

Very little sickness in Eugene this season.

A falling barometer. An indication of rain.

Flour is now retailed at 85 cents per 50 lb sack.

A bimetallic club has been organized at Dallas.

The dormitory building is now ready for the students.

The empty dwelling houses are rapidly filling up.

The grain harvest is rapidly drawing to a close.

Several from Eugene are in attendance upon the Kossburg fair.

The run of salmon on the lower Siuslaw is reported light.

No Chinamen are employed in the Lane county hop fields.

The total pack of salmon on the Columbia river amounts to 548,000 cases.

Less smoke today than for two weeks. An east wind drove it away.

Several of our citizens are talking of making a trip to Florence next week.

John Diamond of Coburg and John Cogswell expect to start for the world's fair next week.

Depositors in the Lane County Bank will be paid at least 20 per cent of their deposits on Oct. 10.

The Salem schools will not open until October, and will only hold eight months the coming year.

Forty women of ill repute were arraigned in Spokane's police court last week and fined a total of $1500.

After next Monday hop picking will become general in Lane county. There are very few live in the county.

The national encampment of the G. A. R. began at Indianapolis yesterday. Ex-President Harrison made the speech of welcome.

President Whiteaker has resigned as president of the Willamette University. Prof. W. C. Hawley was elected as acting president.

The St. Helena Mist says Secretary of State McBridge is regaining his health steadily under the skillful care of his sister, Mrs. W. H. Dolman.

R. G. Cochran, the gentleman who suicided at Brownsville yesterday, was a nephew of Hon. R. H. Cochran instead of a cousin as we stated yesterday.

The Blue River Mining Co., of this city, met in annual session of stockholders last evening. No business was transacted the meeting being adjourned to tonight.

The Guard job printing office has printed thousands of hop checks during the past two weeks, besides much commercial work. Low prices and good work makes business.

Several of the hop yards in the vicinity of Eugene commenced the work of harvesting the crop yesterday. A large number of pickers were unable to be accommodated.

Al Werlin who shot himself at Portland last week will probably recover. He was captain of the team that won the first prize at the Knights of Pythias parade here a year ago.

The Pat Donagan ranch, comprising 4200 acres, located twelve miles north of Medford, was sold the other day for $50,000. Fifty Polish families from Kansas and Nebraska will settle on the tract.

The county court of Lincoln county has ordered another city election at Toledo, to be held on Sept. 11. The first election was decided as illegal, because the ballots were not in accordance with the provisions of the election laws of the state.

A dispatch states that it is expected that before the week shall be over the president will appoint William B. Hornblower, of the firm of Hornblower, Byrne & Taylor, of New York, to be associate justice of the supreme court of the United States, to succeed the late Justice Blatchford.

Albany Democrat: County Clerk Payne, Martha Payne, R. F. Wyatt and Clay Marshall returned last Saturday evening from a trip across the Cascades and back by the hot springs of the McKenzie. They report a fine time. The county clerk particularly was greatly benefited by the trip.

The owners of young prune orchards north of Eugene have generally made arrangements to haul the fruit to Dr. Sharples' dryer. It is a long haul for some of them but it is the best that can be done. The fruit from the Humphreys and Gray orchards will be taken there. It is estimated that the latter will produce 1000 bushels.

Corvallis News: James Martin, of Monroe presented, sent to town this morning a limb of a prune tree, about three feet in length and with three branches, the whole containing 153 prunes. The limb was taken from an Italian prune tree and demonstrates that prune culture in this section of Oregon is a decided success. It is a splendid specimen.

Corvallis News: The river steamer, Three Sisters, arrived this morning from Portland with several tons of freight. Captain Young informs us that she experienced little or no trouble in getting up the river. This is the first trip ever made by a boat as large as the Sisters from Portland to Corvallis at this time of the year. Owing to the fact that no freight is moving at present the Three Sisters will be tied up here for ten days or two days.

