Democratic National Ticket.

For President,
GROVER CLEVELAND,
of New York.

For Vice President,
A. E. STEVENSON, of Illinois.

Cannot Be Controverted.

Here is a statement of the tariff question which has seldom been surpassed in conciseness:

First—The people of the United States produce many commodities more advantageously and more cheaply than the people of any other section of the globe.

Second—The people of other countries produce many commodities more advantageously and more cheaply than the people of the United States.

Third—The aggregate production of wealth would be greater and all laborers would be better remunerated if restrictions upon the natural flow of commerce were removed, thereby enabling the people of each nation to exchange what they can produce more advantageously for the articles which the people of other nations can produce advantageously.

The cholera continues its ravages in European cities. One half of those contracting the disease die. This is fearful mortality.

The New York Sun is as usual posing as a supporter of the democratic national ticket and covertly using the knife. An open enemy is far better than one in disguise.

H. B. Luce of Hillsboro has assumed control of the Reform Journal, of Portland, an organ advocating the peoples party. Mr. Luce is a vigorous writer and an able defender of the principles he advocates.

A California balloonist has demonstrated the fact that he can control the action of his balloon by means of wings. If he can utilize his invention so that balloons, or something similar, can be used as a means of transit, he will have accomplished something beneficial to the world.

Henry Villard could not be awarded too much praise when he was building a great transcontinental line of railroad. The same organ that then obsequiously bowed before the great railroad potentate now seeks to smirch him and all because he expresses the determination to support Cleveland.

It now transpires, says the Portland Dispatch, that the contract for the new battle ships has been modified to meet the views of the contractor, Mr. Carnegie, who will save half a million dollars by the change. Mr. Carnegie's company dictated its own tariff schedule in the McKinley bill. It forced a reduction on its laborers and now it demands and gets from the secretary of the navy a concession on its contracts.

The new Chinese exclusion law requires that between September 1, 1892, and May 1, 1893, all Chinese in the United States must make application for residence certificates and file with a revenue officer photographs of themselves and prove their identity by two witnesses. Those failing to comply with the law will be deported. There are 107,000 Chinese in the United States, all of whom must be registered within the next eight months.

The Salem Statesman says hop pickers are picking and the hop market is hopping, but there is no price for hops—that is, none of the growers want to contract, and, knowing this, the contractors make bold offers which they could not fulfill. This accounts for the thirty-five cent offer that recently created so much excitement. That figure was offered, but it was not an honest bid.

The democracy of Shelby county, Ind., the old home of the late Vice President Hendricks, will hold its usual mammoth democratic barbecue on September 28. Heretofore, more than 60,000 people attended each of the barbecues at that place, and from present indications, this one will assume national proportions and eclipse anything of the kind ever attempted in this country. Hon. Adlai E. Stevenson, the running mate of Grover Cleveland, will be present and make a speech on that occasion.

The Oregon Press Association, says the Hood River Glacier, meets at The Dalles October 4, and already the metropolis of the inland empire is preparing to receive them. Of course we are interested in this matter, for we shall be there. As a matter of local pride, we hope the editors will be royally entertained; and this hope is accentuated by the fact that we are citizen enough of The Dalles to take pride in having her do the grand, and just far enough outside to be classified as one of the guests. This is a political year and we thus dignifiedly "straddle."

Campers and travelers should be careful about the use of fire in the mountains.

A rich Chinese merchant of Portland is in dire trouble. He is ordered home to answer to a charge that involves his life. It is natural to ask why he should go. China has a peculiar law that makes the relatives substitutes for a criminal and they would be liable to have their heads cut off.

Baggage smashers might not find as easy work, if the old original trunk was again adopted. It is said that the earliest chest was simply the trunk of an oak tree scooped out and cut down in the middle, one-half serving as a lid, which was at first kept closed by a strap of leather, and later by one made of iron. As late as the fourteenth century the oak chest, in addition to being a repository for valuables, served as a seat and sometimes, also, as a table.

Collis P. Huntington still encourages the idea that with proper inducement the S. P. company can be induced to build a line into the Klamath section as a feeder to the main line of the Southern Pacific system. He, in common with all other railroad men who are familiar with the situation, has his eye on the rich scope of country around the great Klamath lakes, and there can be little doubt that a few years more will see the railroad materialize.

The Lutherans were holding a conference in New York City last week. A delegation of them went to the democratic headquarters on Saturday last and asked to see Mr. Harbitt. They were the Rev. F. W. A. Votz, Prof. C. F. Huth, the Rev. J. Schlerf, and Rev. J. Schutte, of Wisconsin, and the Rev. J. Brosse, of Illinois. They called to tell Mr. Harbitt that the Lutherans of the Northwest, and particularly of Wisconsin and Illinois, would vote the national democratic ticket.

