SATURDAY, MARCH 17.

HIGH PRIEST OF GOLD.

William E. Gladstone is the worst enemy bimetalism has in the wide world...

Ever since the surprising aptitude for finance he exhibited in his first budget, Gladstone has been the authority.

His school of finance has been that of London investors. Other opinions he has changed, but in money questions he has had a set of rules without variation.

The retirement of the liberal leader from public life may be a gain for international bimetalism. Balfour is an aggressive bimetalist...

Finance and currency are much less partisan in England than in the United States. It cannot be said that an election will bring bimetalism or postpone it.

Multnomah county owes the state about $400,000 of 1892 taxes. Other counties are also behind on their taxes of that year.

Mr. Hanniker Heaton has been gathering some very interesting marriage certificates concerning the custom in vogue in different countries...

Coffee drinkers may be happy that the Brazilian war is over. The berry has dropped in price.

A short term of circuit court. The costs in criminal cases were greater than necessary.

Signs of the revival of trade continue to increase. It is only necessary to peruse the weekly statements of commercial agencies to understand the fact.

The stagnation in the building line is emphasized by the fact that for a $10,000 building for the Oregon blind school there were thirty bidders, nearly all from Portland and Salem.

There is a move all over the country for a reduction of official salaries. In many instances the pay is greatly out of proportion to the labor performed or ability required.

The friends of Senator Dolph view with alarm the rapid growth of the Oregon Bimetallic league. It is a political organization which proposes to work during the coming campaign; and that it will oppose the present senator can be easily seen.

Lord Rosebery, England's new premier, is 47 years of age, and is immensely rich, having married the only child of Baron Rothschild, who brought him a splendid dowry.

Portland had a mysterious tragedy the other day. A man was shot to death in a room, all of the doors of which were fastened, and the police are looking for the murderer among those who were outside at the time of the shooting.

Multnomah county has a number of patriots who are willing to serve the people, and to further their ends organize clubs. There is great competition, especially among the republicans, and already seventy clubs of that persuasion have been organized.

The expressions of pleasure from men of all shades of politics at the news of the convalescence of Chairman Wilson speak volumes for the esteem in which that gentleman is held by all who know him.

Mrs. Hetty Green, the richest and one of the most peculiar women in the United States paid $235.50 taxes this year. Although she is worth probably $50,000,000, in New York state, she has avoided payment on this amount.

BRAZIL RESTS IN PEACE.

The Revolution Ended--Da Gama Surrenders.

RIO JANEIRO, March 14.--At 12 o'clock precisely the bar fortress opened fire upon Fort Villegagnon. In a little while the government forces at Fort Armaco and Fort Aragosta joined in the bombardment.

The Broad-Axe says that the referee in the sheriff's case found "that the facts show that the sheriff has charged and been allowed by the county court constructive mileage."

Among other aspirants for the office of circuit judge of Multnomah county, Sunday's Oregonian mentions the name of Hon. M. L. Pipes. He is an able jurist and would fill the position with honor to himself and to the satisfaction of his constituents.

NEW YORK, March 14.--The following cable is received by the company who fitted out the dynamite cruiser Niebhorst, from Capt. E. C. Baker of that vessel: "Rio, March 14.--Finished in good shape. Baker."

WASHINGTON, March 14.--The house committee on election of president and vice-president has agreed to report Wednesday a bill providing for the election of United States senators by direct vote of the people.

WASHINGTON, March 14.--Dispatches from the son of Chairman Wilson, now in the City of Mexico, are far from reassuring as to the condition of the latter. He is suffering from despondency, the result of his embosomed condition.

Hack and truck signs on sale at the GUARD office.

SILVER BILL PASSES.

WASHINGTON, March 15.--The seigniorage bill has passed the senate by a vote of 41 to 31. It now goes to the president for his action.

JOVIAL JOE BLACKBURN. WASHINGTON, March 14.--Every United States senator found in his mail yesterday a little package of religious tracts, enclosed by a rubber band, and bearing on its face the words: "Compliments of J. S. C. Blackburn." This was the popular Kentucky senator's device for announcing to his associates that he had abandoned forever his old life and entered upon a new and untried existence, as a result of the convicting eloquence of Evangelist Moody, who has been holding revival meetings in Washington for a month.
