

EUGENE CITY GUARD.

L. L. CAMPBELL, Proprietor.

EUGENE CITY, OREGON.

OCCIDENTAL MELANGE

The Washington Senate Passes the Anti-Pinkerton Bill.

SONTAG AND EVANS IN ARIZONA.

Federal Peak in New Mexico in a State of Violent Eruption—Trouble Over an Idaho Jail.

John Ross, at Salt Lake have failed, with liabilities of $110,000.

The Ogden Council has voted $15,000 bonus for a smelter and reduction works.

The old-established house of Parker & Hanson of Astoria, Or., has been closed by San Francisco creditors.

The steamer San Pedro is to be lifted from the rocks in front of Victoria, B. C., by means of coffer dams.

Governor Murphy of Arizona has gone to Washington to use his efforts to secure Statehood for the Territory.

"Bawly-eyed Kid" has been arrested at Sacramento and charged with obtaining money under false pretenses.

Andrew Peterson, who has a ranch along the Klamath river, has set out 300 cranberry plants as an experiment.

The Cudaly Packing Company's buildings at Los Angeles, when completed, will cover an acre of ground.

A bill has been introduced in the Nevada Legislature providing for a convention to revise the constitution of the State.

There is trouble in Shoshone county, Idaho, as to who owns the jail at Burke.

The defeated officials at Burke claim it for debt.

San Diego has begun the preparation and shipment of lobsters, fish, etc., to Eastern markets in carload lots.

A cannery is to be established at San Diego.

The British Columbia government offers $50 for information leading to the conviction of the parties who kidnapped the sailors of the ship Bowmans a Nanaimo.

A Victoria, B. C., dispatch says it has been determined by the Giant Powder Company's branch of the Berkeley works California to perfect new and improved works at Cadboro Bay.

The Washington Senate has passed over the Governor's veto the famous anti-Pinkerton bill of the Territory.

Denver capitalists have purchased the great San Fernando copper mine in Lower California for $250,000.

The mine is situated about one hundred miles south of San Quentin and seventeen miles from the coast.

The first-throw Mercantile Agency reports thirteen failures in the Pacific Coast States and Territories for the past week, as compared with fifteen for the previous week and twelve for the corresponding period of 1892.

Federal Peak, situated in the wilds of Rio Arriba county, N. M., is now in a state of violent eruption, and is belching forth sulphurous fumes and lava at intervals of about three hours, each period of eruption lasting about thirty minutes.

Seven months ago the South Ogden Mercantile Company incorporated at Ogden, Utah, with a capital of $1,500,000.

The result of dissenion among the stockholders, who are all capitalists of high rank.

Judge Dougherty at Santa Rosa, Cal., on a writ of habeas corpus rules that magistrates may receive complaints, issue warrants, conduct preliminary examinations and admit persons to bail, but cannot hold trials and pronounce judgments on legal holidays.

The Tucson Star says: A miner in this city from the Harqua Hala mines says that two men stopped at the mine last week answering the description of Sontag and Evans, the Visalia train-robbers. They were on horseback, they appeared very nervous, and did not speak very long to any one.

At a meeting of the mining superintendents at Virginia City to discuss the proposition to drain the flooded levels of the Comstock mines below the floor of the Sutro Tunnel, a sub-committee was appointed to submit a plan of action to the directors of the various mining companies that will more than repay this outlay in a short time.

An attempt to play a practical joke on one of the Indians encamped near Umaticita, Or., came near causing an outbreak the other day. The trouble arose over a pair of gloves belonging to the Indian, which were hidden by a young man. The glove called to his assistance a dozen of his fellows, who succeeded in terrifying the joker, and the gloves were returned.

An effort will be made within a few days to secure a meeting of the Native Sons of Oregon who are among the legislators. There are fully fifteen in the House and a number in the Senate who were born in the State, and it is thought considerable interest in the organization can be aroused. The Native Sons and Daughters of Oregon has a membership of 140 in Southern Oregon, with Colonel Robert A. Miller as President.

Representative Conn's bill relative to future creation of a new committee in Oregon requires a petition of 101 taxpayers to be filed with the County Clerk thirty days before a general election. The Sheriff must also certify that there is $70,000 worth of property in the proposed county, and that neither of the counties losing territory will be left with less than $100,000 worth of property. The question of establishing the new county must be submitted to the interested electors at a general election and receive two-thirds of their suffrages.

