Killed His Wife and Himself.

WILLIAM WALKER, March 7.—This morning at 6 o'clock George Heitz, a laborer, shot his wife five times and then killed himself. Heitz and his wife separated last week, she going to live with her sister, Mrs. Kellan. Thursday last Mrs. Heitz sent her husband and brother-in-law to get her trunk. Her husband and brother-in-law, the former in which the latter stabbed the former in the chest and the wife in the house where morning Heitz was stopping and drawing a pistol, fired six shots at his wife, who ran out of the street and fell dead. He then went to the old depot, about 100 yards distant, and shot himself in the heart and throat. He died in a few minutes.

Indicted.

J. D. Sellers and Miss Moorehouse were jointly indicted Tuesday for the larceny of a watch and some money, committed at Cottage Grove recently. Miss Sellers was bound over and appeared. Miss Moorehouse was a prostitute, was arrested at Morehouse's, was indicted by Deputy Sheriff Croner and brought here Thursday night, and placed in jail to await her trial.

What is It?

That produces that beautifully soft complexion and leaves no traces of its application or injurious effects? The answer, Wisdom's Robotine accomplishes all this, and is pronounced by ladies of taste and refinement to be the most delightful toilet article ever produced. Warranted harmless and matchless. F. M. Wilkins, agent, Eugene City.

TUESDAY, MARCH 8.

It is time for Spring poetry.
A. H. Fisk returned this morning from a two months' trip East.
A. J. Johnson's name is mentioned as a republican candidate for sheriff.
Thos. J. Craig is down attending to business, today, we are pleased to announce.
One of the dynamos for the Springfield Electric Light Co. has arrived at that town.
In the supreme court yesterday a petition for rehearing in the case of Hodson vs Goodale was denied.
The implement warehouse of M. Sverdrup & Co. at the depot, has been neatly painted and lettered.
The Junction lodge of Knights of Pythias will be organized next Saturday night by Deputy Chancellor Benvis.
Palatine City, Wash., Rain fell of March 3d says: W. P. Ragsdale contemplates a trip to Eugene, Oregon, Monday, to join Mrs. Ragsdale, who has been there some time.
The dime social given at the residence of Dr. Gill last night by the ladies of the Christian church was well attended and a very pleasant sociable time was spent.
Eugene P. McCormack, of Salem, is in the city, and will remain for several days. He is very much opposed to the work of the fair and indorses the Penneyer idea without any trimmings.—Washington Dispatch.
About half of the male inhabitants of Cottage Grove are in the county seat today in attendance upon circuit court. Among the number we noticed Senator Veatch, A. H. Spars, Darwin Bristow, Daniel Stanton and R. S. Calley.
The constant drop of water wears away the hardest stone, the constant gnaw of Tulezer masticate the toughest bone, the constant wailing of a lover carries off the blushing maid, and the constant advertiser is the one who gets the trade.
The Board of Trade held no meeting last evening. The announcement was premature, as the regular meeting night is next Monday, when every member is urgently requested to be present. Also all citizens who have the good of the city at heart.
E. J. Frasier is making preparations for issuing a 25,000 illustrated edition describing Eugene and Lane county. It will be illustrated with cuts of prominent men and buildings improvements and will be a valuable means of calling outside attention to the resources of the county.
The Salem Statesman says that Major Edwards and Captain McDermott, government inspectors, thoroughly inspected the steamer R. C. Young Monday and granted Captain Love a holiday. Tuesday morning she went to Portland with fifty tons of flour, where she will be measured and have her tonnage determined. Captain Love will also be examined as to his color blindness, etc. Hereafter the Young will make regular trips on the upper river, running in conjunction with the Oregon Pacific steamer Hong. It is proposed to ascend this little light draft steamer to ascend the river regularly as high as the stage of the river will permit.

Agency Accepted.

