

CITY AND COUNTY.

TUESDAY, JUNE 3.

RECEIPTS.

J. Walton, attorney-at-law. R. S. B. Smith, attorney-at-law. The stock of clothing in town...

W. G. Gilstrap, of the Springfield News-Record, spent yesterday in Eugene...

C. H. Mueseler went to Portland this morning to be gone several days...

Henry Clark, a contractor from Roseburg, is here to bid on the University dormitory.

Screens doors and windows. There is talk of the Corvallis wagon and carriage factory being removed to Portland...

A. F. Peterson, a Corvallis contractor is in Eugene to bid on the university dormitory.

The decorations have come down and are wrapped up ready for use on the 4th of July.

Elizabeth J. Bowlerman has brought suit for divorce against her husband J. J. Bowlerman.

Road curbs $12.50 (new goods) but a part of the bankrupt stock—only a few.

Our readers may obtain from the state printing office at Salem a copy of the road and game laws.

Mr. Chris Wortman, of Portland, who came up to attend the funeral of Mrs. E. C. Test, returned to Portland this morning.

Rev. E. P. Henderson has received a telegram stating that Rev. G. A. Blair will be home tomorrow morning on the overland.

Mr. Fred Davis of Marion county, an old University student, is visiting friends in this city.

Mrs. M. S. Riddle and daughter Hattie who has been attending school here during the winter left this morning for their home at Woodburn.

Miss Geneva Stafford went to Drain on the local this afternoon for a few days visit with her sister Clara, who is teaching school near there.

Prof. Straub's injuries prove to be much worse than they were first thought to be.

A peculiarity of Decoration day was the absence of roses, indicating a very backward season.

Hon. E. R. Skipworth will deliver the address to the graduating class of the law school, University of Oregon, at the commencement exercises, Wednesday forenoon, June 21st.

Little Jimmy Pate, son of Wm. Pate and Mrs. Pate, died at his home in Des Moines, Iowa, this morning.

At the last regular meeting of the Woodmen of the World the following officers were elected for the ensuing year.

C. L. Winter has just completed the best he is able to invent for the use of the University.

The Chinese have some queer ideas about death and the disposition of the body of the departed.

Indians are fast falling into the ways of their white brethren.

Thrown from a buggy. PORTLAND, May 31.—Chas. N. Wait, secretary of the Democratic state convention, was seriously injured yesterday afternoon by being thrown from a buggy on Union avenue near May street, East Portland.

England on the Geary law. PORTLAND, May 31.—The Times says that the Geary law: "Even the three Chinamen arrested in New York will be expelled, which is probably to the farther extent to which the Chinese government will do well to shut its eyes to no minute a grievance and to permit the blinder of offering denials to check the generous impulses of the American people."

Thrown from a buggy. PORTLAND, May 31.—Chas. N. Wait, secretary of the Democratic state convention, was seriously injured yesterday afternoon by being thrown from a buggy on Union avenue near May street, East Portland.

England on the Geary law. PORTLAND, May 31.—The Times says that the Geary law: "Even the three Chinamen arrested in New York will be expelled, which is probably to the farther extent to which the Chinese government will do well to shut its eyes to no minute a grievance and to permit the blinder of offering denials to check the generous impulses of the American people."

Thrown from a buggy. PORTLAND, May 31.—Chas. N. Wait, secretary of the Democratic state convention, was seriously injured yesterday afternoon by being thrown from a buggy on Union avenue near May street, East Portland.

England on the Geary law. PORTLAND, May 31.—The Times says that the Geary law: "Even the three Chinamen arrested in New York will be expelled, which is probably to the farther extent to which the Chinese government will do well to shut its eyes to no minute a grievance and to permit the blinder of offering denials to check the generous impulses of the American people."

Thrown from a buggy. PORTLAND, May 31.—Chas. N. Wait, secretary of the Democratic state convention, was seriously injured yesterday afternoon by being thrown from a buggy on Union avenue near May street, East Portland.