Dr. W. Brengle, who is known in all of the principal towns of the Northwest as the husband of Lillian Mason, the variety actress, and who created a sensation in Spokane a few days ago on his arrival from Denver by falling in his arms when he was informed that she would have no more to do with him, has filed a suit in the Superior Court for $100,000 damages against "The Bertha," the theatrical company, and Kelo-ph-Gorkha, a wealthy bear dealer, for assisting his wife's seductions. "Big Bertha" is Lillian's partner in the variety show and Gorkha is alleged to have conspired with Bertha to induce Lillian to discard her husband. Gorkha characterizes the suit as a bold attempt at blackmail.

FROM WASHINGTON CITY.

Mount Tacoma and Several Thousand Acres of Land in Its Vicinity to be Reserved for a Park.

The President and all the members of the Cabinet had group photographs taken the other day, preparatory to their official separation.

Senator Frazier has introduced a bill appropriating $100,000 for one two-hack steel bridge over the high-power steel Gaiting gun for coast defenses.

The legislative, executive and judicial appropriation bills for the fiscal year 1894 reported to the House make an aggregate appropriation of $21,677,965, or $222,134 less than that of the current fiscal year.

The House Committee on Postoffice has completed the postoffice appropriation bill for the year ending June 30, 1894. As agreed upon it carries an appropriation of $88,850,367, an increase of $5,638,000 over the appropriation for the current year.

Hopkins of Pennsylvania has introduced in the House a resolution directing the Attorney-General to inform the body who the persons originating and controlling the American Sugar Refining Company, or the sugar trust, had not been proceeded against as other persons charged with a similar crime.

The Secretary of the Interior in response to the request of Senator Mitchell has transmitted to the Senate all the papers relating to the claim of Oregon Indians for money in payment of ceded lands in 1855. The papers go to the Committee of the Senate, who will try and find out whether there is anything in the claim made by the Indians.

Mount Tacoma and several thousand acres of land in its vicinity are to be withdrawn from settlement and made a national park, with the ultimate park to be created as a national park. Senator Frazier has been working on this for some time, and Representative Wilson says Secretary Noble acted recently. An agreement was reached to have the withdrawal made.

The War Department has received a dispatch from General Wheaton, commanding the Department of Texas, stating that the Mexican government has instituted proceedings for the extradition of the three bandit leaders arrested by United States troops on the charge of the Santa Fe train robbery. The dispatch was sent to the Secretary of State, who will co-operate with the Mexican government in securing speedy action in the case.

The fees paid the messengers who bring the electoral votes to the national capital amount to a considerable sum in the aggregate. Already there is some talk of repealing in one of Mr. Holman's appropriation bills the provisions for paying these messengers and providing that the electoral returns shall be sent in by mail or by express. The following are the fees paid the messengers in the Pacific States (Oregon, $75; Washington, $25; Idaho, $60).

Secretary Noble has addressed a communication to the Commissioner of Indian Affairs, setting forth his conclusions of the strained relations between J. Leroy Brown, acting United States Indian agent at Pine Ridge and Dr. Charles A. Eastman of the Sioux Indian agency. The Secretary's conclusion is that "good sense requires that Dr. Eastman should be suspended from acting as physician at Pine Ridge agency, and unless Dr. Eastman can be assigned or appointed to another place he is willing to accept within the next fifteen days he must resign, or he will be removed. The Secretary requires that Dr. Eastman should find fault with the conduct of acting Agent Brown in this connection.

Commander Henry L. Johnson has been dismissed from the navy. He was tried before a general court-martial at Mare Island navy yard in December last on three charges, the principal one of which is in official language "through negligence, suffering a vessel of the navy to be run aground and hazarded." The court found him guilty of the charges, and he was sentenced to be cashiered, but the President has commuted the sentence to a suspension for one year.

John Hutchinson, Collector of Internal Revenue, has just issued the first certificate in the Hartford (Conn.) district to Chinaman under the Chinese exclusion act of May 9, 1892.

The Duke of Alba of Spain has notified the Secretary of State that he will send to the World's Fair an autograph letter of Christopher Columbus, as well as other valuable documents.

The House Committee on Foreign Affairs has reported adversely the bill to give Rear Admiral Brown permission to receive medals and other tokens from the Hawaiian government.

The natural gas supply of the great gas belt around Findlay, Ohio, is no longer equal to the demand. The pressure is so low that it is useless for heating purposes, in homes even.

Of those who formed the original band of 300 Grant supporters in the nominating convention of 1860 some 250 are still living. They are to organize an association to be called "The Old Guard."

