Captian Pratt, of Salem, was awarded the prize at the Portland exposition for the best display of figs in glass. They were grown in the open air.

Electric lights will soon illuminate Prinville. The old Albany plant has been purchased and will soon be shipped.

The main building being built at the pumping station is 34x72 feet, extending over the well and pump room. The part over the well will be used as a store room for pipe, etc. The engine room is 13x21 feet built on the west end of the main building. Altogether the building, same as the well, will be an improvement over the old station.

Pendleton E. O.: The 6-year-old child of a family named Miller, living near Summerville, Union county, strayed away several days ago and has not yet been found. It is thought it was carried away and eaten by a cougar, as the tracks of such an animal are viaible in the vicinity.

Rev. M. S. Riddle will start East next Monday. He will visit his aged mother and a sister in West Va., who is very ill and also visit friends in Ohio and Kansas, returning about the 10th, of November. Any person who can furnish him with a nice sample of Lane county fruits are requested to call at the parsonage on Eighth street.

Wedding Bells.

Daily Guard, Oct. 7.

Major L. D. Forrest and Miss Lizzie Anderson were united in the holy bonds of matrimony at the residence of Mrs. Lynch, on Tenth street, in this city, last evening Rev. G. A. Blair officiating.

Major Forrest has been a resident of this city for several years past, his former home being in Michigan, and is interested in a large amount of timber property in this county. Miss Anderson is the accomplished daughter of John Anderson, of Leaburg, on the McKenzie. The groom is busily engaged today in receiving the congratulations of his numerous friends and the GUARD joins them in wishing the couple a prosperous married life.

NAMES OF STREETS.—The following from the Baker City Blade but re-echoes our expressed sentiment regarding Eugene. It says: "It would be a great convenience to everybody, and especially strangers in the city, if some enterprising painter was given the job of placing the names of our streets at all intersections. Now that we are to have a city directory, which will give the location of every housekeeper, the importance of this suggestion is specially emphasized. In this connection it would not be a bad idea to have the houses numbered, as in all ambitious cities."

WEST COAST TRADE.—The "greenbacks" man has sent a big batch of circulars to merchants and others throughout the state again, and his proposition to increase the currency, giving a more equal distribution of wealth, is looked upon as a rival movement in solving a vexed question without third party aid.

SERIOUSLY ILL.—Miss Belle Paxton, daughter of the old gentleman who recently died on Cedar Flat, with typhoid fever, is very ill with the same disease at Mr. Sparks' residence near Thurston. She was taken sick while returning from her father's funeral and is gradually declining.

TO SALEM—The prisoners, Brandenbur and Holman were taken to the Hotel dg Knight at Salem on this morning's local.

Times, Oct. 8.

The prospects for the ditch grow brighter every day. Already about $6,000 in stock has been subscribed. The completion of this ditch would be the means of bringing a number of industries to our city.

Work commenced Friday morning on a new warehouse on the east side of the track for W. H. Baber. The building will be 40x150 and will be furnished with two cleaners. H. Linder has the contract.

Wednesday evening Jud Wiley, a boy of about 15, struck Hugo Lunn with some kind of a weapon and was fined $10 by the recorder. He was rearrested on a state warrant and the sheriff took him to Eugene for safe keeping. He will be given a hearing today (Friday) at Irving. We learn he will plead guilty. LATER—He was fined $35 and costs.

Philester Lee, father of Dr. N. L. Lee, died in this city Wednesday morning, aged 83. Deceased was one of the early pioneers of the valley, having settled in Linn county in 1850. He crossed the plains in 1847, starting from Iowa. He was in California during the great gold excitement of '48. He was one of the first men to engage in merchandising in Salem. His death was not unexpected as he had long since passed the usual time allotted to poor mortal man. While afflicted with pneumonia life departed from its tenement of clay without a struggle and the poor body was at rest. Services were held in the C. P. church by Rev. Houston, after which the remains were taken to the Odd Fellows' cemetery for interment. Through respect to diseased and his friends nearly every business house in the city was closed from 2 to 3 o'clock during the funeral services.

LOST A DAY.—The Medford Mail tells the following on Rev. Ira Wakefield, the peoples party Cincinnatus of southern Oregon: Ira Wakefield, of Phoenix, called on us this week and told a good story on himself. He was billed to speak at the peoples party meeting at Central Point Saturday night, but through the week he lost a day and arose Sunday morning early, thinking it was Saturday and repairing to his potato field he pitched in with the idea of gathering his crop before starting to Central Point. His delusion was short lived, however, as his wife soon convinced him that he was breaking the Sabbath. Thus it was that the Central Pointers waited in vain for the good speech prepared for them.

This gentleman expects soon to deliver several party speeches at various points in Willamette valley.

FENCE PETITION.—The Gervais, Marion county, Star, says: The following petition is being circulated among the people of this and adjacent counties, and is receiving many signers:

"To the Senate and House of Representatives of the State of Oregon:

"We, the undersigned citizens and freeholders of the state respectfully petition your honorable bodies, that a law be passed requiring all railroads operated in the state of Oregon to be fenced where said roads pass through farms or inclosed pasture lands. And that said railroads further be required to construct good and sufficient stock-guards at all points where their lines cross or pass through any farm or pasture fence."

SAME HERE.—We clip the following from the Cottage Grove Echo-Leader: "We are frequently asked to give some one or their business a free write up—city papers charge not less than twenty cents a line for such business. Surely our labor, besides the capital invested, is worth something. Do not let your selfishness starve out a business which is increasing your business and the value of every dollar's worth of property you own.