Mr. Ed. Baum, the popular clothier, has accepted the exclusive agency for the sale of the Albany Woolen Mill goods, and is now prepared to furnish the best quality of all-wool clothing for men, youths and boys, at prices lower than ever before offered in this city. Prices as low as you can buy custom made goods in the stores. A large stock of summer clothing is now being received of the latest and most stylish patterns, which will be sold at prices to suit the customer.

Prohibition County Convention.

The time of the Prohibition County Convention which was called for the 31st of March, has been changed from that date to Tuesday, March 22, at 10 o'clock a. m. This change is made on account of the state convention meeting on the 31st. All friends of the cause of prohibition and reform are earnestly requested to meet with us. Remember the date, March 22, at the Court House. Let us have a roving convention. A. S. PATTERSON, Chairman County Central Com.

ELECTRIC LIGHTS.

Cottage Grove Leader. Messrs Veatch and Stone were calling on our citizens this week to see how many lights would be taken. They intend having the electric works put in at an early day.

BREVITIES.

WEDNESDAY, MARCH 9.

The presses for the Springfield paper have arrived.
Judge Medley, of Cottage Grove, was in Eugene today.
Connellman Griffin is spending this week at the Florence Springs.
T. J. Gill is a republican candidate for School Superintendent.
We hear the name of B. D. Paine mentioned as a candidate for school director.
Hon. B. C. Van Houten, of Spokane Falls, Wash., is in Eugene attending court.
G. B. Chrisman is having a corrugated iron warehouse built in the rear of his brick block.
David Blankton and family left last night for Las Vegas, New Mexico, where they will permanently locate.
Coburg, Monday, voted a tax of $2-20 to build a new school house for that district. The correct thing.
Miss Ella Richardson who has been visiting at the residence of W. Roberts returned to her home at Portland this morning.
E. M. Wilson, ex-mayor and a prominent capitalist of Fairhaven, Wash., is visiting at the home of his brother-in-law, J. R. Hays, in Eugene.
A surprise party was given Miss Blaine Monday evening. About twenty young people spent the evening in social games and amusements.
W. D. Campbell and little daughter Grace, arrived here this afternoon from Spokane on a visit with his old schoolmate Prof. D. W. Coolidge.
George Fisher says that the Register is mistaken when it says he is a candidate for sheriff. Stock inspector is the only office in the county he would have.
A. O. Eckleson has commenced suing against B. J. Pongra to recover $2226, claimed to be owing plaintiff from business transactions between the parties.
One of Williams' delivery teams ran away yesterday evening from Willamette street around to Ninth causing a ripple of excitement but only slight damage.
The sworn statement of the First National Bank and its officers is in issue at the Grand Jury. It shows the bank in a very prosperous condition with nearly $80,000 cash in vault and banks.
St. John Skinner, of Oakesdale, Wash., is in Eugene. He is the son of Eugene F. Skinner, the founder of the town, and a brother of Mrs. Phoebe Kinsey and Mrs. C. W. Matlock.
In a letter from J. W. Combs to Heppner he incidentally remarks that the Grand Jury is greatly appreciated by former Lane county people in that section for the full local news it gives.
Dr. Sniley and E. J. McClanahan returned from their trip this morning. Dr. Sniley informs us the man Rolt, Eaglysthan, whose leg he amputated two weeks ago is now able to sit up, and will recover.
A branch of the Fraternity Building and Loan Association has been organized in this city with eighty shares. Officers elected: W. Holloway, president; Fletcher Linn, vice president; A. E. Wheeler, secretary and treasurer; L. Bilyeu, attorney.
James P. Faull, one of Oregon's prominent citizens, died Sunday morning at his home in Baker City, after an illness of two days of peritonitis. The deceased figured in state politics for years and at the time of his death was a member of the state republican central committee, and was a member of Oregon's second railroad commission.
The Sunday Welcome says: "William Nelson, an unsophisticated gentleman who was induced to buy a lot in a west side 'addition' made room for it up on Monday afternoon. He got lost in the woods and did not find his way out until after midnight." There's a large amount of that kind of property in different parts of Oregon and Washington.

