Children
Cry
FOR PITCHER'S
Castoria
Castoria promotes Digestion, and overcomes Flatulency, Constipation, Sour Stomach, Diarrhea, and Fermentation.
Thus the child is rendered healthy and its sleep natural. Castoria contains no
Morphine or other narcotic property.
"I use Castoria in my practice, and find it specially adapted to children that I recommend it as superior to any prescription known to me."

FRIDAY, JUNE 10.
In the pacing race at Portland, P. K. Watters' horse, Capt. Mount, yesterday, came in second best; time, 2:32.
Springfield Messenger: The big majority given J. E. Noland for sheriff may be considered as a hearty endorsement of his work last term.
Miss Leta Casey of Ashland arrived in Eugene Thursday morning and will spend the summer at the home of her uncle, D. W. Coledge, two miles south of the city.
We have received from West Point a list of the Board of Visitors to the military academy, among which we note the name of our fellow townsman, Hon. A. G. Hovey.
The present rain is worth thousands of dollars to the farmers of Lane county. Late sown grain will be brought out and make a fair crop. The rains never fall in the Willamette valley.
E. J. Frasier and bride arrived from Woodland, Cal., this morning, and Ed is busy today receiving congratulations from his numerous friends. For the present they will reside with Mrs. Frasier.
A confidence man who was working a St. Johns, Mich., crowd with the aged pocket-book game, held out one of the pocket-books to a granger-looking chap, and invited him to show the crowd what was being sold for a single dollar. The granger showed the throng that there were two crisp $5 bills in the wallet, then tossed the fakir a dollar, shoved bills and book in his pocket and strolled away. When the fakir learned that the rural-looking chap was Justice of the Peace Smith, he went into a trance.
Late reports from down the Columbia indicate that the fisherman have been doing well during the past few days. More fish have been caught during the past week than during the entire month of April. The water is too high for seines and wheels, and too muddy for the traps, which are doing but little at present. The markets here are receiving some very large fish, many of them ranging in weight from 50 to 60 pounds.
Tuesday evening during the absence of the family of Dr. Chas. Lee from their home at Corvallis, some one entered the house and stole a quantity of jewelry valued at nearly $500, consisting of a $135 gold watch, a diamond ring, etc. Three men, Dan Hastings, well known in Albany, Hank Hardisty, recently in jail at Corvallis, and Oscar Peterson, were suspected, and were followed into Marion county, where they were arrested by Sheriff Mackey and Marshal Stafford and taken through Albany home today. Their watches had not been examined, but a ring probably stolen was found on them.

County Court.
Remodeled plans, specifications and details of jail ordered from Delos D. Neer having been accepted and recommended by the board of charities and corrections, it is hereby ordered that the said architect receive two per cent extra for his work on such changes and alterations as ordered by the court, superintendence to stand as per previous order, one per cent, making a total commission on full cost of jail work and building three per cent, from the date of this order.
FLAPELL REBUILT.—The flag pole on the University campus was raised a short distance from the northwest corner of Villard hall Saturday. It is a neat pole 100 feet high and is an ornament to the grounds. Today W. C. Bucknell fitted the pole about it and beneath with concrete, and the bottom now rests in an immovable bed. Three wagon loads of gravel and several barrels of cement were used. It is painted white and surmounted by a gilded ball.
EUGENE VICTORIES.—Eugene won the game of base ball with Springfield Saturday, the score standing: Eugene, 2; Springfield 8. Haight struck out 4; Cochran 4; bases on balls, Haight 1; Cochran 3; home run, 1 by Kuhl, Empire, Glenn. Time, 3 hours. A large number of people were in attendance.
BORN.—In Roseburg, June 8, 1892, to the wife of J. W. Hamilton, a daughter.

TRACK EXTENDED.—The street car line has been extended to a point opposite the entrance to the University grounds. The street grade is about 6 inches higher on each side than the car track grade at that point. What for? The street cars will be a great convenience during commencement exercises next week.
DIED.—At his place near Loss creek, Tuesday, June 7, of palsy, J. P. Law, aged 69 years. He was buried at Pleasant Hill cemetery Wednesday at 1 o'clock.

