

ASSEMBLY HALL MEETING.

Plans Submitted, But No Definite Conclusion Reached.

Another meeting to consider the subject of building an assembly hall was held in the First National bank parlors Saturday evening.

The meeting was called to order by Mayor Friendly. Rev. G. A. Blair, secretary. A committee from the Woman's Relief Corps reported and submitted the plan of a building designed by F. T. Whitecomb, the estimated cost of which is $4500.

J. C. Goodale reported that the original committee had no further report to make. A motion was adopted to take under consideration the proposition of the W. B. C. for one week at the expiration of which time they be given an answer.

ASSEMBLY HALL PLANS.

The plans submitted show a building with a ground plan 95 by 125 feet with a 25-foot ceiling. The front elevation has a wide entrance, is well supplied with windows and is surmounted by towers on the corners.

Real Estate Transfers.

E. J. McClanahan to J. W. Evans, 62.50 acres; $400. J. W. Evans to E. J. McClanahan, 10 acres; $400.

DEEDS.

The many friends of John Blakely were pained to learn that he died at his home in Middle Fork precinct Sunday. He had been suffering from consumption for over a year and for the past two months had been confined to his bed.

DEATHS.

A GOOD MIXING PROPERTY.—A. E. Davis, superintendent of the Bohemia Gold Mill & Mining Company, left for Los Angeles from Cottage Grove Saturday to pass the winter.

WHERE THE GHOST WALKS.

PRELIMINARY.—Nov. 23.—The apparition of a barefooted woman dressed in black with her long hair hanging loose is nightly seen on the bridge over Brush creek. The believers in the supernatural connect its appearance with the remarkable mystery which puzzled the neighborhood years ago.

ONE MONTH'S IMMIGRANTS.

NEW YORK, Nov. 23.—Dr. Joseph H. Seaver, commissioner of immigration, has caused to be compiled some very interesting statistics in relation to immigration for the month of October.

THE EMPEROR'S WILL SUPREMACY.

BERLIN, Nov. 18.—Germany declares that the emperor in an address to the recruits yesterday said: "I want Christian soldiers who say the Lord's prayer. Soldiers are not to have a will of their own. You must have but one will; one law, and that is my law."

FLED FROM KANSAS.

Geo. G. Holt, Accused of Embezzlement and Perjury, Arrested in Eugene.

Saturday morning Marshal Eastland arrested Geo. G. Holt, wanted by Sheriff Kemp, of Goodland, Sherman county, Kansas, to answer the charges of embezzlement and perjury. Holt arrived here Friday, and as a description had preceded him he was promptly arrested while inquiring for his mail at the postoffice.

Holt, who is a prepossessing appearing young man, was turned over to Sheriff Noland and placed in jail for safekeeping, pending the arrival of Sheriff Kemp, who left Kansas Saturday with a requisition. He is expected to arrive in Eugene about Thursday.

PERSONAL.

Mrs. L. Blyson is in Albany visiting her parents. W. H. Spangh, of Junction precinct, visited Eugene today. H. A. Brown returned from down the valley last evening.

DEATHS.

Miss Edna Lewis, who is ill with typhoid fever at Woodburn, is reported to be slowly improving. We learn that J. R. Rhinehart and wife will permanently reside near Stockton, Cal., hereafter.

RAIL ACROSS THE TRACK.

As the Roseburg local came up this afternoon an iron rail was discovered across the track about one and one-half miles above Harrisburg, near where the long trestle begins.

THOUGHTLESS TALK.

TOPEKA, Kas., Nov. 20.—Senator John Martin, who arrived home from Washington, said today in regard to Mrs. Lease's recent outbreak: "I do not believe she knew what she was about when she said what she did about fusion; women always act upon the impulse of the moment, without much thought as to what they are saying. While I do not say what course should be pursued in the state next year, yet I believe fusion will not be thrown over."

THE MERCURY IS DOOMED.