The sundry civil bill as recently agreed upon by the House Appropriations Committee carries $250,000 for the new Philadelphia mint, and $50,000 for the improvement of Philadelphia harbor.

Lieutenant Totten, United States Army, has forwarded his resignation to the War Department. He was until recently Professor of Military Science at Yale. He will devote his time to literary pursuits.

The Upper House of the Alabama Assembly, by a vote of seventeen to fifteen, refused to pass the bill granting a pension of $50 per year to the widow of Jefferson Davis. An attempt to reconsider is to be made.

A movement is on foot in Bridgeport, Conn., to move the birthplace of the world-famous midget, Carrie S. Stratton, "General Tom Thumb," from its present site to Reside Park and convert it into a public museum.

An investigation conducted by the Indiana Board of Agriculture shows that the State has paid $50,000 for the heads of chickens, turkeys and various small wild birds which were poisoned off upon the authorities for the heads of owls and hawks.

Birmingham, Ala., is emulating the example of Newport, Ky., in its entanglement over the control of its police force. The Council refuses to support the appointment, and the city is reported to be virtually without organized protection. The street railway company is mixed up in the fight.

Stamboul's grand performance of 2,075, made on the Stockton, Cal., track on November 23 last, the world-famous mile that crowned him king of trotting stations, has been rejected by the American Trotting Register Association.

Kenneth, who covered a mile at Kansasville, Tenn., in 2:07 1/2 on November 12, is, according to the "Register," the acknowledged trotting king.

The will of the late President Hayes provides for the equal distribution of the estate among the five children, after the settlement of all just debts, and making provision for a bequest to the Birchard Library of Freeport, the home place, 75 textile mills, 117 flouring mills and 82 machine shops and foundries. Such establishments are indices of solid and substantial growth.

BEYOND THE ROCKIES

Boston Photographers Will Have to Respect the Sabbath.

The silver wedding of the King and Queen of Italy will be celebrated April 22.

More people recognize Colonel Robert G. Ingersoll at sight than any other citizen who walks or rides about New York city.

Lord Wolseley, who is now Commander-in-Chief in Ireland, would not be averse to taking the Governor-Generalship of Canada.

Mrs. Leiland Stanford has a passion for shoes, and she probably has more pairs at a time than Queen Elizabeth ever dreamed of possessing.

Mrs. Winifred Field will soon be the possessor of one of the largest diamonds in the world. It is now being cut for her by a famous Dutch lapidary.

Mrs. Modjeska's recipe for retaining a youthful appearance: Take a warm bath every night before going to bed, get plenty of sleep and eat no starch.

The Khaw-Khira, now visiting some of his hollak (or priest) and his own cook. He feels tolerably safe, not matter what turns up.

Mrs. Proctor, widow of the late Richard A. Proctor, the famous astronomer, and his principal assistant in his professional work, has been appointed curator of the Proctor Observatory at San Diego, Cal.

J. Montgomery Sears, the richest man in Boston, reported to be worth about $400,000, has been doing service in the Superior Civil Court jury of Suffolk county, and will receive $81.90 mileage for his twenty-seven days' work.

Will Carleton surprised the people of Kansas City by going about the streets during a recent cold snap there without an overcoat and asserting that he felt comfortable. The venerable Richard Vance astonished his Philadelphia friends the other day by performing a similar feat.

Miss Florence Bacon of Williams-town, who will take the title of "Ph. D." next June from Johns Hopkins University, will be the first woman to receive such an honor from that institution.

A bill before the Illinois Legislature provides that in Chicago all vehicles used to transport prisoners shall be covered.

New York and Boston capitalists have arranged to start a big spirits distillery at Louisville, Ky., in opposition to the trust.

A total of nearly $9,000,000 has been appropriated by the nations of the world and the various States for the World's Fair at Chicago.

There are about forty petitions before the Connecticut Legislature to build electric street railways and electric interurban lines.

The Mexican government has abolished the payment of subsidies to the press, and three of the principal daily newspapers of Mexico are about to suspend.

Baroness Blanc, who has created a sensation in New York by her matrimonial success and stage ambitions, has pleaded bankruptcy to her creditors.

A Minnesota legislator proposes to raise a fund for the State University and general school fund by an annual tax of 1.2 mills on all property in the State.

Mr. Parker of Boston, Chairman of the Judiciary Committee, will introduce his bill into the Massachusetts Legislature prohibiting the issuing of free passes by railroads.

