Of Des Moines, Iowa, writes under date of March 23, 1893.

S. B. MED. MFG. CO., Dufur, Oregon.

GENTLEMEN: On arriving home last week, I found all well and anxiously waiting. Our little girl, eight and one-half years old, who had wasted away to 38 pounds, is now well, strong and vigorous, and well fleshed up. S. B. Cough Cure has done its work well. Both of the children like it. Your S. B. Cough Cure has cured and kept away all heartiness from me. So give it to every one, with greetings for all. Wishing you prosperity, we are,

Yours, MR. AND MRS. J. F. FORD.

Judge Fullerton Denies.

Eugene Journal: We have received the following letter from Judge Fullerton, dated at Roseburg, Or., Jan. 27, 1894.

In the State Journal of Jan. 27, I find an article headed, "The Oregon Pacific and Judge Fullerton." This was called out by something in the Capital Journal a few days prior.

"The facts are that the article in the Salem papers as it refers to me is untrue and unjust. I have not allowed any extravagant attorneys' fee. I have only allowed during the year and a half that I have had charge of the Oregon Pacific matter as judge of the court, $2,000 as fees to attorneys, and the further sum of $1,000 on account of expenses of attorneys. The receiver did allow his attorneys something more in addition on account of expenses, but it was not allowed on order of the court, and his accounts have not been approved by the court.

"These are the simple facts in the case, and if you feel like giving the case to the public, I would be glad to have you do so."

THE EDITORS.—Portland Daily Telegram: Secretary J. M. Page, of the National Editorial Association, has announced that July 2nd is the date and Ashbury Park, N. J., the place for holding the next annual meeting. Oregon is entitled to ten delegates, and there are 27 applications on file for the honor. Ira L. Campbell, president of the Oregon Editorial Association, has the appointment of the delegates. The Oregon delegation will consist of James B. Eddy for president of the national body. Mr. Eddy now holds the position of first vice president, and, as journalists as a rule believe in promotion in office, his chances are very good for first place.

Belly Guard, Feb. 6.

A FAIRSHOOTS.—The Oregonian, Washington correspondent today is guilty of the following falsehood: "Veatch, who has been selected for register at Roseburg, is said here to be a Penoyer man." Any politician knows that R. M. Veatch has a very poor opinion of Oregon's crank governor. In fact they are not upon speaking terms.
