

The Third Death Resulting From The Madman's Shots.

David H. Coleman, who was shot twice by Grant Moss last Thursday evening, died from the effects of his wounds last night at 10:45 o'clock.

Decayed was born in Hamilton, Ohio, April 10, 1833. He arrived in Oregon with his father's family in 1853. On October 8, 1856, he was married to Sarah A. Crow, in Lane county.

FRIDAY, MARCH 2.

Hon. E. P. Coleman is in Eugene. A few flakes of snow fell last night.

Asteria is going to have another daily paper.

How about that pennant for the steamer Eugene?

Marshal Eastland is able to be about the streets again.

Judge Fullerton has returned from a trip to San Francisco.

The Florida jury found Corbett, the prize fighter, not guilty.

The Junction City public school closes in one week more.

Chas. Mayhew and wife have returned home from Roseburg.

Hon. M. A. Miller returned to his home at Lebanon this morning.

President Chapman went to Salem this morning on the local train.

Mrs. A. L. Stearns, of Portland, is visiting with her sister, Mrs. D. V. Pezra.

Mrs. Frank Crow has returned to her Albany home after quite a visit in this city.

Jen Hawk, the Chinese lecturer, arrived on this afternoon's train from Portland.

H. R. Kincaid, editor of the Journal, has returned home from points down the valley.

A fair house witnessed the repetition of "Better than Gold" at the opera house last evening.

Bayard Handy, well known here, is in Roseburg. He claims to be an artist on wood cuts.

Only one county in Oregon has more voting precincts than Lane's 39, which is Multnomah with 120.

Deputy County Clerk Sherwood Burr returned home this afternoon from a six weeks' visit to Nebraska.

Postmistresses appointed yesterday: Mrs. A. J. Bagley, at Summer Lake, Lake county, and Lucia J. Hunt, at Tillamook, Tillamook county.

The diamond pin advertised for by E. Bangs was found by a lady on Pearl street, but was not returned as she claimed she afterwards lost it.

Fred Marshall, a 11-year-old Roseburg boy, was fined $40 and given 10 days in jail besides for being a girl about the same age while going home from school.

A. B. Slason telegraphs from Washington to the Post-Intelligencer of Seattle, Wash., that Stagg is to be retained as receiver of the Oregon National bank at Portland.

The Oregon Pacific steamer leaves San Francisco on the 7th. Freight for Eugene can be expediently brought through by the river steamer Eugene which leaves Portland for this point on the 12th.

Corvallis Times: The rigid economy of Receiver Clark has caused the official head of W. T. Braggins to roll into the waste basket. The expenses of the road, it is said, will be $1000 less than the expenses for January.

Misses Angie Patterson, Jessie McCung, Estella and Etta Learned went to Portland this morning. They are delegates to the Salem district Epworth League which meets in McMinnville next Tuesday. Miss Myra Norris is also a delegate, and she will go to the above last named town Monday.

The following, concerning a young man well known in Eugene, we take from the Corvallis Times of yesterday: Gifford Nash after an absence of four years in Europe, is expected to arrive home next Monday or Tuesday. He comes via the Canadian Pacific, and was last heard from at Halifax.

J. A. Taskum, of Marshfield, has made accurate figures on his yield of milk from 31 cows of this season and the Mail says the report shows that he realized $34.54 from each cow, besides using $100 worth of butter in the family, and $50 worth of calves, and he has 11 fine heifer calves out of this year in his herd. This will show the value of blooded stock.

The upper river must be in very bad condition according to this statement made by the Corvallis Times: The river between Corvallis and Harrisburg is in a desperately bad condition for navigation. The numerous floods this winter have lodged so many snags and other obstructions that navigation is said to be dangerous. The Edward barged up her wheel and had to undergo repairs at this place.

Mixed weather.

Dr. Chapman lectured in Portland last night.

The Harrisburg opera house has new scenery now.

Over 150 extra GUARDS were sold last evening.

F. L. Chambers intends adding a stock of tinware to his hardware business.

Gen. J. M. Early, the noted confederate, died yesterday at Lynchburg, Va.

