Eugene has arrived at a point in her history when growth will be slow unless new enterprises are encouraged. It is a business proposition. Keep still and you will not be troubled with new blood, new capital, new improvements. The location is in our favor. Push and energy will develop its advantages and make an active, thriving city.

Hermann's Work.

Congressman Hermann on March 8th wrote to a Coos bay friend: "I hope to obtain for the Coos bay jetty a larger appropriation than was ever before obtained for it."

About the same time he was writing to friends of the Siuslaw harbor that owing to the economy of the river and harbor committee he could not obtain what was asked for, but was making strenuous exertions for an appropriation.

On March 20 the bill was reported, Coos bay $210,000, and Siuslaw $10,000! Comment is unnecessary.
