A Large Cattle Drive.

John Stewart has been buying young cattle for several weeks past under a contract. He has about completed his purchases, and is now engaged getting the bunches together, preparatory to driving across the mountains, the contract requiring them to be delivered at Camp Polk, about 100 miles east of Eugene.
Mr. Stewart has secured about 1200 head of one, two and three year olds, most of them being of the middle age. He intends at present to drive over the McKenzie route, but may change to the Santiam. If the weather continues favorable the drive will be started about June 8. Twelve men will be required to do the driving. Considerable snow will be found on the summit of the mountains, but by starting very early in the morning while the crust is frozen, it is thought no trouble will be experienced in getting across.

St. Petersburg, May 26.—Abundant warm rains followed by sunshine, have improved the prospects of harvest. On the whole crops promise to be fairly good. Most of the winter crops, however in Podolia, Kief, Ekaterinoslav and Kharkov are ruined. The spring crops will be excellent.

Corvallis Times: Sheriff Osburn has completed the delinquent tax roll and on Monday turned it over to the county clerk. The total amount of taxes delinquent is only about $12,000, which compared with the $29,000 delinquent last year is a very good showing for the payers as well as the collector, especially in view of the fact that the payment is taken into consideration. The present delinquent list is the smallest that has been turned over to the clerk for 14 years.

Wild strawberries are beginning to get ripe.

Memorial Services.

Daily Guard, May 25.

The memorial services at the M. E. church yesterday were carried out according to the programme published in Saturday's GUARD. The address by Dr. McInture was one of his best efforts and was fraught with suggestive thought for the future of our union as well as fitting tributes to the dead hero. The singing was excellent. Rev. G. J. Travis preached at the same place in the evening.

DrILL.—Eugene Engine Co. had the hand engine out last evening for a drill. Although this was the first time for several months the machine had been used, she took water at once and demonstrated the fact that in case of a failure of water supply she could be depended upon to do good work. In making a run, returning to the engine house, she came near running over a lady in a single buggy. Making a run around the corner without first posting some one there to warn teams or pedestrians is a dangerous practice that should be reformed.

An Oregon Boy.

The Springfield, Mass. Republic, of May 25, has the following account of the abduction of a young man well known to Eugene:

The abduction and installation of Rev. Herbert S. Johnson, as pastor of Baptist church in Pittsfield, took place in this city yesterday. The preliminary examination of the candidate was held in the afternoon, and the church was filled in the evening at the installation exercises.

The council for the examination of Mr. Johnson as a candidate for ordination assembled at 2 p. m. in the audit room of the church and organized by the choice of Rev. C. H. Spaulding, of Boston, as moderator, and E. S. Wilkinson, of North Adams, clerk.

The exercises were opened with prayer and the candidate for the church was present in numbers. A short conference the council returned from the chapel having voted unanimously to accept the candidate.

Rev. Herbert S. Johnson was born in McMinnville, Oregon, October 4th, 1864. After a course of study in the public schools, he entered the state university of Oregon, at Eugene, in 1887, his father, John W. Johnson, being president of the institution. After graduating he entered Harvard college and graduated in 1891. He then studied for the ministry at Andover, theological seminary, from which he graduated the present year. He received a call to this, his first charge, after preaching as a candidate for two Sundays. He is a man of affable and courteous demeanor, of broad thought and fluent delivery.

The Close of School.

Daily Guard, May 26.

As this week closes the work of the public schools of this city for the year an exhibit of the work done was made at the Central building yesterday afternoon and today the work of all grades in both this and the Geary school were brought together, the same grades of both schools being placed together on long tables arranged in the three lower rooms. Similar grades in either school displayed work that gave evidence of a uniform ability in the training. Considerable of the work consisted of maps and drawings in physiology and was an interesting collection. It displayed a great deal of interest on the part of the teacher. Examination papers in grammar and arithmetic were shown in nearly all and each grade manifested much efficiency from the lower ones up. Prof. Reid stated that nearly 200 patrons of the school visited the exhibit yesterday afternoon, and this morning the children of both schools were given an opportunity to examine the same. The schools are doing excellent work and it is a pleasure to patrons or anyone interested in the school work to visit such exhibits as these.

Arrested.

Daily Guard, May 26.

Ralph Winkle, a 14 year old boy, was arrested yesterday on charge of endeavoring to pass weapons into the jail. A short time since he was arrested and confined in the jail a few days, becoming acquainted with the prisoners. He was discharged, but it appears he wanted to help the others still confined.

A few days since Jailer Croner found a flat 16-inch file and two case knives on the sill of one of the windows of the prison corridor, placed where they could be obtained by any one having the corridor privileges. He suspected Winkles of following him up and obtained a confession that he was the one who had placed them there.

