A Question.

Where are you going to buy your lumber? Chapman & Son have refitted their mill on Cedar Flat and offer the best of rough and finished lumber for sale.

Working on the Oregon Pacific.

ALBANY, Or., July 12.—A force of 40 Chinamen were put to work today on the eastward extension of the Oregon Pacific railroad to put the road in thorough repair to the end of the track. The opinion is expressed in railroad circles that the work of construction on the Oregon Pacific will be resumed within a few weeks.

A PIONEER DEAD.

Robert Foster, a pioneer farmer, died at his home near the city this evening after a short illness. The deceased was a brother of James Foster, one of the founders of the city of Albany.

Baker City Democrat: In North Fork fossil beds, besides remains of three toed horses, is found an extinct species of cat—the gomphodus—which once roamed over Oregon, and which amused itself and fed itself by chewing up the mighty reptiles of millions of years ago. It was as big as the biggest panther, and had two teeth in its upper jaw resembling daggers, each five inches in length. As weapons for penetrating flesh, they are unrivaled for carnivorous animals, recent or extinct. They are rather like the teeth of some huge flesh eating dinosarus, the "terrible reptiles" of the mesozoic epoch, which had cutting teeth that nothing could resist. Doubtless this creature was inconceivably bloodthirsty.

Even the convicts are on to Wilson: The Statesman says. The state prison officials received Wilson with a protest. They said they had no authority to receive him; the only authority they had was a permit from the Governor. No effort will be made in any direction to take him out of the hands of the law. Everything goes on as usual at the prison and there will be no mob violence. All the convicts in the prison know that Wilson is among them, and if they could get their hands on him they would make short work of the fellow. They would lynch him right in prison.

There is a great deal of anxiety occasioned over the mysterious disappearance of A. W. Cuthbert, a merchant of Kamela, Union county. Mr. Cuthbert left home about ten days ago for Portland and since that time has not been heard from. He had with him several hundred dollars in money, which he expected to pay out in Portland.

The intensity of the heat in Sherman county on Wednesday of last week may be judged from the following incident related by the Moro Observer: Daniel McFadden, who is working for Contractor L. K. Moore on a building south of town, laid his vest on some lumber, and in the pocket was a bunch of matches. The sun was shining directly on the lumber and before long the matches ignited and the garment was more than half consumed before the fire was discovered.

Skinner Butte Driveway.

Daily Guard, July 8.

This morning E. R. Hollenbeck commenced work on his contract for building a driveway on Skinner's Butte for Dr. T. W. Shelton. The road way begins at the intersection of Third and Pearl streets, with an opening into it from the Doctors residence grounds, and runs thence west to a point west of the line of Willamette street, then running back passes just below the reservoir to the north and then west north of the observatory to the summit of the butte. The distance is 2200 feet with a grade of about 200 feet in that distance.

This will be splendid addition to the drive ways of Eugene and vicinity. Many persons, residents and strangers alike, will be enabled to take a birds eye view of Eugene and vicinity and the head of the Willamette valley, without the climb which many are unable to make. Dr. Shelton's public spirit is to be commended in this enterprise.

Daily Guard, July 11.

TAKEN TO THE ASYLUM.—Mrs. Barton, the Junction lady who was arrested on the charge of insanity, was examined in that city last Saturday evening before Judge Fisk, Deputy Prosecuting Attorney Potter and Drs. Prineville Review: Parties from the eastern part of the county, who were in town the first of the week, said there would be very little grain or hay raised in that section except on land that had been irrigated.

The term of 250 days imprisonment of Thomas E. Russell, for assaulting J. C. Gray, expires tomorrow. It was expected a pardon would be granted at least a few days before that time but so far none has been given.

Marshal Eastland arrested the boys who run for the hotels last night on complaint of Agent Adair for taking too much liberty at the depot. Recorder Dorris gave them a reprimand and they were allowed to go.

Marshal Eastland arrested a man last evening on the charge of drunk and disorderly. He was sentenced to five days in the city jail by Recorder Dorris this morning, and will probably be given employment on the streets.

The Roseburg grand jury this week considered the coroner's jury report on the killing of Roland Ward's son near Comstock recently. There was no evidence produced to sustain the verdict of the coroner's jury, and the whole business was ignored.

Surveyor Koch is locating the new county jail today, under the supervision of Commissioner Perkins. It will occupy ground in front of and on the site of the old structure, six feet north of Eighth street, on a line with the city hall.

Mr. Mayer, while at work cultivating the Sladden orchard, this morning, plowed up a yellow jackets nest, and hundreds of them stung him. He suffered severely, until Dr. Payton was called and administered remedies, relieving the pain.

The bids for remodeling the hall of representatives of the capitol at Salem were opened last week. The highest bid was $7900 and the lowest $3900. For painting and decorating the highest was $2989 and the lowest $885. The difference in the bids is rather surprising.

