THE STATE FAIR .- Bob Johnson, editor of the Corvallis Times has the following to say of that institution in the last issue of his paper: The betting booths and gamb-ling tables were the only attractions and they were well patronized by men and wo-men in all stages of sin. The fair is a week of legalized gambling, clothed with the protection and sanction of the state to give it an air of respectability. Those who attend the Oregon State Fair expecting to see an exhibit of Oregon products must feel terribly disgusted and disappointed when they view the pavilion and see the handful of vegetables that are competing for the blue ribbons. There is comparatively nothing there. Vreily, verily, the meeting was a failure and if it is to be continued under the patronage of the state, it ought to be rechristened, "The O egon State Farce."

TWO DAYS ONLY.

Ladies. Dr. Reeves cures with untailing certainty, those manifold ills that render the life of woman miserable. Sick headache, weak back, sleeplessness, nervous debility, all forms of uterine displacement, too frequent, profuse, scanty, painful or delayed menstruation, that drain upon woman's vitality; leucerrhon or whites, and all the terrible effects of the accidents incident to childbirth.

Young Man,

Turn and gaze upon thy Companion or seek the Mirror for proof to substantiate this fact. Oh, could be control the arm of FATE! or had he his life to live over again, then we could not sppeal to you more sincerely. Let your mind wander back to the cherished counsels of a LOVING FATHER, and remember what you are today. Though you may for the present fill your station in society, the time is as inevitable as FATE, when your brilliancy will like a FLASH depart, leaving you a stranded wrock—desolate, forgotten and lost; so embrace the opportunity and unjoy life and happiness longer. If you claim to be a man, act your part manly. Do not console yourself with the thought that nature will help itself, for in doing so you not only fan the flame, but winger nature and yourself. Remember, "Large oaks from little acorns grow," "Little ills germinate fatal diseases."

DISEASES OF MANHOOD aged and old men suffering from nervous debility, from any uner suffering from nervous debility, from any cause whatsoever, especially from Yourneys. Eurons and indiscretions, producing distincts, loss of memory, vitality and energy, emissions, tired, discontented feeling, indigestion, palpitation of the heart, urinary troubles, and many other symptoms not necessary to mention here, should no longer delay in seeking proper relief.