Satell is gradually bringing within the folds of the Catholic Church those who have heretofore taken an independent stand and defied the local church authorities.

Boston photographers are forbidden to work on Sunday any more. The city has so ordered, and the Chief of Police has notified the photographers that he will enforce the order.

John Hutchinson, Collector of Internal Revenue, has just issued the first certificate in the Hartford (Conn.) district to Chinaman under the Chinese exclusion act of May 9, 1892.

The Duke of Alba of Spain has notified the Secretary of State that he will send to the World's Fair an autograph letter of Christopher Columbus, as well as other valuable documents.

The House Committee on Foreign Affairs has reported adversely the bill to give Rear Admiral Brown permission to receive medals and other tokens from the Hawaiian government.

The natural gas supply of the great gas belt around Findlay, Ohio, is no longer equal to the demand. The pressure is so low that it is useless for heating purposes, in homes even.

Of those who formed the original band of 300 Grant supporters in the nominating convention of 1860 some 250 are still living. They are to organize an association to be called "The Old Guard."

The sundry civil bill as recently agreed upon by the House Appropriations Committee carries $250,000 for the new Philadelphia mint, and $50,000 for the improvement of Philadelphia harbor.

Lieutenant Totten, United States Army, has forwarded his resignation to the War Department. He was until recently Professor of Military Science at Yale. He will devote his time to literary pursuits.

The Upper House of the Alabama Assembly, by a vote of seventeen to fifteen, refused to pass the bill granting a pension of $50 per year to the widow of Jefferson Davis. An attempt to reconsider is to be made.

A movement is on foot in Bridgeport, Conn., to move the birthplace of the world-famous midget, Carrie S. Stratton, "General Tom Thumb," from its present site to Reside Park and convert it into a public museum.

An investigation conducted by the Indiana Board of Agriculture shows that the State has paid $50,000 for the heads of chickens, turkeys and various small wild birds which were poisoned off upon the authorities for the heads of owls and hawks.

Birmingham, Ala., is emulating the example of Newport, Ky., in its entanglement over the control of its police force. The Council refuses to support the appointment, and the city is reported to be virtually without organized protection. The street railway company is mixed up in the fight.

Stamboul's grand performance of 2,075, made on the Stockton, Cal., track on November 23 last, the world-famous mile that crowned him king of trotting stations, has been rejected by the American Trotting Register Association.

Kenneth, who covered a mile at Kansasville, Tenn., in 2:07 1/2 on November 12, is, according to the "Register," the acknowledged trotting king.

The will of the late President Hayes provides for the equal distribution of the estate among the five children, after the settlement of all just debts, and making provision for a bequest to the Birchard Library of Freeport, the home place, 75 textile mills, 117 flouring mills and 82 machine shops and foundries. Such establishments are indices of solid and substantial growth.

PURELY PERSONAL

Mrs. Stanford's Passion for Shoes—Mrs. Modjeska's Recipe for Retaining a Youthful Appearance.

The silver wedding of the King and Queen of Italy will be celebrated April 22.

More people recognize Colonel Robert G. Ingersoll at sight than any other citizen who walks or rides about New York city.

Lord Wolseley, who is now Commander-in-Chief in Ireland, would not be averse to taking the Governor-Generalship of Canada.

Mrs. Leiland Stanford has a passion for shoes, and she probably has more pairs at a time than Queen Elizabeth ever dreamed of possessing.

Mrs. Winifred Field will soon be the possessor of one of the largest diamonds in the world. It is now being cut for her by a famous Dutch lapidary.

Mrs. Modjeska's recipe for retaining a youthful appearance: Take a warm bath every night before going to bed, get plenty of sleep and eat no starch.

The Khaw-Khira, now visiting some of his hollak (or priest) and his own cook. He feels tolerably safe, not matter what turns up.

Mrs. Proctor, widow of the late Richard A. Proctor, the famous astronomer, and his principal assistant in his professional work, has been appointed curator of the Proctor Observatory at San Diego, Cal.

J. Montgomery Sears, the richest man in Boston, reported to be worth about $400,000, has been doing service in the Superior Civil Court jury of Suffolk county, and will receive $81.90 mileage for his twenty-seven days' work.

Will Carleton surprised the people of Kansas City by going about the streets during a recent cold snap there without an overcoat and asserting that he felt comfortable. The venerable Richard Vance astonished his Philadelphia friends the other day by performing a similar feat.

