Of Des Moines, Iowa, writes under date of March 23, 1893:

S. B. MED. MFG. CO.,
Dufur, Oregon.

GENTLEMEN: On arriving home last week, I found all well and anxiously waiting. Our little girl, eight and one-half years old, who had wasted away to 38 pounds, is now well, strong and vigorous, and well dressed up. S. B. Cough Cure has done its work well. Both of the children like it. Your S. B. Cough Cure has cured and kept away all hoarseness from me. So give it to every one, with greetings for all. Wishing you prosperity, we are,
Yours, MR. AND MRS. J. F. FORD.

If you wish to feel fresh and cheerful, and ready for the spring's work, cleanse the system with the Headache and Liver Cure, by taking two or three doses a week.

Ed. Lucas is to take charge of the Mapleton hotel, so we are informed.
Mr. Spangh, the populist, has, like the flight of time, come and gone. He condemned class legislation, then advocated the government making and loaning money to farmers at 2 per cent, which, of course, to the broad populist's mind, is not class legislation. It is not new to us, because we have heard it many times from the speaker, that he is opposed to education and to spending money for education and that he is not in favor of it now as at any time, that for speakers in the valley to assume that the citizens of Florence are an ignorant class is to openly affront our intelligence. To pretend that we are to take down in one gulp inconsistencies which illiteracy brings, is a presumption that our people resent. We can say to the populists that their cause received a Waterloo in the speech of Mr. Spangh.
The motive to place that report of the grange-affiliated investigating committee in a Salem paper is easily discerned. It is a presumption that our people resent. We can say to the populists that their cause received a Waterloo in the speech of Mr. Spangh.

There is little hope of money being appropriated for our harbor during this session of congress.
High water has continued in this river nearly all winter, and much drift wood is in the sluiceway, but the government jetty works have not been materially injured.

Our school still continues to prosper under the direction of P. C. Webb.
R. T. Driskill visited at this place Saturday.
Miss Manda Jones returned home Thursday, after a visit of several weeks with her sister Mrs. B. F. Smith.
The literary society is progressing finely, but will probably close soon on account of bad roads.

Off Wrong.—The papers of Oregon to quit a number are printing the following, crediting same to the Heppner Gazette: "Hereafter boys will not be allowed to smoke cigarettes and chew tobacco and spit on the floor of the churches here." That paper now says no such act was ever published in the Gazette. Heppner is an ordinary, rough and ready, wild and woolly, big-souled and royal-hearted bunch-grass town, but it is a little more than half civilized. Chewing tobacco in country churches has been the custom, filthy as is, from time immemorial, and some of this may have been indulged in here in times past. And maybe now occasionally some persons may be found who are thoughtless enough to use tobacco in that manner in our churches. But we draw the line at smoking cigarettes during divine services. Such has never been done in Heppner, to the knowledge of the Gazette. We may not all wear store clothes and socks, but we have a little self respect left yet.

DISTRIBUTION AT MILL CITY.—Monday's Albany Democrat: E. L. Wheeler, who has a business near Mill City, came to Albany this forenoon, leaving home without a cent, walking as far as Munkers, and riding the remainder of the way; the conductor permitting it rather than to put him off. He says matters are in a very bad shape around Mill City, and that distribution actually exists, giving facts that leave no question as to the correctness of the statement.

JUSTICE COURT.—Attorney J. E. Ames commenced suit in Justice Kinney's court yesterday against Ephraim L. Edmondson to recover $100 alleged to be due as attorney fees in the settlement of the Edmondson estate. The trial is set for Monday, February 5.

Steamer Eugene.
Daily Guard, Jan. 25.
Capt. F. B. Jones, of Portland, who is building the light-draft river steamer "Eugene," which will run between the metropolis and this city, was here yesterday. He states that his boat will be ready to make her first trip some time next month. She will draw 14 inches of water when loaded. Geo. F. Caw was appointed resident agent and will make all arrangements for shipping on this end of the line.
When the boat arrives here on her first trip it is intended that our citizens will present the steamer her colors with appropriate ceremony. This is the condition upon which she is to be christened "Eugene." If her trial trip proves satisfactory, arrangements and landing will be built on the river bank here.

