

A social party of relatives held at J. H. West's Christmas was an enjoyable affair; 17 grown persons and 9 children, the eldest only 4 years of age. The parents mostly democrats. When our new generation of boys of P. H., gets to voting, we will see who is president.

ONCE AND A WHILE.

New York, rotten as she is, has yet among her vast population an element possessed of conscience and moral purpose which makes itself felt on occasion. Tweed died in jail, Jake Sharp was caged in a cell, and some of the aldermen whom he hoodled were sent to the penitentiary. Young Field embezzled enormous sums of money intrusted to him, and his family was able to exert sufficient influence to have him declared insane and be housed comfortably in an asylum. Yet in response to the demand of the healthy element that all thieves shall be equal before the law, this son of a multi-millionaire and nephew of a justice of the supreme court of the United States, has been indicted for his crimes, dragged out of his not dishonorable retreat, and will be tried like any other scoundrel. San Francisco takes off her hat to New York. We couldn't do such a thing here. The powers which rule us would not permit a gentleman of young Mr. Field's financial and social connections to come to harm, though he were to run amuck on the streets with a cutlass in each hand. Boodle is king in San Francisco.—S. F. Examiner.

The Journal is early in denouncing the Australian ballot law a failure and humbug. The new system has not yet been tried in Oregon and therefore we have no reason yet to complain. In other states where the same system of voting is in vogue it is pronounced excellent. Our sister state of Washington commends it highly. Of course it is an expense, but that amounts to nothing when a free and fair vote is obtained. In small precincts the law will probably not be productive of better results, but in towns of 1,000 inhabitants and over vote buying will be minimized. It is noticeable that no state that has adopted the system has repealed the law.

Jacksonville Times: Governor Penoyer is one of the few men who have posed in public life in America who have had the happy faculty of being able to wrest words of commendation from even his bitterest enemies on account of the sterling sense and originality of some of his suggestions. In the first place, the governor always has his eyes open to the good of the public, and in the next place he has no hesitancy in expressing himself when he has satisfied himself that he has reached a right conclusion. His timely, forcible suggestion to the effect that the general government should establish a tug service at the mouth of the great national waterway, the Columbia, in order to relieve the shipping of the Northwest from the exorbitant pilotage and towage fees now in force and collectible under the present existing laws, has been received with a shout of welcome by the entire commercial and industrial element of the state, and as he cannot but be seconded in his efforts to bring about such a service by our national representatives, there is reason to believe that he will be successful in this his latest scheme to advance the interests of his state and people.

THURSDAY DEC. 31.

Democratic Club.

A number of our Democratic citizens met in the Court House Saturday evening and organized a club to be known as the Samuel J. Tilden club.

Permanent officers were elected as follows: Gov. John Whiteaker, President; F. W. Osburn, Vice President; E. B. Skipworth, Secretary; Geo. W. Kinsey, Assistant Secretary.

The following delegates were elected to represent the club in the State League which meets next Thursday: John Whiteaker, J. D. Matlock, E. R. Skipworth and I. L. Campbell.

Short and enthusiastic addresses were made by Senator R. M. Veatch, Major L. D. Forrest, L. Blyden and Geo. W. Kinsey. On motion, the meeting adjourned until Tuesday evening, Jan. 12th.

QUARRELSOME FAMILY.—Saturday evening's Democrat: "Captain Matthew B. Van Alstine, one of Eugene's leading citizens, returned last night from Portland, and was met this morning by a warrant for his arrest. He was charged with threatening to kill his wife, Mrs. Morgan, and was asked to give bonds to keep the peace. The evidence generally showed that it was a pretty quarrelsome family and that matters were generally tropical around there, a fact verified by numerous items in the Eugene papers. Justice Humphrey listened with patience to the testimony, and ordered that the defendant be discharged."

Eugene will see the Democrat man for damages if he continues to libel the great captain. Be careful in the future, Nattings, if you do not want to get into trouble.