Lakeview Examiner: There is no better field for profitable railroad building than southeastern Oregon. A road from Boise City to San Francisco on the line of the U. P. survey would develop an immense trade, as also would one from Eugene to Winnemucca on the line of the P. & N. survey. The Reno-Lakeview narrow gauge is coming this way, but too slowly to suit our conditions.

Fifty-six Chinese hop pickers in the hop fields about Butteville, Marion county, were forcibly evicted from their houses by seventy-five white men and shipped to Portland on the steamer Toledo. No Chinese will be allowed to harvest hops in that neighborhood. Two of the Chinese houses were blown up. A large number of whites were ready to take the place of the mongrels.

TRAMPS.—Complaint comes that tramps are quite scarce in the north-west part of town. They commit petty thefts and attempt to enter houses, frightening timid women.

Goshen Items.

Sept. 2.

Hop growers are being lured by fire insurance agents.

Born, at Pleasant Hill, Aug. 31, 1893, to Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Bristow, a son, At Crewell, Sept. 1, 1893, to Mr. and Mrs. Thompson Morse, a son. (Brother-scribes will please excuse our encroaching on their territory to herald such glad tidings.)

J. H. Harns will commence hop gathering Sept. 6, in the A. J. Keeney yards. His are fine looking hops.

Miss Jennie Taylor has been selected to teach our school to commence Sept. 18. Doubtless a good selection.

Mr. Zineker, the dairyman residing west of Crewell, was seriously injured by his team running away with him Friday. We did not learn the particulars.

Uncle Phillip Mulkey and wife, of Eugene, dined with friends near Goshen Saturday while enroute to Pleasant Hill. The good old people were alone, Uncle Phillip doing his own driving, which is considerable to say the least, of one so old and feeble.

D. F. Berkshire has the contract for making some needed repairs on the district school house.

W. D. Keeney's house is nearing completion.

D. M. Rinehart and wife, of Gilliam county, are in the valley and are now visiting relatives near Goshen.

A. L. Stewart returned from Pen-gra's ranch near Prineville Tuesday accompanied by Mrs. Ira Stewart, W. L. Matlock, wife and little son and J. W. Kitchen, who have been stopping at Kitson's springs for a month or more.

Our worthy postmaster, A. L. Roney, accompanied his brother N. L. and another gentleman up the Middle Fork during the week on a fishing excursion. We do not know, but it is safe to say they had good success, as fishermen always (?) do.

Harvesting will not be completed in this section for a week or more.

FEATHERWRIGHT.

Death of Mrs. Phillip Mulkey.

Daily Guard, Sept. 1.

The aged wife of Rev. Phillip Mulkey died at the family residence on South Ferry street in this city last Saturday at midnight. Deceased had been suffering with the disease which caused her death, pneumonia, only since the Tuesday previous.

Phoebe McPherson was born in Monroe county, Kentucky, on April 7, 1815. She accompanied the family when they crossed the plains in 1853, locating in Lane county. In the following year her first marriage took place, but her husband, Dr. John Brashers, died in July 1860.

On April 5, 1863, she was married to Rev. Phillip Mulkey, who survives her. Two brothers also survive her, J. B. McPherson, of Cottage Grove, and William McPherson, of this city. She was stepmother to Mrs. J. B. Harris of this city and aunt to L. F. McPherson, of Cottage Grove and Mrs. J. M. Gearhart, of Spencer Creek.

The funeral occurred from the family residence at 10 o'clock, Rev. I. N. Mulkey, of Pleasant Hill, officiating. There was a large attendance of old pioneer friends as well as relatives and neighbors.

Douglas County.—Roseburg Review: Messrs. McCall and Diller, the alliance and F. M. B. A. representatives, have concluded their work on the county records. Their report was submitted to the executive committee Saturday and was laid over until the regular county meeting two weeks later, hence the delay in its publication. The report is short and no serious charges are made against any official except the treasurer. The clerk will probably be censured for excessive fees in issuing warrants, the district attorney for unlawfully taking fees for work not performed, the county court for certain extravagant allowances, and the sheriff for loose bookkeeping methods. This much has been learned but for details the publication of the report will have to be awaited. Messrs. McCall and Diller will probably present a petition of taxpayers to the county board asking that they be paid reasonable wages for the work done.

