COMPLIMENTARY. -- Mr. Bilyeu made a very elaborate argument Monday in de-fense of the state board of equalization before the board that will make the tax levy. The Salem Journal says: "We give space to a verbatim report of L. Bilyeu's legal argument before the board to make the annual state levy. It was a great speech and one of the most important and timely ever delivered in Oregon. There was great dan-ger that the state tax board would ignore the work of the state board of equalization. The result would have been to embroil our state government in litigation and take the matter bodily into the party politics of the state, neither object being desirable. Mr. Bilyeu's able argument gave the work of his a perfect legal status. It was delivered without notes but supported by an astonish-ing array of legal authorities, and upon conclusion of the greatest effort of his life, Mr. Bilyen was warmly complimented by all.

THE BRAKESMEN STRIKE.—AD order was sent out from Portland, dated Saturday morning, January 10, that on all freight trains running over the divisions between Portland and Ashland, which had car of the O. & C. at least one brakeman should ride continuously on top of the train. The reason assigned for the order is that the O. & C. freights have no air brakes. All the crews on the road struck, claiming there was no necessity for such an order. No freight trains have arrived at Eugene ince that date.

STRIKE SETTLED.-The strike of brake-men on the S. P. R. R. between Portland and Ashland has been amicably settled, the company acceding to the demands of the brakemen. The freight train arrived in Eugene Tuesday evening.
