THE SUBSIDY RAISED.—Browns ville Times: The people of Lane county are jubilant now over the fact that the subsidy for the railroad from Eugene to Florence has all been raised. This was at first thought to be almost impossible, but every man put his shoulder to the wheel, fully realizing that in unity there is strength, and the $100,000 was raised. The people of that county never made a better investment in all their lives.

The Sun says: We tender the assurance of our admiring salutations to William Collins Whitney, the eleverest politician of the day. The democleverest politician of the day. The democratic party of this state has made a grand

The Alumni and the University, by Mark in Chicago, there was not the fain test semb-lance of a Cleveland machine. That is to say, there was nothing like a preconcerted national movement by skillful and interest-ed men to create a manifest sentiment in favor of his nomination. The nomination was made, and made in a manner that establishes beyond all doubt a degree of con-fidence in Mr. Cleveland, of an eager and resolute desire for his leadership that is absolutely without precedent in party history solutely without precedent in party history in this generation.

The Tribune says:
The democracy is bringing forward a candidate who was beaten four years upon his own record and upon an issue deliberately chosen by him. Thoughtful men will at once consider in what respect, if in any, he is stronger than he was when he was beaten. The record of his administration has en. The record of his administration has not been changed. Mr. Cleveland has written a letter on the silver question which renders him weaker in the Western states than he was then, while it does not strengthen him in the East, whose views on the same subject are as sound as his own.

The Herald says: It is the first time that a candidate beaten at the polls has been renominated; and that, too, against the very antagonist who defeated him. This hazardous experiment the republicans declined to enter upon at Minneapolis when Mr. Blaine was brought which he has been employed as an attorney, come up for trial at the next term of court. Worthy of Special Mention.

So much has has been said in praise of the music furnished during the commencement exercises just past, that we deem it worthy of this mention through our columns.

The music has been generally pronounced the best ever given in the city. The teachers of the conservatory Miss McCornack, director, teacher of plano, organ and voice; Mrs. Linn, soloist, teacher of violin and voice; and Miss Sawyers, planist, teacher of plano, and guitar, deserve much praise for the music in general, and especially for their own artistic renditions.

The solos of Miss McCornack and Mrs. Linn were highly commendable, the performance of the latter being pronounced as excelling all former efforts, was given two days to procure bonds.

while Miss Sawyers' rendering of the most difficult concert selections for the plano, without her music before her, was indeed remarkable.

The university should feel proud of its conservatory of music.