England on the Geary law. PORTLAND, May 31.—The Times says that the Geary law: "Even the three Chinamen arrested in New York will be expelled, which is probably to the farther extent to which the Chinese government will do well to shut its eyes to no minute a grievance and to permit the blinder of offering denials to check the generous impulses of the American people."

Thrown from a buggy. PORTLAND, May 31.—Chas. N. Wait, secretary of the Democratic state convention, was seriously injured yesterday afternoon by being thrown from a buggy on Union avenue near May street, East Portland.

England on the Geary law. PORTLAND, May 31.—The Times says that the Geary law: "Even the three Chinamen arrested in New York will be expelled, which is probably to the farther extent to which the Chinese government will do well to shut its eyes to no minute a grievance and to permit the blinder of offering denials to check the generous impulses of the American people."

Thrown from a buggy. PORTLAND, May 31.—Chas. N. Wait, secretary of the Democratic state convention, was seriously injured yesterday afternoon by being thrown from a buggy on Union avenue near May street, East Portland.

England on the Geary law. PORTLAND, May 31.—The Times says that the Geary law: "Even the three Chinamen arrested in New York will be expelled, which is probably to the farther extent to which the Chinese government will do well to shut its eyes to no minute a grievance and to permit the blinder of offering denials to check the generous impulses of the American people."

Thrown from a buggy. PORTLAND, May 31.—Chas. N. Wait, secretary of the Democratic state convention, was seriously injured yesterday afternoon by being thrown from a buggy on Union avenue near May street, East Portland.

England on the Geary law. PORTLAND, May 31.—The Times says that the Geary law: "Even the three Chinamen arrested in New York will be expelled, which is probably to the farther extent to which the Chinese government will do well to shut its eyes to no minute a grievance and to permit the blinder of offering denials to check the generous impulses of the American people."

Thrown from a buggy. PORTLAND, May 31.—Chas. N. Wait, secretary of the Democratic state convention, was seriously injured yesterday afternoon by being thrown from a buggy on Union avenue near May street, East Portland.

England on the Geary law. PORTLAND, May 31.—The Times says that the Geary law: "Even the three Chinamen arrested in New York will be expelled, which is probably to the farther extent to which the Chinese government will do well to shut its eyes to no minute a grievance and to permit the blinder of offering denials to check the generous impulses of the American people."

Thrown from a buggy. PORTLAND, May 31.—Chas. N. Wait, secretary of the Democratic state convention, was seriously injured yesterday afternoon by being thrown from a buggy on Union avenue near May street, East Portland.

WEDNESDAY, MAY 31.

Dr. L. A. Paine is on the sick list.

G. P. Griffin is again confined to his room.

Mrs. Wesley Shannon is visiting in Salem.

Mrs. A. V. Peters returned home on the local this afternoon.

Glass cut to order any size.

F. L. CHAMBERS. Mrs. J. J. Catterin returned home from a visit at Salem today.

Mrs. Geo. Gray went to Portland this morning for a two weeks visit.

W. G. Gilstrap, of the Springfield News-Record, spent yesterday in Eugene.

C. H. Mueseler went to Portland this morning to be gone several days.

Henry Clark, a contractor from Roseburg, is here to bid on the University dormitory.

Screens doors and windows. There is talk of the Corvallis wagon and carriage factory being removed to Portland...

A. F. Peterson, a Corvallis contractor is in Eugene to bid on the university dormitory.

The decorations have come down and are wrapped up ready for use on the 4th of July.

Elizabeth J. Bowlerman has brought suit for divorce against her husband J. J. Bowlerman.

Road curbs $12.50 (new goods) but a part of the bankrupt stock—only a few.

Our readers may obtain from the state printing office at Salem a copy of the road and game laws.

Mr. Chris Wortman, of Portland, who came up to attend the funeral of Mrs. E. C. Test, returned to Portland this morning.

