HORRIBLE ACCIDENT.

A Fourteen Year Old Girl Meets a Terrible Death.

Daily Guard, June 28.

One of the most frightful deaths a newspaper ever chronicled occurred last evening about five miles south of this city. The family of Mr. A. L. Baker resides on the Dr. Sharples' place and the children are obliged to go to the Henshaw school about 3 miles beyond.

The distance is so great for the three little girls, Hattie, aged 7 years; Mabel, 8, and Maud, 14, years respectively, that they have been in the habit of going to school on horseback, two of the girls riding at a time. Last evening while returning from school in this way about 4:30 o'clock, the eldest, Maud, and the youngest, Hattie, were riding. When they had arrived within about a mile of home, passing through the Osburn place, another horse, which some neighbors children were riding, came up behind and started their horse which began to run. Both girls were thrown off but Mabel, being older, managed to get up. Her horse had a larlet over her arm which was attached to the horse's neck. When she was thrown to the ground this caught in some way and the horse running on dragged the little girl by the arm a distance of 250 yards before being brought to a stop. The last 75 yards of this distance was over very rocky part of the road and when her little sisters came running up she was already dead. The skull had been fractured in two places and half the scalp torn in a single piece from the upper and back part of the head.

Assistant coroner was summoned from home and the body of the dead girl taken there immediately. Dr. J. W. Harris of this city was called and attended the smaller child who was not seriously hurt however. He states that the skull fractures were the only fatal ones. The girl was over 10 years old, the little victim being uninjured, except by bruises.

The funeral services will take place tomorrow at the family residence at 11 o'clock in the forenoon. Rev. Gittings, of Croswell, will conduct the services. The burial will be at the Masonic cemetery at 2 o'clock.

A Remarkable Group.

Daily Guard, June 28.

John Baileys' home is three miles south of this city, was in town today with a number of relatives he is entertaining for a few days. Among them are three brothers and one sister, Ezekiel Bailey of Indian Valley, Washington county Idaho; Samuel Bailey, of Barker, Knox county, Kentucky; Isaac Bailey and Mrs. Douglas, both strong, of Myrtle Creek, Douglas county, this state.

Of the five, brothers and sister, the least in height is six feet, and the tallest is six feet, 7 inches. The youngest is 26 years old, the oldest is in his eightieth year. While in town today the group had a photograph taken and it will without doubt be a unique production.

Gone to South America.

Daily Guard, June 28.

A short time ago the GUARD contained quite a sketch of H. Y. Thompson, a well-known attorney who lived for many years in Portland. Recently Thompson suddenly disappeared from Seattle, having, it is alleged, been defrauded in a large amount of money belonging to the Fairbanks Land Company, and having, also, "done" a number of private individuals out of various amounts. It was supposed he had skipped off to Canada, but the latest and most authentic reports are to the effect that Thompson has gone to South America and will be seen from Seattle to San Francisco, and after borrowing all the money he could find persons he knew, amounting in the aggregate, to about $1,000, he quietly took a steamer and departed for South America, leaving some mourners behind him. They will probably continue to mourn.

LANE COUNTY BANK STATEMENT.

IN FIRST-CLASS CONDITION.

Report of the Committee to Examine into the Condition of the First National and the Eugene Loan and Savings Banks.

EUGENE, OREGON, June 27, 1893.

TO THE DEPOSITORS OF THE LANE COUNTY BANK:—We have very many regrets that we felt the necessity of closing our doors on Tuesday last, but believe in so doing we not only served your interests but our own. We have ample loans to pay all our depositors in full, besides other means, but to force collections on these loans or process a law at the time would cause a panic at home and bankrupt, ruin or seriously damage hundreds of good men and create great losses to us, and cause much longer delay through legal process than by private and individual efforts. Hence, rather than bring this calamity on those owing us, we preferred to close our bank and bear the harsh reflections that in the end you will all justify us in this course. Knowing all our claims and being familiar with the condition of our many customers we propose to collect as fast as possible without expense to any one our loans and apply the same to the satisfaction of claimants. To this end, we trust no one with just and correct feelings of justice, will throw any obstacle in our way, and we assume all that by so doing you will realize to your own depositors at the earliest possible date.

ESTIMATES OF CONDITION, JUNE 27.

ASSETS:—Loans and Discounts, $115,000. Real Estate and Mortgages, Estimated, 100,000. Miscellaneous, 10,000. Total, $225,000.

LIABILITIES:—Due Depositors—Time Certificates, and Bills Payable, $85,000. LANE COUNTY BANK. A. G. HOOVER, President. H. C. HUMPHREY, Cashier.