Daily Guard, Sept. 1.

FUNERAL SERVICES.—The funeral of Mrs. Geo. F. Croner took place yesterday afternoon at the family residence. Seats were placed in the shade of the maple trees and many friends were present to pay the last sad respects to the deceased. Rev. G. A. Blair delivered a short but touching address, alluding to her suffering and the devotion of her husband. The Cumberland Presbyterian church choir rendered music appropriate to the occasion. The remains were then interred in the Masonic cemetery.

Daily Guard, Sept. 1.

THE TRAMS AHEAD.—The other day while A. V. Peters was ordering goods from San Francisco, being in need of some of the articles at once he concluded to have them shipped overland by railroad, while the others he ordered via Yaquina Bay. He was surprised this morning to receive those he ordered via Yaquina and the team service about one hour ahead. This is quite a compliment to the Oregon Pacific route and the Eugene teamsters.

Daily Guard, Sept. 1.

BEATS THE RECORD.—The Zumwalt and Luman threshing crew beat the record with their new Peerless threshing machine. At Jas. Ebbert's place yesterday they threshed 120 acres of grain, producing between 2500 and 3000 bushels, and with one more wagon to have hauled to the machine could have finished at 5 o'clock in the afternoon. It has a 33 inch cylinder and does very clean work. One man was kept busy measuring, and two sewing sacks.

Daily Guard, Sept. 1.

ARRESTED.—One, Howard, who stole a buggy robe from Bangs & Henderson's stable where he had been working a few days, was arrested on a warrant at Albany yesterday by Constable Hoffman. Deputy Sheriff Day went down this morning and will bring the prisoner back on tonight's train. He will be given an examination before Justice Kinsey tomorrow morning.

A little less smoke today.

Southern Oregon Mines.

W. P. Ely, editor of the Cowitz Advertiser, of Castle Rock, Wash., has returned from a trip to the Bohemia mining district, in which he has several valuable claims. Speaking of mining prospects in that section, at Portland, Monday, he said:

"Prospects in the district have never been so bright since J. A. Knott, of this city, erected the first mill there 22 years ago. After Mr. Knott left the district everything became quiet, and it was only recently that work was resumed upon the mines. Now they present a lively appearance, there being several hundred men prospecting there. The Annie and Bohemia mines, which are under the management of J. B. Magee and Mr. Davis, are turning out considerable ore. The surface indicates sulphate ore, but there is plenty of free milling gold. Some of the prospectors have taken out $40 of gold from a single pan of quartz. Enough development work has been done to show that the mine is 'permanent' and there is no sign of a 'drop.' No new capital has been introduced into the district as yet, and the mines are being worked by stock companies which have held them for several years."

Board of Trade.

Daily Guard, Sept. 1.

Board of trade met in regular session last evening, Geo. M. Miller, president pro tem., in the chair.

A communication from E. W. Hadley, receiver of the O. P. railroad, regarding statistical information was read and placed on file.

A number of bills were read, referred, allowed, etc.

On motion of Mr. Matlock a committee of three was appointed to solicit subscriptions for constructing a wagon road to the Cyclone mine in the Blue River district. Messrs. Matlock, Svarverud and Cockerline appointed.

A general discussion was indulged upon the practicability of establishing a factory for agricultural machinery in this city. The result was the indorsement of a proposition made by Messrs. Foreman and Matthews. It is to the effect that an incorporation be formed with a capital stock of $100,000. The above gentlemen, patentees of a patent rotary sickle, will assign their rights for $80,000 of the stock. The people of Eugene and vicinity to subscribe $20,000 in cash for balance of the stock, this money to be used in the establishment of the manufactory.

CLEAR MAJORITY IN ITS FAVOR.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 1.—The following poll of the senate on the repeal bill is given out as submitted to President Cleveland for his personal information.

