MATCH PIGEON SHOOT.—Another match pigeon shoot between Ski Meeks and W. E. Martin has been arranged to take place at the state sportsmen's tournament in Salem in June.

TAXES COMING IN LIVELY.—Taxes have been rolling into the sheriff's office at a lively rate all day.

The loss of stock by the deep snow in the Big Bend country is compensated to some extent by the killing of thousands of squirrels.

The New Assessment Laws.

Salem Independent: There is considerable talk to the effect that the change in our assessment laws will work quite a hardship on that class of borrowers who have gotten their money from residents of this state under the old form of per cent, and taxes mortgage. On these they formerly paid the taxes in the present in which the mortgagee paid.

Japanese at Drain.

Daily Guard, March 21. A few days since the railroad officials turned off the white men who had been working on the sections at Drain and replaced them with Japanese.

When the special train carrying the state board of railway commissioners and M. A. Grandahl and Supt. Fields, of the S. P. lines in Oregon, came through yesterday afternoon about 50 women were at the Drain depot to greet them and were quite demonstrative in insisting that the Japanese must leave.

Lane County's Portion. County Treasurer Reiser has received a communication from the State Treasurer, notifying him that Lane county's portion of the state taxes would be as follows, and that the same should be remitted as soon as possible.

Current expense tax... $43,722.80. Mill tax... 1,312.50. State University... 958.28.

It appears that last year Lane county overpaid her state taxes and will be allowed credits as follows: Militia tax... $14.53. State University... 10.37.

Lively Day in Springfield.

Springfield Messenger. Tuesday was a lively day in Springfield. On complaint of W. Chessman, Geo. E. Lyne of the firm of McMichael & Lyne, druggists, was arrested on a charge of selling spirituous liquors in violation of ordinance No. 17.

The social given by the Sons' last evening at their hall on Ninth street was fairly well attended considering the bad storm and rather short notice given of the same.

The S. of V.'s Social.

The social given by the Sons' last evening at their hall on Ninth street was fairly well attended considering the bad storm and rather short notice given of the same.

Notice is hereby given that a part of the heretofore unassessed portion of T 36 S R 5 W, as follows: to-wit: Sections No. 1, 2, 3, 10, 11, 12, 13, and 14, has been surveyed, and the approved plat of survey has been received and will be filed in this office on Thursday, May 25, 1893.

No MISUNDERSTANDING.—In speaking of the arrest of the gentlemen from the Upper McKenzie for killing elk out of season, the Portland Telegram says: "Through a misunderstanding of the law the justice of the peace had bound the men over to await the action of the grand jury, whereas he should have imposed a fine."

A FAILURE.—The state assessors' convention called to meet in Portland yesterday was a failure, as only four of the assessors in the state were in attendance, hence the meeting held no session. The prevailing opinion of the assessors present seems to be that the basis of assessments will be about that fixed by the state board of equalization.

SIX DAYS.—An individual giving the name of T. Cunningham, claiming to be a deaf mute and having received an injury that precluded his performing manual labor, was around town Friday and Saturday, begging.

REUNAWAY.—While a wagon load of people were returning from this city to their homes near Irving Saturday evening, one of the reins broke and the team ran away.

The wind is quite inviting. An' it's gittin' down to play. Where the silver sides are bitin' in the cool brook far away.

CHRONIC CAPTIVES A FUGITIVE.—We take the following from yesterday's Salem Journal: David A. Osburn, sheriff of Benton county, is in the city to take A. A. Hughes back with him to answer a charge of forgery at Coquille. George Connor, a deputy sheriff from Lane county, captured him at the S. P. depot and turned him over to Sheriff Knight for detention.

Frank McDevitt, of Salem, is thinking of starting a paper at Oakland, Oregon.