Rev. E. P. Henderson has received a telegram stating that Rev. G. A. Blair will be home tomorrow morning on the overland.

Mr. Fred Davis of Marion county, an old University student, is visiting friends in this city.

Mrs. M. S. Riddle and daughter Hattie who has been attending school here during the winter left this morning for their home at Woodburn.

Miss Geneva Stafford went to Drain on the local this afternoon for a few days visit with her sister Clara, who is teaching school near there.

Prof. Straub's injuries prove to be much worse than they were first thought to be.

A peculiarity of Decoration day was the absence of roses, indicating a very backward season.

Hon. E. R. Skipworth will deliver the address to the graduating class of the law school, University of Oregon, at the commencement exercises, Wednesday forenoon, June 21st.

Little Jimmy Pate, son of Wm. Pate and Mrs. Pate, died at his home in Des Moines, Iowa, this morning.

At the last regular meeting of the Woodmen of the World the following officers were elected for the ensuing year.

C. L. Winter has just completed the best he is able to invent for the use of the University.

The Chinese have some queer ideas about death and the disposition of the body of the departed.

Indians are fast falling into the ways of their white brethren.

Thrown from a buggy. PORTLAND, May 31.—Chas. N. Wait, secretary of the Democratic state convention, was seriously injured yesterday afternoon by being thrown from a buggy on Union avenue near May street, East Portland.

England on the Geary law. PORTLAND, May 31.—The Times says that the Geary law: "Even the three Chinamen arrested in New York will be expelled, which is probably to the farther extent to which the Chinese government will do well to shut its eyes to no minute a grievance and to permit the blinder of offering denials to check the generous impulses of the American people."

Thrown from a buggy. PORTLAND, May 31.—Chas. N. Wait, secretary of the Democratic state convention, was seriously injured yesterday afternoon by being thrown from a buggy on Union avenue near May street, East Portland.

England on the Geary law. PORTLAND, May 31.—The Times says that the Geary law: "Even the three Chinamen arrested in New York will be expelled, which is probably to the farther extent to which the Chinese government will do well to shut its eyes to no minute a grievance and to permit the blinder of offering denials to check the generous impulses of the American people."

Thrown from a buggy. PORTLAND, May 31.—Chas. N. Wait, secretary of the Democratic state convention, was seriously injured yesterday afternoon by being thrown from a buggy on Union avenue near May street, East Portland.

England on the Geary law. PORTLAND, May 31.—The Times says that the Geary law: "Even the three Chinamen arrested in New York will be expelled, which is probably to the farther extent to which the Chinese government will do well to shut its eyes to no minute a grievance and to permit the blinder of offering denials to check the generous impulses of the American people."

Thrown from a buggy. PORTLAND, May 31.—Chas. N. Wait, secretary of the Democratic state convention, was seriously injured yesterday afternoon by being thrown from a buggy on Union avenue near May street, East Portland.

England on the Geary law. PORTLAND, May 31.—The Times says that the Geary law: "Even the three Chinamen arrested in New York will be expelled, which is probably to the farther extent to which the Chinese government will do well to shut its eyes to no minute a grievance and to permit the blinder of offering denials to check the generous impulses of the American people."

Thrown from a buggy. PORTLAND, May 31.—Chas. N. Wait, secretary of the Democratic state convention, was seriously injured yesterday afternoon by being thrown from a buggy on Union avenue near May street, East Portland.

England on the Geary law. PORTLAND, May 31.—The Times says that the Geary law: "Even the three Chinamen arrested in New York will be expelled, which is probably to the farther extent to which the Chinese government will do well to shut its eyes to no minute a grievance and to permit the blinder of offering denials to check the generous impulses of the American people."

Thrown from a buggy. PORTLAND, May 31.—Chas. N. Wait, secretary of the Democratic state convention, was seriously injured yesterday afternoon by being thrown from a buggy on Union avenue near May street, East Portland.

