The United States ship Constitution is Wonderful Strikes in Gold Mining about to start for Italy to collect works of art for the World's Fair. These art treasures will remain in constant custurned after the fair in the same manner as brought.

New York State proposes to exhibit at the World's Fair complete data, in-cluding photographs, of all the monuments which have been erected to sol-diers of that State who served in the war of the Revolution, the war of 1812 or the war of 1861.

Arrangements have been completed whereby excursion trains to the World's Fair, by whatever road they may arrive in Chicago, will run within the exposition grounds and discharge their passengers there. No transfer of passengers at any point will be necessary.

More than 10,000 men are now at work in getting the buildings and grounds ready for the great exposition of 1893. On a number of the structures work proceeds day and night. Wonderful prog-ress is being made, and it is assured that station. all will be completed in time for the opening.

The pupils of the High School of lem, Mass., are preparing an interesting memorial of that ancient town for the World's Fair. The amateur photogra-phers of the school are engaged in the preparation of a series of views of the nany points of historic interest in which the town abounds. These are to be fin-ished by the pupils themselves, and are to form the illustrations of a handsome album. The descriptive letter-press of the book, also the work of the pupils, is to be neatly written on a typewriter, so that the whole volume will be literally the handiwork of the children of Salem.

Members of the North American Turner Bund are making elaborate prepara tions for their exhibit at the World's Fair. They will occupy 4,500 square feet in the liberal-arts building and 112,500 square feet for outdoor drill, in which probably 5,000 adults and several thousand children will participate. In the covered space the Turners will have model classes taught gymnastics in ac-cordance with their system now in vogue in their societies and the Chicago public schools. The exhibition represented by their commission includes 350 societies. with a membership of 50,000, of whom 5,000 reside in Chicago.

A very interesting exhibit in the transportation department of the World's Fair will be made by the steamship and railway companies of England. The col-lection of models of battle ships, yachts, cruisers, more steamers and merchant versels will be complete than was ever before exhibited. The London and Northwestern railway will send over a complete train of cars, headed by a great compound locomotive named "Great Britain," This will afford an opportunity to compare the English compartment cars and sleepers with American The Great Western railway coaches. will exhibit the antiquated locomotive "Lord of the Isles," one of the first used on the road. Admiral Walker Leaves for Venezuela on Board of the Chicago Entrusted With Sealed Orders.

Consul-General Sutton has cabled the State Department that the time for the free importation of corn has been ex-tended by the Mexican Government until November 13.

The "ten days" statement just issue from the Treasury shows the total net gold in the Treasury to be $114,218,971. an increase of about $50,000 since the first of the month. The receipts at New York from customs in that time were $3,077.8 3, showing a slight failing off for the time-honored, bad-smelling oil rom the corresponding period of last year, and a decrease of more than $1 000,000 as compared with the first ten days of August, 1892. This large de crease of 25 per cent, is evidently due to cholera, all the steamers now at quarantine being heavily laden with goods Treasury officials are anticipating a > Unfertilized Eggs Are Much Sweeter and Better for Table Use Than Fertilized Ones.

> Whenever a fertilized egg is raised to a temperature of 92 degrees, the Farm, Stock and Home ways, the hatching proess begins, an t when the temperature falls much below the point the process ceases. These conditions are found in the warm days and cool nights of summer. During the long hot day the hatch ing pricess is at work; during the exi not be in, neither would the rotting, and hence there would be an ab ence of rotten eags. The remedy therefore is to prevent the fertilization of the eggs. and this can be seenred by the destine tion of the rooster Every rooster not intended especially for breeding should be killed or sold to the hu k-ter as soon as big enough to est. Not more than one roost-r shou'd be kept on any farm, and that one cooped an I mated w tune more than ten hens, and the eggs imag these hens should be kept or sold enpressly for hatching. The other bens should be kept especially for eyes for market or table use, and no rooser should ever be allowed among them. On the ord nary farms about one tenth of the fowls are roosters, which is about n ne times as many as there can be any Unfertilized eggs are much sweeter and better for table use, and will keep from two to four times as long as fertiized ones. Hens not kept with roosters will lay longer and set less than others. It is eafe to say that in the Un ted States alone there are 20,000,000 roosters, and BEANS—Small white, 3c; pink, 3c; bayos, 3½c; butter, 3½c; limas, 3½c per pound. 19,0 0,000 of them are a positive and expensive nuisance except for the table at the right time. If these roosters are killed and their places supplied with hens and each laid 2 0 eggs per year, the aggregate would be 3,800,000,000, worth 1 cent each $38,000,000, every cent of which would clear net profit to the

The Preservation of Butter.

To preserve butter in all its treshness IRON-Bar, 27se per pound; pig iron for at least two months, the following methods may be followed: Dis-olve six rammes (921/2 grains Troy) of tarrant cid in one litre (134 pint-) of water, and six grammes of cicarb mate of sola. this water will thus have the pr perly of dissolving thoroughly the butyric acid and the spoiled casein which give rancid butter its abominable taste. Se ect very tresh batter of good flavor and bat it up with this water until the water is clear, and until by this mix m and mashing the outyric acid and deteriorated casein have disappeared. The butter is then washed several times in resh water; it is well drained in cless io he and then put into glas- and poreain jers. If you wish to utilize some ors, the interior may be coated with ayer of wax or stearine to p ev nt the air passing through the pores. By pouring the wax melted into the jars an impermeable coat is formed. Place your butter, well drained, in these grasses or ars, and cover the surface with a sheet of paper steeped in melted wax.