Albany Daily Democrat, July 11: J. R. Wyatt leaves tonight for Harrisburg, from which place he will go to Kitson's on the old military wagon road, with a party from Harrisburg. Messrs. Paynes, Althouse and Young are at those springs instead of at Belknap as reported.

Chester Osburn is making a reputation as a fisherman at the McKenzie Bridge. Geo. Frissell has claimed to be the boss fisherman, but Chester catches two trout to his one. He probably has some attractive bait to thus beat a veteran fisherman.

Eugene needs a city jail as badly as Lane county needed a county jail. The cell work in the old county jail should be purchased by the council and a new city jail ordered constructed. The present calaboose is not fit to confine human beings in.

Salem Journal, July 12: Wilson, the Walsh murderer, was this morning put into "muffs," such as are placed upon dangerous insane persons. This was done because the prisoner insists on picking the splints off his broken arm, and in other ways injuring himself.

All of the great World's Fair buildings, except two are practically finished. A portion of the interior finishing and decorating is all that remains to be done on most of them. On the manufactures building and machinery hall work is being pushed sixteen hours a day, and they are fast catching up with the other structures.

Two surveyors near Prineville while in camp last week, say they heard two distinct reports as of heavy blasts. No tremor of the earth was felt, however. Next morning on viewing the snowy crests of Hood and Jefferson, each of the mountains was seen to be emitting smoke in profuse volumes.

A meeting of the hop growers of the Willamette valley will be held at Salem, Saturday, July 16, 1892, for the purpose of organizing a hop growers' mutual fire relief association. The object is to obtain a cheaper rate of insurance on hop houses and hops while drying, thereby saving quite an expense to growers.

"The Hustler" will soon inaugurate active rehearsals for its ensuing season's tour. Already several of its participants are actively engaged in preparing 'special' acts for the coming campaign. Manager Thomas H. Davis claims that "The Hustler" will continue to coin money after its few competitors are dead and buried.

Some farmers in Union county are growing fences for their fields from the cactus, or Texas Tuna hedge. All agree that it is the cheapest fence they can obtain, and in three years Grand Ronde valley will be rendered even more lovely than it is now by the removal of the old rail and barb-wire fences and the substitution of long rows of beautiful, blooming tuna hedge.

A curious incident happened in the vicinity of Pendleton during the fierce rainstorm of last week, says the East Oregonian. In the afternoon, finding it impossible to work, Clarence Bailey started to leave the field, and taking hold of the top wire of the barb-wire fence, received a shock like that from a galvanic battery. There had been no lightning, and it is strange how the wire became charged with electricity.

As Bud Wallace, his wife and four children, accompanied by Miss Lizzie Mack, were returning to Salem from Tillamook county a few days ago, the carriage ran off the grade and rolled about 100 feet down into the river. Miss Mack had the little babe in her arms and when she saw they were falling, threw the child just in time for its father to catch it and save its life. Miss Mack went over the bank, struck her breast on a rock and bounded into the water. She died an hour later.

Albany Democrat: Shortly after midnight this morning Mr. Henry Johnson, residing across the Willamette heard his dog, half bird and shepherd, evidently in a mortal combat with something. Arising he found the dog fighting a big porcupine, very rare in this valley. With a club he dispatched the bristling animal. The dog's head was filled full of the sharp quills, and it took several hours to get them all out, some of them being driven in an inch and a half. The canine, though ruined, will probably live.

Portland Welcome: For the first time since his release from prison, Sandy Olds, the slayer of Emil Weber, a few days ago, had a chance to meet Henry McGinn, who prosecuted him at his three trials, face to face. The circumstances of the meeting were also peculiar. Mr. McGinn had been enjoying a Turkish bath at the Hamman, and going into the waiting room found Sandy there alone. The latter glared at the man who had tried vigorously to send him to the gallows while McGinn looked him straight in the eye, neither of the men uttered a word. For a full minute they stood thus when both went their own way as though they had never met before.

NOT ROBBED.—Yesterday we had an item about Tom Bell, the Camas swale man being robbed. It appears now that he was not robbed at all. Thursday evening, while in a maudlin condition, he gave the money to A. K. Patterson for safe keeping, and the next morning knew nothing about so doing. The money was returned to him yesterday afternoon about 3 o'clock and he was a surprised man. The money came from the pension office at Washington.

PLENTY OF WATER.—The experimental well for the Eugene Water Company has reached bedrock. It is located near the corner of High and Sixths street, and demonstrates to a certainty that the necessary supply of good, wholesome, cool and pure water can be obtained. A contract will probably be let for the building of the enlarged well and the removal of the pumping station. Then Eugene will be enabled to use its sewer system for the purpose for which it was intended.

