AX BILLY. Valentine Party.

One of the most nevel and enjoyable ecasions of the season was the valentin party at the beautiful home of Miss Bertha Marquiss near Irving. The evening was spent in playing whist and various other parlor amusments. One of the most interesting events of the evening was the opening of the valentine box. At 12 o'clock supper was cabled. Miss Dalsy Bond took her seat at the organ, and played on of her many beautiful marches, while the guests marched to the dining room where a delicious repast awaited them. The names of those present are as fol-lowin: Misses Daisy Bond, Clara Merady, Florence Dewer, Flora Sapping field and Nora Inwall Gentlemen Messrs, Charley Sappingfield, Lewis Merady, Ned Strong, Ernest Abbott, John Sappingfield, Wm. Dewer, Willard Sappingfield and Benton Carlson. The guests parted at a very late hour wishing the young hostess every success in her future undertakings.

served faithfully and ably his constitu-ents and his state during the late ses-sion of the legislature. The First dis-trict could not find a worthler or abler man to send to congress. It is time for a change. When he is inaugurated next March Mr. Cleveland will lack but a few days of being 56 years old, which is precise-ly the average age of presidents on their accession. The oldest president was William Henry Harrison, who was 68; Buchanan was 62, Taylor 65, Jackson and Adams 62, Monroe 58, 58, Benjamin Harrison 56, Taylor and Arthur 51, Polk and Filmore 56, Gar-field and Pierce 49, Cleveland 48, and Grant, the youngest president, 47.