PORTLAND, Nov. 18.—B. P. Watson and O. P. Mason, publishers of the Sunday Mercury, were arrested tonight on a charge of selling obscene matter to minors. The police confiscated all the copies of the newspaper in the hands of the newsboys, together with the forms of the paper.

HEALING THROUGH PRAYER.

MONMOUTH, Ill., 23.—Rev. J. G. Stewart, an evangelist of some note, who was recently suspended from the Monmouth presbytery for preaching the doctrine of divine healing, contrary to the principles of the church, and who subsequently appealed his case to the synod of Illinois, is now actively engaged in promulgating these same doctrines before large audiences here each night.

THE CASE OF THE RUSSIAN CONVICTS.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 19.—Serious questions of international law have arisen in the case of the Russian convicts under arrest at San Francisco, and Secretary Carlisle has turned over the entire matter to the state department.

NO AMERICAN CARDINAL.

ROME, Nov. 16.—The pope is held a consistory in February when seven cardinals will be created. For a generation of centuries the papacy has been in the hands of the French, and it is generally expected that the next pope will be a Frenchman.

MONDAY, NOV. 20.

Good congregations at the churches yesterday.

E. L. Campbell, of Portland, was in town over Sunday. G. Hubbard, the hop buyer, came up on the local today. E. O. Potter returned home on the local this afternoon.

HE SAVED A RICH MAN'S LIFE.

MEXICO, Mo., Nov. 20.—Word was received here today that W. V. Roberts, a barber of Bush Hill, a small town nine miles from here, had fallen heir to a fortune in Las Vegas, N. M., left him by one John Bennett, whom Roberts saved from drowning in the Sangamon river 20 years ago.

THE STRANDED RAFT.

MADEIRA, Or., Nov. 18.—The big cigar-shaped raft containing 3,515 piles of an average length of seventy-five feet is now aground on south spit inside of the bar and near where the Emily went ashore. The condition of the raft is critical and it is expected it will be a total loss.

NO CHANGE IN DATE.

BOSTON, Nov. 18.—The Columbia today fairly won the title of queen of the ocean. She steamed from Cape Ann to Cape Porpoise on a trial trip with the United States board of inspection on board. Her average speed for 88 knots was 22.81 knots.

KILLED BY SNOWDRIFTING.

TALOMA, Nov. 19.—James King, aged 50, a resident of South Bend, was found dead this morning with his head crushed. It is supposed he was snowdrifted. He was a son-in-law of Mrs. Charlotte Fetting, murdered in Seattle several months ago.

HEALING THROUGH PRAYER.

MONMOUTH, Ill., 23.—Rev. J. G. Stewart, an evangelist of some note, who was recently suspended from the Monmouth presbytery for preaching the doctrine of divine healing, contrary to the principles of the church, and who subsequently appealed his case to the synod of Illinois, is now actively engaged in promulgating these same doctrines before large audiences here each night.

THE CASE OF THE RUSSIAN CONVICTS.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 19.—Serious questions of international law have arisen in the case of the Russian convicts under arrest at San Francisco, and Secretary Carlisle has turned over the entire matter to the state department.

NO AMERICAN CARDINAL.

ROME, Nov. 16.—The pope is held a consistory in February when seven cardinals will be created. For a generation of centuries the papacy has been in the hands of the French, and it is generally expected that the next pope will be a Frenchman.

A LUCKY BARBER.

He is Made Heir of More Than $80,000.

MEXICO, Mo., Nov. 20.—Word was received here today that W. V. Roberts, a barber of Bush Hill, a small town nine miles from here, had fallen heir to a fortune in Las Vegas, N. M., left him by one John Bennett, whom Roberts saved from drowning in the Sangamon river 20 years ago.

THE STRANDED RAFT.