ARRESTED FOR LARCENY.—John D. Sellers was arrested at Cottage Grove this morning for the larceny of a watch and chain. He will be given an examination at that place this evening before Justice Medley. Deputy Prosecuting Attorney Potter went to that place on this afternoon's local train to prosecute, while L. Blyden went to defend.

FINGER MARKS.—Hugh Gray Jan. 1st got his right thumb and fore finger in the cogs of a feed chopper and badly mangled the same. Dr. Sharples was called and dressed the wounded members.

MALHEUR CITY HAS NO SALOON. It is in the center of an old mining district and was founded originally as a mining camp yet is inhabited by a people who do not indulge in intoxicants and therefore the existence of a saloon there is impracticable.

The House Committee.

It cannot be said that Speaker Crisp has favored the South in the matter of the most important committee.—Milwaukee Sentinel.

The house committees are so constituted as to emphasize the fact that Speaker Crisp believes in the policy of rewarding his friends and punishing his enemies.—St. Louis Globe-Democrat.

That he has carried out his contracts, even beyond the spirit and the letter, is the best that can be said of the speaker's manner of executing the job assigned him.—Louisville Times.

The State Board of Equalization has decided to increase the assessment of wagon-road land 100 per cent, and swamp land 250 per cent. Farm implements, furniture, etc., will go as assessed, and money, notes, accounts and shares of stock at their face. The board decided to equalize the assessment of telegraph lines, by raising the assessment of main lines in Eastern Oregon and the valley to $200 per mile. A tabular statement of the board's action goes to the secretary of state, and thence to the state board, by which the tax levy for state purposes will be made. In its action the board has raised the total taxable property of Oregon between $30,000,000 and $40,000,000. Taxes next year will be collected on valuation of about $160,000,000. Trunk line railways are valued at $5,000 per mile. Railroad land in Klamath county was reduced to $2 per acre. The Oregon & California and Oregonian Railway Companies deny the jurisdiction of the board to alter the assessment of their lines or roadbeds. The Union Pacific wants its roadbeds valued at $4,000 per mile. Wagon road land grants were valued at about $2 per acre in the valley. A salary of $10 a day was allowed the clerk and secretary, and messenger $4. Members of the board will get $10 per day and mileage.

Dave Hill is seemingly the rising star of the democracy. Says the New York Tribune: "We are not pessimists, but we have heretofore taken occasion to say that David B. Hill is a dangerous man; a man to be watched. We repeat it. 'Crisp's victory is Cleveland's death-knell,' says Congressman Livingston of Georgia. 'Yes, Hill can certainly carry New York. He is by long odds the strongest man in the democratic party. He is backed by Tammany and Tammany controls the state.'"

The Dales Chronicle: The present agitation in favor of a better system of making and maintaining county roads ought to result in something more than mere talk. The insufficiency of our present methods is fully admitted. In point of fact we have no roads in Oregon—at least scarcely any. Most of them are mere trails, some of them "slides," scarcely any are worthy of the name of roads. Our methods of repairing could not be worse. Repairs are hardly ever made at the right time or in the right way.

The English syndicate that purchased the Union stock yards at Chicago, from the Big Three—Armour, Swift and Morris—find now that they have a simon-pure white elephant.

By the refusal of foreign countries to admit pork from the United States the American hog raiser has lost in the past ten years $260,000,000.

The mint will have ready for circulation the new half dollars and quarters next month. It is hoped they will not be so hard to get and keep as the old coinage.

A recent article in the North American Review having asserted that Hebrews were conspicuously absent from military service during the civil war, long lists have been made out proving the honorable service of this class of citizens in both armies.

Mexican insurgents are giving United States troops considerable trouble along the border. Let them play with the eagle but they must not pull his tail feathers too hard.

We have not heard of any Willamette valley farmer recently who claims it is not wet enough to plow.

One living example of what a woman can do is worth a hundred homilies on woman's work; for instance the daughter of Congressman Baker, of Kansas, does a man's work on a farm owned by herself. She plows and sows and attends to the various other duties of farm life. This does not in the least lower her womanhood or destroy her loveliness.
