For Star Gazers.
Venus, the evening star, has now become so bright that she can be easily seen in the daytime, if one knows where to look. As the planet increases her distance from the sun her brightness increases. The greatest distance east of the sun will be reached April 29, and the greatest brilliancy on June 2. Mercury is visible in the West during the first part of the month. Saturn in the constellation Virgo, and is nicely situated for evening observation. He can be recognized easily by his lightness. Jap-iter and Mars are not visible during the evening hours.

No Compromise.
Daily Guard, April 8.
Judge Scott received a telegram from the Southern Pacific Railroad Company, yesterday, offering to compromise the Lane county railroad taxes, offering the sum of $3000 in full payment of the same. Something over $12,000 is due. The county court decided to make no compromise, but to fight the case to the end, taking the ground that it was not just to let a rich corporation off with a small portion of their just taxes, when the average taxpayer is compelled to pay in full.

An Unfortunate Situation.
"Here's a letter from poor Carrie. She and her husband both want a divorce and neither can get it."
"He, unknown to her, was about to elope with the governess, just as she, unknown to him, was about to elope with his secretary, they met in the dark and eloped with each other."

THAT SODAVILLE AFFAIR.—Albany Democrat: W. W. Parrish and J. E.
Chesher, worthy citizens of Sodaville, got in a war of words at that place some time ago, which has been prolific of law suits. It seems that each of these gentlemen was arrested by the Sodaville marshal and the latter was fined. He was re-arrested under the state law for assault, by the complaint of Mr. Parrish, and was tried before Justice Hindman. Express. The defendant was discharged because he had already paid a fine for the offense.

A MISTAKE.—The Albany Herald has this: "It is said that Eugene has raised $500 for base ball, but they have done nothing as yet toward securing a team. This is a mistake. No effort has been made here to ward raising any money for this purpose."

SETTLEMENT MADE.—We are pleased to announce that R. M. Robinson has made a complete settlement with his creditors, and will open up his business in a few days. He is now engaged in putting things in order and cleaning up the room and goods.

CONTINUED.—After three days steady work, about one-half the evidence in the case of Cline vs Goodale was read.
Then the judge postponed further hearing of the case until after the May term of the Coos county circuit court.

About all the trees that have been set out in our settlement came from Settlement's Tangent nursery.

Springfield Items.
Messenger, April 8.
J. C. Preble has sold his interest in the livery business to his partner, T. O.
Maxwell.

town property, reports the total assessment at $107,190.

The Springfield democratic and republican clubs have rented the Zumwalt hall for regular meetings.

The revival services, begun in the Baptist church Friday night, ended Sunday night on account of Rev. Richardson's ill-health. Mrs. Taylor, of Fairmount, and Mrs. Collins of Springfield, were received for baptism, which will take place Sunday, April 17.

A dead horse with a saddle on was seen to float under the Willamette bridge Monday. The recent rains have raised the head waters and it is probable that horse and rider, in crossing a swollen stream, have met a common fate.

Review: J. H. Sharp was in town claims. He reports the snow from five to fifteen feet deep but that a force of men are still at work on the Anna ledge, from which eleven pounds of pure gold were taken in a run of five days. They use the old Knott live stamp mill, and the mine is owned by Colorado parties. Mr. Sharp reports about fifty men are at present in the district engaged in mining and prospecting, and that a large number will go in with the opening of the season.

A good wagon road is being constructed to the mines from Cottage Grove by a company of which Mr. Sharp is the chief stockholder, and it will be possible during the summer to make the trip in one day. He had some fine specimens of gold and silver bearing ore, and is confident that Bohemia has a great future.

SUCCESSFUL SAFE BREAKER.—Geo. N.
Frazer succeeded in opening the safe in the sheriff's office Saturday, which became out of order and refused to respond to the combination. The damage to the safe will be very small, proving conclusively that our friend, Geo. N., knows considerable about how to successfully "crack" a safe.

DISCHARGED.—Charles Melles, of Fall Creek, was discharged from the county jail Monday, his term having expired. He was sentenced for 25 days by Judge Pipes at the last term of court, for participating in a row at Fall Creek. His brother Clarence has twenty-five days yet to serve.
