Mr. Bissell Measured For a Chair. On the scales Mr. Bissell is undoubtedly the greatest postmaster get ral the country has over had. He is comover 6 feet perpendicular, and has zontal messurements have so for been withheld from the public. Unfortly for him, he found on his arrival a postoffice department that he not a filled the chair of his predecessor, but considerably overflowed it. In fact the office chair occupied by Mr. Wanamaker, although of the ordinary size, was found so inconveniently small for Mr. Dissell that he immediately secured a requisition for a new chair, to be built for him according to specifications furnished by The new piece of office furniture is to be made of heavy quartered oak, 30 inches across the seat, supported on straight legs 8 by 4 inches, weighing about much as the heavy mahogany desk before him. It is not the sort of chair that one would twirl carelessly about while engaged in idle conversation and will not be in any danger from the petty thieves of the departments, who carry away towels and soap and such like articles. It will, however, be a great comfort for Mr. Bissell, who up to the present time has preferred standing to confining himself to the narrow bounds of the chair of his predecessor.-Washington Cor. Tonells Cauterized In Sleep For five months a girl of 13, of good family, has been lying in a state of complete lethargy in a private hospital at Vesinet, outside Paris. The sleeping maiden has been recently restored to conscionsness by Dr. Refferent, who had charge of her, in a peculiar manner. She usually lay asleep with her mouth wide open and her throat exposed to view. The physician noticed that one of the tonsils was enlarged, so he resolved to cauterize it with a redhet iron, an opera tion which would be beneficial to the

of terminating her cataleptic condition. After the iron had done its work the girl, who had been previously insensible. to the pricking of pins, manifested unmistakable signs of pain and uttered a feeble cry. One of the most interesting events in the sporting record of the year was necomplished by Mr. Fred Wishney, an English bicyclist, who recently distanced five large gray wolves in the district of Pakoff in Russia. We ought to say that, a herd of elk coming along just as Mr. Wishaw's "bike" ran into a snowdrift. the five large gray wolves left off chasing Mr. Wishaw and proceeded to chase the elk so that, speaking with strict technical accuracy, the pursuers saved themselves from the record.

Mr. Wishaw states that when the five quor Store, large gray wolves have in eight he was 10 tance in 45 minutes. Pure Milk In Cities.

There is no doubt that purer milk can be got in the cities now than it was possible to find in cities 10 years ago. merly all milk came to New York in cans. Now a good deal of it is put into glass jars and scaled at the dairies. A 'milk raiser" whose entire product comes to New York once declared that he did not believe that a drop of pure milk got into the city. He confessed that he watered his milk-one quart of water to 24 of milk-and he knew that an enterprise that will add to the comthe peddlers and shopkeepers diluted it | mercial importance of this city. still further. The reason that he diluted it was that the middlemen took it for granted that he would and did not allow full pay for what they took. He gets 2 cents a quart for milk in summer and 24 cents in winter.-New York San.

Rather 60 to Prison than Criminate His Bride.

Salem Journal: Justice is some times a little slow. Deputy Siemore and J. L. Roe, guard, brought James Hard from Jackson county this morn-He is sentenced to fifteen years imprisonment for murdering his father-in-law, James Arnold, in that county in 1867. Hard disappeared and did not return to Jackson county until two months ago. Hard enlisted in the Klamath war, a few weeks after he was married, but before going to fight the Indians moved his father-in-law and family onto his donation land claim, which the latter homesteaded in his absence, and out of which treacherous conduct a quarrel arose that led to the crime. Hard claims that Arnold was intimate with his own daughter after he married her, but rather than expose the woman on trial he allowed himself to be convicted and would serve fifteen years rather than blacken her name. The whole case reads like a romance, and shows that while justice is sometimes a laggard, she gets there just the same.

A Useful Tax.

Portland Telegram: England for several decades enforced an income tax law. For years it was very unpopular; now it is recornized as just. Last year it brought in $60,250,000, and next year, as the rate has been slightly raised, it will reach about $80,000,000. The same kind of a tax in the United States would give the government three hundred million dollars without embarrassing any one. In England no income less than $750 per year is taxed at all, and for all those under $2000 the first $600 is few days ago with a cart. The eart not considered. Hence, if a man's income was $75 per month, or $900 a year, his tax would amount to only $7. On $2000 it would be John Diamond was at Brownsville $30. As the cost of living in the United States is very much more than in England and the social conditions vary so much, no law that taxed incomes under $2000 would be popular here. With this figure the wage - earners amount at $750. At just such a time as the present, with a prospective deficiency or with a desire to reform the tariff laws, an income bal at the L.O.O.F. hall Friday even- tax law of just and reasonable provisions would be most useful.

In referring to English taxes it is interesting to note that her total revenue is $450,000,000 per anuum.
