FRIDAY, JULY 22.
The peach crop in Lane county is light.
John Robinson's circus does not exhibit in Albany this year.
Miss Minnie Reimer of Portland has just returned here from a visit to Deadwood.
The rock for the new county jail is being hauled from the Thurston quarry.
Judge Fullerton has been holding court this week from 8 a. m. until 10 p. m. daily.
E. J. Frasier has gone to Tacoma in answer to a telegram stating his sister at that place is very ill.
Chas. Haines, a printer from Portland, is in Eugene on his way home from the sea coast near Florence.
Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Fox and Rev. G.
A. Blair and family went to Newport this morning. Mrs. Crow went yesterday.
E. A. Wells, who has been selling wire fence in this vicinity for some time past, left for Iiwaco, Wash., this morning, for a few days out.
Wm. Renshaw and family left by private conveyance for Heeeta Head this morning. They will be absent about one month.
Among those who attended the funeral of F. B. Dunn, from a distance, we noticed Judge R. S. Bean, of Salem, and Robt. Clow, of Junction.
Three "sure thing" operators were in town last night. They are working trains on the S. P. R. R. If they caught anyone in Eugene we have not reports.
The business men, by the closing of their houses today, testified to the stirling worth and character of their late fellow worker and neighbor.
Albany Democrat, July 21: Wm.
Obenauer came from Eugene this morning, arriving here at 1 o'clock, in six hours, which is rapid bicycle riding for promiscuous roads.
A girl usually looks so pretty when she puckers up her lips to try to whistle that it is dangerous for her to do so in the vicinity of a young man in the moonlight, for fear she may be misanderstood.
Heppner Gazette, July 19: B. Crawford, uncle of Vawter Crawford, accompanied by his family, got in Saturday, overlaid, from Mohawk valley, Lane county, on their way to Watsburg, Wash., where they will locate. They remained in Heppner till yesterday morning.
Pendleton, E. O.: "Capt. D. W. Jarvis, ex-superintendent of this county, has accepted the principalship of one of the Portland schools, and will remove to that city to teach. He has resigned as principal of the Athena school." Prof. Jarvis is a son-in-law of Gov. Whiteaker.
In an article in the Oregonian concerning the next Mechanics fair at Portland we find the following: "Mr.
Crouch, of Eugene, who invented the "armless dynamo" promises some surprising features in connection with his exhibit. As he is an Oregonian we take an interest in his work." The Dalles Sun, July 19: The contest proceedings, instituted by Mr.
J. M. Huntington against Mr. J. B. Croson, who was elected county clerk at the late election came up before Judge Bradshaw Monday afternoon. Mr. Huntington had as counsel Mr. Lord of Portland, and Mr. B. S. Huntington while Mr. Croson was represented by Judge Bennett and J.
L. Story. The defense objected to the notice of contest as handed in and counsel addressed the judge with a view of having the whole matter thrown out. After hearing arguments pro and con, the court rendered his decision adversely to the plaintiff, and Mr. Croson will continue to act as county clerk. There was no recounting of ball ot.
East Oregonian: Three strange Indians were noticed on our streets a day or two since. They are Bannocks, one being a "big chief" of that tribe.
Since the war of 1876 there has been bad blood between the Bannocks and the Umatilla reservation Indians.
Prior to that time they were very friendly and engaged in trade, the Umatillas exchanging ponies for furs and buffalo robes. But in 1876 the "umatillas took up arms on the side of the whites against the hostile Bannocks.
The latter's chief, Egan, was slain by Ten-e-ou-it, and a force of Bannocks was driven through the Camas Prairie country by a party of Umatilla braves.
The hearts of each tribe have since been turned against the other, and there have been no relations between them. The visit of these Bannocks was for the purpose of restoring peace and friendliness. They were well received on the reservation, difficulties were patched up and the hatchet was buried deep. As is customary with the Indians, a number of presents were given the visitors as tokens of good will.

BURNED.—The steamer R. C. Young was burned at Dove's landing, above Salem, yesterday afternoon to the waters edge. Loss $8000 with $3000 in insurance.

ANOTHER SUDDEN DEATH.
Hiram Stewart, of Goshen Precinct, Expires Suddenly Saturday.
Hiram Stewart, an old and highly respected pioneer residing about four miles southwest of Goshen, went out to milk his cows as usual Saturday evening, July 23, at about 8 o'clock, and being absent an unusual length of time, his wife became alarmed and went out and found him lying dead upon his face. He received a partial stroke about three years ago and since then has been in very poor health, especially unable to endure warm weather. He was 72 years of age.
He was down to Goshen during the day, and in speaking of Mr. Dum's sudden death remarked that when he was to die he wanted some wine.
The funeral took place Monday at 10 a.
m. from his late residence to the Creswell cemetery, the attendance being very large.

