Uncle Philip Mulkey Dead.
Daily Guard, Dec. 4.

Another highly esteemed pioneer member has gone to his eternal home. Uncle Philip Mulkey, well and widely known throughout Oregon, died at the residence of his daughter, Mrs. J. B. Harris, in this city yesterday morning. He was over 91 years of age and had been declining health for several years past, and a severe attack of grippe proved too much for old age.

Deceased was born in Baren county, Kentucky, October 27, 1802. He was married November 20, 1820, to Miss Martha H. Martin, who died October 24, 1882. It was about the time of this marriage that he entered the Christian ministry. The family lived a few years in Illinois and Missouri and afterwards came west crossing the plains in 1853. In the same year they settled in Lane county 2 1/2 miles west of this city but since the children were grown Rev. Mulkey had lived in Eugene several years. There were eleven children, the fruits of this first marriage, of whom six are now living, three boys and three girls.

His second marriage occurred on April 5th, 1863, to Mrs. Phoebe Brashers. This wife died on the 23d of last September. The family had a large number of children, and at the time of his death he was living at his daughter's residence. Since coming to Oregon his time has been almost wholly devoted to the ministry. He has occupied pastorates both in Lane and Benton counties, and at times preached in nearly every part of the state.

Mr. Mulkey was a true Christian, a noble, honest man, generous and charitable, and the people of Lane county mourn his death.

The funeral took place this afternoon at 1 o'clock from the residence of J. B. Harris to the Mulkey cemetery. Rev. Weimer conducting the services. A large number of relatives and friends attended.

DIED.—At the residence of J. W. Weber, in Eugene, Oregon, Dec. 2, 1893, at 6:10 p. m., Amelia, beloved wife of Valentine Kummel, aged 22 years. She leaves an infant child only two weeks old, a husband, father, two sisters and many relatives and friends to mourn her death. The funeral will be held at the residence of the grand jury, on Monday, Dec. 11, at 10 o'clock a. m. in the Catholic church, Rev. F. S. Beck conducting the same in an impressive manner. The interment took place in the Catholic cemetery south of town.

LATER.—Since the above was written an incident occurred which has created a small sensation. The features of the lady looked so natural a death that a few persons entertained doubts as to her being really dead. The life never stiffened as is usual in death and when the coffin was opened at the grave to allow mourning friends the cremation of interment was suspended. When the report was received here the few who heard it anxiously awaited further news.

When Dr. Brown, the physician called, returned he stated that there were no signs of life in the body. The changes were due to natural causes.

ANOTHER FAILURE.—The steamer Husag was announced to arrive here yesterday afternoon with about forty tons of freight for our local merchants and sixty tons for southern Oregon, and all the trucks were promptly at the river to transfer the freight, but she did not appear. A dispatch from the captain of the boat on his return to Harrisburg stated that the cause of the failure to arrive was that the channel of the river had changed just below the mouth of the McKenzie river, filling the old waterway with a huge bar and the new channel was full of snags and trees, and it was impossible to pass the point. Some Eugene parties who went down the river in a small boat say the river has not changed, but that two large trees on opposite banks of the stream have fallen across the river thereby making a temporary obstruction. They think the same can be easily removed.

EDUCATION OFFICERS.—J. W. Geary Post, G. A. R., elected officers last Friday evening for the ensuing year as follows: S. W. Taylor, Commandant; J. Burlingame, Jr., Vice Com.; E. F. Chapman, Jr., Vice Com.; H. D. Wyle, chaplain; J. P. Gill, surgeon; Frank Reiser, quartermaster; S. R. Williams, officer of the day; O. Green, officer of the guard. Delegates to the department convention which meets in Roseburg, J. Burlingame, E. F. Chapman, W. T. Martin, H. D. Wyle, A. C. Jennings, Geo. W. Weider, alternates. T. B. Anderson, O. J. Foss, R. H. Ross, J. T. Rowland, J. W. Lakin and O. Green.

DID WELL.—Mr. Lewis says Oregon obtained 75 medals at the world's fair, ranking third among the states. It was in horticulture, being far ahead of peers, peaches, cherries, strawberries and collectively, collection of nuts, dried Oregon prunes, German and Hungarian prunes; 23 in agriculture, heretofore given, 12 in fisheries, 10 in mining, 2 in forestry, 4 in education, 3 and perhaps 5 in the women's department, 2 for horticulture. This figure is official.