For repeal: Aldrich, Allison, Bristow, Caffery, Camden, Casey, Chandler, Cullom, Davis, Dixon, Dolph, Faulkner, Frye, Gallinger, Gibson, Gordon, Gorman, Gray, Hale, Hawley, Higgins, Hill, Hoar, Houston, Lindsay, Lodge, McMillan, McPherson, Manderson, Mills, Mitchell of Wisconsin, Morgan, Morrill, Murphy, Palmer, Platt, Proctor, Sherman, Smith, Squire, Stockbridge, Tamm, Vilas, Voorhees, Washburne, White of La., Wilson. Total—47.

Against repeal: Allen, Bates, Berry, Cockrell, Coke, Colquhitt, Daniel, Dubois, George, Harris, Ivey, Jones of Arkansas, Jones of Nevada, Kyle, Martin, Mitchell of Oregon, Puffer, Perkins, Pettigrew, Power, Pugh, Roach, Shoup, Stewart, Teller, Vance, Vest, Walhall, White of Cal., Wolcott. Total—30.

Doubtful with disposition to vote for repeal: Blackburn, Butler, Ransom. Total—3.

Doubtful, with disposition to vote against repeal: Call, Cameron, Hansbrough, Pasco, Quay—5.

A Card.

We, the undersigned citizens of Trent and Dexter, attended the grand western panorama exhibition conducted by A. W. Welsh and family and found it to be as he represented and advertised and we think him to be honorable in every respect and we think the article written from the correspondent of Pleasant Hill warning people to beware of this entertainment is uncalled for and should not be noticed.

C. Coffman, E. C. Coffman, Fletcher Coffman, Homer Guiley, A. M. Griffin, Norman Guiley, Ellis Guiley, Riley Gortive, Archie Gortive, A. D. Gortive, J. R. Woods, Archie Coffman, C. J. Miller, R. H. Baker, J. E. Johnson Samuel Gartin, G. W. Guiley.

A LONG BICYCLE TRIP.—Sunday's Albany Herald: "John Whitney and Arthur Comery, of Eugene, arrived here after a bicycle trip from Eugene to Siuslaw bay, thence up the beach to Yaquina and return via Corvallis. They covered the entire distance on their wheels in about three days of actual travel, and expect to make Eugene in time for dinner tomorrow. They say that the 40 miles stretch up the beach from Siuslaw to Yaquina is a beautiful bicycle road except one cape where they had to carry their wheels over a rocky mountain." The boys arrived here about noon, Sunday, well pleased with their excursion.

THE FOREST FIRES.—A peculiarity of the forest fires up the Siuslaw is the fact that mostly old stumps and dry leaves, etc., are being burned, while the green and valuable timber is not injured. We are informed that little or no damage has been done. It was reported that the Santiam Lumber Company had lost a good many thousand dollars' worth of timber; but Mr. Brown, the Albany member of the company, states that no damage at all has been done to the company's property. The present fire in that vicinity started from a cabin, which was burned.

BOUND VOLUMES.—The files of the Daily and Weekly Guard have been bound up to the present time, making them very convenient for reference. The first volume is that of 1876, previous files having been taken away by a former proprietor, Geo. J. Bury. More matter is now published in the daily than in the weekly of that period.

MARRIED.—In Lane county, Oregon, August 31, 1893, by Rev. B. F. Smalley, Oliver P. Curtis and Rosa Campbell, all of Lane county, Oregon.

Miss Dell Walton has returned home from her Eastern visit.

Suicide of R. G. Cochran.

The Albany Democrat of Monday publishes the following concerning the suicide of that gentleman:

Early this morning Mr. Robert G. Cochran, one of the most prosperous of Linn county farmers, residing three miles this side of Brownsville, committed suicide by shooting himself with a revolver. The act was committed beside a spring a hundred yards from the house. He had gone to the spring before breakfast, after which he intended to return to the spring and immediately returned of the right ear with shot himself back of the ball coming out back of the other ear. He fell forward into the spring. Mrs. Cochran heard the report and fearing the worst, rushed to where she found her husband lying dead, his head in about two feet of water. Justice S. P. Barger called a jury and found according to the facts. The evidence indicated that Mr. Cochran had been contemplating the deed for a week or more. He had not been exactly in his right mind. His stomach had been in a bad condition for some time, a fact that preyed on his mind. A brother was in the asylum a year or two ago. The deceased was 54 years of age and leaves a wife and three or four children. He was a man well liked, and his death will be generally regretted.