BOUND OVER.
McIntosh and Brown Held to Await
The Grand Jury.
Daily Guard, July 21.
McIntosh and Brown, the confidence men were given an examination before Justice Kinsey at the Court House this morning at 9 o'clock on the charge of having committed forgery by having raised B. F.
Finn's check from $10 to $210 and attempting to cash the same. After hearing the evidence, which was overwhelming, the Justice bound them over in the sum of $100 each to await the action of the grand jury. The prisoners submitted no evidence whatever.
They were taken to Roseburg this afternoon by Deputy Sheriff Croser, to be confined in the Douglas county jail as our jail has been torn down to make room for the new structure.
A letter was received by Sheriff Noland last night from Sheriff Booth of Crook county asking him to arrest the man Brown, and sending an accurate description of the individual therewith, for obtaining money under false pretenses, which shows plainly that the couple had been operating in that section. The letter also stated that if they had any horses in their possession they had stolen them in that county. The two horses which they were riding are now in pasture at Corvallis and will probably be claimed soon by some one.

Funeral Ceremonies.
Daily Guard, July 22.
The funeral of the late F. B. Dunn took place this afternoon at 2:30 o'clock from his late residence to the Masonic cemetery.
The pall bearers were as follows: J. H.
McClung and A. V. Peters representing the citizens, Chas. Johnson and Jos. M.
Yoran of the A. O. U. W. Lodge, S. M. Yoran and J. F. Robinson of the Commandery, Knights Templar, Chas. Lauer and F. W.
Osburn, Eugene Lodge, No 11, A. F. & A.
M. The religious services at the residence were conducted by Rev. D. A. Waters, in a very impressive manner. At the grave the ceremonies were conducted by the Masonic and Workmen lodge. The funeral offerings were numerous and beautiful.
The procession was the largest one that ever wended its way to a cemetery from this city. The Masonic and A. O. U. W. Lodges attended in full strength, while Ivanhoe Commandery acted as an escort. A number of Masons from Portland, Albany and Junction were present. J. C. Gray acted as chaplain and R. M. Day as marshal for the occasion.
The public offices of the county and city,
and every business house in Eugene were closed during the funeral, attesting the estimate in which he was held, and the worth of his services.
F. B. Dunn was a good man, and the people mourn his death. Eugene in him has lost an invaluable citizen. In his deep affliction the family have the sympathy of all the people who have known him so long
and who held him in such high respect and regard.

Warning.
Some few days since the GUARD called the attention of its readers to a gross violation of the Oregon game law.
Pursuant to its statement at that time, we intend to publish all names where actual proof of guilt can be adduced in this respect.
The case at hand to which we call the attention of the officers is two boys, one named Luckey and the other Whitney, in killing young grouse and pheasants, but little more than feathered out. Twenty or twenty-five were peddled about town this way only last Saturday.
These birds are scarcely as large as a quail yet and no true sportsman will kill birds which have not attained one-third their growth.

Card of Thanks.
EUGENE, July 21, 1892.
We desire to express our gratitude to our friends in and out of the church for their constant attention and untiring assistance and sympathy during our late severe sickness. Also to Drs. Paine, Prentice and Harris for their vigilance and successful treatment.
REV. AND MRS. G. A. BLAIR.

THE RUSH FOR LAND.—Oregon City Enterprise: Last Tuesday morning three and a half townships of newly surveyed government land were opened for filings at the Oregon City land office. All of this land is situated in Clatsop county and most of it is well timbered. Applicants for the land began arriving Sunday night and the lines coming all day Monday and continued all day Tuesday. Those land buyers were kept busy making out papers. Tuesday morning bright and early there were fifty men in line in the corridor leading to the register's office and there would have been more but for the belief that a decision would be made to treat all as simultaneous applications. When the register's door was opened there was a little inclination to scramble for position, but Captain Jennings, who is the register, is such a fair man that the applicants felt that they would all be treated alike and if any disturbance was made he would close his office and not receive any applications. Then the applications were filed quietly and ex-pediently and there was no excitement. Tuesday eighty-six applications were filed, of which twenty-four were pre-emptions, fourteen homesteads and forty-eight timber claims. These brought $26 to the receiver. Wednesday morning a batch of eighty-six other applications were received by mail from Astoria. All these, except in cases where there are contest, will be admitted to filings at once.

KILLED BY THE CARS.—Albany Democrat, July 22: As this morning's train with J.
H. Andrews as conductor was approaching Gerstals, about a half a mile this side, a man was seen on the track in front of the engine, turning his head so as to see the approaching train. Thinking of course that he would step from the track, the train was not stopped until too late. The man was thrown ten or twelve feet from the track. His left leg and right arm were broken. He was taken on the cars to Gerstals, but died before reaching that city. Name, unknown.