It is likely that the telephone system in Eugene will start in with between 50 and 100 phones.

The "Better Than Gold" company are contemplating producing that drama at Junction next Saturday.

Chas. Hughes, who was for years county clerk of Josephine county, recently died at Grant's Pass.

The legal controversy over the Harrisburg ditch has been compromised and work will be resumed at once to complete the same.

The Adventists at Millon, Oregon, are making preparations for the end of the world, which they say will come in the near future.

The Electric Light Co. have ordered a car load of coal for fuel. They have burned up all the seasoned wood suitable for steam that could be secured.

Ben and Nez Owen will plant 25 acres of hops this season. Wiltz and Ad Owen will plant a similar amount. The yards are in the Coyote and Spencer creek bottoms.

A Monmouth correspondent to the Harrisburg Courier says: The delegates sent from this school were delighted with their trip to Eugene and claim to have been highly entertained.

Rev. J. McCormack declines to run for state senator in Clatsop county on the populist ticket, and signs himself "Chaplain to Sailors and Fishermen." Mr. McCormack in an early day resided in Eugene.

A San Francisco dispatch says that it is stated that T. Egerton Hogg, formerly receiver of the Oregon Pacific, is in the city with a view of obtaining control of the road and its steamship connections. The same old story.

Salem Daily Independent: The fearful murder affair which took place at Eugene is enough to strike terror into the hearts of every quiet family. Nobody can feel perfectly secure, even in their own homes.

Albany Democrat: Lionel Stagg will not down. He has been given the position of business manager of the Telegram, the paper that recently exposed his old life in connection with his receivership of the Oregon bank. This is a very funny world indeed.

Sheriff Kelly, of Multnomah county, has to raise a $500,000 bond as tax collector. He prepared a bond that is unique in design. He takes bondsmen who can qualify in sums of $1000 and upwards. His bond will be a kind of a second edition of the assessment roll.

The contract for grading High street from the south line of Fourth street to the north line of Fifth street has been let to R. Garrison for 161 cents per yard, amounting in the aggregate to $219. The gravel will be furnished by L. Simon at 20 cents per yard. The entire improvement will cost less than $550.

Wednesday Pendleton E. O.: Mr. and Mrs. E. L. Schell departed Tuesday evening for Eugene, Oregon. Mr. Schell has been until recently in the employ of the Pendleton Electric Light & Power Company as trimmer and fireman. He owns a residence in Eugene, and finds it advantageous to go there to await an opening in a business way.

Easter this year comes on the 25th of March, earlier than it has been before for a good many years. In the year 1868, Easter Sunday was on the 28th of March, and that was the earliest for more than 50 years before. It can never be earlier than March 24, and it has only been that early once in one hundred years. This indicates an early spring.

The Salem Daily Independent of yesterday has the following concerning a young lady who formerly attended the University here: "Miss Ella Arbegast arrived in Salem last evening and will remain for a few days visiting. About the 27th of March she will appear before a Salem audience with a select concert company, as the prima donna.

Rev. J. E. Blair, formerly pastor of the Cumberland Presbyterian church at Salem, has severed his connection with that body and accepted an invitation from the Presbyterian church at Newport, Oregon, to take charge of that church. He will unite with the Presbytery at its next session, at Corvallis. He is a brother of Rev. G. A. Blair, of Eugene, and a son of Rev. Blair, who ministered to the C. P. church at Woodburn two years ago.

Salem Independent: "Stranger, will you help me out?" he said, as a figure approached him in the darkness on State street last night. "I am out of work, my money has run out, my fire's out at home, my children are out of bread, my pants are out, I am worn out and my wife's out. Will you please help me out?" "My friend," was the reply of the Salem young man, "I'll admit you are badly out, and I would hate to be the means of putting you out any more, but the fact is I've been shooting craps, and I'm about as much out as you are."

A Man Blown to Pieces. GIBBSTOWN, N. J., March 2.—An explosion so severe that it was felt 15 miles away occurred in one of the buildings of the Sepano Chemical Company this morning, demolishing the building, damaging the surrounding structures, and blowing Levi Evans, the only person in the building, to atoms.