Fairmount Items.

Mrs. McBee is quite sick.

Vacant houses are filling up.

R. Smith, of Mohawk, is hauling lumber for a new dwelling.

The Barr Bros' knife works are now turning out cutlery. The machinery will start up in a few days.

Mrs. Sarah Whitmore has the lumber on the ground and mechanics are now at work on a new dwelling near the postoffice.

Mr. Smith, late of Virginia, will soon start a basket and cooper shop, using oak grubs for basket work and red cedar for tubs and buckets.

AFLOAT ONCE MORE.—Florence West: Saturday last as the tug was steaming down the river on her way to Coos bay, she discovered the Mary Gilbert afloat, having worked herself off the sand spit where she has been for several weeks, so she took her in tow and brought her to Florence. She is now at Acme loading with lumber.

The Carnegie Homestead plant resumed business today, without waiting to see how the tariff will go. Only political demagogues lay the recent dull times to a fear of the tariff. Sensible people know that a party in favor of a tariff for revenue only are not going to legislate against the interests of the people, but rather in their favor.

However loudly Mrs. Lense may yell "calamity," says an exchange, she is taking good care of number one. Since she started in with the populist movement she has paid off considerable mortgages on the farm and her husband's drug store, purchased a city home in Wichita, and sent her children to expensive schools.

Labor day was celebrated in Portland by a grand demonstration. It was estimated that over 1,000 men took part in the parade. Several speeches were made.

Low prices and scarcity of money will render the state fair which commences Monday, a dull one.

The San Francisco mid-winter fair will bring a large number of desirable people to the coast. Many of them will invest and locate.

Newspapers established in outlying districts for the purpose of securing land advertisements can change their politics as quick as any administration.

Chinamen have been driven from the Marion county hop fields. There is enough white labor to do the work and Chinese competition will not be allowed.

A few hop growers are contracting their hop crop. The price, 15 to 17 cents, gives the grower a fair profit. Most of the hop men have secured picking money by some turn or other.

The notorious John Davenport, who was wont to supervise elections in New York City, will soon lose his job. The Federal election law giving supervisors authority to override the representatives of the states will soon be repealed.

The projectors of the suspended Portland savings bank had great heads. They subscribed $250,000 capital stock, they may not have paid all in, and trusting depositors gave them $2,500,000 to operate on. Here is a case where the outside money made the game and as usual the outsiders get the worst of it.

We are getting gold from foreign countries because they must have produce and breadstuffs. The only way they can get the gold back is to collect on our securities they hold or in the course of trade. The goldbug would have you believe that laws can be passed to retain the precious metal, contrary to the natural law of supply and demand. As well try to legislate John Doe rich and keep him so.

Secretary Carlisle is on the right track when he proposes to set the mints at work coining silver bullion in the treasury. Now let him pay it out the same as gold and the vexed question of monometallism or bimetalism will be partially settled. The next congress will put on the finishing touches, and many of the present congressmen who have shirked their duty and pledged will not be there to vote.

BORN.—In Eugene, Oregon, Sept. 1, 1893, to the wife of Walter Fisk, a daughter.

Florence Items.

West, Sept. 1.

One day last week Thomas Sauter of Acme returned from his trip east and to the world's fair. He speaks in highest terms of Oregon's exhibits.

Geo. W. Howell of Portland came to Florence Tuesday. He is one of five, who are gathering information to be used in compiling the Oregon State Directory.

Mrs. John Kelly of Springfield and Mrs. A. Kelly and two children of Eugene came to Florence last Thursday evening. On Friday morning they went to the cape returning here the same evening and the next morning they departed for their homes in the valley.

