

CITY AND COUNTY.

SATURDAY, JUNE 17.

THURSDAY JUNE 15.

Rain again last night.

Ladies, ask E. C. Smith how to preserve fruits.

W. W. Cochran, of Coeur d'Alene, is in town today.

L. L. Simpson spent last night at Cottage Grove.

The Beatty family arrived on this morning's local.

J. W. Shumate, of Waterville, is in town today.

Stock taken on pasture cheap. Inquire of A. B. Bilyeu.

S. H. Friendly is spending a few days in San Francisco.

Geo. T. Hall returned from Portland on this afternoon's local.

H. J. Day returned from Salem on the local this afternoon.

U. G. Hayne and J. R. Bean came up from Albany this afternoon.

W. J. Fox returned from Southern Oregon on the local this morning.

Screen doors and windows.

F. L. CHAMBERS.

How to preserve fruits without cooking. Ladies, inquire of The Fair.

Glass cut to order any size.

F. L. CHAMBERS.

A strawberry 6 inches in circumference was left at the GUARD office today.

Now is the time for preserving fruits—use Antifermentine. Sold by The Fair.

Your fruits will not ferment if you use Antifermentine. For sale by The Fair.

J. B. Bryson has been appointed receiver of Hamilton Job's bank, at Corvallis.

Mrs. Vina Lemley returned from a visit to Roseburg on the local this morning.

Preserve your fruits without cooking by using Antifermentine. For sale by The Fair.

On application of the Blair bondholders, the Oregon Pacific sale has been postponed to October 28.

Mrs. Frank Whipple and child, of Cottage Grove, are visiting at the residence of Mrs. J. B. Underwood.

Prosecuting Attorney Condon went to Portland on the overland train this morning. He will return tonight.

The material has been ordered for three new bricks at Oakland to take the place of frames recently burned.

Road carts $12.50 (new goods but a part of the bankrupt stock—only a few).

F. L. CHAMBERS.

If you would have peach and berry pies for winter season, use Antifermentine. For sale by The Fair.

What is Antifermentine? Ask The Fair.

While on his trip east Capt. Lanning of Albany was in quite a railroad accident, one of his shoulders being bruised.

A. S. McClure went to Salem this morning to attend the annual camp of Indian war veterans of the north Pacific coast.

When preserving fruits save labor, fruit and sugar, and have perfect results. Use Antifermentine. For sale by The Fair.

Mrs. J. E. Baker has so far recovered from her illness that she was able to return to her home in Salem on this morning's local.

G. O. Yoran, of the Register, arrived home from a visit to the world's fair, and other places in the East, on last night's overland.

Don't stew your fruits over a hot stove. Preserve them without cooking. The Fair will tell you how.

Misses Mabel and Della Hunter, of Ilwaco, are in the city to remain until after commencement, visiting at the residence of Mrs. J. B. Underwood.

Shiloh's Cure, the great cough and croup cure is for sale by us. Pocket size contains twenty-five doses, only 25 cents. Children love it.

CITY DRUG STORE.

S. Washburn is trying for another well at his place in the Hendricks-Hoffman addition. This time he is digging and has gone down 62 feet and no water yet.

Councilman E. A. Scott, of Fairhaven, Wash., has a highly prized family heirloom in the shape of a seven-dollar bill issued by the Continental Congress of the United Colonies in 1776.

Captain Sweeney, U. S. A., San Diego, Cal., says: "Shiloh's Catarrh Remedy is the first medicine I have ever found that would ever do me any good." Price 50 cents. Sold by CITY DRUG STORE.

Miss Emma Baum and Mrs. Sol Steinheiser of Portland came up on the local this afternoon and are visiting at the residence of Chas. Lauer. The latter lady was formerly a resident of this city.

DAILY GUARD, June 16.

TWELVE A POUND.—Yesterday evening G. W. Miller, who resides at the corner of Fourteenth and Pearl streets, brought this office a box of strawberries which were grown on his residence property. The box contained but twelve large berries which tipped the beam at one pound. They are solid fruit and of most excellent flavor. What region of the United States can beat this.