A Hopeless Case. PORTLAND, Or., March 2.—Ex-Chief of Police J. H. Lappens, who was stricken with paralysis about eight months ago, since which time he has been almost speechless, was supposed to be sinking fast a few days ago, but rallied. His condition, however, is a very precarious one, and it will be a question of a short time only when death shall relieve his sufferings.

To Learn a Trade. SING SING, N. Y., March 2.—Boss McKane was put into a tailor shop this morning to learn a trade.

Cottage Grove Items.

Leader, March 3. Herbert Fakin left Monday for the mid-winter fair in San Francisco.

Miss Joe Dameswood presented her husband with a fine boy February 28.

We learn that the Annie mine has stopped running until spring for the want of wood.

Ben Lurch returned from San Francisco Wednesday morning, having taken in the mid-winter fair.

Dr. Wall cut a tumor from Eihanon C. Veitch's neck, Wednesday, Feb. 28, about the size of a hen egg.

John S. Martin, of Kansas, arrived here Wednesday. He is a brother of Mrs. Knowlton and Thomas Martin, of Creswell. It has been twenty years since he last saw his sister and forty years since seeing his brother last.

25,000 railroad ties were placed near the railroad track at the neighboring city of Lathum, Tuesday. They were floated down the river in three days, from J. B. House's mill—the most rapid and successful run ever made down the river.

There was a party at W. P. Lockwood's Friday evening, February 23, in honor of Miss Dora Dickinson's birthday. Refreshments were served at 11 o'clock and every one enjoyed a very pleasant evening, considering every feature a grand success.

The engagement is announced of a Chinese merchant of Umattila to a dusky maiden of the Umattila Indian tribe.

Junction City Items.

Times, March 3. A Eugene butcher was here this week looking after fat stock.

A. J. Thompson, of Eugene, was shaking hands with friends here last Wednesday.

It is not generally known but Junction City has an anti-slavery society with quite a large membership. Its name indicates its mission.

Emmet Butler has had his household goods removed to Portland where he will remain until another change is made.

"Pat" Blew, who has been at Colton, Washington, for the past two years, is home on a visit. That country must certainly agree with him as he is the very picture of health.

Marvin Smith left Wednesday morning for Heppner. His family is still here but will remove to that place as soon as the necessary arrangements can be made.

Prof. Orton's little boy had one of his fingers nipped in the handle of a sewing machine Tuesday. The whole nail was torn from the finger. It was a very painful wound.

Rev. Haynes expects to leave next month for Memphis, Tennessee, to attend the national conference of the M. E. church, south. He and E. R. Skippworth, of Eugene, are delegates from this county.

Wants Her Daughter.

ST. PAUL, Minn., March 2.—A sensational suit was brought in the district court yesterday afternoon. Mrs. Manette, mother of Mrs. George Van Auker, has had issued a writ of habeas corpus to compel Mrs. Charlotte Van Auker, mother of George R. Van Auker, to produce the latter's wife.

The complaint states that Mrs. Manette is unable to see her daughter, and that the latter is restrained of her liberty. The latter is restrained of her liberty. Three years ago George Van Auker married Lillie Agnes Manette, a pretty French girl. It was a runaway match and not approved of by Van Auker's mother. At the time Van Auker was 16 and Miss Manette was 15. Van Auker was heir to a large fortune which was in charge of his mother during his minority. Mrs. Manette states in her complaint that one afternoon after dinner at a hotel in St. Paul, Mrs. Van Auker hurried her daughter from the room and said she was insane. Later Mrs. Manette tried to see her daughter but was refused admittance. This was one week ago. The next day Mrs. Manette saw her child, who looked ill, and said she had been kept a prisoner. Lillie has been taken out of the city, it is supposed to Hudson, and Mrs. Manette has not seen her.

A Conspiracy to Defraud. QUEBEC, March 2.—A big conspiracy to defraud the United States revenue has been discovered here and in New York. Goods shipped from England in bond to New York for transhipment in duplicate boxes and bearing all the foreign marks, filled with cheap domestic goods substituted, were forwarded to fictitious Canadian firms, and the imported goods kept in New York and sold. About 40 cases are in the warehouse here unclaimed.