Miss Florence Bacon of Williams-town, who will take the title of "Ph. D." next June from Johns Hopkins University, will be the first woman to receive such an honor from that institution.

A bill before the Illinois Legislature provides that in Chicago all vehicles used to transport prisoners shall be covered.

New York and Boston capitalists have arranged to start a big spirits distillery at Louisville, Ky., in opposition to the trust.

A total of nearly $9,000,000 has been appropriated by the nations of the world and the various States for the World's Fair at Chicago.

There are about forty petitions before the Connecticut Legislature to build electric street railways and electric interurban lines.

The Mexican government has abolished the payment of subsidies to the press, and three of the principal daily newspapers of Mexico are about to suspend.

Baroness Blanc, who has created a sensation in New York by her matrimonial success and stage ambitions, has pleaded bankruptcy to her creditors.

A Minnesota legislator proposes to raise a fund for the State University and general school fund by an annual tax of 1.2 mills on all property in the State.

Mr. Parker of Boston, Chairman of the Judiciary Committee, will introduce his bill into the Massachusetts Legislature prohibiting the issuing of free passes by railroads.

Satell is gradually bringing within the folds of the Catholic Church those who have heretofore taken an independent stand and defied the local church authorities.

Boston photographers are forbidden to work on Sunday any more. The city has so ordered, and the Chief of Police has notified the photographers that he will enforce the order.

John Hutchinson, Collector of Internal Revenue, has just issued the first certificate in the Hartford (Conn.) district to Chinaman under the Chinese exclusion act of May 9, 1892.

The Duke of Alba of Spain has notified the Secretary of State that he will send to the World's Fair an autograph letter of Christopher Columbus, as well as other valuable documents.

The House Committee on Foreign Affairs has reported adversely the bill to give Rear Admiral Brown permission to receive medals and other tokens from the Hawaiian government.

The natural gas supply of the great gas belt around Findlay, Ohio, is no longer equal to the demand. The pressure is so low that it is useless for heating purposes, in homes even.

Of those who formed the original band of 300 Grant supporters in the nominating convention of 1860 some 250 are still living. They are to organize an association to be called "The Old Guard."

The sundry civil bill as recently agreed upon by the House Appropriations Committee carries $250,000 for the new Philadelphia mint, and $50,000 for the improvement of Philadelphia harbor.

Lieutenant Totten, United States Army, has forwarded his resignation to the War Department. He was until recently Professor of Military Science at Yale. He will devote his time to literary pursuits.

The Upper House of the Alabama Assembly, by a vote of seventeen to fifteen, refused to pass the bill granting a pension of $50 per year to the widow of Jefferson Davis. An attempt to reconsider is to be made.

A movement is on foot in Bridgeport, Conn., to move the birthplace of the world-famous midget, Carrie S. Stratton, "General Tom Thumb," from its present site to Reside Park and convert it into a public museum.

An investigation conducted by the Indiana Board of Agriculture shows that the State has paid $50,000 for the heads of chickens, turkeys and various small wild birds which were poisoned off upon the authorities for the heads of owls and hawks.

Birmingham, Ala., is emulating the example of Newport, Ky., in its entanglement over the control of its police force. The Council refuses to support the appointment, and the city is reported to be virtually without organized protection. The street railway company is mixed up in the fight.

Stamboul's grand performance of 2,075, made on the Stockton, Cal., track on November 23 last, the world-famous mile that crowned him king of trotting stations, has been rejected by the American Trotting Register Association.

Kenneth, who covered a mile at Kansasville, Tenn., in 2:07 1/2 on November 12, is, according to the "Register," the acknowledged trotting king.

The will of the late President Hayes provides for the equal distribution of the estate among the five children, after the settlement of all just debts, and making provision for a bequest to the Birchard Library of Freeport, the home place, 75 textile mills, 117 flouring mills and 82 machine shops and foundries. Such establishments are indices of solid and substantial growth.

FOREIGN CABLEGRAMS

Large Sum of Counterfeit Silver in European Countries.

A LUMINOUS FUNGUS FROM TAHITI.

Foundations of Roman Villas Unearthed Near Cambridge, England—M. Develle.

M. Develle is Minister of Foreign Affairs in the new French Cabinet.

The Marquis of Queensberry has made his appearance on the lecture platform in England.

New Zealand has set apart two islands for the preservation of wild birds and other animals.

China is declared by the North China Mail to be on the brink of revolution through all its southern provinces.

The North German Lloyd will pay $60,000 salvage to the steamer Lake Huron, which rescued the disabled Spruce at sea.

