ANOTHER ATTEMPTED WRECK.
Obstructions Placed on the Railroad Track Between Irving and Eugene.
SUSPECTED PARTY ARRESTED.
Last night about 8 o'clock a man crawling along the railroad came into the depot at this place and notified night operator Awbrey that some obstructions were on the track below Irving. Section foreman Patterson was sent for and hurried down to remove them. About 25 miles below town he came to a heavy steel rail laid across the track. This he removed and the short distance farther on he found a large stick of wood wedged in a small bridge, which he also removed. As both obstructions were easily removed by one man it was suspected that the tramp, who gave his name as George Mills, might be implicated in the matter as he made no effort to remove them. He claimed however that if these obstructions were placed there with the purpose of robbery the robbers might be lying in ambush to rob him, hence it was through fear that he did not make the attempt, he said alone.
He was arrested and given a hearing this morning. Several matters incident to the affair formed what seemed to the officers a strong chain of circumstantial evidence and Justice Kinsey heard him over until the grand jury, which convenes in a few days, makes a further investigation of the case. The prisoner was taken to the Roseburg county jail this afternoon by one of the returning Roseburg K. of P. delegates, for his keeping.

GOLDSMITH DEAD.—Just before the GOLDSMITH DEAD.—Just before the press a dispatch was received from Portland by G. Bettman, of this city, announcing the death of Albert Goldsmith, in that city at the residence of Samuel Rosenblatt, at 2 1/2 blocks. Mr. Goldsmith has been gradually declining in health for several years, and went to Portland about two weeks since to receive medical treatment. Friends here knew his condition was bad, but did not have an idea that he would terminate so suddenly. He was buried in San Francisco and his relatives in Portland. Mr. Goldsmith was a resident of Eugene a number of years, and made his headquarters in Lane county, who will probably regret to learn of his death. He was a member of the Eugene Lodge, A. F. & A. The convention of the societies of Christian Endeavor in Lane county is being held in this city. The services at the church opened this morning at 10 o'clock with short devotional exercises. The attendance was rather small, a large number of the delegates being delayed by the stormy weather. The welcome address was delivered by Miss Daisy M. Loomis in behalf of the Eugene Christian Endeavor Union. After this a committee on credentials was appointed by the president, Miss Alberta Shelton. This committee consists of Misses Ella Loomis, Lizzie Bond and Mrs. Adams. The minutes of the last meeting were then read by acting secretary, Mabel Straight. THE CITY SAYS.—L. Bonney, through his attorneys, A. C. Woodcock and W. S. McFadden, has instituted a suit for damages in the circuit court, for the sum of $5,000 against the city of Eugene. The complaint alleges that through the negligence of the city of Eugene, in permitting a sidewalk on Eighth street to remain out of repair at Claribone Bonney, a 6-year-old son of L. Bonney, fell through a sidewalk on June 25, 1922, and thereby broke his arm.
Hops Will Be High.—Portland Telegram: Twenty cents is being freely offered by buyers for hops, but growers are still holding off for better bargains. Buyers are extremely cautious, but it is thought that they would offer 25 cents providing the thought of this price would be accepted. Good hops are expected to come to market in 35 cents this fall. A great deal, however, depends on whether growers will rush their products on the market at the first signs of a drop.
CLEVELAND CLUB.—The democrats of Cottage Grove are enthusiastic. They met Tuesday night and formed a Cleveland and Stevenson club with 126 members. The following officers were elected: Dr. B. F. Competitive Drill, Reception, Etc.
Daily Guard, Oct. 12.
Only one division, Ivanhoe No. 5, of Portland, ventured to drill for the prize offered yesterday afternoon. Capt. Al Werlin was in command of the squad of eight men and two guides. Their maneuvers were all very precise and gave evidence of much diligence in preparation. The movements executed would have been more difficult with a greater number of men but with the drill was very commendable.
THE KNIGHTS PHOTOGRAPHED.
With the visiting members and delegates and members of Helmet Lodge of this city arranged to form three sides of a hollow square, with the uniformed ranks drawn up within. They formed a pretty picture. This was captured by C. L. Winter's camera from a window of the school building.
THE RECEPTION.
This was held at the opera house at 8 o'clock last evening. The grand lodge in a body occupied the stage and the large auditorium was filled with citizens and ladies assembled to formally welcome them. An address of welcome was made by Hon. J. H. McClung, mayor, in behalf of the city. Mr. McClung presented a timely and very appropriately expressed the cordiality with which the visitors are received.
The welcome address by Dr. C. E. Loomis in behalf of Helmet Lodge No. 33 of this city, was earnest and full of the feeling of brotherhood and friendship, which actuate the organization of such order as the K. of P. in the response in behalf of the Grand Lodge was made by Grand Chancellor J. T. Hayne. His remarks were short but very feelingly expressed the appreciation of that body for the cordial welcome and entertainment accorded to them.
It also became the gentleman's duty as Colonel of the K. of P. of the Regiment of Oregon, to present the Ivanhoe division with the handsome prize won by them in the afternoon. This was a large silver water tankard. Capt. Al Werlin received the prize in behalf of the division in a few well chosen remarks as he also did for a beautiful silver goblet presented to himself for efficient command.
An oration was then delivered by Grand Orator Fitch, which in eloquent language set forth the objects and aims, the blessings and advantages of the order. In his closing remarks he took occasion to suggest some needed legislation by the grand lodge, regarding the indigent widows and orphans' fund, which seemed to be well received by that body. Mr. Fitch was heartily applauded. Past G. C. Cleveland of Astoria was then called upon and paid a fitting tribute to the exercises of the evening. An orchestra furnished music which added to the pleasantness of the gathering.

He went to the barn to catch and bridle his pony, and got into a manger to put on the bridle, when the pony pulled back, throwing the boy to the floor, the pony turned at the same time, kicking the child in the stomach, crushing the liver and gall from the effects of which the boy died the night of the 9th, at 9 o'clock. The family has the sympathy of the entire neighborhood in this, their sad bereavement. G. J.