Get One Year Each.

Portland Telegram, Dec. 4: Motions for new trials in the cases of O. P. Mason and Ben. P. Watson, convicted of publishing and circulating libelous and obscene literature, were overruled this morning and the men were sentenced to one year each in the county jail.

For over a week the late Mercury publishers have lain in the county jail, failing to obtain a new bondman. Today when their motion for a new trial was granted they responded delighted and cast down for the first time.

Mason in a long speech said that he meant harm to no man, and designated his prosecution as persecution, and, as before, charged his trial had been unfair, unjust, and that court and jury were prejudiced.

Before passing sentence, Judge Money made a few remarks. He said that, after the publication of the first libelous article on the private prosecutor, the defendant had not shown repentance, but repeated his malicious attacks on the court. Therefore, he concluded that leniency could be granted. The defendants age and his standing as a member of the legal profession could not be taken into account under the circumstances.

RESOLUTIONS.
WHEREAS, it has pleased the Supreme Ruler of the Universe to remove from our midst our comrade, Rev. G. J. Travis. Therefore,
Resolved, That the officers and members of the W. G. Post, No. 7, G. A. R., while we humbly submit to the act of Him who doeth all things well, we deeply feel the loss of this faithful, brave and honest man and soldier, and we extend to the bereaved family our heartfelt sympathy in their bereavement.

Resolved, That these testimonials shall be spread upon our minutes and published in the newspapers of this city, and a copy transmitted to the family of the deceased.

FIREMEN'S ELECTION.
Daily Guard, Dec. 4.
The annual election of the Eugene fire department is being held at the city hall this afternoon. The polls will close at 6 o'clock. The judges of election are John Higgins and R. E. Bristol; clerks, Carson Mathews and Guy Davis.

Two tickets are in the field, and the candidates for chief are Wm. Parsons and Charles Croser and W. T. Campbell; assistant chief, Wm. Parsons and David Linn.

The fire boys are doing considerable electioneering. It is expected that about 100 votes will be polled.
Daily Guard, Dec. 5.
At the firemen's election held yesterday afternoon 99 votes were cast, with the following result:

CHIEF ENGINEER.
Chas. Croser.....50
W. T. Campbell.....49
Croser's majority.....1

ASSISTANT CHIEF.
Wm. Parsons.....57
David Linn.....42
Parsons' majority.....15

The successful candidates are members of the Engine company, but were also supported by the Rescue hose team. Considerable enthusiasm was manifested by the members of the two above-named companies, after the result was announced.

OPALS.—H. N. Crain, the enterprising jeweler, will have an ad in tomorrow's issue which should be carefully read by all who intend making purchases for the holidays in his line. Among the many other beautiful articles displayed Mr. Crain in his store are a number of opals which he brought from Mexico himself and just recently had them placed in gold settings on rings, pins, etc., by a New York firm. They are a choice selection.

UNDER BOND.—James Fennell, who was brought back from Junction City on the charge of having attempted to bribe an officer, waived examination before Justice Kinsey this morning and was bound over to the grand jury. Relatives in Albany furnished the necessary bonds, and he was discharged from custody this afternoon.

THE DOMITORY.—A number of students commenced boarding as the new dormitory of the university this morning, although the building is not yet in complete order, some of the supplies having been delayed in arriving. Mr. Martin says that, when a few days over lying will be placed, when a day will be announced and the public invited to inspect the institution.

DIED.—At the family residence, in the northwestern part of Eugene, Saturday evening, December 24, 1893, of bilious-typhoid fever, John Parkerson, son of W. G. Parkerson and wife. The young man was greatly beloved by all who knew him, and his untimely death is deplored by all. The funeral took place this morning at 10 o'clock, from the family residence to the Oak Hill cemetery, eight miles west of Eugene.

MONKEY RETURNED.—A person entered Al. Auten's cigar store last Friday night by a rear door and stole therefrom about $80 that was secreted in an empty cigar box, besides taking a pistol. Mr. Auten asphyxiated a certain young man, whose name is withheld from publication on account of his parents, and last evening he was charged with the crime. He acknowledged his guilt and returned the money, and promised to hereafter lead an honest life, if he was not prosecuted.