MADEIRA, Or., Nov. 18.—The big cigar-shaped raft containing 3,515 piles of an average length of seventy-five feet is now aground on south spit inside of the bar and near where the Emily went ashore. The condition of the raft is critical and it is expected it will be a total loss.

NO CHANGE IN DATE.

BOSTON, Nov. 18.—The Columbia today fairly won the title of queen of the ocean. She steamed from Cape Ann to Cape Porpoise on a trial trip with the United States board of inspection on board. Her average speed for 88 knots was 22.81 knots.

KILLED BY SNOWDRIFTING.

TALOMA, Nov. 19.—James King, aged 50, a resident of South Bend, was found dead this morning with his head crushed. It is supposed he was snowdrifted. He was a son-in-law of Mrs. Charlotte Fetting, murdered in Seattle several months ago.

HEALING THROUGH PRAYER.

MONMOUTH, Ill., 23.—Rev. J. G. Stewart, an evangelist of some note, who was recently suspended from the Monmouth presbytery for preaching the doctrine of divine healing, contrary to the principles of the church, and who subsequently appealed his case to the synod of Illinois, is now actively engaged in promulgating these same doctrines before large audiences here each night.

THE CASE OF THE RUSSIAN CONVICTS.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 19.—Serious questions of international law have arisen in the case of the Russian convicts under arrest at San Francisco, and Secretary Carlisle has turned over the entire matter to the state department.

NO AMERICAN CARDINAL.

ROME, Nov. 16.—The pope is held a consistory in February when seven cardinals will be created. For a generation of centuries the papacy has been in the hands of the French, and it is generally expected that the next pope will be a Frenchman.

Webfoot is herself again.

An astonishing record has been made by the cruiser Columbia.

She could overhaul the swiftest ocean deerhound of the Atlantic. The secret of her phenomenal speed lies in her triple screws and engines.

IT IS ATTRACTING MUCH ATTENTION.

CHAMPAIGN, Ill., Nov. 23.—Ex-Alderman Burr and Alderman Aspern represented by three of Champaign's strongest legal firms, have asked the court to enjoin the city from paying any fees to attorneys for defending Policeman Thomas Hogan, who was indicted by the grand jury on a charge of false imprisonment.

THE CASE OF THE RUSSIAN CONVICTS.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 19.—Serious questions of international law have arisen in the case of the Russian convicts under arrest at San Francisco, and Secretary Carlisle has turned over the entire matter to the state department.

NO AMERICAN CARDINAL.

ROME, Nov. 16.—The pope is held a consistory in February when seven cardinals will be created. For a generation of centuries the papacy has been in the hands of the French, and it is generally expected that the next pope will be a Frenchman.

THE EMPEROR'S WILL SUPREMACY.

BERLIN, Nov. 18.—Germany declares that the emperor in an address to the recruits yesterday said: "I want Christian soldiers who say the Lord's prayer. Soldiers are not to have a will of their own. You must have but one will; one law, and that is my law."

HEALING THROUGH PRAYER.

MONMOUTH, Ill., 23.—Rev. J. G. Stewart, an evangelist of some note, who was recently suspended from the Monmouth presbytery for preaching the doctrine of divine healing, contrary to the principles of the church, and who subsequently appealed his case to the synod of Illinois, is now actively engaged in promulgating these same doctrines before large audiences here each night.

THE CASE OF THE RUSSIAN CONVICTS.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 19.—Serious questions of international law have arisen in the case of the Russian convicts under arrest at San Francisco, and Secretary Carlisle has turned over the entire matter to the state department.

NO AMERICAN CARDINAL.

ROME, Nov. 16.—The pope is held a consistory in February when seven cardinals will be created. For a generation of centuries the papacy has been in the hands of the French, and it is generally expected that the next pope will be a Frenchman.

THE EMPEROR'S WILL SUPREMACY.

BERLIN, Nov. 18.—Germany declares that the emperor in an address to the recruits yesterday said: "I want Christian soldiers who say the Lord's prayer. Soldiers are not to have a will of their own. You must have but one will; one law, and that is my law."