DIED.—In Spencer Creek precinct Sunday night October 9th. Wm. H. Hill aged 48 years. He leaves a wife and eight children. His death resulted from paralysis from which he has suffered for several weeks past. The funeral will take place to Oak Hill cemetary on the 11th at 11 o'clock a. m. Rev. Howard conducting the servicee.

FAMILIAR.—A man named Lombard, who follows the pursuit of plastering, was going to his home south of town Saturday night when he was set upon by three cougars a short distance south of Spencer Butte. In the gathering darkness he beat them off with his whip until his team had carried him beyond their reach.

COMMENDABLE. — The proprietors of the McMinnville Telephone-Register issue a large 12 page edition this week full of matter regarding the resources and prospects of that portion of Yamhill county. Such enterprise should meet with due appreciation.

BORN.—In this city October 7, to the wife of H. L. Martin, a girl.

Insect Parasites.

Jacksonville Times. Orchardists who have not fully appreciated the efforts of the state board of horticulture to keep the scale out of the orchards of Oregon, have failed to do so because they do not realize the permanent nature of that pest when once it gains a firm foothold. The experience of California should be enough, were it generally known, to arouse the frnit-growers and dealers of this state to energetic and continued exertions to prevent the scale from gaining possession of our orchards. A committee appointed by the fruit-growers of southern California to investigate the present out-look and future possibilities of the effort to fight the scale by propagating parasites that feed upon it has reported not very hopefully. Unless Oregon growers are wise enough to profit by the experience of their California brethren, they will themselves have to face this unsolved problem of scales on their trees. The utmost care should be taken, especially in the matter of importation of young trees. The state board of horticulture does all it can in the way of inspection and condemnation, and could do more and better work were it provided with the means to keep inspectors constantly in the field, but nothing can compensate for the carelessness and thoughtlessness of individual orchardists.

AT THE CANNERY.—While waiting for five or six hundred bushels of tomatoes to arrive from Southern Oregon, the employes of the cannery are busily employed in labeling and casing the seasons run of fruit. The cannery has not run steadily this season on account of not being able to get fruit and vegetables to work on. The total output for this year is about 1000 cases of two dozen cans each of cherries, pears, blackberries, peas, beans, corn and tomatoes. They have put up about 25,000 pounds of dried prunes and about 5,000 pounds of apples. This with the fruit and vegetables yet to come will bring this season's run up to about one-fourth that of last year. This year's work under the careful management of W. H. Abrams, will go a long way toward showing the stockholders of this company what they may expect in return for their money invested, in the next few years. It is a business that is hard to get started, but when it is in good running order things will run along smoothly. The farmers of this county should see to it that next year the money that is being expended in Southern Oregon for fruit and vegetables especially will be kept at home. We can raise just as good fruit and vegetables for canning and drying purposes as can be grown anywhrre.

DIES FOUND.—B. F. Watkins, of Grant's Pass found a couple of dies used in making counterfeit money in a shed back of his residence a few days ago. The dies are short, round bars of brass and have one end shaped so as to make an impression of a $10 piece, dated 1888. Mr. Watkins wrote to the United States commissioner at Ashland about the matter and received a request to take care of the dies, as they might be needed as evidence against Coon, who is now in jail at The Dalles for counterfeiting. The dwelling now occupied by Mr. Watkins was at one time the headquarters of the Coons.

ARRESTED FOR TRESPASS.—Late Saturday afternoon Deputy Sheriff Smith arrested Will Sovern, Ralph and Horton Smith on complaint of E. H. Hawkins for trespass. The boys were hunting west of town and it is claimed disregarded the trespass notices. They gave bonds for their appearance, their trial being set for this evening at 7:30 o'clock before Justice Kinsey.

Since the above was in print L. Bilyeu, as attorney for the boys, entered a demurrer and after an argument the complaint was dismissed on the same.

A LEG BROKEN.—This morning John Siler, of Camp Creek, was kicked by a horse and had one of his legs broken thereby. Dr. Kuykendall was called to attend him. The injury will doubtless prove serious, as Mr. Siler is an invalid and was also a cripple before. The family of which he is a member has been peculiarly unfortunate since locating on Camp creek several years since, five of the people having died, mainly from consumption.

SUIT COMMENCED.—A suit was brought in the circuit court for Lane county yesterday by E. Thurman, father of the late W. A. Thurman and administrator of his estate. DIED.—At his home in Arkansas, September 28, little Fred Snodgrass, the only son of Mr. James and Mrs. L. Snodgrass, aged 6 years. It will be remembered they left Eugene about three weeks ago for their home in Arkansas. This is their oldest and fifth child that is buried. They have the sympathy of their many friends in Eugene.

NOT ALLOWED.—As will be seen by reference to commissioners' court proceedings, a number of bills were continued for the term. This is caused in nearly every instance by the failure on the part of the creditor to comply with the recent order of the court that all bills should be properly certified and sworn to before being allowed by the court. To do the county justice the court must hold strictly to this order in its proceedings.

DANCING SCHOOL.—Mr. G. A. Gustin, of Portland, is here considering the advisability of establishing a dancing school, giving one lesson per week. Saturday evening will probably be selected as the date of lessons. Mr. Gustin comes prepared with first-class certificates and may be seen at the Hoffman House.

NEW FIRM.—The stock of jewelry which has been in the hands of H. N. Crain, as receiver for the Lane Co. Bank was sold this morning to Phelps, Miller & Co., a wholesale jewelry firm of San Francisco. It is understood that Mr. Crain will be employed by them to continue the business at the same place for some time at least.