England on the Geary law. PORTLAND, May 31.—The Times says that the Geary law: "Even the three Chinamen arrested in New York will be expelled, which is probably to the farther extent to which the Chinese government will do well to shut its eyes to no minute a grievance and to permit the blinder of offering denials to check the generous impulses of the American people."

Thrown from a buggy. PORTLAND, May 31.—Chas. N. Wait, secretary of the Democratic state convention, was seriously injured yesterday afternoon by being thrown from a buggy on Union avenue near May street, East Portland.

England on the Geary law. PORTLAND, May 31.—The Times says that the Geary law: "Even the three Chinamen arrested in New York will be expelled, which is probably to the farther extent to which the Chinese government will do well to shut its eyes to no minute a grievance and to permit the blinder of offering denials to check the generous impulses of the American people."

Thrown from a buggy. PORTLAND, May 31.—Chas. N. Wait, secretary of the Democratic state convention, was seriously injured yesterday afternoon by being thrown from a buggy on Union avenue near May street, East Portland.

England on the Geary law. PORTLAND, May 31.—The Times says that the Geary law: "Even the three Chinamen arrested in New York will be expelled, which is probably to the farther extent to which the Chinese government will do well to shut its eyes to no minute a grievance and to permit the blinder of offering denials to check the generous impulses of the American people."

Thrown from a buggy. PORTLAND, May 31.—Chas. N. Wait, secretary of the Democratic state convention, was seriously injured yesterday afternoon by being thrown from a buggy on Union avenue near May street, East Portland.

England on the Geary law. PORTLAND, May 31.—The Times says that the Geary law: "Even the three Chinamen arrested in New York will be expelled, which is probably to the farther extent to which the Chinese government will do well to shut its eyes to no minute a grievance and to permit the blinder of offering denials to check the generous impulses of the American people."

Thrown from a buggy. PORTLAND, May 31.—Chas. N. Wait, secretary of the Democratic state convention, was seriously injured yesterday afternoon by being thrown from a buggy on Union avenue near May street, East Portland.

England on the Geary law. PORTLAND, May 31.—The Times says that the Geary law: "Even the three Chinamen arrested in New York will be expelled, which is probably to the farther extent to which the Chinese government will do well to shut its eyes to no minute a grievance and to permit the blinder of offering denials to check the generous impulses of the American people."

Thrown from a buggy. PORTLAND, May 31.—Chas. N. Wait, secretary of the Democratic state convention, was seriously injured yesterday afternoon by being thrown from a buggy on Union avenue near May street, East Portland.

England on the Geary law. PORTLAND, May 31.—The Times says that the Geary law: "Even the three Chinamen arrested in New York will be expelled, which is probably to the farther extent to which the Chinese government will do well to shut its eyes to no minute a grievance and to permit the blinder of offering denials to check the generous impulses of the American people."

Thrown from a buggy. PORTLAND, May 31.—Chas. N. Wait, secretary of the Democratic state convention, was seriously injured yesterday afternoon by being thrown from a buggy on Union avenue near May street, East Portland.

England on the Geary law. PORTLAND, May 31.—The Times says that the Geary law: "Even the three Chinamen arrested in New York will be expelled, which is probably to the farther extent to which the Chinese government will do well to shut its eyes to no minute a grievance and to permit the blinder of offering denials to check the generous impulses of the American people."

Thrown from a buggy. PORTLAND, May 31.—Chas. N. Wait, secretary of the Democratic state convention, was seriously injured yesterday afternoon by being thrown from a buggy on Union avenue near May street, East Portland.

England on the Geary law. PORTLAND, May 31.—The Times says that the Geary law: "Even the three Chinamen arrested in New York will be expelled, which is probably to the farther extent to which the Chinese government will do well to shut its eyes to no minute a grievance and to permit the blinder of offering denials to check the generous impulses of the American people."

