Blackberries are ripening very fast. W. M. Butler made a flying visit to Mabel Sunday.

Franklin & Sons are doing a thriving business in the saw mill. A small shower visited the crops the other day, which was welcomed by the farmers.

Miss Ella Whitbeck is spending her vacation from school with her parents and friends. Miss Elsie Whitbeck has returned home from Junction, where she has been attending school.

F. B. Decker, who was hurt on a drive of logs in the McKenzie river, has returned to his home and is greatly improved. A Sunday school picnic was given at the Mill creek grove on the 4th. We think it was the wrong time of the month, as there were very few people there. A dance was given in the evening which was greatly enjoyed by all those who attended.

While F. T. Button was working on a rip saw in Biglow & Kirkpatrick's planing mill in this city about 10 o'clock this morning, a piece flew from the saw, striking him just under the left eye, cutting a large gash to the bone. Luckily the eye was not injured and the wound though painful will not be serious. Dr. McKenney gave surgical attention.

RETURNED.—The gentlemen who went to the Blue river mines returned Saturday and Sunday. They report much development work being done in the mines, and that the prospects are excellent. The Eugene Company's tunnel is in the mountain 160 feet, and during the past week a contract was let to extend the same 100 feet more.
