Woodward delegates to attend the annual encampment of Indian War Veterans of the Pacific coast, to be held in Eugene June 15.

CHILDREN. NEEDS A NEW JAIL - Junction City Times: "Lane county needs a new jail and the best way to get one is to build it. We think we voice the sentiment of a majority of the people when we say that a new jail is absolutely a necessity and that it should be built. We have heard considerable talk concerning the building of a new court house but not so with a jail."

CHILDREN. HOTEL LEASED - The new Junction City hotel has been leased by Grandma Munra, of this city, and she will open it for patronage in a few days. The people of Junction are fortunate in leasing the hotel to Mrs. Munra, she knows how and does always conduct a first-class house.

CHILDREN. A GOOD IDEA - At the meeting of the Eugene Company one month ago, it was decided to offer the sum of $250 as a prize to the member proposing the greatest number of names at the meeting last night for membership. Edis Matlock won the prize, handing in 16 proposals, all of whom were elected. The total number of names received was 30. After the meeting Mr. Matlock spent the reward in treating the boys to cigars.

CHILDREN. ON, COME OFF - The Junction City Times, independent republican, in its last issue, says: "The Register thinks the judge is the proper party to decide whether a man is unfit to be confined in jail. Oh, come off, neighbor. It is the judge's duty to pass upon laws, sentence the guilty and there his authority ends. The idea of a judge inspecting the sanitary condition of a county jail or disposing the inmates is too ridiculous to entertain even in election time."