Thrown from a buggy. PORTLAND, May 31.—Chas. N. Wait, secretary of the Democratic state convention, was seriously injured yesterday afternoon by being thrown from a buggy on Union avenue near May street, East Portland.

England on the Geary law. PORTLAND, May 31.—The Times says that the Geary law: "Even the three Chinamen arrested in New York will be expelled, which is probably to the farther extent to which the Chinese government will do well to shut its eyes to no minute a grievance and to permit the blinder of offering denials to check the generous impulses of the American people."

Thrown from a buggy. PORTLAND, May 31.—Chas. N. Wait, secretary of the Democratic state convention, was seriously injured yesterday afternoon by being thrown from a buggy on Union avenue near May street, East Portland.

England on the Geary law. PORTLAND, May 31.—The Times says that the Geary law: "Even the three Chinamen arrested in New York will be expelled, which is probably to the farther extent to which the Chinese government will do well to shut its eyes to no minute a grievance and to permit the blinder of offering denials to check the generous impulses of the American people."

Thrown from a buggy. PORTLAND, May 31.—Chas. N. Wait, secretary of the Democratic state convention, was seriously injured yesterday afternoon by being thrown from a buggy on Union avenue near May street, East Portland.

England on the Geary law. PORTLAND, May 31.—The Times says that the Geary law: "Even the three Chinamen arrested in New York will be expelled, which is probably to the farther extent to which the Chinese government will do well to shut its eyes to no minute a grievance and to permit the blinder of offering denials to check the generous impulses of the American people."

THURSDAY, JUNE 1.

Portland city election next Monday.

S. H. Friendly went to Portland today.

Geo. Day of Creswell was in town today.

Prof. Mylert, of Colburg, is in town today.

A. G. Hevey went to Salem this morning.

E. O. Potter went to Junction this morning.

New line of sidewalks at Day & Henderson's.

Bicycles at F. L. CHAMBERS. Spring carpets at Day & Henderson's.

175 Doo window shades at Day & Henderson's.

L. E. Woodworth returned in Portland this morning.

T. H. McCallis, of Palmer & Ray's agency, Portland, is in town today.

The walls of Lambert's brick building are ready for the job.

Hose—good quality—low prices. F. L. CHAMBERS.

E. L. Chambers received yesterday two carloads of vehicles direct from the factory.

The Myrtle Creek Mining company is having considerable trouble among the stockholders.

See Day & Henderson's new line of bedroom suites, all hard wood, at $16, $18, $20, $24 and $25.

The Eugene Water Co. generously donated the water to sprinkle the street on Decoration day.

Dr. G. B. Kaykendall, of Pomeroy, Wash., is here visiting his brother, Dr. Wm. Kaykendall.

Harry Holden met with a painful accident yesterday, being kicked just below the knee by a mule.

The marriage of a fair Springfield young lady to a gentleman of Colburg is set for a day in the near future.

Jack Polk is cultivating the 20 acre prune and cherry orchard, adjoining town, belonging to the GRAND office.

Parties wanting slab wood can procure the same by sending orders to the Lane Lumber League, at Springfield.

Frank Matthews, a member of the executive committee that arranged the oratorical contest, went to Salem today.

Prof. D. V. Reid went to Drain today to attend the graduating exercises of the normal school at that place.

Bicycle accidents are reported from different portions of the state. Unfortunately it is not the rider always that gets hurt.

C. E. Henderson, who will represent the university in the oratorical contest tomorrow, went to Salem on this morning's local.

Geo. Melson is established at Vancouver, Washington, in the blacksmith and wagon making business, with John Miller as a partner.

Shiloh's Cure, the great cough and croup cure is for sale by us. Pocket size contains twenty-five doses, only 25 cents. Children love it.

CITY DRUG STORE. The water company has made a reduction in rates to those who subscribed to the street sprinkler and have quit using a hose for street sprinkling.