Treasurer's Notice.

Notice is hereby given that the following county warrants will be paid on presentation at this office. Interest will stop on June 5, 1893. All Lane county warrants up to and including registered No. 5578.

EUGENE, June 8, 1893.

FRANK REINER, County Treasurer.

For Sale.

230 acres of good land with living springs. It is good fruit land and has 400 bearing trees. Fair improvements. Lays 5 miles southwest of Eugene. Inquire on premises of Thos. Jenkins.

A Good Chance.

The entire stock of the Ninth St. cigar store in Titus block, consisting of cigars, smoking tobacco, cigar clippings and pipe, will be sold this month by special inducement to mechanics.

Special inducement to mechanics.

DAILY GUARD, June 16.

MARRIAGE LICENSES.—Since we went to press yesterday the county clerk has issued the following marriage licenses: As W. Stewart and Edna Watkins, J. M. Campbell and Mamie Morris, M. H. Sawyer and Sadie Compton, H. D. Fountain and Georgia Barnes.

CIRCUIT COURT.

The Grand Jury Reports More Indictments.

DAILY GUARD, June 15.

Four indictments were returned by the grand jury today. Cy Bennett was indicted for the larceny of a 10-cent pocket knife from the residence of J. B. Underwood. He was arraigned and took his day to plead.

Sidney Horn, indicted for grand jury for transporting deer hides, was arraigned, pled guilty and tomorrow morning at 9 o'clock is the time set for sentence.

L. Ellmaker, indicted for larceny by bailee, was arraigned and took his day to plead. His attorney is L. Bilyeu.

Charles A. Tanner, indicted for larceny of public money, was arraigned and pled guilty. The court set tomorrow morning at 9 o'clock as the time of delivering sentence. As Tanner has returned the amount appropriated to proper fund and has a wife and family of small children, he is dependent upon him for support. He will be recommended to the extreme leniency of the court.

Chas. H. Friendly, the skin buyer, indicted for transporting deer hides, entered a plea of not guilty.

DAILY GUARD, June 15.

Chas. A. Tanner, the man who pled guilty to larceny of public money, was sentenced by the court this morning, the lowest penalty provided for the offense, 1 year in the state penitentiary. He will probably not be taken to Salem until tomorrow, as Deputy Sheriff H. J. Day and the Chinese Chinaman Chung Wu, on the overland train this morning, and the other deputies are busy serving subpoenas on grand jury witnesses. Tanner was recommended to the leniency of the court by the district attorney, as the offense was supposed to have been committed more through ignorance of the law, than any intention to commit a crime. He has since made good the amount, has a good sized family who need his support, hence the light sentence.

The Isaacs vs. Wallace civil case occupied most of the time of the court yesterday. It is a case involving the title to G. A. Isaacs and A. C. Woodcock while E. R. Skipworth and L. Bilyeu appeared for the defense. The action was brought to recover on notes given in payment for a bond for a deed when the deed had never been issued. The case went to the jury at 5 o'clock yesterday evening, and they returned at 9:30 with a verdict for defendant.

THE LOWEST FINE.

Sentence was passed this morning on Sidney Horn for transporting deer hides. His attorney L. Bilyeu, made a strong plea for a light sentence in his behalf on account of the former good reputation he had borne and on account of his being a poor man with a family to support and other extenuating circumstances. The court considering these, and it also appearing that this was the first offense he imposed the lowest fine provided by law, $10 and costs.

PLEAD NOT GUILTY.

L. Ellmaker and Cy Bennett appeared in court this morning and each pled not guilty to the charges against them, and Saturday was set to try both cases.

NEW CITIZENS.

John F. Bock and Gustaf Bock appeared in court yesterday to declare their allegiance to the president of the United States and were admitted to full citizenship. They were former subjects of the emperor of Germany.

The trial of C. H. Friendly for transporting deer hides resulted in a verdict of not guilty. This is not the first time he has appeared in court for this offense but the evidence this time was not strong enough to convict.

No jury cases being ready for trial, the time of the court was taken up this afternoon in hearing the argument on several motions.

