A REPORT ON HAWAII.

The President Will Send a Special Commission to envestigate.

Expect to Satt In a Few Weeks.

CHICAGO, March 14.-The Herald prints the following from Washington: President Cleveland has fully decided to send a commission to Hawaii to investigate the recent revolution and to report before the meeting of the next congress. The commission will be composed of General Schofield, of the army; Admiral Brown, of the navy; and probably Don M. Dickinson, of Michigan. The president will probably announce to the senate on Wednesday his intention of sending this commission to Hawaii, but as he now views the matter no action on the part of the senate will be necessary. The commission will be a presidential board of inquery, the expenses of the army and navy members thereof being borne as those of officers detailed to special duties, and the expenses of the civil member being borne out of the secret fund of the state department. President Cleveland believes that a commission such as that named will not only be able to arrive at the true inwardness of J. S.
