demon, a son.

NOT DULL! WE ARE MAKING DULL TIMES PAY----PAY US AND PAY OUR CUSTOMERS!

We have made no bones about cutting prices-in fact, have advertised it; and those coming to our store find we have told the truth. The hard times has enabled us to buy goods remarkably CHEAP, and we are disposed to give those who patronize us some of the benefits, and thus our customers secure advantages far beyond the ordinary possi-

Congress has settled the silver question! The financial sky will soon be clear again!! We believe in the resources of this great country, and, while the POLITICIANS and OTHERS are talking over the QUESTION of how long it will take for money to become plentiful, we are attending to BUSINESS with no fear for the future. This country has been troubled the past six months with a new phase of THE GRIP!

HAVE YOU GOT IT?

We mean a "Grip" on every dollar they could get hold of, thus making times harder.

-SYMPTOMS-A disposition to slight the many unusual offerings held forth in our every department.

An indisposition to respond to our call for one dollar in eash in exchange for one dollar and fifty cents worth of

A tendency to postpone buying fall and winter goods when you can make a better selection NOW.