Rhineland's open house was crowded last night on the occasion of the second evening's exercises of the 1883 graduating class of the public schools.

The ice company shipped a carload of ice to Jackson's yesterday. They shipped more ice last month than they did during the hottest month last year.

Rev. G. A. Blair returned on the overland this morning. His health is greatly improved, and he returns to his church work with renewed energy.

W. P. Cheshire left last night, at midnight, for Independence, Kan., where he goes to visit a sister. From there he goes to Chicago to take in the world's fair.

We are informed that Hon. R. B. Cochran is improving in health. He has some control of his paralyzed limbs, and is able to make his wants known. He is taken for a ride daily.

An 82-pound salmon, 4 feet long and 40 inches in circumference, was caught in the Columbia the other day. It has been frozen in a block of ice and will be placed in the fishery exhibit of the world's fair.

Joe Lane is subject to hemorrhages of the lungs and has had another severe attack during the last few days. He desires to close out business and try the benefits of another climate.

Captain Sweeney, U. S. A., San Diego, Cal., says: "Shiloh's Catarrh Remedy is the first medicine I have ever found that would ever do me any good." Price 50 cents. Sold by C. E. Henderson, Portland, Or.

Just received, one car of Rain Water and one of the finest Buggies and Carriages. Call and be convinced that you can get the latest styles and best quality for the least money.

F. L. CHAMBERS. Jap Johnson of the firm of Clark & Johnson yesterday sold his interest in the livery stable to J. W. Campbell of this city.

Mr. Edmund Wood and wife, of Chicago, are at the Hoffman House. Mr. Wood is a prominent capitalist and cattleman of Chicago and is here looking over the country with a view to buying cattle ranches.

D. E. Rice and D. L. Butler returned this morning from their St. Louis home-steads. There is an excellent road down the Upper river, starting at Loraine. It only lacks one and one-half miles of connecting with the main road.

Miss Kate Freeman of Portland, Lou Allen, of Portland, Mrs. Sarah Hovenden, of Hubbard, Mrs. L. N. Gilbert of Salem, Mrs. J. O. Dennis of Portland, and M. S. Jones and wife of Brooks, came up yesterday to attend the Howeman-Hannah wedding.

A recent clean-up of the Ashland five-stamp mill was after a 27 day run on ore from the Patton mine. The millstone was a great attraction at the world's fair, but here in Huntington it takes a different kind of a combination to "skin" the people.

W. W. Cardwell, who has some valuable mining properties in the Willow Springs district, in Southern Oregon, started from his mine with a load of ore, and when a little distance from the mine his wagon broke down and he was compelled to unload. A few weeks later he was driving past the same place and discovered that his great surprise was that some one had loaded a mining claim on his piece of rock. There was no lodge within several miles of the newly located claim, but the claimant, doubtless, thought he had found something with a cold mine.

Clay Zowaloff, Irving precinct has a Gordon setter dog with a marvelous instinct. He can lead a stray mongrel dog in short order by leaving the trail and making a circle about, barking in the meantime, and coming back to the spot will set the bird.

Miss Kate Freeman of Portland, Lou Allen, of Portland, Mrs. Sarah Hovenden, of Hubbard, Mrs. L. N. Gilbert of Salem, Mrs. J. O. Dennis of Portland, and M. S. Jones and wife of Brooks, came up yesterday to attend the Howeman-Hannah wedding.

A recent clean-up of the Ashland five-stamp mill was after a 27 day run on ore from the Patton mine. The millstone was a great attraction at the world's fair, but here in Huntington it takes a different kind of a combination to "skin" the people.

W. W. Cardwell, who has some valuable mining properties in the Willow Springs district, in Southern Oregon, started from his mine with a load of ore, and when a little distance from the mine his wagon broke down and he was compelled to unload. A few weeks later he was driving past the same place and discovered that his great surprise was that some one had loaded a mining claim on his piece of rock. There was no lodge within several miles of the newly located claim, but the claimant, doubtless, thought he had found something with a cold mine.