Thomas Swift Dead.
Daily Guard, Jan. 25.
Word was received here today that Thomas Swift died at Cottage Grove last night at 12 o'clock. Deceased was born somewhere in the Eastern states in 1822 and came across the plains to Oregon in 1852. He settled upon a donation land claim a few miles south-west of Eugene and has ever since been a resident of Lane county. His only living relative here is Mrs. John Curpin, of Cottage Grove, at whose home he was residing at the time of his death. The funeral will occur in the latter town tomorrow.
Mr. Swift was widely known throughout the county, having been a prominent democratic politician in the days gone by. News of his demise will be sadly received by a host of friends. He was never married.

DIVORCE SUIT.—Mary C. Hawley has commenced suit for divorce from her husband, George Hawley. She asks that she be awarded $4,000 out of the property, that she be given the care and custody of their two minor children, a sufficient sum to support them, and $250 with which to prosecute the suit. She alleges cruel and inhuman treatment. They were married at Cottage Grove December 25th, 1882.

TUESDAY, JAN. 30.

Spring is nearing.
Buds are swelling.
Bright sunshine this afternoon.
A new court house is to be built in Harney county.
Commissioner James Parker is in town today.
Wm. Withers, of Springfield, was in town today.
Hon. E. P. Coleman, of Coburg, was in the city today.
Miss Nellie Hampton, of Goshen, is visiting Eugene friends.
Sidney Scott is confined to his room with a serious attack of lagnette.
Hon. C. K. Wilkinson is reported quite sick with malarial fever, in Portland.
J. M. Howe returned from a visit to Brownsville and Albany this afternoon.
Miss Jessie Lamson went to Roseburg this afternoon to visit friends for a few days.
Rev. P. R. Burnett is home from California, visiting with his family for a few weeks.

County Clerk Walker issued a marriage license this morning to Dennis E. Slagle and Ollie E. Lincoln.
The special midwinter fair issue of the Salem Daily Examiner which arrived this morning contains 70 pages. A mammoth edition.
A young man named John Stuntorf, of Monroe, Benton county, has been lost a week. He went hunting and it is feared cannot find his way out of the mountains.
The man who don't get up in the morning till 10 o'clock is liable to get left when the train of prosperity goes through. He is generally too lazy to catch a train of thought.

Monday's supreme court proceedings: On motion of J. Blyden, A. D. Flood was admitted upon certificate from the supreme court of Ohio to practice in all the courts of this state.
Since freight trains run only every other day, the local passenger trains run considerably mixed. This afternoon the train pulled out a larger load of freight than the passengers.
Ray Battenburg and Fred Harrington, two young men from Silverton, were committed to the county jail at Salem Saturday, to appear before the grand jury, to be charged with stealing harness.

We shall see 46 states by spring, instead of 44, if the bills already introduced to be introduced on New Mexico and Arizona get through congress. New Mexico's chances seem better than Arizona's.
Pendleton, Idaho. One need not go to California to see oranges grow. Mrs. Charles Fielding, of Water street, Pendleton, has a beautiful little tree only two years old, which is at present blooming, and already a tiny orange has made its appearance.
Salem Democrat: Mrs. F. N. Woodworth, of Howell Prairie, Saturday paid a fine of $10 and $25 costs in Justice Bateheler's court for assault and battery in breaking a milk picher over the head of her husband's brother, V. K. Woodworth, in a family row last Friday.

Harney Items: The county artesian well borers, we are informed, have reached a depth of 650 feet, and are now passing through a stratum of bluish clay and sandstone, which is presumed to overlie the artesian vein.
The Salvation Army is creating quite a religious sensation in Pendleton. With their pretty female lieutenants and the clatter and bang of their horns and drums they are, as it were, blowing a trumpet to the gates of heaven.—E.K.

From Salem comes the news that the supreme court affirmed the judgment of the lower court in the case of George Morey, the murderer of Gus Barry at Portland, and unless the governor exercises his prerogative, he will expiate his crime on the gallows.
Journal: Action has been commenced in the circuit court for Marion county by Bonham & Holmes against H. S. Simon to secure the payment of $55 due for legal services in the bribery case against him at the October term. The attorneys' fees amounted to $100 of which $15 has been paid.

A distressing case of poverty is in the hands of Hillsboro surgeons. A small boy was taken some weeks ago with typhoid fever. He recovered, but for want of proper nourishment tuberculosis of the tissues of the legs and bones set in. One leg has been amputated, and it is feared that the knife and saw will have to be applied to the other.
The Dalles have a few women who are decidedly brilliant. Not long since Rev. O. D. Taylor was treated to a coqueting at the hands of a fair schoolma'am, and now the Times-Mountain reports another encounter in which a woman took a prominent part. It says: "About 11 o'clock on Saturday evening, the recorder's office desiring a warrant of arrest for parties in the East End. His head had somewhat the appearance of having passed through a threshing machine, and he said that a man had held him while his wife belabored him with a potato masher."