The grand jury is still grinding away.

T. J. Black vs. J. S. Smith: to recover money. Continued for service.

W. B. Andrews vs. Sabria and H. S. Reed: to recover money. Continued for service.

G. W. Isaacs vs. C. H. A. W. and W. L. Wallace: to recover money. Set for trial Wednesday morning. Trial commenced this morning. W. B. Andrews, Wm. Stewart, E. S. Andrus, W. R. Kelley, Paul Bristow, Allen Bond, J. H. Graham, W. D. Wallace, Presley Conegies, J. M. Stafford, John Harnes and C. A. McLean were drawn on the jury.

Verdict for defendant.

J. M. Spores vs. J. J. and W. H. Franklin: to recover money. Continued for the term.

John Holland vs. W. J. Hill: to recover money. Continued for the term.

J. M. Waters vs. E. D. and Cashil Johnson: to recover money. Continued for service.

William Wilson vs. John and Patience Bentley. Confirmation. Sale confirmed.

Upper Willamette Lumber Manufacturers Association vs. J. D. W. B. Andrews, S. H. Friendly and David Monastres: equity. Dismissed at plaintiff's cost.

A. S. Borrenson vs. David O. Sipe: Confirmation. Sale confirmed.

Gilbert Brock vs. E. A. West: Confirmation. Sale confirmed.

E. R. Hollenbeck vs. Josephine Kailey et al: equity. Dismissed.

Hovey, Humphrey & Co vs. United States Banking Co: Confirmation. Sale confirmed.

Charles Lauer vs. T. R. and Mabel A. Berry: Confirmation of sale. Sale confirmed.

L. W. Brown vs. J. W. and Mary E. Egan: to recover money. Settled. Dismissed at plaintiff's cost.

In re assignment of Harlow & Betty: assignment. Order to amend report.

In re assignment of Harlow & Betty: No report.

Gale Manufacturing Co vs. Chas. H. Dodd & Co: to recover personal property. Dismissed.

Weir Plover Co vs. Chas. H. Dodd & Co: to recover personal property. Dismissed.

J. B. Baker vs. Grace Baker: divorce. Default. No appearance by defendant. Referred to E. R. Skipworth to report during term.

John Kelly vs. Daniel Harkine: Confirmation of sale. Sale confirmed.

Juo M. Hughes, et al, vs. Ann M. Hughes, et al: partition. Continued for term.

Carl Cruise vs. E. Bashaw and W. S. Campbell: foreclosure of lien. Judgment for defendant for costs.

W. E. Wiles vs. James Crane, James Stowell and Wm. Randall: foreclosure of lien. Settled. Dismissed at plaintiff's cost.

S. A. Rowe vs. Wm. Crawford and A. S. Whipple: foreclosure of lien. A. H. Kennedy, referee. Settled and dismissed.

Emma E. Williams vs. W. P. Fisher: appeal from justice court. Set for trial Tuesday morning.

The following jurors were drawn on this case this morning and the trial began: M. L. Wilmet, B. F. Powers, Z. T. Fisk, Presley Conegies, James Sears, S. R.

Piper, J. M. Stafford, B. P. Tuman, Allen Bond, J. A. Walker, W. D. Wallace and T. E. War. The case was given to the jury at 2:30. Jury returned a verdict for plaintiff at 5 o'clock Tuesday afternoon for $44 and costs.

The Myrtle Creek Consolidated Hydraulic Gold Mining and M'F' Co vs. L. W. Brown and E. M. Corbin: equity. Dismissed at plaintiff's cost.

The Myrtle Creek Consolidated Hydraulic Gold Mining and M'F' Co vs. L. W. Brown and E. M. Corbin: equity. Dismissed at plaintiff's cost.

A. Bond & Son vs. J. M. Ford: Confirmation. Sale confirmed.

A. Bond & Son vs. Drew Baker and Mollie Baker: Confirmation. Sale confirmed.

State of Oregon vs. Chung Wa: Confirmation. Grand jury returned indictment for burglary. Arraigned and pled guilty. Sentenced to five years in the state penitentiary.

