Can't Cook as Mother Did!

How many a young wife's heart has been saddened by hearing the above remark! And yet how often the words are true; especially when cake, pastry or biscuit are in question! The reason is plain, yet it is "like telling a secret."

Our mothers used and are using Dr. Price's Cream Baking Powder. They cannot be misled into using any of the ammonia or alum powders. No dyspepsia no sallow complexions, when mother did the cooking.

The first symptoms of ammonia poisoning, says a New York paper, which appear among those who work in ammonia factories, is a discoloration of the nose and forehead. This gradually extends over the face until the complexion has a stained, blotched and unsightly appearance

Dr. Price's Cream Baking Powder is the only pure cream of tartar powder that contains the whites of eggs.

Dr. Price's Cream Baking Powder is reported by all authorities as free from Ammonia, Alum, or any other adulterant. In fact the purity of this ideal powder has never been ques-

Above the world it seems-this house of God, Beside its walls—the green and daisied and, Beneath—the woods and meadows spreading far On either side the mountains form a wall Alone it stands—like some bright guiding Serenely shedding light and joy o'er all.

Nearer to heaven it seems -- we climb the hill. And at the prospect soul and being thrill. The wide world lies below at peace and rest, Beyond the waters of Lake Asquam roll. And that same wind that stirs the water's breast Brings awest refreshment to the weary soul.

Nature and God are one-and as we kneel The Holy Spirit's influence we feel. There no discordant note—the singing bird That carols merrily outside the door Disturbeth not the reading of the word-There is a barmony not known before

The perfect peace of God for which we pray seems to be with us on our homeward way And as we look behind, the church of stone Encircled by the earth's most ancient hills, Above the mountains, seems to stand alone, The while its shadow all the valley fills.

Mr. Cluley thought with all his might for a few moments, when an idea struck him and he asked the child for a descrip tion of his aunt. The little maiden re-

Childish Faith.

An example of childish faith, of a kind a dull age wears away, was seen the other day. A little boy was sitting in the yard of an old country homestead: on either side of him sat a huge dog, patient and loving. The sun shone down scorchingly on the trio, and its rays were uncomfortable. Shading his eyes with his curved hand the child looked skyward and said, "Put in that sun, please. pied and weird pipers assembled once a The sun shone brightly, and the little fellow repeated softly, "Please put in that sun, man up in the sky; it hurts my

Why Eyes Are Light and Dark. An interesting point is the cause of the different shades of color we see in the eyes. On a certain membrane in the interior are numerous cells, called "pigment" cells. When these are present in very great numbers they produce that deep black color of some eyes, and in proportion to their numbers decrease also the depth of color, till finally a light blue is reached. In certain eyes these pigment cells do not exist at all, being wanting, indeed, all through the system, hair and skin. A person of this description is called an albino, and among animals we find a parallel in the case of the white rabbit.-Chambers' Journal.

Generally speaking, inventors, like poets, are born, not made. Nearly every boy can become a good mechanic or tradesman by diligent study and perseverance, but not every one can become a good inventor. If he has a "knack" for invention, study and hard work will greatly help him, and he stands a fair chance some day of succeeding as well in his chosen line as his brother playmates do in business or professional life. Invention is no longer a spasmodic work, but a legitimate branch of industry, which has its rewards and remunerations for those who follow it faithfully. -George E. Walsh in New York Epoch.

There Are No Blind Fish. There are many animals in the world which pass all their lives in darkness, never seeing a ray of light. Every one has heard of the blind fishes of the Mammoth cave. The latter is the biggest of 500 great caverns in the United States. All of them are inhabited by numerous other sorts of creatures that have no eyes for vision. Literally speaking there is no such thing as a blind fish, since the most sightless of the finny tribe possesses visual organs in a rudimentary condition, but through want of use the optic