CANNERY MEETING.

It is now proposed to sell the Property, Plant, Etc.
An adjourned meeting of the stockholders of the Eugene Packing and Canning Company was held at the Board of Trade rooms Wednesday night.
The committee appointed to solicit subscriptions to the $10,000 preferred stock, so as to place the cannery on its feet again, reported that they had made a careful canvass of the town and vicinity, and had succeeded in raising only $4,000 and they were impossible to raise the amount required.
The following motion was then made and carried: "That the Secretary be instructed to call a meeting of the stockholders for Monday, March 21st, at 7:30 p. m., at the Board of Trade rooms, for the purpose of authorizing the Board of Directors to sell ground, plant, and all the effects to satisfy the claims of the creditors."
Eugene is certainly making a mistake in not raising the amount required. It will have a bad effect on procuring other manufacturing establishment here in the future.

ATTENTION, G. A. R.

There will be a regular meeting of J. W. Geary, Post No. 7 at their Post room in Eugene on March 19, 1892, at 1 o'clock p. m. A full attendance is requested, and visiting comrades made welcome to give.

S. R. WILLIAMS, Commander.

ROAD EXTENSION.

The Junction City Board of Trade is agitating the question of the extension of the west side road from Corvallis to this city. The Wilmamette Real Estate company promises to give $5000 toward this end, and we have no doubt that the Southern Pacific will build the road this year if offered sufficient inducements. The Junction City Times says of this subject: "This is a matter in which every citizen should be interested, and if proper steps be made and all work in harmony and each one do his whole duty, trains will be running from the west side before January 1st next. There is no use in consoling ourselves with the thought that the road will be built anyhow, for it will not. It is true that the right of way has been secured, but it is not until the road is built that the territory is threatened by the invasion of another company. A long pull and a strong pull and a pull together will bring it. Let us pull."

LINN DEMOCRATIC TICKET.

The following is the Linn county Democratic ticket nominated at Albany Wednesday afternoon: Representatives, M. A. Miller, W. P. Elmore and A. Blevins; county judge, George Humphrey; commissioner, T. J. Munke; clerk, N. Payne; recorder, E. E. Davis; sheriff, C. C. Jackson; treasurer, Bruce Wallace; assessor, J. E. Michael; school superintendent, G. F. Russell. Delegates to the state convention: W. E. Blyen, R. Thompson, G. W. Wright, T. S. Stiles, C. G. Burkhart, Geo. Humphrey, Geo. E. Chamberlain, T. J. Black, Dr. E. DuGas, Chas. Ralston, G. M. DeVanney, Jeff Myers, I. D. Miller, Geo. Finley, Worth Huston, Chas. Pfeiffer. It is said to be a strong ticket.

The second edition of "Hill's Annotated Laws of Oregon," bringing the statute law up to the present time, has appeared.
The public school entertainments netted $69. The money will be used in purchasing books of reference for the schools.
Another great stock of clocks just arrived. W. Holloway's. Over 400 sold last year. The only good stock in town of all makes.
J. D. Matlock informs us that James F. Robinson has yielded to immense pressure and concluded to be a candidate for sheriff.
W. Holloway is the only jeweler that carries a full line of watches of all grades and makes. He has twice the stock of any others, and can better please you.
Carpet! Carpets! at D. Linn & Son's.
S. B. Eskin Jr., is able to be down town again.
Butterick patterns on hand. Best Wall paper. Artists materials, Eugene Book Store.
Lieutenant Robert Parker left on this morning's local for Corvallis. It is rumored that congratulations will be in order when he returns next week.
J. H. McCoy and wife, who have been visiting their parents, Mr. and Mrs. M. Kinison, in this city, left morning for their home in Whitman county, Wash.
Dr. Casper Sharples arrived from Seattle, Wash., on last night's overland train. We are pleased to state that he has greatly improved in health during the past two weeks.
All difficult watch work can be done at W. Holloway's, and that is also the only place to get fine and first class jewelry work done. Diamond, stone setting and altering kinds of rings a specialty.
Northern grown garden seeds, all kinds in bulk, also white clover and lawn grass mixed.
Hoes (a new kind that works easy) and rakes of all kinds.
Planet Jr. Drills and Cultivators. All at bottom prices.
F. L. CHAMBERS.
Albany Herald: China pheasants have commenced nesting. A farmer near H. J. recently plowed up a nest that contained several eggs. The early spring will probably be the means of making these splendid game birds plentiful, as each bird will raise several broods.
Salem Journal, Wednesday. A 16-year-old son of James Roberts had his hand nearly blown off this morning by firing a dynamite cap, which he was playing with. He held the cap in his left hand and tried to see if he could explode it by touching the fulminate with a red hot iron. The result was that he had the ends of his middle finger and thumb blown off and both hands and face cut and injured.

