Florence Notes.

The West, July 22.

There are now twenty-five men—mostly carpenters—at work constructing scows and buildings for the government.

Road Supervisor Furnish is at work building the county road between Acme and Florence. The road is to follow along the river from Acme to the point at the mouth of the North Fork, round the point and up the North Fork to a point near Indian George's place, thence across the river and connect with the county road, running north from Florence, at its intersection with Pacific avenue.

The officers recently elected by Heceta Lodge, No. 111, I O O F, are N G, Wm Kyle; V G, M D Landis; Rec Sec, J L Furnish; Financial Sec, F H Rogers. Those appointed are, W, J C Brown; Conductor, M McDonald; I G, Wm Bernhard; O G, L C Ackerly; R S N G, E T Johnson; L S N G, Alfred Mason; R S V G, H D Chamberlin; L S V G, J A Meyer; R S S, B W Dorsey; L S S, Wm Saubert.

The Meyer & Kyle salmon cannery is being generally overhauled this week, preparatory to an early commencement of canning operations. The machinery is being all taken apart, burnished, oiled and put in place again; new furnaces are being put in; a new and much larger well is being dug. Mr Kyle informs a reporter that he intends to begin work by the first of August, and that the Chinese employes are expected to arrive on the chance this week.

Wednesday morning a sad accident happened to Henry Nelson. He was engaged in operating a hay fork, on Mr. Lindsly's place on the North Fork, when a rope to which was fastened a tackle block and which was suspended about twenty-five feet over him, gave way and came down with a crash striking Mr. Nelson on the head and knocking him from the load of hay. The doctor reports it a very serious case, and considers there is but one chance in ten for recovery. The blow received by Mr. Nelson was made doubly severe by the fact that a team of horses was pulling on the block at the time it gave way.

Springfield Items.

Messenger, July 22.

Perhaps the two proudest papas in town are Gus Washburne and E. K. McMichael. Gus' new boy and Mc's new girl arrived the same day.

A. Wheeler's logs are now entering the race and some of them will reach the mill today or tomorrow. The mill will begin operations the first of next week.

Hopeween around Springfield pronounce their fields comparatively free from lice and with two weeks more of clear weather will have no trouble with the pests. The yield will be good and picking will begin about August 20.

Rev. S. E. Milam and wife left Tuesday for Goose lake to be gone about six weeks visiting relatives. The pulpit will be occupied the first Sunday in August by Rev. L. A. Myers and the third Sunday by Rev. Jenkins of Eugene.

M. H. Harlow has a thirty-year-old cherry tree of the Royal Ann variety from which 940 pounds of cherries were picked this season and sold at five cents per pound, bringing the neat sum of $46. The tree actually yielded 1100 pounds, the balance being used at home. Who can beat the record?

Ten members of Springfield Lodge I. O. O. F., accompanied District Deputy Dority, to Coburg Saturday night where the officers of West Point Lodge No. 62, at that place were installed as follows: J. C. Goodale, Jr., N. G.; W. L. Nailor, V. G.; George Drury, Rec. Sec; W. W. Allingham, Treas. Supper was served at the restaurant about midnight. The boys say they were splendidly entertained.
