If used in time it will prevent pneumonia. 50 cent bottles for sale by Osburn & DeLano.

NOTICE. Notice is hereby given that we the undersigned have posted trespass notices on our respective farms and places under our care, and will prosecute any and all persons violating or disregarding the said trespass notices.

Stray Notice. COBURG, Oregon, Dec. 27, '92. On or about November 1, 1891, there strayed on to the premises of Samuel Smith one mile west of Coburg, in the county of Lane:

One two year old steer with small white spots on each side, marked crop off left ear and split in right. One two year old Jersey steer not marked. One three year old dun cow, marked, under and upper bit in the right ear, and swallow fork in the left.

Any one claiming the above described animals can obtain possession of the same by paying all expenses and cost. ARCH SMITH.

PRUNE TREES.—15,000 Petite and Italian prune trees from three to eight feet, at 5 cents. Address, F. G. EBY, Woodburn, Or.

Estray. Came to the residence of Palmer Ayres, five miles north of Eugene, about the first of the summer, 1892, a red three year old steer, marked, under bit in left ear upper bit in right. Owner can have the same by paying expenses.

SHEEP INSPECTORS NOTICE. All persons in Lane county owning scabby sheep or sheep afflicted with other diseases, are hereby notified that said sheep must be thoroughly dipped, sufficient to kill said disease forthwith.

$35 worth of goods at Day & Henderson's for $25 cash. Blank notices for the location of quartz mines for sale at the GUARD office.

Parties wanting slab wood can procure the same by sending orders to the Lane Lumber League, at Springfield.

The county jail now has an occupant. Cleaver Bros. sold their farm between the forks of the Willamette and McKenzie rivers about three miles north of this city yesterday to J. A. Carver.

The remonstrance to the division of Lane county, now in the hands of the secretary, contains over 1,400 voters, with a number of precincts yet to be heard from.

One thousand pounds of deer hides were shipped by this morning's overland train to Portland, via Wells Fargo & Co's express. This is a clear violation of the game law.

With every $25 bill of goods bought for cash of Day & Henderson, they will give a present valued at $10. This will only hold good while the present invoice lasts.

Portland Telegram: Orlando Cartwright, who was indicted sometime ago for forgery, failed to appear in the United States court for Tuesday, and his bail of $100 was forfeited.

Cartwright was a resident of Lane county. Florence West: W. C. Bailey was in town during the week. He reports about a foot of snow at his logging camp, a few miles above the Wild Cat, on the Siuslaw.

It will require rain for only a few days to raise the river sufficiently to bring his 3,000,000 feet of logs down to the Point Terrace boom.

Antelope Herald: Queer as it may seem it is nevertheless a fact that after the dancers found that the man was dead in the recent tragedy at Willow Creek and no further disturbance was liable to occur, they all returned to the hall and resumed dancing, apparently with renewed vigor until a late hour.

A Corvallis dispatch of the 16th says that the funeral services of the late E. A. Abbey occurred that afternoon from the family residence and were largely attended by old residents of that section of the country.

The deceased served with considerable distinction in the Mexican war, and in 1851 crossed the plains with the famous Kit Carson. He settled near Corvallis and has ever since been a prominent citizen of that county.

Day & Henderson having met with an opportunity, bought at a sacrifice sale, a lot of the most useful of household articles. The regular price of which is $10. They propose to give one of them with every $25 bill of goods bought of them for cash.

This offer only holds good until the articles are given away. The Pendleton E. O. tells us follows how the tin horns were shipped from that city: Marshal McBrien is a kindly-disposed officer, and dislikes to cause any one personal inconvenience, but it appears is compelled to do so in the fulfillment of duty.

Saturday night the new marshal and his deputies made the rounds and extended a polite but pressing invitation to five individuals to remove their presence from the city, which they promised to do. The reason given is that they have no visible means of support, and are of no value to the community.

It is pretty hard to move out in the dead of winter, when brake beams and blind baggage travelling is uncomfortable, but the rounders will have to make a virtue of necessity and hunt for other fields for prey.

DIED.—Rev. T. F. Campbell, who has been one of the leading educators and ministers of the Northwest for more than 30 years died at Monmouth yesterday, at the age of 70 years.

He was a resident of Eugene for a year, being pastor of the Christian church. A number of years ago he held a joint debate here with B. F. Underwood, the great free thinker, of Boston. The gentleman had many friends in Lane county who will be pained to learn of his demise.

DIED.—Rev. T. F. Campbell, who has been one of the leading educators and ministers of the Northwest for more than 30 years died at Monmouth yesterday, at the age of 70 years.

REMONSTRANCE.—The remonstrances to the division of Lane county that have been returned to the secretary, contain the names of 1100 voters, and only about one-half of the lists are in. Those who have not yet signed the remonstrance should do so.

It is necessary that it be presented to the legislature in the near future. DAILY GUARD, Jan. 18.

SUIT COMMENCED.—A suit was commenced in Justice Kinsey's court this morning, wherein E. R. Skipworth instituted suit against John Maxwell for $190, balance due on attorney fees in the Maxwell will case. It appears that Maxwell will not even settle with his attorneys, after they have done hard and faithful work to get him out of a bad case.

