LAST EVENING'S SOCIALS.

Medical Society Meeting.
The Lane County Medical Society held its annual meeting at the office of Dr. Kaykendall Saturday evening, July 1, and elected the following officers for the ensuing year: Dr. F. H. Hammett, president; Dr. Wm. Kaykendall, vice president; Dr. J. W. Harris, secretary and treasurer; Drs. D. A. Paine, C. W. Harris and F. W. Paine, executive committee.

WOMEN'S RELIEF CORPS RECEIVE.
The ladies of the relief corps entertained the G. A. R., Sons of Veterans and friends at their rooms in Mason's hall last evening. When the hour arrived for the program, which had been prepared to begin the reception room was filled almost to overflowing.

CHICAGO, June 25.—There was a slump of over 20 cents in the price of wheat in the first hours trading this morning. Carrying charges for 60 days have been advanced from 4 cents per bushel a few days ago to 6 cents, or about 40 per cent. per annum, on account of the money stringency. In addition to this a cable statement that the districts in India will raise 25,000,000 bushels more wheat than last year. Other cables were also weak. July sold down to 62 cents, the lowest known in this market.

DEPRESSED TIMES.—Corvallis Times, June 25: A. N. King, son of Amos King of Portland, arrived in Corvallis Sunday night from the Chewaucaun Valley, southeastern Oregon. He came across the mountains via the old military route and found about eight miles of snow ten or twelve feet deep, and a number of wagons waiting to cross. Of the condition of affairs in Chewaucaun he says: "Times were never at a lower ebb. Wool is worth only 60 cents per pound. Cattle can be bought at $10 per head all round, and hogs recently sold at $15 per head. Mutton sheep bring only $2 to $2.25 per head, the latter being the best of weather." Mr. King has about 4000 acres of land in Chewaucaun. On a former trip out there this spring he offered a certain firm $3.50 per head for a lamb of sheep, and on the visit from which he is now returning he was offered the same sheep at $1.50 per head.