Referring to the above I desire to state that I am familiar with the financial condition of the Lane County bank and I can assure all depositors that they will be paid in full, and I heartily endorse the foregoing statement, issued by the bank and published above.

Big Celebration at Eugene.

Eugene will have the largest Fourth of July celebration ever known. There will be thousands of people present. A free dance will be given.

F. E. DUNN expects to sell $2,000 worth of goods on that day. The next day he will start out to lay in a mammoth stock for the fall and winter.

E. DUNN is doing the largest business in Eugene, and it is increasing daily. People are bound to go to his store, as he has a large selection to choose from.

A FALSE DISPATCH.—Astoria Budget, June 27: Among the usual inaccuracies in the Oregonian's Washington correspondence yesterday, it was stated that Mr. Noland, of this city, has had application with the treasury department at the federal seat of government at the office of collector of customs at this port. This is altogether wide of the mark. Mr. Noland has not made such an application, and he is not in the city. He was a candidate for the office of U. S. district attorney but D. R. Murphy was encamped on the ground and turned him down. That settled it with George as far as office under this administration is concerned. He is in the city, and he knows how to take his ground in the attorneyship matter with graceful ease.

GERMAN PICNIC.—A number of Germans with their families had a very enjoyable picnic near the Coburg bridge yesterday. Fine food was served, with good food beer, were the features of the day, which was ended by a speech by Joseph Koch and the singing of the Watch on the Rhine, by the happy crowd. The pleasures of the day are due to Messrs. Lewis Aya and P. Holt, the managers of the picnic.

SHOT IN THE SHOULDER.—Florence West, June 27: An old feud existing between Riley Mills and Frank Gilman, of South Slough, about a young lady, culminated in the shooting of Gilman by Mills on Wednesday last. Both the parties interested in the affair are said to be reticent when asked for facts, Gilman refusing to inform the physician in what position he was in when the ball hit him. We were told that Gilman knocked Mills down and proceeded to shoot at him when Mills called a halt on such proceedings by drawing a small pistol from his pocket and shooting Gilman. Dr. Wiley who was called to dress the wound, states that it is not serious, and so far as he could ascertain, the ball did not lodge in the body. No arrests.

DECLARES IT A STEAL.—Walla Walla Statesman: L. H. McMahon, of the Salem, Oregon, Independent paid the Statesman office a pleasant call on Saturday. Mr. McMahon reports that he is decidedly of the opinion that the Oregonian is in the wrong in general indications the hunt of the hard times has not yet been felt in that section. Mr. McMahon is in Walla Walla to gather statistics in regard to the jute mill at the penitentiary. The Independent's opinion is that the Oregonian's jute mill is "steal," and is striving to convince the people of Oregon to that effect.

HOPS.—The Salem Journal of June 27th has the following dispatch from Eugene: "The condition in regard to the coming hop crop remains the same. Lice is showing up in nearly all the yards. Spraying has commenced in the Neia yards. Some yards lack growth of vine and unless the weather changes for the better there will undoubtedly be some short crops again this season. The market is quiet; no transactions of late. The growers that are holding their '93 are firm in their belief that prices will advance before the new crop comes on."

DELINQUENT TAX SALE.—Sheriff Noland is holding the delinquent tax sale this afternoon. A number of bidders are present. The sale will probably continue for several days. The list is the smallest for a number of years.

THE CELEBRATIONS.

Fair, Music, Games and a Grand Free Public Open Air Dance—An Attractive Programme.

The 4th of July celebration in Eugene next Tuesday will surpass any like occasion ever held in Lane county.

The committee this year leaves the beaten track and offers to the people something new and novel. They have discarded most of the wearisome, oft-repeated and tiresome parts and replaced them with performances worth seeing and hearing.

All alone, the athletic games overweigh the whole of any of the past 4th of July programmes.

Plenty of the prettiest and grandest music, furnished by two bands, will be played the whole day through.

The grand dance on the open air platform, to the sweetest and most melodious strains of a large orchestra and under the glowing light of electric arc lamps, will prove a dream of delight to the dancers, and a vision of beauty and pleasure to the spectators. The dance will begin in the afternoon and continue during the night.

The committee deserve the thanks of pleasure-lovers for conceiving so bright and brilliant a programme.

Goshen Items.

Yes, up we lob again. Miss Etta Williams, of Trent, is visiting her sister, Mrs. W. D. Keeney.

Mrs. Jos. Eaton, went to Eugene yesterday to have her broken wrist examined by her physician.