BAPTIZED.—Rev. Dollarhide, of the Free Methodist Church, of Eugene, baptized 15 converts at Coburg last Sunday.

BORN.—In Eugene, Monday, twin girls were born to the wife of Noble Stryker.

THE EUGENE MILITIA.

Company C Passes a Commendable Inspection.

Brigadier General H. B. Compson, with his adjutant Chas. S. Moore of Linkville have started out to inspect the Oregon militia for the purpose of "weeding out" and better equipping the "Guards" for any work they may hereafter be called upon to do. Major James Jackson of the regular army who has been detailed as instructor for this state accompanies the General as does also Col. J. T. Bowditch of Ashland.

Pursuant to order C Co. assembled at the armory last Saturday night and at 8:30 marched to the public school campus where they were reviewed by the above-named officers, Col. S. L. Lovell of Salem and Lieut. F. L. Chambers also being present.

Col. Lovell then ordered the company to parade on the corner of 9th and Willamette Streets the ground being better fitted for the maneuvers and the arc lights affording a better view for the officers as well as the large crowd which had assembled.

The officers afterward inspected the arms and equipment at the armory. Commendatory remarks were spoken by the officers. It is likely that some of the old uniforms which have been in use for five years will be replaced by new ones. This is an evidence of the fact that brigade officers as well as the regimental commander thinks C Company well worth looking after. Colonel Lovell was heard to remark to the General during the parade that this company was the best, taken as a whole, in his regiment. This sympathy on his part is not lost on the boys here for whatever is done for C. Company they will give the Colonel his share of the credit for they are always loyal to him.

The programme now is to get the whole of the O. N. G. in as good shape as possible and have a four day's brigade encampment next summer and go from there direct to the World's Fair where it is calculated upwards of 100,000 National Guards will be present.

JASPER.

Contract Let.

The contract has been let to J. G. Kelley to finish the well at the new water works plant according to the first intentions. It is 25½ feet to bed rock from the surface and one pump is being used now with a capacity of 600 gallons a minute to keep the water from obstructing the work. Another pump of like capacity is in readiness to be used as soon as it becomes necessary. The work is to be completed in sixty days. An analysis of the water obtained has shown it to be on a par with the best drinking waters in the state.

Railroad Whistles.

One whistle of the locomotive means "stop;" two means "clear the track; we're coming;" three means "back up;" and four calls in the hind brakeman. Engines of ten give four petulant, impatient whistles, which are almost human in suggestiveness and most outsiders are at a loss to know what they are for.

Notice.

All accounts due the firm of Luckey & Co. must be paid by August 1st, or collection of the same will be forced.

ROBBED OF $120.—Thos. Bell, who lives on Camas swale, about fifteen miles south-easterly from Eugene, came to town last evening and got gloriously full on red liquor, and was displaying his wealth to many, which consisted of six bright $20 gold pieces. After a time he became "tired" and went to sleep in a chair, utterly oblivious of all worldly affairs. A few hours thereafter he awoke and wanting another drink to quench his thirst, he "went down" after his purse, when lo and behold it had taken flight, and also all his wealth. The police have been looking for a stranger, who is suspicioned of the crime, but he has probably picked himself up and departed for other climes, as they have been unable to locate him.

DEDICATED.—The new Menonnite church on Fern Ridge, 10 miles northwest of Eugene, was dedicated Sunday. The attendance was very large, a large number being present from Eugene. The dedicatory sermon was presented by the Bishop of the State, assisted by Revs. Jacob Schrag, I. D. Driver and E. P. Henderson. The services were held in both the English and German languages, the German choir being led by Jos. Koch, of this city. The debt remaining, $200, was immediately subscribed. The church is a neat one and a credit to our Menonnite friends and the people of Lane county.

DEMOLISHING THE JAIL.—The contractors for the new jail today commenced tearing down the old structure that has done duty for thirty-four years. It was built in 1858 when Lane county had a population of less than 4000 people. It has never been a secure place for keeping prisoners and numerous escapes have taken place from within its walls. In a few days no vestige of the old eyesore will remain, and in its stead will soon arise a modern jail, beautiful in architecture, and safe and healthful for prisoners.

SENT TO EUGENE.—Grants Pass Courier: Abbott, the young man whose leg was broken several weeks ago was sent to Eugene at the county's expense Thursday last. He had been stopping at the Delmonico and was several months in arrears for board before the accident, which was the result of his own carelessness, occurred. Since then Mr. Lindsey has been nursing him without compensation, the county having refused to defray the expenses. Abbott's mother lives in Eugene.

12½ DAYS.—J. P. Fitzsimmons, who stole a buggy whip of Mr. Weideman, was tried before Justice Kinsey Wednesday afternoon. He was convicted and sentenced to pay a fine of $25 or 12½ days in jail. Not having any money he chose the imprisonment of necessity, and he is now serving the same out in the city calaboose.