Went Down an Embankment. WILKESBARRE, March 2.—A car on the narrow-gauge railway, running between the little village of Merriam-ique and the coal mines of the West End Coal Company, collided with miners going to their work, and went down an embankment today. Four were fatally injured and several dangerously hurt.

Mrs. Rockwell Is Dead. PITTSBURG, March 2.—Mrs. Louise Rockwell, the actress shot by Pitcher McNabb Wednesday night at the Hotel Eiffel, died this morning. Her husband was notified yesterday and left California for this city at once. McNabb's body was shipped to his old home at Mount Vernon, O., last evening.

A Man Blown to Pieces. GIBBSTOWN, N. J., March 2.—An explosion so severe that it was felt 15 miles away occurred in one of the buildings of the Sepano Chemical Company this morning, demolishing the building, damaging the surrounding structures, and blowing Levi Evans, the only person in the building, to atoms.

A Hopeless Case. PORTLAND, Or., March 2.—Ex-Chief of Police J. H. Lappens, who was stricken with paralysis about eight months ago, since which time he has been almost speechless, was supposed to be sinking fast a few days ago, but rallied. His condition, however, is a very precarious one, and it will be a question of a short time only when death shall relieve his sufferings.

To Learn a Trade. SING SING, N. Y., March 2.—Boss McKane was put into a tailor shop this morning to learn a trade.

Chicago Rivaling the Empire City.

New York, March 1.—After signing the "greater New York" bill, Governor Flower said: "This act is one of the most gratifying in my whole career. Greater New York has been one of the dreams of my life, and I certainly appreciate the privilege of doing what I can to begin the work of consolidation. I have from the day that the project was suggested let it be understood that I was cordially in favor of it. In my sitting assembly, I recommended just such a bill. New York, Brooklyn, Long Island City and adjacent cities and towns are and have been for years practically one. It has been a wonder to me that they have not been consolidated into one grand municipality long ago. Only the North and East rivers divide the territory which it is proposed to annex, and I would not be at all astonished if sooner or later Jersey City and Newark were knocking at the door for admittance. I tell you, gentlemen, New York began to lose prestige when she lost the world's fair. Chicago won here when she captured that fair. I fully realized when in congress what the fair meant to New York. I therefore worked as hard as I could to secure it. Since it went away from us, Chicago and not New York has been making the strides we hoped our own city would make. Chicago has been taking in all the surrounding territory and unless we hurry she, and not New York, will be regarded as the chief city of the republic. We shall not have to annex prairies or vacant lots to keep ahead of our most dangerous rival. We have but to reach out our hand pluck splendid cities and towns. Really, I hope to join with you in forming the greatest municipal city on earth. Consolidation may increase the price of real estate, but experience has demonstrated that with the increase in the price of real estate the tax rate becomes lower, so I think that one of the great advantages of consolidation will be a much lower tax rate not only in New York but in all cities and towns which come into the new city."

Carried by a Good Majority. WASHINGTON, D. C., March 1.—The Bland substitute seigniorage bill carried by 171 to 96. Its provisions are as follows: The first section of the substitute is identical with the first section of the original bill, except that coinage is to proceed as fast as "possible" instead of "practicable." The substitute for the second section is as follows: "After the coinage provided for in this first section, the signiorage remainder of the silver bullion purchased in pursuance of the act of July 14, 1890, shall be coined into legal tender standard silver dollars, as far as possible, and the coin shall be held for the redemption of silver notes issued against such bullion. As far as the bullion shall be coined for redemption, said notes shall not be issued, but shall be cancelled in amounts equal to coin held, derived from the coinage herein provided for, and silver certificates shall be issued on such coin in the manner now provided for by law."

Provided this law shall not be construed to change the existing law relating to the legal tender character or mode of redemption of existing treasury notes under the act of 1890. A sufficient sum is appropriated to carry into effect this act, etc. Voting on the bill then began with Johnson's amendment, providing for gold redemption of silver certificates, which was lost, 71 to 156.

