

Eugene City Guard.

SATURDAY, JULY 15.

Captain Flavel.

Astorian: In his rough and rugged road from sailor boy to ship captain and owner, he had suffered many hard experiences which we can readily believe enabled him to estimate at their full value the smiles of fortune, and naturally deterred him in advancing years from any and every speculation which could impair his after all but comparatively moderate fortune.

If you want your city to grow and prosper, patronize your business men. They pay their taxes here and help build up your country with their means.

Hon. John M. Gearin has been appointed assistant counsel to U. S. Attorney Murphy in the smuggling cases to be tried at Portland.

The report of Superintendent Downing, of the state penitentiary, for the quarter ending June 30, has been filed with the secretary of state and shows the number of convicts in the institution to be 364—a gain of one during the quarter.

The Oregonian is now calling the new democratic officials at Portland "a lot of cheap partisan underlings" for enforcing the Chinese law.

Many questions are asked as to the action of the two parties in congress at the time of the passage of the Sherman silver law.

David B. Hill, in a letter to the Tammany society acknowledging the receipt of an invitation to its 117th anniversary of the glorious Fourth, said: "It is incumbent upon the approaching congress to revise our present system of federal taxation, not in a spirit of retaliation or with injustice to any industrial interest, but with conservatism, fairness, intelligent discrimination, and with an eye single to the direct accomplishment of public purposes only."

The New York World notes a recent meeting of some republican "kidd" at Saratoga, who solemnly resolved, that the fear of the democratic congress will destroy the protective policy of the last thirty years is the chief cause of the business hesitancy and depression.

Secretary Charles N. Wait, of the state association of democratic clubs, has issued a call for the members of the executive committee of this association to meet in Portland at 2 p. m., July 26, for the purpose of considering the advisability of calling a state convention of democratic clubs early in the fall.
