

Democratic National Ticket.

For President, GROVER CLEVELAND, of New York.

For Vice President, A. E. STEVENSON, of Illinois.

All rumors that the democratic electoral ticket of Oregon has been withdrawn are without foundation.

Republicans Cornered.

Portland Daily Telegram: What have the republicans to say of Alabama? Chris Magee, one of their most astute leaders, is down in Birmingham doing all in his power, as a self-appointed diplomat, to make the republicans fuse with the people's party.

Not only is this true of Alabama, but it also applies to several other Southern states. And yet the republicans of Oregon are hammering away as if the action of the democrats in this state was confined to that party alone.

The high tax on commonly used articles of daily consumption by people of ordinary means has built up a plutocracy of wealth at one end and tramps at the other end of our social system.

The national democratic committee is 3000 miles away and cannot understand the situation in Oregon. The advice to withdraw the other democratic electors meets with little approval.

The democratic state central committee is considering the advisability of withdrawing the Cleveland electoral ticket. The general sentiment is towards Cleveland and well enough should be let alone.

A hop growing republican, who wears a Harrison badge, informs us that the 15 cents a pound tariff on hops is a fraud. That it was imposed with intent to deceive voters, the same as the 25 cents a bushel protection on wheat.

The voter should be careful in regard to his ballot. In some of the counties the name of Nathan Pierce is in two places, in others but one. If you propose to vote for Pierce see that he is scratched in one of the places.

Wool was on the free list in 1857—the low tariff period of our history—but we should not forget that it was in that year that Oregon built her first woolen mill. It was located at Salem. Joseph Smith, the president, received $5000 per year salary; the secretary $3000. They paid big wages and bought Oregon raised wool at 25 cents per pound. Smith sold his seventeen shares for $81,000. It was a paying institution.

Mr. Dubois, the French geographer, has been making investigations as to the customary speed at which travelers have been carried in France for the past few centuries. He finds that the person who desired to go from Paris to Bayonne, in the southwest part of France, in 1650, was compelled to squander 358 hours on the way. Over a century later, 1782, such improvements had been made in conveyances and roads that the same journey could be accomplished in 200 hours.

The Portland monopoly organ continues to chew the rag of disappointment because Nathan Pierce has been indorsed by the democrats.

Willamette street is greatly improved since the mud has been removed. The general condition of Eugene streets is excellent.

A young wife's indiscretion was the cause of a sad tragedy in Portland the other day. The green eyed monster played an important part.

Pendleton E. O.: There are several young men in Pendleton who voted for Harrison in 1888 who will vote for Cleveland this year. We know of one man, and he an old one, who voted for Cleveland in 1888 who will vote for Harrison this year. The young men are for Cleveland.

The university of Michigan numbers among its students two young Chinese girls, Mary Stone and Ada Kahn, whose homes are in the interior of the Flowery Kingdom. For the convenience of their American friends they have exchanged their own names for the ones above mentioned.

Telegram: Brother Wanamaker must have felt kind of mean the other day when the republican managers of Indiana said that they did not want him personally for public speeches. They think he will do more harm than good probably, but still the state has the name of having been influenced by that very stuff which Postmaster John possesses in extensive quantities.

Last year the state built a portage road around the obstructions in the Columbia river below The Dalles, says the East Oregonian. This has caused a saving to the farmers of $2.50 a ton on wheat and in the same proportion on other articles. Thus the need for a similar road above The Dalles is emphasized. The cry for "an open river" raised five or more years ago by the East Oregonian is melody still to the people. The state can give the people an open river. To depend upon the government and the politicians is useless and senseless. Let's go to work for an open river and show the politicians they have been found out and cannot be trusted.

Trial of the Case in Court. LONDON, Nov. 2.—In the trial of the suit for damages for slander brought by Mrs. Leader against Mrs. Smyth, yesterday, it was shown that the diamond brooch, which the latter was accused of stealing, was pawned the day before it was alleged to have been stolen; that the jeweler to whom it was pawned delivered it to Mrs. Smyth; that the latter wrote to Mrs. Leader demanding £500, lawyer's fees as the price of silence; that Mrs. Leader's husband then insisted on a suit for slander. The jeweler testified that the brooch in controversy was similar to the one Mrs. Leader pawned, but there were very many like it. The police had issued a notice concerning the missing brooch with a picture of it. An examination showed the alleged stolen brooch had eight points, while the one Mrs. Leader pawned has six. Mrs. Leader testified the brooch was given her by an army officer at Cairo, and positively denied she stole Mrs. Smyth's brooch. When the court reassembled this morning Mrs. Leader was subjected to a protracted severe cross-examination, but came out of it with flying colors. The sympathy of the audience was evidently with her. She is a very attractive young woman. Lieutenant Leader then took the witness chair and confirmed his wife's testimony as to her possession of the brooch in question while in Egypt. He cleaned it weekly. Her maid testified she often saw her wear it and the wife of an army officer in India gave similar evidence.

