A CROOK COUNTY JOKE.—Last Tuesday evening Bartlett Wolf, who mugged Miss Birdie Morton, at Mt. Tabor, walked into the B & L Co's store at Hay creek, and had a few moments conversation with Hon.

C. M. Cartwright in the presence of Frank Somerville and Henry Burchett. Soon after his entrance Geo. Dismeyer came in and recognized Wolfe from reading a printed description which he had in his possession.

He called Mr. Cartwright aside and after reading the description to him went to the ranch for killing wildcats to help identify the man. While he was gone the ex-servant re-entered the store and had some more talk with stranger. Presently

Mr. Van Houten came back. After a time

Artillyerman Cartwright of battery A inquired of the prisoner's name, and like a thunderbolt came the answer:

"Wolf!"

"It's our man!" "It is him!" "Don't let go of that coat sleeve," was the well developed theme of the chorus of captors.

"But whence comest thy name?" asked

Mr. Cartwright.

"From Beaver creek."

"What were you doing there?"

"Hunting sheep for Bob Odell."

It may be explained that Mr. Cartwright and the stranger put up the job while Geo.

was gone for assistance, and that the affair was the amusement of the evening at the ranch.—News.

Daily Guard, Nov. 11.

A SERIOUS CHARGE.—Last evening Tom

Stearns was arrested by Deputy Sheriff Croner, on a warrant from Heppner, Morrow county, charging him with the crime of obtaining money under false pretenses. He was taken to Heppner this morning by Deputy Sheriff J. B. Keeney, of Morrow county. It appears that Stearns and another formed a bogus order upon a party and received a team of horses which they sold.

In fact, it was a regular bunco game.

FRIDAY, NOV. 11.

David L. Stearns has been appointed city assessor of Portland.

Phil Nichols, a former Grand composi-tor, came up from Florence today.

Chas. Baker and wife left Wednesday night for San Francisco to make it their future home.

A. Lytle has purchased a farm near Coburg and the family will remove to that place soon.

J. E. Anis purchased a full stock of leaves at the GUARD office today.

It is said that the proprietors of the Rick-ret flouring mills which burned recently will rebuild as soon as practicable.

Mrs. Wallace Mount, who has been visiting in Eugene for several months returned home at Sprague, Wash., yesterday.

Delos D. Neer, of Portland, architect of the new jail, spent yesterday in Eug-e returning to his home this morning.

Brown and Fleeman, who received the fall day before yesterday are getting along nicely and will both undoubtedly recover.

A dispatch says that Hon. Wallace

Mount has been re-elected superior judge of the Sprague, Wash., district. The GUARD offers its congratulations.

Mr. Blaine did not vote for president this year. An intimate friend of his says this will be the first time that Mr.

Blaine has failed to vote in a presidential year since he came to age.

McIntireville T.R.—On Tuesday S. M.

Ross swore out a warrant for the arrest of Samuel J. Day, for assault with intent to commit rape on a daughter of Mr.

Ross. The parties live about four miles southwest of town.

Judge R. P. Boise took his departure the day before yesterday for Concord,

New Hampshire, to attend the national congress of Oregon's delegates. From there he will go to Boston and will spend about a month in the East.

Courier: Mt Pitt, an extinct volcano in the Canadian coast 60 miles east of Grants Pass, is said to be smoking again.

C. A. Woolfolk who has been in sight of it recently, says the black smoke shoots straight up in large volumes from one of
