FOR PITCHER'S
Castoria

Castoria promotes Digestion, and overcomes Flatulency, Constipation, Bowel Stomach, Diarrhoea, and Feverishness.
Thus the child is rendered healthy and its sleep natural. Castoria contains no Morphine or other narcotic property.

"Castoria is so well adapted to children that I know it is an superior to any prescription known to me."
H. A. Anderson, M.D.
21 Portland Ave., Brooklyn, N. Y.

"I use Castoria in my practice, and find it specially adapted to children."
ALEX. HENDERSON, M.D.
107 2d Ave., New York.

When Baby was sick, we gave her Castoria.
When she was a Child, she clung to Castoria.
When she became a Woman, she clung to Castoria.
When she had Children, she gave them Castoria.

FRIDAY, SEPT. 9.

D. T. Linton finished picking hops last evening.
Vernon only gave 10,000 republican majority.
Dave Houston is now conductor of the Albany-Lebanon train.
David Linn has returned from Jacksonville after a pleasant visit.
P. E. Snodgrass and family returned from Kilton's springs last evening.
Master Walter Shelly went to Hood river this morning to visit with his uncle for a few weeks.
E. H. Croisan and wife, of Salem, returned from the Foley springs last evening.
G. W. Bonner went to Roseburg this afternoon, to install a Woodmen of the World lodge.
President Johnson returned home from eastern Oregon and Idaho this afternoon.
Mr. Campbell, of Spokane, is visiting at the home of D. W. Coolidge south of town.
Miss Hattie Dickinson returned home this afternoon from a visit to her sister at Walla Walla, Wash.
The Portland Daily Dispatch has been awarded the city printing of that city for another year.
It is probable that there are many fires in the mountains, a result of the protracted lack of rain.
C. W. Young finished picking hops last evening. The event was celebrated by a dance at his place.
The Southern Pacific R. R. is surveying a line from Lebanon to Sweet Home via Waterloo and Sodaville.
Mr. Dubois, Sr., of the Hoffman House, left for the Foley Springs this morning, to spend a couple of weeks.
A petition is being circulated in Fairmont asking the Eugene board of directors to establish and conduct a school in that vicinity.
J. O. Watts has been elected a representative to the grand lodge, Knights of Pythias which meets at Eugene in October.
Mrs. Veazie and daughters Julia and Edith have arrived from Dallas.
The latter will attend the University this year.
An occupation of Jupiter by the moon, took place about 4 o'clock this morning. Very few residents of Eugene witnessed it.
K. K. Kubli delivered the oration at the Southern Oregon Pioneers reunion near Jacksonville, yesterday. It was highly spoken of.
Miss Bertha Catron, who has been visiting here with her sister, Mrs. T.
J. Craig, left for her home in Monmouth this morning.
Hon. H. H. Gilroy, of Washington, D. C., and reading clerk of the U. S. senate, will soon make relatives and friends in Lane county a visit.
David Clark and wife and daughter, Miss Lulu, of Albany, are visiting with J. G. Gray and family, in this city. Mr. Clark is a brother of Mrs.
Gray's.
A basket of Chinese pheasants were offered for sale on the street today. A wholesale posting of trespass notices has protected them more than game laws.
D. W. Coolidge makes a fine exhibit of grapes in the window of Carson & Cleaver today. Take a look at them.
Lane county can raise as fine grapes as California.
California (Mo.) young ladies have organized a cooking club, and the young men, in retaliation, have established an eating club. Reciprocity has been determined on.
Mrs. Col. Sawyers and daughter, Miss Beatie, returned this morning from their sojourn in California. Miss Sawyers resumes her place in the State University as a teacher in the conservatory of music.
The Waltham watch case company moved into their new building recently and burned the floors of their old building to prepare the gold dust imbedded into it during many years. The result of the clean up was $15-000, in gold.
From a single grain of wheat planted in the White river country, Washington, this spring, grew 37 stalks, which attained a height of six feet, each stalk containing an average of about 150 kernels. The yield of this field is estimated at about 250 bushels per acre.
Messrs. Meyer & Kyle have contracted with the Siuslaw River Lumber Company for the delivery of 500,000 feet of lumber. The same firm has also contracted with sailing schooners to deliver this lumber to their agents at San Francisco.
Roseburg Plasterer: The sumpster is coming. Roseburg is a trifle slow, sometimes, but there is no doubt about her ability to "get there." Two pairs of this indispensable article of masculine attire were observed this week on feminine shoulders, and soon, no doubt, the woods will be full of 'em.
In reply to the governor's letter requesting the board of railroad commissioners to prepare a comparative statement of the freight charges of the Union Pacific in Oregon, the board replied that it had for some time had such a plan in view. Such report will be embodied in the board's report to the next legislature. The table will cover all roads in the West and Northwest.
Few notaries, says the Roseburg Review, are complying with the new law which compels them to have their commission recorded in the office of the county clerk. The law says: "A notary public, upon being appointed and receiving his commission from the governor, shall have his commission recorded by the county clerk in the book kept for the purpose, paying the fee of one dollar therefor, and the county clerk shall thereupon be authorized to certify as to the official character of such notary public upon all instruments requiring such certificates, and as to whether such instruments are executed according to the laws of the state of Oregon." A good-looking, well-to-do and popular young bachelor of Silverton, was being teased by the young ladies of a club for not being married. And he said: "I'll marry the girl of your club whom, on a secret vote, you elect to be my wife." There were nine members of the club. Each girl went into a corner and used the greatest caution in preparing her ballot and disguising her hand writing. The result was that each girl received one. The young man remains a bachelor, the club is broken up, the girls are all mortal enemies and united in the determination to never speak to that hateful man again.