HEALING THROUGH PRAYER.

MONMOUTH, Ill., 23.—Rev. J. G. Stewart, an evangelist of some note, who was recently suspended from the Monmouth presbytery for preaching the doctrine of divine healing, contrary to the principles of the church, and who subsequently appealed his case to the synod of Illinois, is now actively engaged in promulgating these same doctrines before large audiences here each night.

THE CASE OF THE RUSSIAN CONVICTS.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 19.—Serious questions of international law have arisen in the case of the Russian convicts under arrest at San Francisco, and Secretary Carlisle has turned over the entire matter to the state department.

A SENSATION.

An Injunction to Prevent the Payment of Counsel Fees.

CHAMPAIGN, Ill., Nov. 23.—Ex-Alderman Burr and Alderman Aspern represented by three of Champaign's strongest legal firms, have asked the court to enjoin the city from paying any fees to attorneys for defending Policeman Thomas Hogan, who was indicted by the grand jury on a charge of false imprisonment.

IT IS ATTRACTING MUCH ATTENTION.

CHAMPAIGN, Ill., Nov. 23.—Ex-Alderman Burr and Alderman Aspern represented by three of Champaign's strongest legal firms, have asked the court to enjoin the city from paying any fees to attorneys for defending Policeman Thomas Hogan, who was indicted by the grand jury on a charge of false imprisonment.

THE CASE OF THE RUSSIAN CONVICTS.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 19.—Serious questions of international law have arisen in the case of the Russian convicts under arrest at San Francisco, and Secretary Carlisle has turned over the entire matter to the state department.

NO AMERICAN CARDINAL.

ROME, Nov. 16.—The pope is held a consistory in February when seven cardinals will be created. For a generation of centuries the papacy has been in the hands of the French, and it is generally expected that the next pope will be a Frenchman.

THE EMPEROR'S WILL SUPREMACY.

BERLIN, Nov. 18.—Germany declares that the emperor in an address to the recruits yesterday said: "I want Christian soldiers who say the Lord's prayer. Soldiers are not to have a will of their own. You must have but one will; one law, and that is my law."

HEALING THROUGH PRAYER.

MONMOUTH, Ill., 23.—Rev. J. G. Stewart, an evangelist of some note, who was recently suspended from the Monmouth presbytery for preaching the doctrine of divine healing, contrary to the principles of the church, and who subsequently appealed his case to the synod of Illinois, is now actively engaged in promulgating these same doctrines before large audiences here each night.

THE CASE OF THE RUSSIAN CONVICTS.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 19.—Serious questions of international law have arisen in the case of the Russian convicts under arrest at San Francisco, and Secretary Carlisle has turned over the entire matter to the state department.

NO AMERICAN CARDINAL.

ROME, Nov. 16.—The pope is held a consistory in February when seven cardinals will be created. For a generation of centuries the papacy has been in the hands of the French, and it is generally expected that the next pope will be a Frenchman.

THE EMPEROR'S WILL SUPREMACY.

BERLIN, Nov. 18.—Germany declares that the emperor in an address to the recruits yesterday said: "I want Christian soldiers who say the Lord's prayer. Soldiers are not to have a will of their own. You must have but one will; one law, and that is my law."

HEALING THROUGH PRAYER.

MONMOUTH, Ill., 23.—Rev. J. G. Stewart, an evangelist of some note, who was recently suspended from the Monmouth presbytery for preaching the doctrine of divine healing, contrary to the principles of the church, and who subsequently appealed his case to the synod of Illinois, is now actively engaged in promulgating these same doctrines before large audiences here each night.

THE CASE OF THE RUSSIAN CONVICTS.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 19.—Serious questions of international law have arisen in the case of the Russian convicts under arrest at San Francisco, and Secretary Carlisle has turned over the entire matter to the state department.