Encampment Notes.

About thirty members of C Com-pany attended the Salem encamp-D. E. Yoran acting First Sergeant of C Company won the prize for the best drilled non-commissioned officer.

Five companies of the Second Regiment and the Marine Cadets took part in the sham fight yesterday. Several injuries were received among which was a powder burnt hand for Capt. Geo. Yoran and a head for Henry McCrady of Eugene.

The visiting companies were given excellent treatment by the home excellen militia, a fine camp ground adjacent the state house, meals at the best restaurants in the city and every thing as comfortable as possible.
Salem is not a church going town.

It had been previously advertised in the city papers that the Regiment would march to the M. E. church Sunday at 3 o'clock for service but when they arrived there not more than a dozen people were present neither was there an organist or choir

The water spout that struck Sam Sumner's place on Little Klamath lake shore, about a month ago, was a stunner. It cut a ditch over 300 yards long and four feet deep, by about 10 feet wide, removing rocks that weighed half a ton, piling up debris three or four feet in the tules at the edge of the lake, and cutting great crevices in the adjacent hills.

"Uneasy lies the head that wears a rown." If exemplification of this familiar quotation is needed, it is furnished every time the ezar of Russia goes on a journey. On his late trip to Copenhagen, whither he went to at-tend the golden wedding of the king and queen of Denmark, the Russian railways were guarded by soldiers at every 20 yards, no fewer than 60,000 men being required to cover the entire distance. All villages and towns through which the imperial train passed were watched and every stranger was compelled to give an ac-count of himself or suffer arrest. Truly the price which the despot pays for existence in these days is a heavy one.

Between 10,000 and 12,000 People Celebrate the Glorious Fourth Here.

The 116th anniversary of American Independence was celebrated in Eugene in grand style. The heavens were cloudy, and the day was pleasant. At 10:30 o'clock the procession form-ed in front of the city hall in the following order: Eugene cornet band, Officers of the Day, Mayor and Council, J. W. Geary Post G. A. R., Springfield band, Eugene Hose team No. 1, Eugene Hook & Ladder Co. No. 1, Eugene Engine Co. No. 1, Rescue Hose Team, plug uglies, Frasier's juvenile band, Marine 'adets, citizens in carriages and on horseback.

The procession marched north or Oak street to 5th, thence west to Wil-lamette, thence south to 11th, thence east to Oak, thence north to Court House square, where the following programme was had:

Eugene Band .......Chaplain. Springfield Band

Reading the Declaration of Inde-pendence...........C. E. Henderso I. D. Driver, D. D. Juvenile Band Music.. The audience present at these exercises was the largest ever seen in Eu-At the close of the same the people dispersed for lunch.

HOSE RACES.

At 2 p. m. the people were called to gether to witness the hose races on Eighth street, the same being packed. The Eugene Hose Team and two other picked teams from the Engine Company and the Oregon-Rescue hose team competed, but no time was given either, as the Eugene and engine teams failed to "get water," while the other got water, but an outsider from the Siuslaw country innocently lent his "assistance" which rendered the run void although water was obtained.

At 7:30 p. m. the following teams entered, the purse being $75 to the winner: Rescue Hose Team, Junction City Hose Team No. 1, Eugene The Rescue Hose Team made the first run getting water in 31 seconds; then came the Junction Team, who made a pretty good run but lost time at the hydrant; time 33 seconds. Af-ter this run came the Eugene Hose Team. They made the fastest run of the evening but they failed to get their nozzle on sufficiently, and it "blew off," hence they were given no time, and the Rescue Hose Team was declared the winners. Then came a gymnastic exhibition, given by Sid Black and Charles St. Clair, two travelling gentlemen. They gave an excellent exhibition, and were the recipients of long and prolonged cheers. They also gave an exhibition in bicycle riding which was At 3 o'clock several hundred people wended their way to the Stewart race course to witness the trials of speed.

The first event was a race, free for all, i mile, two best in three, for a purse of $65, 70 per cent to first, 20 to second and 10 to third. The following horses were entered: Cow Boy by Clarence Luckey Friday by Montgomery, Coalburner by Seal. Only a few pools were sold The first heat was won by Friday and the next two heats were taken by Cow Boy. It was a pretty race, being hotly at the crack of the pistol, except Cline, who was left at the post. Croner ran ahead until near the finish when Roberts drew ahead and won by two feet. Cline claimed that the others started before the crack of the pistol but the judges did not sustain him. Several pools were sold on the race, Roberts being the favorite. Several match pony races took place after the regular programme.