Excitement at Newport.
Trouble Over the Sunday Law—The
Mayor Hing in Effigy.
Albany Herald: The people down at Newport are having a lively time over the enforcement of the Sunday law. Recently two of its young men were arrested for violating some of its provisions, but were acquitted. The Mayor, George Landis, aided by the District Attorney Seymour Condon, of Eugene, who happened to be over there, ordered all the saloons and places of amusement to be kept closed on Sunday and gave notice through the press that any violation would be vigorously prosecuted. Early Sunday morning two images were seen dangling from the top of a flag pole, the mayor and Mr.
Condon having been hung in effigy. This was too much for Mayor Landis and he tried to take the obnoxious figures down, but the ropes had become entangled and they seemed to be there to stay. The mayor then arrayed himself with a shovel and dug the pole out of the ground and took the images away and burned them. The other faction then swore out a complaint and had the mayor arrested for working on Sunday.
The result of his trial will be awaiting with interest. A lot of notices were posted about town accusing Mayor Landis of high-handed arrogance, which were torn down, resulting in several free fights. The end of it seems not yet, and some further developments may be expected.

A Disgraceful Street Scene.
Daily Guard, Sept. 9.
Last evening a religious scramble took place on Eighth street near Matlock's store. It appears that two antagonistic evangelists had advertised meetings at the same place. The meeting was opened by a man and his wife singing songs. Then the man gave a religious discourse, prophesying that the world would come to an end in at least 35 years, and that only 144,000 people would be saved. After this meeting closed another evangelist opened up. He denied that his religious brother would come to an end or who would be saved, etc. Then an auditor asked the gentleman some questions and the remarks between them became quite animated, the crowd yelling "2 to 1 on Corbett,"
"time," "Form a ring," etc. The wife of the rival evangelist also gave vent to some spleen by siding with the outsider. All in all, it was a disgraceful meeting, and the city officers should prohibit a like procedure. If a warrant is given to occur each evening, let the parties hire a hall or retire to the park lots. A large crowd of curiosity seekers and hoodlums were present.

Still at It.
Daily Guard, Sept. 10.
The opposing so-called evangelists held forth again last evening and each attracted large crowds. One occupied Eighth street near Matlock's store and the other Ninth street near the Hoffman House. Some eggs were thrown by hoodlums at the Ninth street man, one of them hitting him on the sleeve;
while one struck F. M. Wilkins and another Fred Chambers. The evangelist claiming he lost a $10 gold piece which he had wrapped up in his handkerchief which he took out of his pocket to clean off the broiled egg. The marshal arrested Bob Head for the crime, and he was given a trial before Recorder Dorris this morning on the charge. He was found guilty and fined $5 and costs, making a total of $24, which he paid. It is a cowardly act to egg a man and should not be indulged in by anyone. We still think it would be a good idea to relocate the evangelists to the park lots, thereby clearing the sidewalks and streets of the crowds.

Arkansas is Solidly Democratic.
Daily Guard, Sept. 10.
The indications are now that Fishback, democrat, will lead Whipple, republican, by 50,000. Cleot county, in which the negroes have an overwhelming majority, is the only one in the state that has gone republican. The republican party in Jefferson county in 1890, of 4300, is changed to a democratic majority of 200. Every county has gone solidly democratic for the first time since the war.