Died.—At Acme, on Thursday, August 24, 1893, Mrs. Lucy Johnson, wife of L. G. Johnson. She had been a patient sufferer for many long weeks when death stepped in and relieved her of her suffering and pain. She leaves a husband and one child, a little girl three years old, besides numerous friends who have the sympathy of the community in their sorrow.

Mrs. John Kelly of Springfield and Mrs. A. Kelly and two children of Eugene came to Florence last Thursday evening. On Friday morning they went to the cape returning here the same evening and the next morning they departed for their homes in the valley.

Died.—At Acme, on Thursday, August 24, 1893, Mrs. Lucy Johnson, wife of L. G. Johnson. She had been a patient sufferer for many long weeks when death stepped in and relieved her of her suffering and pain. She leaves a husband and one child, a little girl three years old, besides numerous friends who have the sympathy of the community in their sorrow.

Mrs. John Kelly of Springfield and Mrs. A. Kelly and two children of Eugene came to Florence last Thursday evening. On Friday morning they went to the cape returning here the same evening and the next morning they departed for their homes in the valley.

Died.—At Acme, on Thursday, August 24, 1893, Mrs. Lucy Johnson, wife of L. G. Johnson. She had been a patient sufferer for many long weeks when death stepped in and relieved her of her suffering and pain. She leaves a husband and one child, a little girl three years old, besides numerous friends who have the sympathy of the community in their sorrow.

Mrs. John Kelly of Springfield and Mrs. A. Kelly and two children of Eugene came to Florence last Thursday evening. On Friday morning they went to the cape returning here the same evening and the next morning they departed for their homes in the valley.

Died.—At Acme, on Thursday, August 24, 1893, Mrs. Lucy Johnson, wife of L. G. Johnson. She had been a patient sufferer for many long weeks when death stepped in and relieved her of her suffering and pain. She leaves a husband and one child, a little girl three years old, besides numerous friends who have the sympathy of the community in their sorrow.

Mrs. John Kelly of Springfield and Mrs. A. Kelly and two children of Eugene came to Florence last Thursday evening. On Friday morning they went to the cape returning here the same evening and the next morning they departed for their homes in the valley.

Died.—At Acme, on Thursday, August 24, 1893, Mrs. Lucy Johnson, wife of L. G. Johnson. She had been a patient sufferer for many long weeks when death stepped in and relieved her of her suffering and pain. She leaves a husband and one child, a little girl three years old, besides numerous friends who have the sympathy of the community in their sorrow.

Mrs. John Kelly of Springfield and Mrs. A. Kelly and two children of Eugene came to Florence last Thursday evening. On Friday morning they went to the cape returning here the same evening and the next morning they departed for their homes in the valley.

Died.—At Acme, on Thursday, August 24, 1893, Mrs. Lucy Johnson, wife of L. G. Johnson. She had been a patient sufferer for many long weeks when death stepped in and relieved her of her suffering and pain. She leaves a husband and one child, a little girl three years old, besides numerous friends who have the sympathy of the community in their sorrow.

Mrs. John Kelly of Springfield and Mrs. A. Kelly and two children of Eugene came to Florence last Thursday evening. On Friday morning they went to the cape returning here the same evening and the next morning they departed for their homes in the valley.

Died.—At Acme, on Thursday, August 24, 1893, Mrs. Lucy Johnson, wife of L. G. Johnson. She had been a patient sufferer for many long weeks when death stepped in and relieved her of her suffering and pain. She leaves a husband and one child, a little girl three years old, besides numerous friends who have the sympathy of the community in their sorrow.

Mrs. John Kelly of Springfield and Mrs. A. Kelly and two children of Eugene came to Florence last Thursday evening. On Friday morning they went to the cape returning here the same evening and the next morning they departed for their homes in the valley.