Editorial Correspondence.

CHICAGO, June 9, 1893.

After writing our last we visited many places of interest in Boston, including Faneuil Hall, which is stored full of interesting revolutionary war records, etc., also Harvard college, in Cambridge, which has many costly buildings that any other educational institution in America; and we also visited the adjoining towns of Lynn and Chelsea, each five active manufacturing towns. Monday morning at 9 o'clock we left over the Boston & Maine and Central Vermont for Montreal, having possessed ourselves of a sculptor's ticket from the Hub via said lines and the Grand Trunk to Chicago, a distance of 1187 miles, for the sum of $14. The scenery in the Green and White mountains has a very high ranking in the New England people but is very tame to one who has been reared on the Pacific coast. The cars are old and badly worn on the Boston & Maine and the C. V. lines; and the old mode of serving water out of a tin kettle by a boy is still followed. And still these same officers are of the opinion that the Pacific coast is peopled with a semi-civilized race. Their farms are being abandoned for lack of industrious men, and the rigorous winters and heated summers. Along these lines the fences are generally composed of stone. We stopped at Montreal about five hours and but for the bad time looking over the Canadian city. It is built solidly and is growing slowly. A fine railroad bridge of nearly two miles in length spans the St. Lawrence at this point. During the night we rode to Toronto, the second largest city in Canada. It is a modern city with fine buildings and has five streets improved with asphalt pavement, which we believe is the finest material to improve a street with in the world. From Toronto we took a large steamer and crossed the western end of Lake Ontario for Niagara Falls. At Lake Point we took the Michigan Central and in 20 minutes were viewing the greatest waterfalls in the world from the Canadian side of the river. Then we went to the whirlpool, the cave, Goat Island, the Burning Springs and many other places in the vicinity, crossing the river on the suspension bridges. Bleeders of every kind prevail at the falls and industriously seek "suckers" to sell them relics, that never were found nearer to the great cataraet than New York. In the afternoon we returned to Toronto by the New York Central and a steamer from the city of Hamilton, going down the river via the American side. On our trip from Toronto to Chicago a wreck occurred on our train at Flint, breaking up two day coaches and breaking limbs for about one-half dozen of the occupants, besides bruising several others. Being in the Pullman I received no damage nor did any of the passengers in the same.

Will write tomorrow more concerning the fair.

I. L. C.

Turning Out Excellent Work.

DAILY GUARD, June 15.

Chancing to drop into E. C. Lake's Marble shop in this city today, a reporter of this paper had his attention called to a remarkably fine piece of monumental work. The piece is a large one and is now already for removal to the cemetery. It will stand over 11 feet high when erected and is manufactured from a high grade of Vermont marble. It is the J. D. Matlock family monument, and the inscription on it is a masterpiece of the art of lettering. The whole job is cut and finished in Gothic style, the stone having been shipped here in the rough, and the cutting done by Joseph O'Malley, one of the finest marble workers in Oregon.

The proprietor of these works states that a great deal of work is being prepared for erection later in the season, some of it in Benton county, but mostly in Lane. The cutting and lettering is all done in the shop here, and we noticed in different stages of preparation several monuments which were being erected. One is the McMurtry monument, another to be erected over the grave of the late deceased Clifton Stevens, one for the family of Rufus Clark, deceased, and still another for the Summerville family near Harrisburg. The work is all in a good style of marble, and the artist will display a variety of designs and uniform excellence in workmanship.

Should Be Settled.

DAILY GUARD, June 15.

For a long time doubts have existed as to where the authority existed for the deposition or occupancy of a strip of land, around the public square in this city 34 feet wide. The ground was originally a part of the plat of street but several years ago the county authorities attempted to lease this strip to the property owners, whose land abutted, for private use. The conditions of the lease were certain specifications, and now as complaints have been coming in that these specifications have not been fulfilled, holding the lease under the direction of the district attorney, to property holders to vacate the same; as they were violating the law by obstructing the public highway. This will probably place the matter squarely at issue and a test case made to decide wherein the real right of disposition and occupancy rests. The land was originally a part of the tract deeded to Lane county by Eugene F. Skinner and C. Mulligan for the use of the county, but for over 20 years has been used as aforesaid.