"In buying a cough medicine for children," says H. A. Walker, a prominent druggist of Ogden, Utah, "never be afraid to buy Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. There is no danger from it and relief is always sure to follow. I particularly recommend Chamberlain's because I have found it to be safe and reliable. It is intended especially for colds, croup and whooping cough. 50 cent bottles for sale by Osburn & DeLano."

A dog poisoner is abroad in the land. The old Eighth street stable is being torn down. Charles Reid has returned here from California. John Kelley, of Springfield, went to Salem this morning. Jas. Sharp, a Cottage Grove merchant, was in town today. Wm. E. Dris went to Portland this morning on a business trip. J. M. Kitson and son returned home from Benton county this afternoon. J. H. Henderson has rented Elmer Cleaver's residence on Seventh street. Mahlon Day, of Creswell, spent Saturday and Sunday in Eugene visiting friends. Dr. D. A. Falne made a professional visit to the lower part of the county today. John Von Ewegen has been appointed a notary public by the governor. Cliff and Elmer Cleaver and their families expect to leave for Pendleton next Monday. Hon. R. B. Cochran's condition is reported critical as he shows no signs of improvement. It is likely that an Odd Fellows lodge will be organized at Lorane, this county, in the near future. Some of the World's Fair souvenir half dollars have been received by the First National bank of this city. Geo. W. Bishop committed suicide at Heppner yesterday by shooting himself through the head. He was a morphine fiend. Tramps are more numerous than ever before. Policeman Garrison allowed two or three to sleep in the city jail last night. Attorney Gallagher has filed a motion for a rehearing in the Madison street case, which was recently decided by the supreme court. The senate bill passed for the retirement of Judge M. P. Dandy, of Oregon. Under the existing law he would not be entitled to retirement until next year. The Roseburg Review issued an illustrated edition last Monday. It was a valuable paper and the proprietors of the Review are to be congratulated on their enterprise. It is now nearly six weeks since the completion of the new county jail, and not a prisoner has slept within its walls. Lane county is freer from criminals than for several years. Albin Democrat: Portland is full of thugs, and the valley is already getting some what of a benefit. Extra vigilance should be used in every city along the S. P. to keep these gangs of thieves away from us. They need prodding with a red hot iron. At the board of trade meeting Monday night a committee was appointed to ask the council to pass an ordinance requiring moss to be cleaned out of the roofs of all buildings; the terminal rates committee reported progress; a committee, consisting of Messrs. Rykondal, Matlock and Wilkins, was appointed to furnish a write up of Lane county for publication; the secretary was ordered to secure 1000 copies of "Resources of Oregon," from the state, for gratuitous circulation. Just now Portland seems to be fairly overrun with footpads and thugs, and nothing is safe that is within reach. All the arts and sciences are making rapid strides, and it would appear that "burglar science" is not falling much to the rear in the race. The latest fad among burglars, so says an exchange in the east, is a key with which Yale locks are opened with delightful facility. The key is made of silver bristles, and when inserted in the lock a portion of the key striking against the iron posts in the lock will bend, while the parts of the key striking the tumblers will bend them back. It might be asked with no small degree of alarm, "What next?" and "To what are we drifting?"

PERSONAL. Daily Guard, Jan. 18. Commissioner Parker was in town today. J. J. Cohen returned from Portland this afternoon. Assessor McPherson returned from a trip to Salem last night. Roy Lakin left on the local this morning for a trip east. Attorney L. Bilyeu returned home from Salem last night. Deputy Sheriff Smith is confined to his home with a well developed case of mumps. The condition of Hon. R. B. Cochran, of Coburg, remains about the same as yesterday. Dr. T. W. Shelton is now sojourning at Los Angeles, Cal. He writes that he is improving rapidly. Hon. C. K. Wilkinson came up from Salem this afternoon with the legislative committee and will not return before Monday. Albert Wilson will leave tonight for Fort Angeles, Washington, accompanied by his sister Priscilla, intending to make their residence in that city. W. S. Ford, formerly manager of the Park theatre in Portland, spent last night in this city. He is now representing Cordray's Theatre Company, which will be here in February with "Humbog" and "Hip Van Winkle."

FROM THE CAPITOL. The Legislature Adjourns Until Monday at 2 p. m. Special to the DAILY GUARD: SALEM, Jan. 18.—The legislature adjourned until Monday afternoon at 2 o'clock, to allow the various committees time to visit state institutions and public works. Very few bills are in the hands of committees. Governor Sylvester Pennoyer has given out that he will refer the report of the state asylum investigation, made by the state board of charities, to the joint committee who is to visit that institution. NEW ENTERPRISES.—Salem Statesman: The Oregon State Socialist Union was incorporated in the office of the secretary of state Monday by Henry Schroder, D. C. Stewart, B. F. Hyland and J. K. Sears. The principal place of business will be in this city and the estimated value of property on hand is $250. The object is the repeal of all laws that exempt church property; that enforce the observance of Sunday as Sabbath; that appropriate public funds for sectarian institutions; that tolerate any religious exercises or display of prayer in any public building.

NAME CHANGED.—Our friends at Junction City have changed the name of their proposed county from Mitchell to Blaine. What is the matter that Oregon's popular senator is absent?
