took place at the home of the bride's parents, in this city, on Tuesday afternoon, Aug. 16. The ceremony which united this young couple was performed by Rev. Mr. Hubbard, pastor of the Congregational church of Plymouth, in the presence of near relatives of the family. After receiving congratulations the happy couple, relatives and friends, partook of a sumptions wedding dinner. At four o'clock Mr. and Mrs. Gallagher took the south-bound train for Milwaukee and Chicago, where they will visit a few days and then depart for Eugene, Oregon, their future home. At the train a large number of friends were present to offer congratulations and wish them a successful journey not only to their western home, but o'er life's matrimonial sea.

The groom is no stranger to our people. He was born in Sheboygan county, and when quite young moved to this county and shoully afterwards made his home in the family of J. E. McMullen, Esq., of this city. He grew to manhood and took up the study of law and after spending several years in Mr. McMullen's office, left for California, where he completed his studies and carried on an extensive practice. A few years ago he returned to Wisconsin and years ago he returned to Wisconsin and while visiting here met the charming woman who is now his bride. Cupid arrow's pierced his heart and he was entangled in the meshes of love which entrapped him. For the past few years Mr. Gallagher has been engaged in the practice of law and the real estate business at Eugene, Oregon. He is a young man of good habits and is to be congratulated, both upon his good fortune and his good taste; for the bride, who is one of Chilton's fairest daughters, is a young lady whose heart and hand any man may be proud to have won.

The bride is the daughter of our honored and respected to a minimum. Many reports, preliminary to an actual census of the acreage and yield, indicate that the total crop will be somewhat under last year's yield, in spite of the increased breadth.

FIRE.—This morning at 10:30 o'clock a fire was discovered in the roof of the kitchen part of E. J. McClanahan's house on Ferry near Eleventh. The alarm was given but the fire was subdued before the firemen arrived. It is supposed to have caught by a spark from the engine running a wood-saw a

The bride is the daughter of our honored and respected townsman, Dr. H. E. Zielley. She was born and grew to womanhood in our midst. She is possessed of all those excellent qualities which are admired in woman, and her circle of friends extends to where she is known. She is lady-like in her manners, kindly in her disposition and has always been sociable and agreeable with those whom she associated with. Her loving care for her parents will fit her for the new duties she has undertaken. She will preside over her new home with becoming dignity and make it a paradise for her liege lord and master.

The Times wishes to offer its congratulations to the newly married couple and also tions to the newly married couple and also to the citizens of Eugene, who will find in Mrs. Gallagher an accomplished lady and an ornament to society.

Unwarrantable.

Daily Guard, August 26.

It would seem that the arrest of N. R. Gaylor of this city on the charge of passing counterfeit money at Cottage Grove yeater day was wholly unwarranted. Mr. Gaylord says he stopped at the depot hotel in that city during the night and in the morning paid the proprietor the amount of his bill, a silver dollar. While canvassing the city a short time afterwards the proprietor of the hotel approached Mr. Gaylord and claimed that the dollar the latter had given him was a counterfeit, which Mr. Gaylord denied, after seeing the piece the landlord exhibited, as it was a rank imitation and palpably spurious, and he was sure that he could not have passed the piece without detecting it. However, to save any trouble or doubt he gave the hotel proprietor another of dollar and supposed the matter was settled, but the hotel man had the marshal to arrest him and telegraph the sheriff. Deputy Sheriff Croner brought Mr. Gaylord here dollar and supposed the matter was settled, but the hotel man had the marshal to arrest him and telegraph the sheriff.