A trial was commenced before Justice Kinney at 10 o'clock this morning. Judge Ames and L. Blyer appearing for the defendant and Deputy Prosecuting Attorney Potter for the State. At the time we go to press a judgment had not been rendered.

A BAD BAR.

At the bar just above the mouth of the McKenzie, Capt. Hatch was here last evening and informs us that it is the worst place on the river, in fact the only one that would obstruct navigation. He went on the overland last night to Harrisburg to meet Capt. Raabe of the steamer Hong. They will take a tug to the bar, but the time we go to press a judgment had not been rendered.

THE EXCURSION.

Owing to difficult circumstances, there are not as many participants from Eugene in the business men's excursion to San Francisco via Yaguquina City as it was supposed at there would be. The following left on the local this morning: P. Frank and wife, E. C. Smith, J. L. Thompson, Geo. M. Miller, I. K. Peters, H. A. Barr.

ANOTHER CHINESE KINK.

Attorney General Olney has received a telegram from New York City stating that Judge Laconia of the circuit court of New York, has decided against the Chinese exclusion act, though constitutional, but is not to be enforced. This is said to be a new question not raised or in any way involved in a previous appeal.

ROAD MACHINES.

The two road scraping machines purchased by the county have arrived and are being put together at the public square today. They are of the American Champion make.

BORN.

To the wife of A. R. Matthews on Pleasant Hill, Wednesday, May 24, a 7-month daughter.

The Junction Stabbing Affray.

Daily Guard, May 26.

The preliminary examination of John Green for stabbing Chas. E. Byers at Junction Saturday morning, was set for 11 o'clock this forenoon before Justice Butler at Junction. The prisoner was taken down on the local by Deputy Sheriff Croner, the prosecution being conducted by Deputy Prosecuting Attorney E. O. Potter, and the defense by L. Blyer and H. D. Norton. The examination was postponed until Thursday, on account of the official condition of Mr. Byers.

Dr. Paine visited Byers professionally yesterday afternoon and reports the wound a straight cut between the fifth and sixth ribs. The knife blade penetrated its full length. The wound was very close to the heart and did not penetrate the lung but the pleura was cut. Mr. Byers was troubled with pleurisy last night. While the wound is a dangerous one owing to the complications that may arise it is thought it will not result fatally.

Later.—Since writing the above we are informed that the condition of Mr. Byers has taken a turn for the worse. This morning he had a fit or two. Given was brought back on the local, this afternoon to the county jail.

Married.

Daily Guard, May 26.

A quiet wedding took place in Eugene last evening, the contracting parties being well known and popular. Wm. Mayer was married to Miss Ina Park, at the residence of the latter, on Eighth street, Rev. D. E. Loveridge officiating. Only the relatives of the bride and a very few intimate friends witnessed the ceremony. The parlor was elegantly decorated with flowers and vines of the season; and substantial presents surprised the young couple. They have the best wishes and congratulations of their many friends.

They went to their new residence in the Byers' cottage, on 7th street, shortly after their marriage. Mr. Mayer is the manager of the Eugene ice works.

The Sawmill at Work.

Daily Guard, May 26.

The Eugene sawmill started up yesterday, after being shut down during the winter, to saw some balm, hardwood and special orders. The mill and machinery have been thoroughly overhauled during the past month, and is in condition to do good work. This run will be a short one as the supply of logs for the summer has not yet arrived. One drive is in the river near Hyland's and another at Fall Creek the advance logs of which are near the mouth of the Springfield race. The river is in splendid condition for running logs, being at a good stage, and not rising or falling to any considerable extent.

Still in the Lead.

The following letter was received here yesterday, and explains itself.

JACKSON PARK, CHICAGO, ILL., May 18, 1893.

Dear Sir:—Your letter handed me this morning by Mr. G. R. Christians, of Eugene, in regard to your agricultural exhibit. I have arranged your grain of 250 sheaves of different varieties of wheat so that the full length of straw shows, and have the different varieties of the threshed wheat placed in 80 glass jars properly labeled with your name on each jar.

All grain displayed by different persons will be passed upon by competent judges some time during the season, just at what time I have yet been unable to learn. Your exhibit of wheat stands in the lead of any nation that has yet opened up.

Yours Respectfully,

W. H. SAVAGE,

Oregon Exhibit, Agt. Bldg., Jackson Park, Chicago, Ill.

A Statement.

GOSHEN, May 26.

EDITOR GUARD.—Permit me space to say that although contrary to the wishes of many friends we withhold the advantage given us by the young man of this place who has been trying to make a serious personal matter of nothing. He has never harmed us and is perhaps as good a man as he boasts. But we look upon his action in this affair as one deserving more of pity than censure, and purpose dropping the matter.

YOUR GOSHEN CORRESPONDENT.

The Fair a Bonded Warehouse.

WASHINGTON, May 25.—The Presbyterian general assembly has adopted the report of the judicial committee that the six complaints against the Briggs trial, be referred to the judicial committee for trial.