A cigar manufacturer at Grand Island, Nebraska, addressed the following letter to Mr. McKinley, during his recent canvass of that state. He desired information very much but as yet Mr. McKinley has not been heard from. The letter is as follows:

GRAND ISLAND, Neb., Aug. 3, '92.
MY DEAR MR. McKINLEY: I see by the Associated Press that in your great speech at Beatrice you assured the people that the foreigner paid the tariff taxes, and, presuming that you know what you are talking about, I address you for the purpose of gaining a little information. This last week I received a bale of Sumatra tobacco used for cigar wrappers. The bale weighed 102 pounds. The bill for this bale of imported tobacco was $415.60. The cost of the tobacco alone was $91.60. The taxes at $2 per pound as fixed by your bill, known as the McKinley bill, was $324, making a total cost of $415.60. You say the foreigner pays the tariff tax, and as this $324 tariff tax has been charged up to me in the bill from the wholesale tobacco house, erroneously according to your statement, the information I desire is this, where can I find the foreigner whose duty it is to pay this $324 tariff tax? I want to draw on him, at sight, for the amount. By giving me this desired information, you will confer a great favor on one of the protected cigar makers of America. With great respect, I am sir,
Yours truly,
HENRY SCHLOTTELDY.

Struck by a Hornet's Nest.
MERCED, Cal., Aug. 31.—A Yosemite special to the sun states that a hornet's nest fell on a stage team going into the valley Monday morning when the stage had just passed Inspiration point. The four horses on the stage all jumped off the roadway over the bluff. The lead horse was hung on the trees by the harness and choked to death. The wheel horses were not killed. Two passengers were in the stage. One had his leg broken, the other his ankle sprained. The driver was thrown over with the stage and injured internally.

Betting on the Fight.
BALTIMORE, Aug. 31.—A few bets have been placed here within the past few days on Sullivan, the largest being that raised in a pool, amounting to $3,000 against $200 put up by some admirers of Corbett. Kill rain has bet $100 even on Sullivan.

As erysipelas, no matter how slight, warns you and every one who sees it that your blood isn't pure. If you're wise, you'll heed the warning. You'll look about for a remedy. And this is what you'll find: plenty of medicines that purify the blood, but just one that's guaranteed—and that is Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery. It's a medicine that does what is promised for it—that's the reason. It forces every organ into healthy action, purifies and enriches the blood, and through it cleanses and renews the entire system. All Blood, Skin and Scalp Diseases, from a common eruption to the worst Scrofula are cured by it. For Tetter, Salt-rheum, Eczema, Erysipelas, Boils, Carbuncles, Enlarged Glands, Tumors, and Swellings, it's an unequalled remedy. If it doesn't benefit or cure, in every case, you have your money back. You pay only for the good you get. Refuse substitutes, offered at less prices.

Portland Dispatch: Recorder Allen has notified Miss Moody Scott, the colored girl who was recommended at the meeting for a place, to report for duty on Thursday. Miss Scott is said to be a very bright-looking young woman of 19 years, and graduated a year ago last June from the Ashland high school. She is a native of California.

The cement walk in front of the Conser-Frank block is about completed.

The hop crop is generally light, therefore the pickers are generally making small wages.

Go to E. E. Knight in Ream's building for plumbing, tin work and repairing.

Miss Jessie Lamson expects to start tomorrow for Halsey, to spend a few days with her aunt.

B. D. Paine and Mr. Chamberlain left on a hunting trip this morning to Diamond Peak.

Wm. Spangfield, who recently purchased a farm of S. Merlan, is here to take possession of the same.

P. K. Watters went to Salem this morning to look after his horses in training at that place.

County Surveyor Collier has gone up the McKenzie to survey a township of land above the Peoplet place.

County Clerk Walker this morning issued a marriage license to John Turpin and Jennie Clemens.

Louis Bean, of the lower Siuslaw, left for Elsieburg, Wash., this morning, where he will work in a dredging outfit.

All plumbing and tin work guaranteed by E. E. Knight. Shop in Ream's building, Eugene.

Mrs. J. H. Lamson and Mrs. W. W. Haines are visiting today with the family of Rev. Riddle, at Cold Springs.

It is likely that a cement sidewalk will be laid from S. H. Friendly's store to the alley north, as soon as the Pickett building is completed.

Prof. Geo. H. Wilkes arrived on the local this afternoon and will enter upon his duties as vice-principal of the public schools of this city.

Hon. S. W. Condon and family and Misses Bonnette and Cecil Dorris left for Yaquina Bay this morning for a week or two.

A. E. Gallagher has rented C. F. Hurlbert's residence, on Ninth street and will soon commence housekeeping in the same.

M. G. and H. J. Wilkins, formerly of Lane county, have rented the McCallen hotel at Roseburg, and will take immediate possession.

The Portland Telegram of Tuesday says: "The steamer Chance will leave down the river tomorrow, with a cargo of railroad iron for the new railroad at Siuslaw." The iron is probably for the U. S. government to be used in the Siuslaw jetty work.

The statement telegraphed that the Steamer Chance had been labelled for carrying an excursion party over the Yaquina bar in excess of the limit provided by law, is indignantly denied by the master, Capt. Wisant. Neither has she been tied up.

Roseburg Review: The young people of Douglas county may have the best of school facilities at home. The advanced grade of the Roseburg school will prepare students to enter the freshman year of the state university at Eugene.

