Washingrox, June 26.-The leaven in the shape of a committee of inquiry, put into the pension system by Com-missioner Lochren is beginning to work. It is the business of this com-mittee to examine cases passed under the Raum ruling and to report for erasure all names of persons drawing money to which they are not outified. In Pittsburg, Pa., 50 pendoners have been dropped from the rolls. They know nothing of it and will not know until they go after their money on the

In other parts of the country the rathe of droppage is about the same. It is calculated that many million of dellars will be saved to the government by this procedure, though neither the commissioner nor any one of his subse-dinates hope to rid the rolls of all the unworthy. Some are bound to escape. However, as the committee becomes more familiar with the work of exam ination it hopes to increase its speed. In a month or two the results of its la bors will become very apparent.
