THE ZORN CASE.

Stay of Execution Ordered, Pend-

East Oregonian: At the request of Judge Clifford, Judge Fee has ordered a stay of execution in the Zorn case, pending the decision of the supreme court upon the appeal taken to that body.

Zorn's neck is thus saved for a time at least, which is doubtless gratifying to the prisoner, as the neektie party was on the program for Friday, March 25. If the su-preme court affirms the verdict in the lower court Zorn will be re-sentenced at the next term of the circuit court in Umatilla county, which convenes June 6th next. This will postpone the hanging until some-time in July. If the supreme court decides the appeal to be well grounded, the case will come up at the June term for a new Zorn has some friends on the outside, a is evidenced by the appeal, and also by the petition asking that his sentence be com-muted to imprisonment for life. Whether muted to imprisonment for life. Whether this influence will be sufficient to preven him from being launched into eternity to meet the avenging spirits of his wife and mother in-law, remains to be seen.

HOTEL RENTED.—Junction City Times: H. J. Flanders, of Los Angeles, California, leased the new hotel for a term of five years with the privilege of a longer time if he wishes it. He will furnish the building throughout and it will be thrown open the public about May 1st. We learn Mr. and Mrs. Flanders have had several years experience in the hotel business and know how to conduct a first-class hostelry.

In a few remarks to the boys the Colonel said that the military fund was short this year and would remain so until April, when the state taxes are collected and returned. It is hardly likely though, that even then any new uniforms will be furnished as all the money that can be spared will be needed for an encampment this summer. If an encampment is held it will be a meeting of the brigade, consisting of all three regiments. Six companies of each regiment in this state will attend the World's fair at Chicago in 1893, and unless sufficient funds are assured for both, the encampment will not be held, but the money saved for this expense.

Colonel Lovell's remarks enkindled renewed feeling of fellowship and patriotism, not only among the company here, but toward the rest of the O. N. G., and our boys all unite in thinking that the Colonel is the best man in the Second Regiment.

It was learned that Adjutant A. O. Condit had resigned, which news was received with much regret in this company, as dur-ing the recent encampment he had made many friends.

The reorganization of the regiment under the new U. S. tactics will undoubtedly result in the promotion of Capt. Yoran, of C Company, to the rank of Major. This will probably take place in the near future.

No blame should attach to the newspaper, as we were paid for the work, supposing it to be a bona fide advertisement.