Furious for Battle. CHARLESTON, W. Va., March 1.—Disputes from the scene of last night's fight between striking miners and non-union men in Wyant's Eagle mine say that many of the attacking miners were drunk and clamorous. The attacked men replied with vigor to the assailants' fire. It is said that not more than 100 yards separated them. It is said that three of Wyant's men were killed, but this is contradicted. The Fayette county sheriff was on the ground with 50 deputies, but did not seem able to cope with the rioters, so he called for troops. Wyant's men are furious, it is reported, and are anxious for another battle. A later account says that after last night's conflict the attacking party went to the Montgomery and Haley mines for reinforcements, and returned at 3 a. m., 1500 strong. Wyant's men are strongly entrenched in the mountains. Seven companies of militia are on the ground. At latest accounts the fight had not been renewed.

Excitement still runs high, but no new outbreaks are feared. One dead and six seriously wounded is the official report of last night's affray. Another telegram says the rioters are only waiting the withdrawal of the troops before making another attack.

Roosevelt Is After Carlisle. WASHINGTON, March 1.—In response to a resolution, the civil service commission transmitted to the senate a statement of the various alleged violations of the civil service law since March 4, 1889, by officers appointed by the president. The feature of the report is an attack on Secretary Carlisle and the treasury department for wholesale violations of the civil service requirements. Commissioner Roosevelt cites the case of a certain clerk dismissed from the treasury department for political reasons, and says when his attention was called to the fact that Carlisle took the position that it was not a violation of the civil service law to remove a man for political reasons, Roosevelt, therefore, recommends the matter be brought to the attention of the president.

Reinstated. PORTLAND, Mar. 1.—Customs Inspectors Andrews and Chambers, who were suspended January 15 by Collector Black, on account of the escape of a Chinese passenger from the Signal, have been reinstated by the department's recommendation. Mr. Black, it having been found on investigation that they were not to blame for the escape of the Chinese. It appears that one of the Chinese who was not allowed to land induced another one of the Chinese who wanted to go away to take his place on the vessel, and he having got ashore could no more be found.

Ex-Governor Downey Dead. LOS ANGELES, March 1.—Ex-Governor John G. Downey died at his home in this city today. He has been suffering from a gripe several days past. Doctors thought there was no danger last night, but a sudden change this morning soon carried him off.

Our New Magazine Title.

WASHINGTON, March 2.—General Tagler, chief of ordnance, will issue his first installment of the Krag-Jorgensen magazine rifle to the Second infantry, stationed at Omaha; the second lot to the Fourth infantry, at Fort Sherman, Idaho. For months he has been working at Springfield, Mass., has been working on the rifles, and parts for nearly 600 have been completed and are now sitting assembled. The first issue is expected to be made this month; after that the armory will be able to equip two regiments monthly, thus retiring from army use all of the old Springfields in about a year from date. With the new rifles will go a supply of smokeless powder ammunition.

A Mob Held at Bay. SCRANTON, Pa., March 2.—A mob attempted to force the jail at Stroudsburg this morning, for the purpose of yanking Richard Prior, the negro who a week ago murdered Christian Eiders, a storekeeper. The mob was held at bay until the police appeared, when it retired.

Killed by a Convict. TRENTON, N. J., March 2.—Joseph Valtwitz alias Malwitz, a convict in his state prison, attempted to escape today. He cut his way out of his cell, secured a revolver and shot one of his keepers dead. He was finally overpowered and lodged in a cell.

Confessed to Other Crimes. BARBOURVILLE, Ky., March 2.—It is reported from Harlan county that Gen. Frye, the negro who murdered Miss Bryant, near Williamsburg, a year ago, recently returned, kidnaped a farmer's daughter and kept her sequestered in the woods until discovered by hunters. They waited for his return and proceeded to skin him alive. Before he was dead the girl built a fire at his head and he was roasted alive. It is said he confessed to the murder of Miss Bryant and to the kidnaping of three other girls in Kentucky and Tennessee, keeping them sequestered until they died of ill-treatment and exposure.

