Mr. Geo. H. Hale, of Hale, sends us the following letter which he had re-ected from a sharper in Michigan. He struck the wrong man, however, as Mr. Hale is wide awake and acquainted with the ways of the world. The letter reads as follows:

MT. CLEMENS, Mich., March 22, '98. MR. GEO. HALE: Sir:—A man by the name of Charles Hale came here for treatment, but grew worse and died rather suddenly of asthma. Just before dying he gave what seemed to be your name as his brother, who would bear all expenses his means failed to meet, his to be sent to you, consisting of a gold $175, trunk, clothes and other valua-bles valued at $175. His money paid all, including burial, except $15 board. Possibly I misunderstood him for I wrote and wired one other place without reply. If you want the goods please send $15 at once, otherwise I must sell for my bill, as I know of no

Yours truly A. TOMLIN. This an old game but we give it fear some of our renders have not heard of it, and thus warn them against be ing duped by any such schemers. Of course Mr. Hale has no brother by that name, and if he had sent $15, as many people would, thinking they would get the valuables, he would have heard nothing more about it.
