

Eugene City Guard.

SATURDAY, MAY 21, 1892.

Warning to Democrats.

The Portland Dispatch says: Hon. R. M. Veatch is making a manly and effective fight in his district. If democrats will stand by him and not throw away their votes on the third party candidate he will be elected.

Vacant houses are common sights in a walk around Eugene. Still there are men who have large interests in Eugene who are willing to see the railroad go by default, else allow other men to contribute the means by which it may be secured.

The next state senator from Lane county will cast a vote for a United States senator. Aristocratic J. N. Dolph will be a candidate. Mr. Dolph does not represent the state of Oregon, and if the popular vote should decide his fate, he would not be thought of.

The spectacle of Rev. M. V. Rork, a candidate for congress, passing the hat and taking up a collection at his speakings is an entertaining one. If this custom becomes popular the already crowded official ticket of candidates will have to be enlarged to the size of a newspaper.

On the railroad subsidy list are the names of parties who have given more liberally than their circumstances would warrant. On the other hand there are subscriptions ridiculously low in comparison with the interests and property of the subscribers.

Mr. Wilkinson is winning commendations in his canvass. At Coburg yesterday he administered a deserved rebuke to a candidate who suggested that at his age he could safely be trusted, but if younger, say 21, he might have been weak.

The charges against F. A. Moore, candidate for supreme judge, that he drew a will for a lady, whom he admitted afterward on the witness stand, he thought to be unconscious at the time, and afterward assisted in breaking the will have not been denied.

Nor is it—Albany Democrat: The 4th of July committee after soliciting funds a day for the celebration gave up last evening in despair, those who would be most benefited by a celebration not being willing to contribute more than a small sum that would make no showing.

Governor Boies is one of a number of strong Western democrats available for the first place on the democratic ticket in the event that it is decided to be advisable to take the candidate from the West, says the St. Louis Republic.

The timber interests of Lane county will represent immense sums in the near future. The building of the Nicaragua canal is but a question of a few years, not to exceed ten, we believe.

The record made by Judge M. L. Pipes is one of which the judiciary of Oregon may be proud. His decisions have rarely been reversed by the superior court, and his uniform courtesy and fairness impress litigants and jurymen with the feeling that justice will not be abused by his rulings.

Another sad case of drowning to chronicle. The upper Willamette and McKenzie are treacherous streams and yearly claim fresh victims.

Democratic State Ticket.

Congressman, First District, R. M. VEATCH, of Lane county. Supreme Judge, A. S. BENNETT, of Wasco county. Attorney General, GEO. E. CHAMBERLAIN, of Linn county.

DISTRICT TICKET. Judge, M. L. PIPES, of Benton county. Prosecuting Attorney, GEO. A. DORRIS, of Lane county.

MEMBER BOARD OF EQUALIZATION, L. BILVEU, of Lane county.

CRUICKSHANKS. GEORGE NOLAN, of Clatsop county. W. F. BUTCHER, of Baker county. R. A. MILLER, of Jackson county.

The campaign liar is abroad in the land. More railroad, fewer vacant houses for rent.

Crook county will fight the political battle out on the old line, the third party having withdrawn from the fight.

One of the tribulations of an editor's life is to pick up papers from the exchange table and find nothing but politics running through the columns.

The cost of recapturing escaped prisoners from the Lane county jail would go a considerable ways towards paying the interest on the cost of a new jail.

"Nerve" is the title of a paper published in northern California. There should be no trouble experienced in securing editors for it. Eugene could assist.

The billion dollar congress requires $1,969,963.09 at a meal. With every setting sun that amount of the people's money has gone into the vortex of extravagant appropriations.

There are some men who persist in hunting at this time of year. We are not in favor of strict game laws but think that men who hunt during the breeding season cannot be too severely dealt with.

Mr. Alley, the republican candidate for state senator is not troubled with diffidence or modesty. In the last issue of The West, of which he is editor, he tells what he has done for Lane county and asks the voters to support him.

The United States is seven millions of dollars richer at the sundown of every day than at the rising, yet never before were there so many tenement houses inhabited by squalid poverty, never so many homeless, never so many prisons.

Binger Hermann had easy work to get an appropriation of $230,000 for Coos bay improvements. By strenuous exertions he obtained $10,000 for Siuslaw. It is needless to state that Mr. Hermann has large property interests on Coos bay.

James Lotan is an applicant for the vacant collectorship of customs at Portland. The appointment will not be made until after the election. Lotan's appointment would not be popular as he is regarded as the essence of the boss system in Oregon.

George A. Dorris went to Benton county this morning. T. G. Hendricks and wife went to Salem this morning to spend a few days.