Fire at Medford. MEDFORD, Or., March 2.—About 2 o'clock this morning fire broke out in the rear of A. Fettes' tailoring establishment on Front street. Before the flames could be controlled the building with its contents was entirely destroyed, and several other buildings were destroyed and damaged. The fire is supposed to have started from a defective line. The loss is about $3,000, with $700 insurance. The Hotel Medford was damaged to some extent.

A Big Dice Game. HELENA, March 3.—Miles Finlen recently won $35,000 in a game of dice. A short time since General C. S. Warren secured an option on a mining claim for $15,000. Today Finlen offered him $10,000 for his bargain, or $25,000 for the mine. Warren demanded $50,000.

Finlen proposed a dice game whether he take the option off Warren's hands at $15,000 or pay him $50,000. Warren agreed. He threw a pair of fives and Finlen threw three deuces and won $35,000.

Congressman Wilson Convinced. CITY OF MEXICO, March 2.—Congressman Wilson is at Guadalajara, and is recovering satisfactorily. The attack of typhoid fever has left him. He needs only nourishing and rest. The doctors say after 10 or 14 days' convalescence he can start home.

A General Lockout Declared. CINCINNATI, March 1.—Owing to the failure of the coal operators and miners to agree on a reduction of wages to the basis paid in Pennsylvania, the mines in the Ohio district declared a general lockout this morning. In Jackson county alone 4000 miners are shut out. Similar conditions exist in other localities.

Boss McKane Taken to Sing Sing. NEW YORK, March 1.—Judge Barrett, of the court of oyer and terminer, today denied the stay of proceedings for John Y. McKane, of Gravesend, and McKane was then taken to Sing Sing, to begin serving his sentence.

Chairman Wilson Out of Danger. WASHINGTON, March 1.—A telegram was received at the state department this afternoon from Consul-General Crittenden at the City of Mexico, stating that Congressman Wilson was out of danger.

Gladstone's Resignation Certain. LONDON, March 1.—This afternoon Gladstone's private secretary informed the Associated Press that the resignation of the premier cannot long be delayed; that at the audience with the queen yesterday he referred to his increasing difficulties, owing to failing sight, deafness and age, and told her majesty he could not long continue to bear the responsibilities of the premiership.

Warsaw Ind., March 1.—The boiler in Frosely's planing mill exploded, burning the building. Charles Dawson, the superintendent, and Frank Rippey, engineer, were killed, and Fireman Webb and John Freely, the owner, fatally hurt.

Sandbagged and Robbed. DETROIT, March 1.—O. C. Gregory, assistant cashier of Gregory & Son's private bank, was found unconscious in the vault this morning. He had been sandbagged and the vault robbed of several thousand dollars.

Five Rescued Alive. ASHLAND, Pa., March 1.—Five of the seven men imprisoned in the Boson slope mine, Charles Mahar, Elwood Meagle, James Kramer, Lewis White and William Irvine, have been rescued alive uninjured.

Ordered Sold. CORVALLIS, March 2.—The circuit court has ordered the Oregon Pacific railroad sold June 1st; no postponement. Sale will be confirmed if any bid is received.

Both Shot Dead. RALEIGH, N. C., March 2.—At a dance in Madison county last night, Geo. Hensley and W. R. Shelton, jr., quarreled over Hensley's wife and began shooting. Shelton died on the spot. Hensley fled to the woods, and it is supposed died of his wounds.

Paroled in His Old Tricks. SAN FRANCISCO, March 2.—Paroled convict Daniel Boone's trained lions, at the mid-winter fair, broke into a cage occupied by a performing bear this morning, and killed the latter. Parnell is the lion that killed his trainer Carl Thibault, a few weeks ago.

THE NEW STEAMER EUGENE.

The Only Boat Built in the State This Season.