DELEGATES RE-ELECTED.—E. H. & J. Co., No. 1, re-elected the following representatives to the board of delegates, Eugene Fire Department, last night: G. R. Christmas, R. R. Bristol and Guy Davis.

MONDAY, DEC. 4.

Three weeks from today is Christmas. Chas. Beadle visited Harrisburg today. Mesdames Hanchett and Luckey are improving. S. A. Hulth of Harrisburg spent Sunday at Eugene. W. L. Dystinger has returned to his home at Roseburg.

The churches all had good congregations yesterday. Marcellus Young went to Portland on this morning's local. Three funerals in Eugene today. A very unusual occurrence. Ed Test, a GIARD type, has gone to Portland to visit a few days.

Councilman Fisher is again able to be about his place of business. Mrs. R. H. Houston of Roseburg is visiting her parents in this city. Salome, Albany Astoria and Pendleton are holding city elections today.

Miss Lettie Johnson returned from a visit at Cottage Grove this morning. Studies were resumed at the State University and public schools again this morning. Hon. W. H. Craggett, a prominent Idaho politician, has announced that he will join the populist party.

J. J. Van Allen, recently appointed ambassador to Italy, respectfully declines to accept the appointment. Miss Anna Wiloughby returned home to Harrisburg this morning, accompanied by her sister, Mrs. Long.

Mrs. M. C. Wiley of California is spending several weeks visiting at the residence of H. D. Norton in this city. Frank Davey, state lecturer for the A. O. U. W., will deliver an address before the order here next Friday night.

Two hundred eastern conductors passed through Eugene bound for San Francisco, last night, on a special train. Bishop Morris has completed the 25th anniversary of his services as bishop of the Episcopal church of Oregon.

Conductor Chas. Wilson's pleasant visage is again to be seen on the Roseburg local. He made his first trip yesterday afternoon. Rev. J. E. Blair, of Salem, arrived on the local this afternoon, and will assist in the revival at the Cumberland Presbyterian church.

The south bound local did not reach here yesterday afternoon until 5:30 o'clock. A slide near Oregon City was the cause of the delay. Dr. Chapman lectured in Portland Saturday night to a large and appreciative audience. The effort is highly spoken of by the Portland press.

Mrs. Geo. H. Williams of Portland finishes a 40 days' fast today, and will make some interesting "starling declarations" in a few days. She is evidently demoralized. Miss Anna Mohr, of Corvallis, is visiting at the residence of A. K. Patterson for a few days. If she is successful in organizing a class in oil painting she will spend several weeks here.

Justice Kinsey and jury, with the help of Attorneys L. Blyden and Geo. Dees, are hearing a civil case in which the parties are Blume vs. Blume, from Pleasant Hill. Amount in controversy is about $150.

Washington, D. C., Republican: "Katie Putnam is a thorough artist. In her songs and dances she is eminently satisfactory, and wins genuine applause. She enters truly and heartily into her role, and brings before her hearers a realistic picture as true as well as beautiful."

Several items have gone around about horses being sold for almost nothing at auction sales in Oregon, but remember this fact; if he has blood he brings big money regardless of what the horse is. A certain man for $500, when you can get all the calves you want for a few hundred cents.

A father and son in Coos county eloped with two sisters, a niece and a cousin respectively of their legal uncle and bearing the same name. People who would like to figure out kinship can take a slide and pencil and go to work on the father's kinship to the son and the relation by marriage of the two sisters.

AN ECONOMIC INDIAN.—Pendleton E. O.: Sam Wiak-Wiak is an Indian with a high forehead who knows the value of a dollar. This is why he has about $50 put safely away and is deemed something of a capitalist. Wiak-Wiak returned this morning from a trip to Portland, where he easily saved $50 by staying 25 days in jail. Sam was taken below and fined this amount on account of some misdemeanor, a spree he says. He had plenty of money to pay his fine, but he emphatically declared to the court that he would not do so, and cheerfully went to jail. Sam says the Portland skookum house is not a bad place to be in. "Me eat, smoke, play cards, hab heap good time," he remarked. Web-foot weather, however, pulled upon him.

WHICH IS THE LARGEST?—Albany papers are always claiming that town to be about one-third larger than Eugene, but it is only a "claim." Yesterday that city had a very exciting election and the total vote polled was 960. Eugene at its last city election, April 3, 1893, polled 732 votes. Comment is unnecessary.