Robert M. Stevens went to Portland on the local train this morning and will visit there for a few days. O. R. Goodale, recently from Montana, is occupying the position of night watchman at the Coburg saw mill.

E. P. McCormack, of Portland, secretary of the republican state central committee, is in Eugene today looking at the political situation in Lane county. A. G. Hovey will leave tonight from Eugene, direct by the Southern Pacific railroad to West Point, N. Y., to serve at the annual examination, as a member of the board of visitors to the U. S. military academy, appointed by the president.

Nor is it—Albany Democrat: The 4th of July committee after soliciting funds a day for the celebration gave up last evening in despair, those who would be most benefited by a celebration not being willing to contribute more than a small sum that would make no showing.

This makes it all the more important that Eugene should celebrate the coming natal day. Who will take the lead in the matter?

RHEUMATISM neuralgia, and sciatica can always be successfully treated with Ayer's Sarsaparilla. A cure is sure to follow the persistent use of this medicine. Has Cured Others will cure you.

FAULTLESS! Nature is faultless and so is that noble discovery, containing only Nature's own remedies, "The Oregon Blood Purifier."

THURSDAY MAY 19.

Lawn mowers, $4.00 at F. L. Chambers'. Join Holloway's clubs. The circuit court docket already contains 98 cases.

Get the latest novels at Holloway's circulating library. The Presbyterian general assembly is in session in Portland.

Al Auten wears a large nugget of gold for a scarf pin. Take a look at it. Fisher & Watkins will ship a car load of fat hogs to Seattle, Wash., by tonight's freight train.

The high wheel Victoria lawn mower is the highest running mower made. Call and examine at F. L. Chambers'.

Sample tickets for the election have already been printed. The ticket is about 8x10 inches in small type.

W. Holloway's clubs are a success. He has already a large membership and they are here to stay permanently.

A considerable crowd went to today to Irving to attend the speaking of the county canvassers. The candidates speak at Junction tomorrow.

Among the names of the Spokane delegates to the democratic state convention, we notice that of J. E. Fenton, formerly of Eugene.

Thursday's Albany Herald: Mr. J. R. Wyatt went to Harrisburg yesterday to attend the marriage of his brother, Thomas Wyatt and Miss Nanette McCartney.

Another car of vehicles just received direct from the factory which makes my stock complete in buggies, carriages, carts and pleasure wagons, also farm wagons. Prices as usual.

A lot of loggers will commence a run of logs on the McKenzie, Monday, for the Coburg mill, under the foremanship of Wm. Bogart. About 3,000,000 feet will be brought down from the vicinity of the Hixon place.

Portland Dispatch: The remains of China Tom, who died in the city jail about four weeks ago are still at the morgue at Coroner River's. Mr. River says that he has been applying a new process of drying up the flesh, and that, unless some of the doctor's friends come and get the remains soon, he will have a first-class "Egyptian mummy" out of them.

The following officers were elected by the State S Convention: President, Rev G. A. Blair, Eugene; vice-president, Thomas Newlin, Newberg; secretary, Lew E. Darrow, Portland; treasurer, Rev T. P. Boyd, Lebanon.

By going to Holloway's you can get all the latest novels to read. Carpet!! Carpets at D. Linn & Son's. D. Linn & Son, for furniture, carpets and undertaking.

Tobacco stems for tree wash, cheap, at Hayes' cigar store. The Oregon Hose Team had a drill on Eighth street last evening.

Special lawn mower oil just received, also grass shears. F. L. CHAMBERS. The fire department received another shut-off nozzle last evening. It cost $35.

The railroad subsidy is still crawling up slowly. Give it a helping hand. Job Davis says the trout are not biting in the McKenzie. The river is too high.

Send to or call on E. J. Frasier for one of his circulars descriptive of his latest and greatest bargain. Get in and subscribe to the railroad subsidy. The time to raise the amount expires Monday afternoon.

Just arrived direct from the factory, a carload of the celebrated Millburn wagons. Call and examine them at M. Svarverud & Co's.

H. Holloway is the only jeweler that carries a full line of watches of all grades and makes. He has twice the stock of any others, and can better please you.

Dr. J. Smiley has removed his office to the rooms formerly occupied by Dr. Brown, over the First National bank, where he can be found at all hours by patients.

Our $50 lot in the heart of Florence are the best bargains now in Lane county. Don't wait for prices to advance but buy now.

GEO. M. MILLER & Co. A. Wheeler, of Springfield, and J. C. Goodale, of Coburg, have dissolved partnership in the Salem lumber yard business.

Coburg is one of the interprising towns of Lane county. It is situated in a fine agricultural district and has good water power facilities from the McKenzie. Mr. J. C. Goodale is building a new mill that will have a capacity of about 30,000 feet per day.