Corvallis Items: We learn that a number of cases of this city have organized with a view to walking several miles every afternoon, the purpose being to reduce in flesh those who believe themselves too large, and for those to get on flesh who are of a slender build. The ladies evidently believe in the old saying, "It is a poor rule that won't work both ways." However, the daily exercise will certainly be of benefit to them and the club will no doubt have a large membership.

Prineville Review: Towns in the Willamette valley that have been going ahead of their resources have begun to realize that the practice of a little economy is an absolute necessity these hard times, and are beginning to cut down expenses by reducing officers salaries and retiring unnecessary officials. Prineville realized this fact several years ago, and the economy that has been practiced by the council has prevented the necessity of levying a tax since 1888. Since then all expenses of the town government have been paid out of the fines and licenses collected.

WILLIAM EAST.—Rev. E. P. Wilson, formerly pastor of the M. E. church of this city, and afterwards presiding elder of the conference, has resigned the pastorate of the Central Methodist church of Albany, to take effect February 15. He has been transferred from the Oregon conference to the Iowa conference and will locate at Storm Lake, in that state.

GOT NINETY DAYS.—E. A. Scott, the Salem fire-insurer, who had declined to plead guilty and receive a fine of 90 days, changed his mind and decided to stand trial. As a result he got 90 days instead in Recorder Edes' court Monday.

MISSISSIPPI.—Some 25 or 30 persons attended the populist speaking by W. H. Spangh Saturday.
Our temperance lodge is in a flourishing condition. Officers were elected at the last meeting, Friday evening.
Charlie Parsons and John Scott are candidates for R. D. Hawley's new job yard.
There was a dancing party at M. Kelley's last Thursday evening, in which a few young people participated.
The "chopping bee" in which some 20 men and boys are to indulge in today for the benefit of the destitute family of Henry James is an indication of first class humanity on the part of our generous citizens. A few persons alone have been assisting this family in their sickness for several weeks.
A number of young Creswellites attended a dance near Goshen Saturday evening.

There is talk of organizing a dancing club here. The fact is we need a hall. There are quite a number of young people in this place who delight in the "mystic whirl" and need a dance hall for social parties.
We are told that it is an indication of having "got left" when a young man's lips in these parts has been suddenly denuded of its downy covering. Judging from this, one would suppose our young ladies are getting rather particular with the aspirant youths. It is quite a lot of the boys about here are parting company with their mustaches?
The matter of candidates for nominations for county officers is being talked a little. We hear their friends speak of A. J. Johnson, of Creswell, for sheriff, on the republican ticket, and J. H. Wiltaker, our merchant, for county clerk on the democratic ticket. Both are good honest men.

We are having a few nice days at present. There is no snow in the mountains.
The measles are raging in this vicinity. Mrs. T. B. Cowgill and daughter were reported quite low yesterday.
The roads between this place and Eugene are as bad as ever before seen.
Miss Clara Stewart is talking of going to Gervais to begin dressmaking.
There are several good ranches for sale around Mabel.
Alfred Drury is erecting a woodshed, 20x30 feet, which will soon be completed.
Everything is dull now on the Mohawk. The water is falling but the roads are almost impassable.
Mr. Field's sawmill is not doing much this winter.
The grange at this place did several meetings ago.
Bert Horton has been visiting in this vicinity for the past two weeks from east of the mountains.
Many signs of spring are now plain to be seen.
There is talk of building a woodshed for the school district here this winter, but like everything else, there will have to be about so much trouble before they can settle the matter. There are always a few who never want to be fat and are always saying they don't let it to the lowest bidder and act like men?
You Know Who.

Yesterday morning it was discovered that the prisoners confined in the county jail at Salem, had, with the aid of a very fine saw, nearly severed one of the very large bars of the jail on the north side of the court house. It had evidently been done this morning as the prisoners are confined in their cells at night, which would not allow them this privilege. Sheriff Knight had consented to allow the prisoners the freedom of the large room in the daytime, cautioning them not to attempt any mischief or this privilege would be taken from them. Immediately after the discovery, they took the parties connected with the affair and consigned them to their cells where they will be compelled to rest and repent.