WALTER DE CLARK KILLED.
The Fatal Shot by the Young Lady He Tried to Murder.
Walter De Clark, who a few years since was sent on the freight train between Junction and Roseburg, and Junction and Portland, was killed at Tracy, Cal., Monday. Following are the particulars of the affair:
The examination of H. P. Ludwig before Justice Beck for shooting Walter De Clark of Portland on April 23 last, was set for hearing at 2 o'clock, Monday. Office Bryans had left the court room to bring De Clark from the Tracy hotel where he had just eaten his dinner. When passing the San Joaquin hotel with De Clark, Tillie Ludwig, the young lady whom De Clark attempted to kill on April 23rd, stepped out of the hotel just before Bryans and commenced firing at De Clark, and killing him. The fatal shot entered his back between the shoulders. De Clark lived but a few minutes. A warrant was issued for Mrs. Ludwig's arrest. She was arraigned before Justice Beck, and the examination set for 2 o'clock tomorrow. A bail bond of $20,000 was filed, but the defendant chose to go to jail. The examination of H. P. Ludwig was continued.

Arrested for Larceny.
Daily Guard, June 13.
T. H. Von S. Blausch, was arrested this morning on a warrant charging him with the crime of larceny in a dwelling, and he was placed in the county jail to await the action of the grand jury, which is in session. It appears that he broke into the house of C. Domeyer, who lives about five miles from Eugene, some time yesterday, and took therefrom a Winchester rifle, a pair of field glasses, cartridge belt, a gold watch, chain, and several other small articles, and brought them here and sold the same to J. B. Dunham, the second-hand dealer for $5. He is said to be well connected in Germany. For a time he was a waiter in the Hoffman House, but was discharged about two weeks since.

Prosecuting Attorney Voted.
We have been shown dispatches received from the county clerks by Prosecuting Attorney Condon, giving majorities as follows:
Cox, Dorris' majority..... 68
Condon, Condon's majority..... 4
Douglas, Condon's majority..... 259
These majorities with Lane County's 167 for Condon, give him 362 majority with Curry county to hear from. It is a small county and cannot affect the result materially.

Election Notes.
Judge Bradshaw has been elected circuit judge of the Wasco-Crook district.
Hermann will have 5000 majority, Ellis 3000 and Moore 3000.
The people's party carried Coos county entire. In that county Pipes has 193 majority, and Dorris 298, and Nighswander 380.
The democrats carried Lake county.
Morrow county elects about one-half of each ticket.

A Change.
HEADQUARTERS SOLDIERS AND SAILORS REUNION ASS'N.
EUGENE, OR., JUNE 13, 1892.
The time of the presentation of the flag to the university has been changed from Wednesday, the 22d of June, to Tuesday, the 21st of June, 4 o'clock in the afternoon. O. J. DODD, T. M. HAMILTON, President, Secretary.

Douglas County Returns.
Hermann 1417, Veatch 951, Rork 506, Fullerton 1598, Pipes 1287, Woodcock 1238, Blycutt 1024, Nighswander 611.
The democrats elected the senator, sheriff, Sheridan representative, treasurer and commissioner.

MINNIE WASHBURN, P. M.

Daily Guard, June 13.
HORSE THIEVES SENTENCED.—Wm. Andrews and Harry Arnold, the horse-thieves who stole a span of horses several months ago from E. P. Bedford, and afterwards broke jail and were recaptured at Harrisburg, were indicted by the grand jury this morning for the crime of larceny. They were arraigned this morning and entered a plea of guilty and asked to be sentenced immediately. Judge Pipes gave them one year each in the penitentiary. They will be taken to the penitentiary at Salem tomorrow morning. Rather quick work.

Daily Guard, June 13.
LEG CRUSHED.—F. B. Decker, of Coburg, while engaged in running logs on the McKenzie above Henderson's ferry yesterday, had the misfortune to catch his leg between two floating logs which considerably smashed it between the knee and the ankle. He was brought to the Minnetonka hotel in this city and Dr. Stolley was called to dress the wound. It is thought that with proper care amputation will not be necessary. He was taken to Junction this morning where he will be cared for by his sister.

Daily Guard, June 13.
REACHED $90,000.—The Siuslaw railroad subsidy has reached the sum of $90,000, Miss Emma Chase having subscribed $1,200 this morning. The entire amount should be forth coming by Saturday night.

COUNCIL MEETING.—The City Council held a meeting Saturday evening in the city hall, a full board of officers being present. The only business transacted was the passage of an ordinance controlling sewer connections.

Daily Guard, June 13.
A GOOD ESCAPE.—The vote cast Monday in Lane county footed up 4,144; two years ago it was 3,654, making a gain of 490 in two years. A good increase.