Died.—At Acme, on Thursday, August 24, 1893, Mrs. Lucy Johnson, wife of L. G. Johnson. She had been a patient sufferer for many long weeks when death stepped in and relieved her of her suffering and pain. She leaves a husband and one child, a little girl three years old, besides numerous friends who have the sympathy of the community in their sorrow.

Mrs. John Kelly of Springfield and Mrs. A. Kelly and two children of Eugene came to Florence last Thursday evening. On Friday morning they went to the cape returning here the same evening and the next morning they departed for their homes in the valley.

Died.—At Acme, on Thursday, August 24, 1893, Mrs. Lucy Johnson, wife of L. G. Johnson. She had been a patient sufferer for many long weeks when death stepped in and relieved her of her suffering and pain. She leaves a husband and one child, a little girl three years old, besides numerous friends who have the sympathy of the community in their sorrow.

Mrs. John Kelly of Springfield and Mrs. A. Kelly and two children of Eugene came to Florence last Thursday evening. On Friday morning they went to the cape returning here the same evening and the next morning they departed for their homes in the valley.

Died.—At Acme, on Thursday, August 24, 1893, Mrs. Lucy Johnson, wife of L. G. Johnson. She had been a patient sufferer for many long weeks when death stepped in and relieved her of her suffering and pain. She leaves a husband and one child, a little girl three years old, besides numerous friends who have the sympathy of the community in their sorrow.

Mrs. John Kelly of Springfield and Mrs. A. Kelly and two children of Eugene came to Florence last Thursday evening. On Friday morning they went to the cape returning here the same evening and the next morning they departed for their homes in the valley.

Died.—At Acme, on Thursday, August 24, 1893, Mrs. Lucy Johnson, wife of L. G. Johnson. She had been a patient sufferer for many long weeks when death stepped in and relieved her of her suffering and pain. She leaves a husband and one child, a little girl three years old, besides numerous friends who have the sympathy of the community in their sorrow.

Mrs. John Kelly of Springfield and Mrs. A. Kelly and two children of Eugene came to Florence last Thursday evening. On Friday morning they went to the cape returning here the same evening and the next morning they departed for their homes in the valley.

Died.—At Acme, on Thursday, August 24, 1893, Mrs. Lucy Johnson, wife of L. G. Johnson. She had been a patient sufferer for many long weeks when death stepped in and relieved her of her suffering and pain. She leaves a husband and one child, a little girl three years old, besides numerous friends who have the sympathy of the community in their sorrow.

Mrs. John Kelly of Springfield and Mrs. A. Kelly and two children of Eugene came to Florence last Thursday evening. On Friday morning they went to the cape returning here the same evening and the next morning they departed for their homes in the valley.

Died.—At Acme, on Thursday, August 24, 1893, Mrs. Lucy Johnson, wife of L. G. Johnson. She had been a patient sufferer for many long weeks when death stepped in and relieved her of her suffering and pain. She leaves a husband and one child, a little girl three years old, besides numerous friends who have the sympathy of the community in their sorrow.

Mrs. John Kelly of Springfield and Mrs. A. Kelly and two children of Eugene came to Florence last Thursday evening. On Friday morning they went to the cape returning here the same evening and the next morning they departed for their homes in the valley.

Died.—At Acme, on Thursday, August 24, 1893, Mrs. Lucy Johnson, wife of L. G. Johnson. She had been a patient sufferer for many long weeks when death stepped in and relieved her of her suffering and pain. She leaves a husband and one child, a little girl three years old, besides numerous friends who have the sympathy of the community in their sorrow.

Mrs. John Kelly of Springfield and Mrs. A. Kelly and two children of Eugene came to Florence last Thursday evening. On Friday morning they went to the cape returning here the same evening and the next morning they departed for their homes in the valley.

Died.—At Acme, on Thursday, August 24, 1893, Mrs. Lucy Johnson, wife of L. G. Johnson. She had been a patient sufferer for many long weeks when death stepped in and relieved her of her suffering and pain. She leaves a husband and one child, a little girl three years old, besides numerous friends who have the sympathy of the community in their sorrow.