SEVERELY POISONED.—M. S. Barker, of gunworks fame, is a devoted sportsman. While out hunting yesterday in the vicinity of Henderson station he had an experience, however, which will result in his making a huge effort to content himself away from brush and timber for some time. It was a damp day and the wily poison oak was lying in wait. Unaware of what had happened he returned peacefully home, but when he awoke shortly after retiring he realized it. His head and face were swollen all out of proportion, his eyes almost shut, and his elongated mouth, nearly closed and altogether he presents a sorry spectacle. Dr. T. W. Harris, his physician, states that it is one of the worst cases of oak poisoning he has known in his experience.

GOSPEL MEETING.—The gospel meetings at the Christian church are resulting in much good. The membership which is laboring so earnestly for the upbuilding of Christ and his church is being stirred up by the blessed and thus the cause is moving forward. Song and praise service at the usual hours. Preaching at 7:45 by the pastor G. M. Welmer. All are invited to attend these meetings.

WILLIAM EAST.—Rev. E. P. Wilson, formerly pastor of the M. E. church of this city, and afterwards presiding elder of the conference, has resigned the pastorate of the Central Methodist church of Albany, to take effect February 15. A TERRIBLE ACCIDENT.

Expressman R. R. Ryan Has his Leg Cut Off.
Monday's Salem Journal: R. R. Ryan, proprietor of the Willamette stables, met with a terrible accident today as the 1:40 local train came in. He was knocked under the wheels and had his right leg taken off just above the ankle. He is a man 50 years of age. His head and face are also considerably bruised, and he narrowly escaped with his life.
As the 1:40 train pulled in at the passenger depot a truck loaded with baggage was standing at the north end of the platform. R. R. Ryan, who usually assists the baggage men with his truck and baggage, saw that the train would strike it, and made an effort to get it out of the way. Before he had it far enough to clear, the engine struck the truck, throwing the tongue of the same against the engine, thereby knocking Mr. Ryan down and forcing him under the wheels.
In a moment he was pulled out. The train had slowed up when it struck him and now stopped. Mr. Ryan was perfectly conscious. There was no physician at the depot and he sat up on the platform, and with great nerve directed what should be done with his bleeding stump. Later Mr. Ryan became quite weak from loss of blood. A man who saw the whole thing says that if the engineer had been looking out properly he could have saved Mr. Ryan from his terrible fate. He was talking to some one in the engine.
Mr. Ryan came from Kansas here a few years ago. He has been a hard worker, has quite a family dependent upon him, has recently built a large stable on South Commercial street, and has by hard work built up quite a business.

The Revivals.
Daily Guard, Jan. 25.
The gospel meeting at the Christian church continued with increased interest during the past week, and announced for each evening this week. Two baptisms Saturday evening. Song and praise service this evening at 7:15; sermon at 7:45. A cordial invitation is extended to all to attend these meetings.
M. E. CHURCH.
The church was packed yesterday evening. Souls sought and found the Lord, and the church members were generally blessed. The revival goes on with great interest.
There were six meetings held in the city today.
Rev. Gittins is here for another week.

FIRST BAPTIST CHURCH.
Two candidates received the ordinance of baptism at the Baptist revival last evening. A large congregation attended.
Willing to Divide.
Corvallis Gazette: Judge Burnett, attorney for the mortgage, Judges Burdett, McFadden and the retiring attorneys for the county in the suit against the assignee of the Job bank, and Assignee Bryson, have signified their willingness to make arrangements whereby a dividend may be paid to the creditors of the Job bank out of the funds now on deposit in the First National bank. If the board of willingness are realized an order for the disbursement of a 10 per cent. dividend may be expected to be issued by Judge Fullerton at the adjourned term of court that meets February 1. This is of welcome intelligence to many unfortunate whose claims are tied up from the channels of circulation.

Circuit Court.
Daily Guard, Jan. 23.
Decisions in the following cases were entered on record in the clerk's office yesterday:
Thomas Swift, by J. P. Curran, guardian, plaintiff, vs. A. W. Haskell and wife, defendants, order dismissing the case, neither party thereto recovering costs.
C. A. Dolph, Rufus Mallory and Joseph Simon, vs. James Howard and J. E. Nolan, sheriff of Lane county, deamur to plaintiff's complaint, overruled.

HEIR TO $8,000. Today's Salem Statesman: Yesterday an attorney from Stockton, Cal., paid a visit to Salem for the purpose of interviewing a convict in the state prison here. The convict is A. Burton Fuller, who came a few weeks ago from Multnomah county to