Florence Without Windows. Over-charge of Giant Powder Does

FLORENCE, Or., July 4.-Some persons, with more patriotism than judg-ment, placed a large quantity of giant powder in the street in the center of the business portion of town and at about 6 o'clock this morning exploded it, blowing out the windows in two sides of the Morris hotel, breaking all the large plate glass in the front of Meyer & Kyle's store and blowing in two doors and all the windows of Wm. Kyle's residence. All the windows on the west side of Cathey's hall were broken by the concussion and windows in all the buildings within several blocks more or less broken. Showcases, clocks and China wear were more or less damaged and the whole town was in a state of confusion and alarm until it was learned that no one was serious-ly injured. Mrs. Mason, who was sleeping in Mr. Kyle's residence was thrown out of bed on the floor and remained unconscious for some time

The celebration here with the above exception was a decided success. Notwithstanding there was a celebration at Seaton and also one on Tsilteoos lake, the crowd was much larger than expected. The oration, games and music were exceptionally good. The best of order prevailed throughout the day. A closely contested game of base ball closed the exercises of the day. Your correspondent is of the opinion that the university nine would have no business playing with the boys of Florence unless they expected to loose. The weather was delightful during the EDITOR GUARD:—The stage ride from Eugene to the head of tide, from a wearisome journey of a few years ago is now nothing less than a delightful pleasure ride. After leaving the dusty lanes of the prairie you enter the shade of the forest and cross frequent spring-brooks and larger streams full of sport-ing trout. The road over the Lake creek route has been so much improved by the judicious expenditure of a few hundred dollars that several hours time is gained. From the top of Nel-son hill to Joe Whisman's the stage winds down the gentle grades amid the shades of towering firs, in a sweeping trot and covers the road that used to require three hours, in fifty minutes. The Whisman Brothers who have charge of this part of the road, have certainly done a great amount of permanent improvement by changing grades and shortening the road. If a few more dollars were applied on this drive, Lane county would have a thor-oughfare to the coast that would be "a oughfare to the coast that would be "a thing of beauty and joy forever."

Trout fishing in Lake and Nelson creeks is of the very best. They bite savagely and will take your fly away with them if you are not careful. You should provide your book with several inches of wire and come prepared to reel out plenty of line in case you hook one of those two or three pounders. one of those two or three pounders. Choice camping places along the road are numerous, also on the beach, and hay for horses is plenty and cheap. The cheapest way, however, to enjoy an outing on this line is to take the stage at Eugene and bring your camping outfit and stop for a fish for a few days on Lake creek, then take the stage for the head of tide where you will find the steamer, with ample accommodations, awaiting you for a beautiful ride to Florence. At this place you may take another stage for place you may take another stage for the cape or Heceta Head or stop by the wayside at some of the numerous camping places along the beach. The cedar grove at Lilly lake is one of these very inviting camps and places on the stage line in easy reach of mail and daily communication with Florence. The sea-lion rocks and Heceta Heads, where the lighthouse is under conwhere the lighthouse is under construction, are only a short distance from this camp. The following dispatch was received from Salem last night: "When Sheriff Kelly and officers left "When Sheriff Kelly and officers left Salem they expected to go to Wheat-land and search the Willamette river bottoms in that vicinity for traces of Wilson. They found nothing to indicate that he had been along the river there. Then they proceeded to Mc-Minnville, which city they left early this evening for Dayton, to follow up the clue of a man seen running from the barn at Frank Stephen's place. This man is said to answer Wilson's description. The officers are divided as to Wilson's whereabouts. Many believe that he got out of the canyon the first night and is now in the Coast range, having traveled by night and rested in obscure places by day.

The Latest Ciue. PORTLAND, July 7.—The latest advices are to the effect that Wilson has been located several miles above Oswego, on the west side of the river, and that a large posse is out closing in on him. Sheriff Kelly, who went to Salem Tuesday night, was at McMinnville yesterday, and telephoned that as yet he had obtained no certain clue as to the whomeshouts of the fording. to the whereabouts of the fugitive. He thought, however, that Wilson was in hiding somewhere between McMinnville and Oswego. Deputy Sheriff Morgan, who has not been heard from for several days, was also heard from yesterday. He was a few miles above in charge are deserving of the thanks of Oswego, and sent word that Wilson was somewhere in that vicinity. Mor-gan is of the opinion that Wilson is making his way toward his brother's house at Milwaukie.