DAILY GUARD, June 15.

CONTRACT AWARDED.—The county court awarded the contract for furnishing all printed blanks used by the county for the next six months, this afternoon. There were a number of bidders from local and outside printers, but the GUARD got the contract as making the lowest and best bid.

FOR SALE.—A large amount of old type, which makes the best of Halldist metal. Call at the GUARD office for terms.

Philip J. Bowerman; divorce. Default. Referred to J. M. Williams to report this term.

Geo. A. Hicks, A. A. and Sarah M. Meek vs. E. M. Potters equity. Judgment for plaintiff.

The Myrtle Creek Consolidated Hydraulic Gold Mining and M'F' Co vs. L. W. Brown; equity. Dismissed at plaintiff's cost.

The Myrtle Creek Consolidated Hydraulic Gold Mining and M'F' Co vs. L. W. Brown; equity. Dismissed at plaintiff's cost.

A. Bond & Son vs. J. M. Ford; confirmation. Sale confirmed.

A. Bond & Son vs. Drew Baker and Mollie Baker; confirmation. Sale confirmed.

State of Oregon vs. Chung Wa; confirmation. Grand jury returned indictment for burglary. Arraigned and pled guilty. Sentenced to five years in the state penitentiary.

Editorial Correspondence.

CHICAGO, June 9, 1893.

After writing our last we visited many places of interest in Boston, including Faneuil Hall, which is stored full of interesting revolutionary war records, etc., also Harvard college, in Cambridge, which has many costly buildings that any other educational institution in America; and we also visited the adjoining towns of Lynn and Chelsea, each five active manufacturing towns. Monday morning at 9 o'clock we left over the Boston & Maine and Central Vermont for Montreal, having possessed ourselves of a sculptor's ticket from the Hub via said lines and the Grand Trunk to Chicago, a distance of 1187 miles, for the sum of $14. The scenery in the Green and White mountains has a very high ranking in the New England people but is very tame to one who has been reared on the Pacific coast. The cars are old and badly worn on the Boston & Maine and the C. V. lines; and the old mode of serving water out of a tin kettle by a boy is still followed. And still these same officers are of the opinion that the Pacific coast is peopled with a semi-civilized race. Their farms are being abandoned for lack of industrious men, and the rigorous winters and heated summers. Along these lines the fences are generally composed of stone. We stopped at Montreal about five hours and but for the bad time looking over the Canadian city. It is built solidly and is growing slowly. A fine railroad bridge of nearly two miles in length spans the St. Lawrence at this point. During the night we rode to Toronto, the second largest city in Canada. It is a modern city with fine buildings and has five streets improved with asphalt pavement, which we believe is the finest material to improve a street with in the world. From Toronto we took a large steamer and crossed the western end of Lake Ontario for Niagara Falls. At Lake Point we took the Michigan Central and in 20 minutes were viewing the greatest waterfalls in the world from the Canadian side of the river. Then we went to the whirlpool, the cave, Goat Island, the Burning Springs and many other places in the vicinity, crossing the river on the suspension bridges. Bleeders of every kind prevail at the falls and industriously seek "suckers" to sell them relics, that never were found nearer to the great cataraet than New York. In the afternoon we returned to Toronto by the New York Central and a steamer from the city of Hamilton, going down the river via the American side. On our trip from Toronto to Chicago a wreck occurred on our train at Flint, breaking up two day coaches and breaking limbs for about one-half dozen of the occupants, besides bruising several others. Being in the Pullman I received no damage nor did any of the passengers in the same.

Will write tomorrow more concerning the fair.

I. L. C.

Turning Out Excellent Work.

DAILY GUARD, June 15.

Chancing to drop into E. C. Lake's Marble shop in this city today, a reporter of this paper had his attention called to a remarkably fine piece of monumental work. The piece is a large one and is now already for removal to the cemetery. It will stand over 11 feet high when erected and is manufactured from a high grade of Vermont marble. It is the J. D. Matlock family monument, and the inscription on it is a masterpiece of the art of lettering. The whole job is cut and finished in Gothic style, the stone having been shipped here in the rough, and the cutting done by Joseph O'Malley, one of the finest marble workers in Oregon.