The social dance given by Swaggart and Stewart last Friday night, was a success. A good sized crowd was present, a good supper served by M. S. Cahow and Mrs. Monroe, and all returned home well pleased with the party. They will probably give another on July 4th.

Mrs. E. P. Williams spent Sunday with her daughter here.

A number of our citizens visited Springfield Sunday—base ball, church, and Free Methodists being the attractions.

A letter from our friend, James A. Finch, of Kent, Sherman county, under date of June 25th, states that "base ball" is in full blast in those parts. "We hope Jimmy will not become afflicted with "hay fever" in his absence, while preparing winter food for the fussy animals under his charge."

Henry Matthew's barn was raised last Friday. A number of the neighbors spent a pleasant day in assisting at the work.

Our road supervisor, C. H. Matthews, has about completed the work of the assessments on our thoroughfares, at the same will be well appreciated next winter.

Orlo Cahow and Ben Keeney and families visited Coburg Sunday.

Jos. Liels and Charles Soverns visited Crow Saturday, returning home Sunday.

Mr. John Edmundson's school will close Friday. John has taught us a good school.

Quite a number were over from Cloverdale in attendance at the dance here Friday night. Come again, friends.

In conversation with A. M. Osburn, on his return from across the mountains with his cattle, he informs us that he thought his being compelled to pay a fine at Fall Creek for the alleged driving of more than 10 head of cattle over the bridge there at one time, a gross injustice for, he states, quite a number of men and boys were at the bridge, and that he called to them to assist him in preventing the cattle from crowding; but instead of doing so they allowed dogs to chase them on the bridge, and yet, notwithstanding, the frightful calamity made considerable noise in jumping on the planks, he nor none of his men believe that more than 10 head were on at any one time. He states that he would have stood a suit had he had time to procure counsel. Mr. Osburn is one of the heavy tax payers of the county, and it seems unreasonable to suppose that he would knowingly damage public property.

WILL PROBABLY RESUME.—Albany Democrat: A strong effort is being made to reopen the Linn County National Bank under a reorganization so strong as to secure the confidence of the people at once. Mr. A. Bush of Salem who owns $30,000 in stock, is expected in Salem today, and will probably meet with other stockholders in the city on Thursday. Mr. Jennings, the bank inspector, has about completed investigations, but will have nothing for the public for a few days. Depositors are safe. The serious question is with the stockholders.

Obituary.

Mr. Prior Ford Blair was born in Henry county, Kentucky, February 11, 1815, died at the home of his daughter, Mrs. McClaren, June 23, 1893.

He married Mrs. Goady, and from this union five children were born, four girls and one boy, all living. His companion died in 1875, Aug. 28th.

With his family he emigrated to Oregon from Iowa in 1847, and was among the first settlers in Lane county there being only four or five families here when he arrived.

He was a sturdy man, brave and independent, else he would never have undertaken a journey with oxen that should require seven months time and expose himself and loved ones to the hardships and exposures incident to a trip at that period. But he reached here in safety, took up his claim and made a home amid all the discouragements incident to pioneer life.

One by one these old settlers, the noblest and grittiest of men, are yielding to death and passing from us. We thank the God of our fathers for the fact that we should hold sacred to memory for their work's sake, for their intrinsic value to us and to our nation.

Father Blair was well and widely known in Lane county. He possessed traits of character which should be copied and practiced by us. A kind father, a true friend, an old citizen has passed away. He is in the hands of a kind and merciful God who forgets none of our good acts, looks not over our virtues. In early life he united with the Christian church.

To a more recent acquaintance we commended his family and souls. Cherish the memory of your father, love one another, live in view of eternity; and may the Father of the fatherless comfort and keep you and finally bring you to himself above.

To funeral services was conducted by Rev. G. A. Blair, from the text, "Our Friend Sleepeth," John II, verse 11.

The Masonic fraternity took charge of the burial and a large concourse of relatives and friends attended.

Trent Items.

May 28. John McKinstry and Walter Wheeler passed this place with a herd of fine Holstein cattle, headed for Pleasant Hill.

E. P. Williams reports his cattle in fine condition, the greater portion remaining in the mountains last winter without being fed.

William Miller is moving into his new home.

Plenics are getting numerous; two across the river last Saturday.

Road work is the order of the day, and Joe says we must have good roads.

The race was run last Saturday by Elden Templeman and Essie Boan. Elden was to run 150 yards and turn a stake horseback, Essie to run 80 yards on foot. The result was that the latter was the race horse and won the cigars for the crowd. Elden said the horse was well rode, and we agree with him for he rode him all over.