SCHEDULE CHANGED.—The schedule time of running the street cars has been changed, the new time going into effect today. The cars leave the depot at the half hour and the university at the quarter, when formerly it was the reverse.

EXTENSIVE PLANTING.—E. M. Carpenter will plant 100 acres of Italian prunes on his farm four miles easterly from Eugene this season. His trees are already on the ground.

TUESDAY, DEC. 5.

Duncan Scott is in Eugene today. Dr. T. D. Driver visited Junction today. Albany has a new postoffice building. Circuit court of Douglas county is in session.

James Fennell has left for other quarters. Jonathan Bourne Jr. has returned to Portland. County commissioner's court convenes tomorrow. Postmaster Carrin of Cottage Grove visited Eugene today.

The Albany firemen's election will take place next Monday. Late trains are the rule nowadays. Too much rain and storm. The Portland smuggling cases have been continued until next week.

Dr. C. E. Loomis went to Yoncalla on a professional visit this afternoon. M. W. Belslow returned to his home at Farmington, Wash., this morning. Several members of Volney Henenway's family are sick with the measles.

One convert reported at the Cumberland Presbyterian meeting last evening. Roseman, the trotter, was sold in Salem Saturday on a chattel mortgage for $500. Mrs. W. Withrow and John Withrow returned from a visit to Salem this afternoon.

Some additional shoveling has been done in the county assessor's office. It was needed. The county road has been opened from Judd's point to the Springfield L. O. O. E. cemetery.

Hillsboro, Tillamook, Oregon City, Pendleton and Independence held city elections yesterday. Salem held a city election yesterday. The republicans elected three councilmen and the democrats one.

Uncle Jimmy Scott is very ill at the residence of his daughter in this city, and his recovery is despaired of. A. F. Mann, agent for the Parks remedies of LeRoy, N. Y., was in town today placing the goods of his firm.

The state board of equalization is in session at Salem. Attorney Woodcock of the second district, is in attendance. Gen. Pickett will leave in a few days for California where he will spend the winter, most of the time in San Francisco.

The first one of the dances of the Eugene social and dancing club will be given Saturday evening at Conser's hall. The city is having the old iron door formerly used on the old county jail placed as an outside door on the city jail building.

Miss Mary Van Dran, who has been visiting friends in this city for several days returned to her home at Albany this morning. Mrs. R. Garrison arrived home from Junction this afternoon accompanied by her daughter, Mrs. Daisy Anderson, and little baby.

In the last issue of the A. O. U. W. Reporter, published at Portland an excellent article appears from the pen of Prof. R. J. Hawthorne, P. G. M., entitled, "Look Ahead."

Mrs. W. H. Alexander went to Cottage Grove this afternoon where she will spend several weeks instructing a class in oil painting. This lady is a good artist and a successful teacher. The river bottom above town received more damage from the recent high water. It is impossible to foretell what channel the river will eventually take. There are now three channels.

The case of Blume vs. Blume came to an end about 1:30 o'clock last night when the jury brought in a verdict for plaintiff for about $25. Another case between the same parties is on trial this afternoon before Judge Kinsey and a jury. The amount sued for is $130.

The city election at Albany yesterday resulted as follows: L. Flina, rep., mayor; N. J. Henton, rep., recorder; E. A. Parker, rep., treasurer; C. O. Lee, dem., marshal; councilmen, D. S. Schell, rep., Charles Pfeiffer, dem., D. M. Walters, rep.

There was a shoot for beef on the Coyote at Clay Woods' the other day. Frank Hadley is not very confident of his ability to shoot, and asked some of the other boys to shoot his chances. They all refused, when, to their astonishment and dismay, Frank shot and won all the beef in sight.

A big cedar log takes temporarily the place of the two broken piles of the east support of the covered apron of the Eugene bridge. The piling under the apron on that side is also rotten. These must be replaced by other piles or beams added. If the county wants that portion of the bridge from the first high water that comes.

Fossil Journal: Blind Johnny Keeney gave a dance in the Masonic hall Thursday evening. Not having been announced and being on Penney's day it was a financial failure, only eleven couples being present. When the results of the evening were counted into Johnny's hand, he exclaimed: "I never went a d-u on Penney any way!"