Coal dust mixed with air is to furnish smokeless fuel to the North German Lloyd and Hamburg American steamers.

London has a "United G. committee for the Prevention of the Demoralization of the Native Races by the Liqueur Traffic."

The quarantine authorities of Victoria, Australia, recently cremated the body of a Chinese leper as a measure of safety.

The London Daily Chronicle announces that the Cabinet has decided to create a Department of Labor in connection with the Board of Trade.

The rupture of commercial relations between France and Switzerland has led to a considerable increase of the customs force at Geneva.

By the condition of the France Russian convention, each country is to hold itself in readiness to place 1,200,000 soldiers in the field in case of war.

It is said to have got more than his share of the Panama bonds. He owns up to having received $65,000. It was charged up to "machinery."

A large proportion of the French steamships which are chartered to the Panama Company spent their 1893-94 season in the purchase of decorations of honor.

The Sultan has ordered a competitive trial of Krupp and Colt cannon, and the latter are used by the French army, and the Ottoman army has been using the former.

Several German papers demand that the government at once prepare an emigration bill to meet the emergency created by the United States quarantine regulations.

The Canadian government has been notified that Germany and Sweden have prohibited Canadian Emigration Commissioners from carrying on active work in their countries.

Captain John Vine Hall, who commanded the great Eastern steamship on her first voyage to New York, died Christmas day at Hamstead, England, in his eightieth year.

The French Royalists at Madrid are intriguing, but their efforts seem to be without vigor or directness. Their party has no head, no strong figure, by the Bourbon adherents to rally around.

Russia will send three war ships to New York to take part in the naval demonstration in connection with the Columbus fete. These vessels will be under the command of Admiral Kozakoff.

Leopold II. of Belgium has renounced his Belgian nationality, and is now a citizen of the United States.

The French Royalists at Madrid are intriguing, but their efforts seem to be without vigor or directness. Their party has no head, no strong figure, by the Bourbon adherents to rally around.

A new luminous fungus has been found in the mountains of the Alps. It is said to be a new species, and is reported to be a period of twenty-four hours after having been gathered.

A ship has just left Melbourne with a cargo of 13,000 cases of butter, valued at $13,000, and on every pound of the Treasury government grants a bonus of 3 cents or so, more or less, according to the price of the butter when sold.

A forecast of the Indian budget has been published by a Calcutta circular. In place of the estimated surplus of fourteen lac of rupees it is stated that there will be a deficit of ten lac, brought about entirely by the fall in exchange.

The Queen's cousin, the Prince of Leiningen, who holds the rank of Admiral in the British navy, is about to succeed the Duke of Edinburgh as naval commander at Plymouth, which is one of the most important in the British naval service.

An interesting piece of information brought out through the Brussels Conference is the fact that there are at present no less than 100,000, 01 of counterfeit silver money in circulation in France, Belgium, Switzerland, Italy, Spain and Portugal.

Mrs. Edward Lloyd, who died in London the other day at the age of ninety, when a girl held the hand of her father on his arrival in England after Waterloo, and was present in Westminster Abbey at the coronation of George IV, William IV and Queen Victoria.

It is thought the British government will withdraw funds enough from the Land Purchase Commission to compulsorily purchase portions of estates from the landless landholders, with enough to make loans to evicted tenants to enable them to start farms anew.

There have been about two hundred and seventy-five tramp steamers running between the Black Sea and the Danube during the past season, and with the close of navigation they are mostly turned homeward on the North Atlantic to pick up freights wherever they can.

Delegates have been invited from the sanitary committees of all the ports of the United Kingdom to a conference in London to discuss the cholera question and to promote unity of action in regard to measures for preventing the introduction or spread of the plague in the spring.

Dr. Kohn (or Cohen), the poor canon, son of Israelite peasants, who is reported to be the richest Archbishop in Europe, that of Osnabruck, went to meet his father and mother at the railroad station, where he kissed their hands in lowly humility and affection, and has established them in his episcopal palace.

At Swaffham Prior, near Cambridge, England, where some dating back to 219 A. D. are said to have been found, the foundations of Roman villas have been unearthed. They have the usual elaborate pattern of subterranean heating, but not of pavements. So far the most interesting find of objects consists of pieces of the glass and window glass.

PORTLAND MARKET.

Wheat—Nominal: Valley, $1.20; 1.22 1/2; Walls Walla, $1.119 1/2; 1.12 1/2 per