The Broken Cars Take Fire. LONDON, Nov. 2.—A terrible railroad wreck took place early this morning at Thirsk in Yorkshire. The second section of the coast express from Edinburgh to London ran into a freight train at Manor house station. The engine of the express train toppled over and fell into a field at the side of the track, followed by all the passenger coaches. The wreck took fire at once, and, as the passengers were in many cases pinned under the debris, several were burned to death. It is known that not fewer than 10 were killed and 30 injured, 12 of them seriously. Captain Duncan McLeod, of the Forty-second Highlanders, is among the killed, and Marquis of Tweedie and Marquis of Huntley are injured. Wrecking trains are now at work clearing up the wreck.

It Looks Like Nebraska Might Have Prohibition. OMAHA, Nov. 1.—Euclid Martin, chairman of the democratic state central committee, has issued an address in which he calls attention to what he terms an effort on the part of the prohibitionists to capture the state legislature. He avers that he has made a systematic inquiry, and discovered that 89 legislative candidates on the republican and populist tickets are pledged to vote for full statutory prohibition, in case they are elected. On joint ballot there are 133 votes in the Nebraska legislature. Martin avers that 89 candidates have elected they will be able to place a prohibition law on the statute books.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 2.—The president today requested the publication of the following: "The expressions of sympathy with me and my family in our great sorrow from individuals, from societies, from church conventions, from public meetings, from political clubs and committees of all parties, and indeed from all the people, have been so tender and full of respect and love for Mrs. Harrison that I reluctantly abandon the purpose of making a personal acknowledgment of each. Deputy Marshals in Alabama. MONTGOMERY, Ala., Nov. 2.—W. L. Wood, chairman of the democratic campaign committee of Dallas county, telegraphed General Charles M. Shelly, chairman of the state campaign committee: "B. L. Walker, United States marshal of Alabama, has appointed deputy United States marshals to superintend the election in this county in November." General Shelly telegraphed Wood the appointments were illegal except in cities with more than 20,000 people, and instructed him to have the sheriff appoint deputies to arrest the deputy marshals if they undertook to interfere with the election. Walker was interviewed and said: "I appointed deputy marshals for Dallas county, at the instance and request of reputable citizens of that county. I defy any one to arrest or interfere with any deputy who wears the badge of a deputy marshal on election day."

BIG BETS RECORDED.

New York, Oct. 21.—Edward Kearney of the Eleventh Assembly District is a gentleman who stakes a great deal of money on the results of elections every year, and it can be said of him that he seldom loses a wager. Already this campaign he has placed money as follows: $7000 even with an unknown, $2000 even with George Kessler, $1000 even with a Mr. Campbell and $300 even with William Henriques that Cleveland will be elected. $1,000 even with John Hill of Philadelphia that Harrison will not live; $50,000 plurality in Pennsylvania; $1,000 to $700 with Campbell that Cleveland will carry New York, and $200 to $400 that Cleveland will carry Massachusetts. He has also, through Billy Edwards of the Hoffman House, placed $1,200 to $800 that Cleveland will carry Indiana, and $1000 to $700 that he will carry New York. Edwards last evening had $5,000 Harrison money to bet even on the general result, and $1,000 Cleveland money to bet against $700 on the result in this state.

Chicago, Oct. 30.—Election betting in Chicago is becoming active. Harry Varnell bet a republican state senator $1400 to $2000 that Cleveland will win. Joe Ullman bet $3600 against $3000 that Cleveland would carry New York state. George Andrin has bet $2800 even that Cleveland will be the next president. George Hoffman is prepared to bet $15,000 on the general result.

Chicago, Oct. 30.—Rufus E. Spangler, chief clerk of the Altgeld campaign committee, has deposited $20,000 in the Union National Bank, which amount, or any part of it, he will bet that Harrison will not be re-elected.

Removed - every vestige of Catarrh in the Head, no matter how bad the case, or of how long standing, by Dr. Sage's Catarrh Remedy. Not only Catarrh itself, but all the troubles that come from it - they're perfectly and permanently cured by its mild, soothing, cleansing and healing properties. If you could only be sure of that, it's enough. The proprietors of Dr. Sage's Remedy try to prove it to you. They are sure enough of it - a record of 25 years, with thousands of the most hopeless cases, has satisfied them - but how can they prove it to you? There's no better way than with money. So they say this, and they mean it: "if we can't cure your Catarrh, no matter what your case is, we'll pay you $50 in cash. There's a condition that you can't be cured, but it's so small that we're willing to take it." What more can they say or do to convince you? Isn't that enough?