Sunday's Oregonian: The new stern-wheeler Eugene is receiving her finishing touches at the foot of Oak street, and some time the coming week will have her trial trip. Captain E. B. Jones, her owner, deserves considerable credit for having built a steambelt in a season when so many other boats are being tied up. The Eugene is to run on the Upper Willamette at all stages of water. She has been built light, drawing only 14 inches with cargo. It is estimated that she shall carry 100 tons of freight on a draft of two feet. Her full capacity is about 175 tons. Work on this steamer, which is the largest built in the state during the past year, was begun about four months ago at the boatyard of Honnes & Nelson, on the East Side. The new boat is 140 feet long and 29 feet beam. She has the cabin and machinery of the steamer Manzanillo. There are six state rooms for passengers, a dining cabin, smoking room and stoking hall. In all respects the boat is trim and tidy, and she presents a neat appearance as she sits in the water.

The steamer's first trip will be to Eugene, leaving here the 12th inst. On arriving at Eugene, she will be presented with a suit of colors by the business men of that city. It is expected that the population will turn out and give the boat and her builder a royal reception. The people of the upper river have long been waiting for a boat which would accommodate them throughout the year, and have promised enough business to keep such a boat busy. Eugene merchants agreed to build a wharf and warehouse when the right kind of a boat came along, but they want to see the boat first. The Upper Willamette is in good boating condition. The snag boat Corvallis has cleared out the worst obstructions as far up as Eugene, and is now doing some work between Corvallis and Harrisburg. Captain Jones has not yet decided who will be master of the Eugene. R. Montgomery, who put in the machinery, will go as engineer.

populist Primaries.

North Eugene, No. 3, which is located outside of the city limits elected delegates to the populist county convention as follows: George Patterson, L. B. Rossman, Calvin Stapleton, John Conger.

As this is one of the strong populist precincts of the county, we give the initiative vote at that place.

For U. S. Senator—Gov. Pennoyer 22, R. P. Boise 5.

Governor—Nathan Pierce 27.

Secretary of State—W. A. Sample 19, Dr. Hendrix 3.

Congressman—T. J. Elliott 27.

Attorney-General—M. L. Olmstead 11, S. B. Smith 11.

Supreme Judge—Boise 17, Gaston 9, State Treasurer—Ira Wakefield 27.

State Printer—Geo. L. Alexander 27.

State Senator—W. H. Spang 27.

Representatives—A. D. Burton 22, Geo. Knowles 22, Jos. Powell 20, Jerry Atkinson 1.

Sheriff—Jas. Calvert 18, H. C. Perkins 5, W. W. Withers 2.

Clerk—W. R. Rohrer 27.

Commissioner—John Conger 27.

School Superintendent—Mrs. Paxton 15, F. M. Horn 9.

No initiative vote was taken for assessor, treasurer, surveyor or coroner.

The four Eugene precincts made the following precinct nominations: For justice of the peace, A. H. Kennedy; constable, L. F. Crow.

The Brazilian insurgents are accommodating. They stopped fighting on the occasion of the presidential election.

Another victim of the Thursday evening tragedy lies dead. The only satisfaction that can be derived from this pitiable occurrence is that the passionate fool and madman who caused all this sorrow is where he can cause no more trouble.

It appears almost certain that Gladstone will soon retire from the premiership of the British empire. The grandest man of the century has withstood the fatigues and labors of eighty-four years, and while his mental faculties are unclouded his sight and hearing are fast failing. He has been active in public life since 1832, when first elected to parliament.

By cholera and other diseases the Mohammedian pilgrimage to Mecca this year cost the lives of more than thirty thousand people in the space of a fortnight. Medieval pilgrimages to Jerusalem were probably the cause of not a few plague epidemics. A Mussulman doctor and employee of the Egyptian government, in a treatise on the pilgrimage, demands, if not its total suppression, at least a considerable modification.

Attorneys in Oklahoma, who make a specialty of securing divorces, are mailing circulars setting forth that "service of summons upon defendant may be made personally or by publication. There is no statute requiring corroborative proof, as in South Dakota." This illustrates forcibly the need of action to prevent the enactment of loose divorce laws by states and territories. South Dakota recently improved its law slightly by lengthening the time of residence required before beginning an action for divorce from three to six months. It is now proudly proclaimed that "Oklahoma territory has been attracting attention as a divorce centre," as its statutes require only ninety days' residence, which was the case in South Dakota before the change made last winter.