HARRISON RENOMINATED.
Blaine's Strength Failed to Materialize.
The Proceedings.
Harrison was nominated on the first ballot.
THE BALLOT.
Official result of first ballot:
Total.....9043
Necessary to choose.....4521
Harrison.....3554
Blaine.....1823
McKinley.....142
Reed.....1823
Lincoln.....1
Adjourned until 8 o'clock tonight.
THE PROCEEDINGS.
MINNEAPOLIS, June 10.—Blaine people think no ballot will be taken today. Several New England states now in session with view of offering a combination on Reed. It is said Massachusetts is ready to cast its vote solely for him.
After prayer David Martin was announced as national committee man from Pennsylvania, vice Quay. Question came up then on adoption of the majority report of credentials committee. Quay in order to get to balloting at once announced that they would not oppose its adoption.
Blaine men have decided not to do any business but push for a vote, and expect a ballot at this session. The result, it is said, lies between Harrison and McKinley. Ohio delegates ready to vote for the latter. It is reliably stated that Idaho and some other far western states will turn to Harrison if they should drop Blaine.
It is reliably stated that Blaine's name will not be formally presented, his supporters, however, will vote for him in order to hold forces together in case necessary to turn to some compromise candidate. Alger's name will not be presented. McKinley will get 20 or 22 from Michigan. Ohio will also vote for McKinley.
Wolcott, of Colorado, mentioned Blaine and great cheering ensued and renewed.
He predicted victory in November for the great and uncorrupted leader of the republican party, James G. Blaine, great cheering. Wolcott said Blaine has never been president of our country but "He will be," enthusiastic applause. He said he was proud to cast his vote for a man who always sought every thing for his country and nothing for himself. Wolcott finished with the galleries crying Blaine.
Eustis of Minnesota, took the platform to second Blaine. Eustis mentioned McKinley as the great leader and dielple of protection, great cheering. Eustis's mention of Blaine's name aroused a storm of applause. Cheering for Blaine increased all over the house. Ladies waving their parasols and handkerchiefs. Reed of Maine arose to his feet waving a flag the enthusiasm increasing. A crowd gathered behind Reed of Maine arose to their feet waving a flag, the enthusiasm increasing. A crowd gathered behind Reed and cheered at the top of their voices. Many of the delegates stood on their chairs waving hats and shouting. The cheering completely drowned the band which started to play.
The audience caught up the refrain, "Blaine, Blaine, James G. Blaine, and cried in unison. The great leader continued and died only to be renewed with increased vigor. The demonstration for Blaine lasted 25 minutes, the ladies taking a most conspicuous part in it, while the chairman rapped for order the convention gradually quieting down at 1:10 p. m. Mattie of Colorado took platform to second Blaine's nomination, and the cheering for Blaine was renewed.
Indiana was called and Col. Dick Thompson took the platform to present Harrison, amid great cheering. Thompson said he proposed to present a man who does not seek success by deduction from any other great republican. "I nominate for president General Harrison. (Great cheering.) The cheering for Harrison was more general and prolonged than that for Blaine. Great demonstration all over the hall.
Most of the Massachusetts, Connecticut and Michigan delegates remain steady. Michigan was called but no candidate presented.
Dewey took the platform to second Harrison. Great cheering all over the hall, the audience paying strict attention and cheering various sentences uttered. Cheering broke out when he mentioned Harrison's name. Dewey referred to McKinley and great demonstrations took place all over the hall.
Dewey said, "Who will be given credit for great acts of this administration? Some one in the audience yelled out "Blaine." Great applause followed. Dewey said he yielded to no one in admiration and respect for the man from Maine. Said he yielded to no one in admiration for McKinley, the author of the tariff bill. (Great cheering.) He spoke of Sherman, Allison and Alger, and Reed, of Maine. Cheers for all and prolonged for the latter. Dewey was frequently interrupted by cheers for Harrison. The latter getting benefit of both. Harrison men confidently assert they will nominate on first ballot.
Harrison and Blaine banners carried around the hall. Demonstrations for both, seemingly impossible to separate it. Red, white and blue banners waved in all parts of the hall, amid great noise and confusion.
Order was restored at 2:05 p. m., and Warner Miller took the platform to second Blaine's nomination. When Miller mentioned the name of Blaine, cheers broke out in all parts of the hall. Harris, (colored), of North Carolina, seconded the nomination of Harrison. Boyd, (colored), of Tenn., seconded the nomination of Blaine.
Seymour, of New Jersey, moved that the convention proceed to ballot; carried at 2:55 p. m. Call of States ordered for a ballot, amid great excitement, at 3 p. m. States taking a poll of delegates. Alaska and Indian Territory were granted votes in the convention. Harrison nominated on first ballot.