THE ESCAPED PRISONER CAPTURED.

The escaped prisoner, Frank St. Clair, was seen by Commissioner B. S. Hyland Sunday morning about 10 o'clock. He assisted the fugitive across the waters of the Long Tom, near his farm three miles southwest of Junction, on a horse at that hour. Mr. Hyland thought at the time the man acted suspiciously but was ignorant of his real character. Deputy Sheriff Croner went to Corvallis this morning, and will take a horse from there southwestward in search of St. Clair. It is not thought probable that he can finally elude capture.

QUITE A ROW.

FALL CREEK LOCALITY—A STABBING AND SHOOTING AFFRAY.

Daily Guard, March 7.
Last Saturday night during the session of a debating society at Big Fall Creek Bridge in the eastern part of this county, about 30 miles east of Eugene, Ed Griffin and Clarence Melroe left the room to settle a dispute which had arisen, and what happened is given as follows, as near as the facts can be obtained:
The two men climbed and Griffin fired two shots from a revolver he had in his possession, but did not damage. This attracted the attention of those indoors and the brothers of the pair came out, Charlie Melroe was stabbing Griffin in the back while Clarence held him. Newt Griffin and James Holte then endeavored to quell the disturbance, both being cut badly and at this juncture Jess Melroe came to reinforce his brothers, and John Parker seized a huge club and brandishing it over the six men threatened to knock the first one who attempted to interfere. Constable Charles Kissinger was in the room at the time the shooting occurred, but was unable to get to the men until after the affray ended. A warrant was immediately issued from Justice H. F. Hunnicutt's court and the three Melroe brothers and John Parker placed under arrest. They waived examination and were bound over to appear before the grand jury, and were brought here by Sheriff Noland and Constable Kissinger last night and placed in jail.
Ed Griffin received eleven wounds in the back and one in the arm, and was beaten about the head with a club of slung shot. One stab struck the back of his neck, and he was severely but not necessarily fatal. Nowt Griffin was cut in the muscle of the right arm and suffered considerably from loss of blood. James Holce received a stab on the back near the right side, the knife striking a rib, which prevented a dangerous wound, but he also suffered from loss of blood.
The wounded men were taken to the justice's office, which was served temporarily as a hospital. Dr. Sniley examined the injured men and the scene of the affray and dressed the wounds of the injured men.
None of the Melroes were hurt, except Clarence, who received a slight wound in the wrist, probably inflicted by his brother while engaged in cutting Griffin in the back.

THE ESCAPED PRISONER CAPTURED.

The escaped prisoner, Frank St. Clair, was seen by Commissioner B. S. Hyland Sunday morning about 10 o'clock. He assisted the fugitive across the waters of the Long Tom, near his farm three miles southwest of Junction, on a horse at that hour. Mr. Hyland thought at the time the man acted suspiciously but was ignorant of his real character. Deputy Sheriff Croner went to Corvallis this morning, and will take a horse from there southwestward in search of St. Clair. It is not thought probable that he can finally elude capture.