Articles of incorporation have been filed with the county clerk of the above company. Objects of business: to buy and sell hardware, stoves, tinware, implements, etc., usually kept in a first-class store; capital stock, $20,000, with shares of $400 each, the entire amount being paid up. Incorporators: G. P. Griffin, J. F. Starr, Mary A. Griffin, Drew Griffin, G. W. Griffin, Chas. W. Griffin and Lizzie Griffin. Place of business, Eugene.

HORSES ARRIVED.—In speaking of the arrival of stock for the state fair,
the Salem Statesman says: "G. W.
Gill, of Eugene, is already here with Capt. Mount, by Paramount, dam by Panier, Tony Mount, by Capt. Mount, dam Fanny Hawk; and Rocket, a 3-old pacer. Capt. Mount is entered in the 225 class pacing race for Thursday and Tony Mount will start in the 3-year old trot Friday. Oscar Wills, of Eugene, has also arrived. He has Tybault and a 3-year old pacer.

USWHELOMOME CHEESE.—Deputy Sheriff Croner, this afternoon arrested J. P. Peterson, proprietor of a dairy near Goshen, on a warrant served out by John Inlow, charging Peterson with selling and offering for sale unwholesome cheese. The Food Commissioner at Portland had an analysis of the cheese made and reported it to be unwholsome and unfit for use. Mr. Peterson claims that the cheese is good and that the arrest was made from a motive of spite.
Justice Kinsey will hear the case Monday.

PAK SCHOOLSHIP.—Upon recommendation of Hon. C. K. Wilkinson, the commissioners' court Saturday appointed O. F. Calhoun, of Pleasant Hill, to a scholarship in the State Agricultural College at Corvallis.

BORN.—C. F. Harburt has a broad smile on his face caused by the arrival of a fine boy at his house Saturday.

Excitement at Newport.
Trouble Over the Sunday Law—The
Mayor Hing in Effigy.
Albany Herald: The people down
over the enforcement of the Sunday
law. Recently two of its young men
Mayor, George Landis, aided by the District Attorney Seymour Condon, of
on Sunday and gave notice
violation would be vigorously
the top of a flag pole, the mayor and Mr.
Condon having been hung in effigy. This
away and burned them. The other fac-
the mayor arrested for working on Sunday.
The result of his trial will be awaiting with
in several free fights. The end of it seems
may be expected.

A Disgraceful Street Scene.
Daily Guard, Sept. 9.
Last evening a religious scramble
took place on Eighth street near Matlock's store. It appears that two an-
ing that the world would come to an
this meeting closed another evangelist
gious brother would come to an end or
"time," "Form a ring," etc. The wife
sider. All in all, it was a disgraceful
warrant is given to occur each evening,
the park lots. A large crowd of curi-
sent.

Still at It.
Daily Guard, Sept. 10.
The opposing so-called evangelists
attracted large crowds. One occupied
the other Ninth street near the Hoff-
by hoodlums at the Ninth street man,
one of them hitting him on the sleeve;
while one struck F. M. Wilkins and
marshal arrested Bob Head for the
$24, which he paid. It is a cowardly
act to egg a man and should not be in-
the crowds.

Arkansas is Solidly Democratic.
Daily Guard, Sept. 10.
The indications are now that Fishback,
democrat, will lead Whipple, republican, by 50,000. Cleot county, in
state that has gone republican. The
in 1890, of 4300, is changed to a democratic majority of 200. Every county
first time since the war.

Articles of incorporation have been
filed with the county clerk of the above
and sell hardware, stoves, tinware, im-
being paid up. Incorporators: G. P. Griffin, J. F. Starr, Mary A. Griffin, Drew
Griffin, G. W. Griffin, Chas. W. Griffin and Lizzie Griffin. Place of business, Eugene.

the arrival of stock for the state fair,
the Salem Statesman says: "G. W.
Gill, of Eugene, is already here with Capt. Mount, by Paramount, dam by Panier, Tony Mount, by Capt. Mount,
dam Fanny Hawk; and Rocket, a 3-
old pacer. Capt. Mount is entered in the 225 class pacing race for Thursday
and Tony Mount will start in the 3-
year old trot Friday. Oscar Wills,
bault and a 3-year old pacer.