The proprietor of these works states that a great deal of work is being prepared for erection later in the season, some of it in Benton county, but mostly in Lane. The cutting and lettering is all done in the shop here, and we noticed in different stages of preparation several monuments which were being erected. One is the McMurtry monument, another to be erected over the grave of the late deceased Clifton Stevens, one for the family of Rufus Clark, deceased, and still another for the Summerville family near Harrisburg. The work is all in a good style of marble, and the artist will display a variety of designs and uniform excellence in workmanship.

Should Be Settled.

DAILY GUARD, June 15.

For a long time doubts have existed as to where the authority existed for the deposition or occupancy of a strip of land, around the public square in this city 34 feet wide. The ground was originally a part of the plat of street but several years ago the county authorities attempted to lease this strip to the property owners, whose land abutted, for private use. The conditions of the lease were certain specifications, and now as complaints have been coming in that these specifications have not been fulfilled, holding the lease under the direction of the district attorney, to property holders to vacate the same; as they were violating the law by obstructing the public highway. This will probably place the matter squarely at issue and a test case made to decide wherein the real right of disposition and occupancy rests. The land was originally a part of the tract deeded to Lane county by Eugene F. Skinner and C. Mulligan for the use of the county, but for over 20 years has been used as aforesaid.

DAILY GUARD, June 15.

CONTRACT AWARDED.—The county court awarded the contract for furnishing all printed blanks used by the county for the next six months, this afternoon. There were a number of bidders from local and outside printers, but the GUARD got the contract as making the lowest and best bid.

FOR SALE.—A large amount of old type, which makes the best of Halldist metal. Call at the GUARD office for terms.

The Great Day.

The Fourth of July celebration will be the most entertaining ever given in Eugene. Most of the old stock features have been left out and replaced by new acts.

The athletic games and sports will be of surpassing interest, worth more than the whole programme of the old celebration.

Pretty and popular music will be played during the day.

Among the novel features will be a free dance on an immense platform in the open air. A number of 2000-candle electric lights, will illuminate the dance floor in the evening. A dance like this, affords not only pleasure to the participants, but presents a scene of rare beauty and brilliancy to the spectators.

Taken all in all, the day will be celebrated in Eugene after a style that will surprise and astonish, as well as delight, all who may witness the performances.

Real Estate Transfers.

COUNTY.

Edward Burton to Mary A. Tanner, 132.15 acres in T. 16 S., R. 11 W., S. 400.

J. A. C. R. Co. to Elizabeth Druggs, 12.9 acres in T. 16 S., R. 11 W., S. 300.

George W. Breeding, executor of the estate of Elizabeth Breeding, deceased, to Margaret P. Cox, 270 acres in T. 19 S., R. 1 E., S. 1500.

F. M. Nighswander to Mrs. E. J. Simmons, 63 acres in T. 16 S., R. 4 W., S. 1.

Edith Simmons to Mrs. E. J. Simmons, 62 acres in T. 16 S., R. 4 W., S. 1.

Latam Lockard to Nancy E. Smith, 5 acres in T. 18 S., R. 4 W., S. 100.

William Johnson et al. to Nancy E. Pope, 1 acre in T. 17 S., R. 9 W., S. 1.

Nancy E. Pope to trustees of Lake Creek Presbyterian church, 1 acre in T. 17 S., R. 9 W., S. 1.

Cynthia Ann Harpole to Seth W. Harpole et al., 160 acres in T. 16 S., R. 1 W., S. 1 and other consideration.

T. L. Zumwalt to A. J. Zumwalt, land in T. 16 S., R. 2 W., S. 1000.

COTTAGE GROVE.

Win Hemenway to Alpheus R. Eastman et al. 2 block 3, McFarland's addition; $200.

T. E. Hubbard to A. R. Eastman 2-5 lot 4 block 1, Shields addition; $240.

EUGENE.