The assembly passed a resolution declaring the world's fair grounds to be merely a bonded warehouse, and appointed a committee to wait on Secretary Carlisle to ask him to treat it as such, and close it on Sunday as all other bonded warehouses are. Custom officials, however, say that is impossible. There is no way in which the exposition building containing the exhibits could be closed like bonded warehouses except by placing a lock on them.

Fire in the Horse Sheds.

CHICAGO, May 25.—A fire in the horse sheds at Garfield park, where a lot of Arabs were giving a kind of wild West show, caused great excitement among the sons of the desert this morning. Five hundred feet of sheds, three camels and seven blooded Arabian horses were burned.

A Pioneer Shoots Himself.

BROWNVILLE, Or., May 25.—This morning Z. B. Moss, a pioneer, who lives 16 miles above here on the road to Sweet Home, committed suicide by shooting himself with a Winchester rifle. Mr. Moss served a number of terms as assessor and was well and favorably known as a good citizen. He has been at times of late partially deranged and in failing health.

Temporary Injunction Granted.

SALER, May 25.—This evening Judge Barnett announced his decision on the soldiers' home injunction case. It was brief and granted the preliminary injunction as applied for. This leaves the rights of the parties without prejudice until the hearing for a permanent injunction in June.

Graduating Exercises.

Daily Guard, May 27.

The graduating exercises of the public schools of this city were held last evening at the opera house. This did not include all the graduates of the past year as the number was so great that it was found necessary to divide and make two evenings' exercises. Those for the other part of the class will be held next Wednesday evening. It will be remembered that there were virtually two graduating classes this last year although the class which graduated in January did not have exercises or receive diplomas until now.

The programme as published in yesterday's GUARD was carried out in detail, the invocation being performed by Rev. P. H. Barnett. Twelve papers were read by the different members of the class and interspersed throughout were fine musical selections which were nicely rendered and well received by the audience, especially the singing of little Nellie Horn, who responded to the encore. The papers of the graduates all showed great care in the composition and each bore unmistakable evidence of the patient and efficient moral, as well as mental and intellectual training which they had received at the institution from which they were now graduating.

When Dr. J. M. Bloss, president of the state agricultural college at Corvallis, arose and came forward to address the class a burst of applause came from the audience. The professor has spoken here before and it was with pleasure that the audience awaited his remarks. His talk was most interesting, his theme being the progress of education and its present value. At the close of his address he performed the ceremony of presenting the diplomas to the graduates and gave them some valuable admonition and kind advice.

At the close of his address Prof. Bloss in behalf of the class, thanked Prof. Bloss for his kind words and the inspiration attending them, and assured him of their heartfelt appreciation.

President Johnson, of the state university, delivered a short address in which he remarked regarding the growth of the public schools of this city, and the increased efficiency of the work done, more especially during the last three years. He commented at length on the work now being done by Principal D. V. S. Reid and the able corps of assistants which the board had been fortunate enough to secure.

Prof. Thomas Condon, of the state university, also made few kindly remarks regarding the present system of our city schools and their excellent condition. He also spoke encouragingly to the class. Both professors from the university extended a cordial invitation to all members of the class who could to enter the state university the coming year.

A few words by Prof. Reid expressing appreciation of the kindly remarks extended to the schools, closed the exercises.

The GUARD takes this opportunity of extending congratulations to Prof. Reid as principal, W. L. Cheshire, vice principal, and the corps of able assistants, on the eminent success of the last year's work in the public schools of Eugene.

PLANTING CORN.

The managers of the canneries are now putting in their corn at the rate of about fifteen acres a day on the Bessene farm north of town says the Register. They will plant about seventy-five acres. They have fourteen horses and eight men at work and are running two rolling cultivators and have three men running the corn droppers. The ground is thoroughly cultivated before planting and great pains are being taken to have everything just right to insure a good crop.

ENBANE.—Complaint has been made that Mrs. Lytle, of Cottage Grove, is insane, and it is probable she will be brought here tomorrow for examination. She is a woman about 32 years of age and the doctors say she suffers from an incurable malady. Later—Judge Fisk, Deputy Prosecuting Attorney Potter and Deputy Sheriff Day went to Cottage Grove on the local this afternoon, and the examination will be conducted there. They will come down in the morning.

DIED.—G. R. Ward, one of the old settlers of Lane county, died at his home 3 miles below Cottage Grove last night of apoplexy. He had previously suffered a stroke of paralysis. Mr. Ward was 70 years of age. One son and two daughters survive him. He was a man of sterling integrity and was highly esteemed. The funeral will take place from his late residence tomorrow forenoon under the auspices of the Masonic fraternity.

ROD AND GUN CLUB.—The Lane County Rod and Gun club has been organized in Eugene with the following officers: L. N.