Clay Zowaloff, Irving precinct has a Gordon setter dog with a marvelous instinct. He can lead a stray mongrel dog in short order by leaving the trail and making a circle about, barking in the meantime, and coming back to the spot will set the bird.

Miss Kate Freeman of Portland, Lou Allen, of Portland, Mrs. Sarah Hovenden, of Hubbard, Mrs. L. N. Gilbert of Salem, Mrs. J. O. Dennis of Portland, and M. S. Jones and wife of Brooks, came up yesterday to attend the Howeman-Hannah wedding.

A recent clean-up of the Ashland five-stamp mill was after a 27 day run on ore from the Patton mine. The millstone was a great attraction at the world's fair, but here in Huntington it takes a different kind of a combination to "skin" the people.

W. W. Cardwell, who has some valuable mining properties in the Willow Springs district, in Southern Oregon, started from his mine with a load of ore, and when a little distance from the mine his wagon broke down and he was compelled to unload. A few weeks later he was driving past the same place and discovered that his great surprise was that some one had loaded a mining claim on his piece of rock. There was no lodge within several miles of the newly located claim, but the claimant, doubtless, thought he had found something with a cold mine.

Clay Zowaloff, Irving precinct has a Gordon setter dog with a marvelous instinct. He can lead a stray mongrel dog in short order by leaving the trail and making a circle about, barking in the meantime, and coming back to the spot will set the bird.

Miss Kate Freeman of Portland, Lou Allen, of Portland, Mrs. Sarah Hovenden, of Hubbard, Mrs. L. N. Gilbert of Salem, Mrs. J. O. Dennis of Portland, and M. S. Jones and wife of Brooks, came up yesterday to attend the Howeman-Hannah wedding.

A recent clean-up of the Ashland five-stamp mill was after a 27 day run on ore from the Patton mine. The millstone was a great attraction at the world's fair, but here in Huntington it takes a different kind of a combination to "skin" the people.

W. W. Cardwell, who has some valuable mining properties in the Willow Springs district, in Southern Oregon, started from his mine with a load of ore, and when a little distance from the mine his wagon broke down and he was compelled to unload. A few weeks later he was driving past the same place and discovered that his great surprise was that some one had loaded a mining claim on his piece of rock. There was no lodge within several miles of the newly located claim, but the claimant, doubtless, thought he had found something with a cold mine.

Clay Zowaloff, Irving precinct has a Gordon setter dog with a marvelous instinct. He can lead a stray mongrel dog in short order by leaving the trail and making a circle about, barking in the meantime, and coming back to the spot will set the bird.

Miss Kate Freeman of Portland, Lou Allen, of Portland, Mrs. Sarah Hovenden, of Hubbard, Mrs. L. N. Gilbert of Salem, Mrs. J. O. Dennis of Portland, and M. S. Jones and wife of Brooks, came up yesterday to attend the Howeman-Hannah wedding.

A recent clean-up of the Ashland five-stamp mill was after a 27 day run on ore from the Patton mine. The millstone was a great attraction at the world's fair, but here in Huntington it takes a different kind of a combination to "skin" the people.

W. W. Cardwell, who has some valuable mining properties in the Willow Springs district, in Southern Oregon, started from his mine with a load of ore, and when a little distance from the mine his wagon broke down and he was compelled to unload. A few weeks later he was driving past the same place and discovered that his great surprise was that some one had loaded a mining claim on his piece of rock. There was no lodge within several miles of the newly located claim, but the claimant, doubtless, thought he had found something with a cold mine.

Clay Zowaloff, Irving precinct has a Gordon setter dog with a marvelous instinct. He can lead a stray mongrel dog in short order by leaving the trail and making a circle about, barking in the meantime, and coming back to the spot will set the bird.