A. O. U. W. NOTES.—During the past year 17 new lodges have been organized. The present membership in Oregon is 4,284, showing a gain since separation of $40. The maximum age of new members was reduced from 50 to 45 years. Portland was chosen as the next place of meeting of the grand lodge, the third Wednesday in July, 1893.

A BILL.—J. F. Jones, the man who started the Troy steam laundry on Ninth street, skipped out the other day leaving several small bills unpaid. He took the machinery to Henderson station for shipment. Steam laundries have a hard time in succeeding in Eugene.

SHERIFF'S SALE.—Sheriff Noland Saturday sold on an execution issued out of the circuit court in favor of Mary McGraw and against W. F. and O. Gray, 30 acres of land in Sec. 17, T. 30 S., R. 5 W., to W. F. Gray, for the sum of $176.

A 13 B. TAUGHT.—Chester Osburn, so a correspondent informs us, caught a thirteen pound dolly vander trout near the McKenzie bridge last Thursday. Chester is the champion fisher on the river this summer.

BORN.—In Eugene, Oregon, July 23, 1892, to the wife of Drew Griffin, a son, Drew now steps several inches higher than heretofore.

SKULL FRACTURE.—Prof. Reid informs us that the boy Scott, who was injured by a limb broken by a falling tree on Hill's creek, near Jasper is slowly improving. Mr.
Reid was one of the campers near the place at the time of the accident which was caused by some young men from near Irving setting out a fire near where several small parties were camped to pick blackberries. The fire burned into trees falling them uncomfortably close and in some cases serious accidents being barely escaped. After bringing his family home a few days after the accident mentioned, Mr. Reid returned accompanied by a doctor from this city as there was no one to help the father care for his son as they were on at the same time that the boy's skull was fractured, a depression being plainly noticeable.
No surgical operation was performed however as the boy was gaining strength.

LOOK OUT FOR HIM.—Salem Statesman: "Boswell is in town, and everyone who knows anything of criminals will not ask an explanation. He is a dark fellow, wears a light felt hat, has dark moustache and usually wears an overcoat and gloves. You will know him by this picture should you see him. He is the fellow you want to look out for. His professed business is the treating of ladies' hair, removal of freckles, etc. but he is an all round sleek man. While ostensibly soliciting work in this line in the resident portion of the city, he is at the same time "slizing up" the houses, preparatory to a night raid. He is a swindler and thief and has done time all over the country for petty larceny." We understand that this same Indefinitely is headed for Eugene, therefore we would ask our subscribers to be on the lookout for him.

WEDDED.—Salem Statesman: "In East Portland, on Thursday last, Miss Mary C. Hill was married to Dr.
Thomas A. Box, of Tacoma. The wedding took place at the residence of A. H. Breyman, a large and brilliant party being assembled. The bride was formerly a teacher in the public schools of Salem, and noted as a charming and brilliant young lady. Among those present from Salem were: Mrs. E. L.
Bristow, sister of the bride, Dr. S. R. and Mrs. Jessup, and Albert Jessup." Miss Hill was born and reared in Eugene, and her many friends here offer their congratulations.

TO PORTLAND.—Attorneys J. J.
Walton, A. C. Woodcock and A. E.
Gallagher have gone to Portland to try the case of Ullman & Co. vs Parson Bros., for damages, in Judge Deady's U. S. court. This is a case resulting from the sale of some hops that the Ullmans' had contracted for from the Messrs. Parsons. It has already been tried in the Lane county circuit court three times, the Ullmans' coming out second best each time. Still they seem to stay.

INCORPORATED.—Articles of incorporation of the Canyonville Mining Co. have been filed with the county clerk and secretary of state. Incorporators E. C. Smith, Leigh Harnett, H. W.
Holden, Halsey, and A. C. Woodcock. Object to run and operate mines, manufacture lumber and engage in merchandising. Principal office at Eugene. The company will proceed at once to organize and elect officers.

HEAVY LIFE INSURANCE.—The late F. B. Dunn carried about $17,000 fraternal and other life insurance.

They were taken to Roseburg this afternoon by Deputy Sheriff Croser, to be con-
new structure.
A letter was received by Sheriff Noland
last night from Sheriff Booth of Crook
county asking him to arrest the man Brown,
individual therewith, for obtaining money
claimed soon by some one.

M. The religious services at the residence
very impressive manner. At the grave
the ceremonies were conducted by the Ma-
offerings were numerous and beautiful.
Junction were present. J. C. Gray acted
as chaplain and R. M. Day as marshal for
the occasion.
The public offices of the county and city,
and every business house in Eugene were
closed during the funeral, attesting the es-
of his services.
F. B. Dunn was a good man, and the
and regard.