Mr. Duncan arrived here yesterday evening from Silver Lake for supplies, coming across the Military road. He reports that fires have damaged some of the bridges along that route. He will return in a few days via the McKenzie road with two wagon loads.

Julia Harpole has commenced a divorce suit against K. P. Harpole in the circuit court. She complains of cruel and inhuman treatment. They were married in Eugene July 17, 1891. The lady has appeared in four divorce proceedings in this county heretofore.

Tuesday's Salem Journal. This afternoon the state board of education held a meeting, and elected as superintendent of the reform school, M. W. Smith vice B. J. Miles, resigned. Mr. Smith was superintendent of the public schools at The Dalles for five years, and has of late represented the Northwestern life insurance company Salem.

Albany Herald: Word has reached Albany that Ex-County Commissioner Alex. Brandon had been stricken with paralysis. The attack came on Saturday evening and he was in a critical condition. The news will carry deep regret to the heart of almost every resident of Lincoln county, for Mr. Brandon was widely known and highly respected and liked.

To be fish commissioner for the great and rapidly growing state of Oregon must be regarded as a regular sinecure, or else a position of much honor. And now comes a Dalles paper and makes this remarkable statement: "There are already 29 candidates for fish commissioner in Oregon to fill the position which will be vacated by Hon. George T. Myers January 1, 1893."

The state insane asylum holds more inmates today than it ever has before. At present the asylum has just 800 inmates. There are accommodations for a few more, but the asylum will soon be crowded to its fullest capacity. Another asylum will soon have to be provided, the same as it was found necessary in California. It may be stated in this connection that the majority of the insane persons in both states are foreigners by long odds.

The burning of the steamer Young at Dove's landing and the capture of the guilty parties has caused some talk as to which county they should be tried in. The boat was tied up to the Polk county bank when burned, but all proceedings against the criminals have taken place in Marion county. The Polk county Observer is quite willing that Marion county should foot the bills.

A broad smile wreathes the countenances of all the sportsmen in the county, while game dealers and restaurant-keepers rub their hands together with complacency. The reason is a very obvious one. The open season for killing grouse, pheasants, Mongolian pheasants, quail or partridge, is from September 1 to November 15. The open season for killing water fowl is from September 1 to March 15. The open season for killing deer and elk is from August 1 to November 1, but the deer may be killed from August 1 to January 1. It is unlawful to kill spotted fawn at any time. After Wednesday of the present week the "sales of the dim woods" will terminate with the crack of rifles and shotguns.

KING CHOLERA.

An Infected Vessel Arrives in New York Harbor.

22 Deaths on the Way.

New York, Aug. 31.—The steamship Moravia, of the Hamburg-American line from Hamburg, had 22 deaths on board during the passage of the ship to New York. The ship's doctor says the deaths were from cholera. Twenty were children and two adults. Thirteen were natives of Poland, five of Prussia, three of Hesse and one of Austria. All were buried at sea. The first death took place August 10th, and the last death August 29. The Moravia has been ordered down to the lower bay.

George William Curtis Dead.

NEW YORK, Aug. 31.—George William Curtis died at 2:30 this morning, at his residence, West Brighton, Staten Island.

Mr. Curtis became ill about two months ago with indications of dropsy. Eminent physicians could give but little relief. He constantly suffered considerable pain, and was told opium would relieve him, but he declined to take opium. At the request of Mrs. Curtis a homeopathic treatment was resorted to last week. Since that time he has suffered less, but about three days ago he began to sink rapidly, finally dying at about 5 o'clock this morning. He was conscious to the end.

The Greatest Closing Out Sale

Ever held in Lane County has begun.

The $30,000 stock of goods left by the late

F. B. DUNN,

Will be closed out by his executors within the next 90 days for $15,000. We will not quote prices, for every article in this immense stock is reduced 20, 50 or 75 per cent.

THIS IS NO SHAM,

It is the largest and only genuine Closing Out Sale ever held in the county, and everything must go. For thirty years Mr. Dunn was a leading and prosperous merchant, and he left a stock fully up to the standards of the times in quantity and quality. His executors, however, cannot continue the business, but must sell for what they can get, and one-half its value is all they expect to realize on the stock.

There is not such another Stock of Goods for sale at such Prices in the State.

If you live 100 miles from Eugene, and want to buy a moderate bill of goods, you can come and buy of us, pay your expenses, and save money. On an average, $20 will buy as much of us as $30 or $40 will buy at any other store in the Willamette valley, and in some lines of goods the difference will be even greater.

But You Must Pay the Cash.

We can't sell at these figures on credit, so don't ask it. Country merchants can buy of us cheaper than they can at wholesale.

90 DAYS OR LESS

Will wind up the oldest, most extensive and most prosperous mercantile business ever carried on in Lane County. By order of the Executors of the estate of F. B. Dunn, deceased.

FRANK E. DUNN, Manager.

Look Here.

The schools will soon commence and the boys should be well dressed. You can do this cheaply by calling on Bettman. Boys suits complete, $1 and upwards.