Alger's name will not be presented. McKinley will get 20 or 22 from Michigan. Ohio will also vote for McKinley.
Wolcott, of Colorado, mentioned Blaine and great cheering ensued and renewed.
He predicted victory in November for the great and uncorrupted leader of the republican party, James G. Blaine, great cheering. Wolcott said Blaine has never been president of our country but "He will be," enthusiastic applause. He said he was proud to cast his vote for a man who always sought every thing for his country and nothing for himself. Wolcott finished with the galleries crying Blaine.
Eustis of Minnesota, took the platform to second Blaine. Eustis mentioned McKinley as the great leader and dielple of protection, great cheering. Eustis's mention of Blaine's name aroused a storm of applause. Cheering for Blaine increased all over the house. Ladies waving their parasols and handkerchiefs. Reed of Maine arose to his feet waving a flag the enthusiasm increasing. A crowd gathered behind Reed of Maine arose to their feet waving a flag, the enthusiasm increasing. A crowd gathered behind Reed and cheered at the top of their voices. Many of the delegates stood on their chairs waving hats and shouting. The cheering completely drowned the band which started to play.
The audience caught up the refrain, "Blaine, Blaine, James G. Blaine, and cried in unison. The great leader continued and died only to be renewed with increased vigor. The demonstration for Blaine lasted 25 minutes, the ladies taking a most conspicuous part in it, while the chairman rapped for order the convention gradually quieting down at 1:10 p. m. Mattie of Colorado took platform to second Blaine's nomination, and the cheering for Blaine was renewed.
Indiana was called and Col. Dick Thompson took the platform to present Harrison, amid great cheering. Thompson said he proposed to present a man who does not seek success by deduction from any other great republican. "I nominate for president General Harrison. (Great cheering.) The cheering for Harrison was more general and prolonged than that for Blaine. Great demonstration all over the hall.
Most of the Massachusetts, Connecticut and Michigan delegates remain steady. Michigan was called but no candidate presented.
Dewey took the platform to second Harrison. Great cheering all over the hall, the audience paying strict attention and cheering various sentences uttered. Cheering broke out when he mentioned Harrison's name. Dewey referred to McKinley and great demonstrations took place all over the hall.
Dewey said, "Who will be given credit for great acts of this administration? Some one in the audience yelled out "Blaine." Great applause followed. Dewey said he yielded to no one in admiration and respect for the man from Maine. Said he yielded to no one in admiration for McKinley, the author of the tariff bill. (Great cheering.) He spoke of Sherman, Allison and Alger, and Reed, of Maine. Cheers for all and prolonged for the latter. Dewey was frequently interrupted by cheers for Harrison. The latter getting benefit of both. Harrison men confidently assert they will nominate on first ballot.
Harrison and Blaine banners carried around the hall. Demonstrations for both, seemingly impossible to separate it. Red, white and blue banners waved in all parts of the hall, amid great noise and confusion.
Order was restored at 2:05 p. m., and Warner Miller took the platform to second Blaine's nomination. When Miller mentioned the name of Blaine, cheers broke out in all parts of the hall. Harris, (colored), of North Carolina, seconded the nomination of Harrison. Boyd, (colored), of Tenn., seconded the nomination of Blaine.
Seymour, of New Jersey, moved that the convention proceed to ballot; carried at 2:55 p. m. Call of States ordered for a ballot, amid great excitement, at 3 p. m. States taking a poll of delegates. Alaska and Indian Territory were granted votes in the convention. Harrison nominated on first ballot.

Blaine's Strength Failed to Materialize.
The Proceedings.

Blaine.....1823
McKinley.....142
Reed.....1823
Lincoln.....1
Adjourned until 8 o'clock tonight.
THE PROCEEDINGS.
MINNEAPOLIS, June 10.—Blaine people think no ballot will be taken today. Several New England states now in session with view of offering a combination on Reed. It is said Massachusetts is ready to cast its vote solely for him.
After prayer David Martin was announced as national committee man from Pennsylvania, vice Quay. Question came up then on adoption of the majority report of credentials committee. Quay in order to get to balloting at once announced that they would not oppose its adoption.
Blaine men have decided not to do any business but push for a vote, and expect a ballot at this session. The result, it is said, lies between Harrison and McKinley. Ohio delegates ready to vote for the latter. It is reliably stated that Idaho and some other far western states will turn to Harrison if they should drop Blaine.
